MARKING PRINCIPLE

At A2, mark meaning first, then form. A past sentence with the right verb and a small spelling slip ("stoped") is a success with a note. A missing past form ("Yesterday I go") or "didn't went" is the error to correct, because it is the point of the module. American English is the model; British forms (film, flat, shop, on holiday, travelled) are acceptable when a learner uses them.

1.1 • WAS & WERE (C1)

◆ WELCOME BOX – THIS IS ME (OPEN)

Personal; do not mark. Use it with the A1 diagnostic: look for I'm + job/noun with an article (I'm a cook), I like + noun or -ing, I usually + base verb (no -s with I), I can + base verb (not "can to"). A new-identity answer is completely fine.

◆ EXERCISE 1 – WAS OR WERE?

1 was • 2 were • 3 was • 4 were • 5 were (you = always were) • 6 was (my sister = she)

◆ EXERCISE 2 – NEGATIVE, THEN QUESTION

- 1 They weren't at the party. / Were they at the party?
- 2 It wasn't cold yesterday. / Was it cold yesterday?
- 3 You weren't tired. / Were you tired?
- 4 The store wasn't open. / Was the store open?

Also correct: full forms were not / was not. Wrong: "Did they were...?", "They didn't be...", "Was they...?", "The store was not open?" (statement order with a question mark: accept in speech with rising intonation, but not in this exercise).

◆ EXERCISE 3 – LISTEN: HOW WAS YOUR WEEKEND? (SCRIPT 1.1-A)

1 T • 2 F (it was very busy) • 3 T • 4 T • 5 F (she was at her sister's house in the mountains) • 6 T (cold and rainy)

◆ EXERCISE 4 – CIRCLE THE RIGHT WORDS

1 last Monday · 2 two hours ago · 3 yesterday · 4 There were (a lot of people = plural) · 5 There was (a café = one) · 6 Were there (tables = plural)

Watch for: "the last Monday," "ago two hours," "last yesterday." There was a lot of people is heard in casual speech, but teach There were for plurals.

◆ EXERCISE 5 – ABOUT YOU: YESTERDAY (OPEN)

Check: was with I/he/she/it, were with we/they/you, a time or place in each sentence, and an adjective for "how."

Model: At 8 a.m. I was at the bus stop. It was cold. At noon I was at work. I was busy. In the evening I was at home with my kids. We were tired but happy.

◆ SPEAKING – "WHERE WERE THEY?" INFORMATION GAP (CLASSROOM MATERIALS)

Person	Where on Saturday?	How was it?
1 Lina (A has it)	at the park	sunny and beautiful; there were a lot of families
2 Omar (B has it)	at a restaurant	expensive, but the food was great
3 the Kim family (A)	at the market	very busy; there were a lot of people
4 Mr. Díaz (B)	at the airport	terrible: his flight was late; he was angry
5 Rosa and Ben (A)	at a party	fun; there was a big cake
6 Kofi (B)	at home	boring; he was sick, and there wasn't any food in the fridge

Accept short answers ("the park," "sunny"). Listen for Where was Omar...? (one person) vs Where were Rosa and Ben...? (two). This is the point of the task.

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Choose the correct sentence.

A) They was happy.

B) They were happy.

C) They is happy.

| Why: they takes were. C is present (and wrong: they are).

Q2

"___ you at the meeting?" — "No, I ___."

A) Were ... wasn't

B) Was ... weren't

C) Was ... wasn't

Why: the question uses you → were; the answer uses I → wasn't. The person changes, so the verb changes.

Q3 · new

I was at the doctor's ___.

A) ago two days

B) last two days

C) two days ago

Why: ago comes after a length of time. Last goes before one time word (last Monday), not a number of days. A is a common Spanish/Portuguese transfer (hace dos días).

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (1.1)

"You was / They was..." · "Yesterday I tired." (no be) · "Yesterday I am at home." (present form) · "Did you were...?" · "Yes, I'm." / "Yes, I's." (short answer) · "ago two days" / "the last week" · "It had many people." (for There were) · "I was at home in last weekend." Correct the first four; recast the rest.

1.2 · REGULAR VERBS (-ED) (C2)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — WRITE THE PAST (SPELLING)

1 stopped (double the p) · 2 studied (consonant + y → ied) · 3 lived (ends in -e: + d) · 4 played (vowel + y: + ed) · 5 watched (+ ed) · 6 planned (double the n) · 7 tried (y → ied) · 8 danced (+ d)

Watch for: "stoped," "studyed," "plaid," "planed" (that is a different word!), "tryed," "danceed."

◆ EXERCISE 2 — SORT BY SOUND

/t/ 🐝	/d/ 🐝	/ɪd/ 🐝
cooked · walked · liked · danced	played · arrived · cleaned · called	wanted · visited · needed · started danced is /t/ because the last sound of dance is /s/ (no buzz), even though it ends in the letter e. liked: the last sound is /k/. The spelling fools learners here; the sound decides.

◆ EXERCISE 3 – LISTEN: ROSA'S DAY (SCRIPT 1.2-B) a watched TV	b worked at the hospital	c called her sister	d walked to the market	e cooked dinner	f cleaned the kitchen

6	1	5	2	3	4

◆ EXERCISE 4 – MY DAY YESTERDAY

1 started · 2 called · 3 cooked · 4 watched / studied · 5 stayed · 6 helped / cleaned

When learners read it aloud, listen for started with two beats and cooked, watched, helped with one.

◆ EXERCISE 5 – ABOUT YOU (OPEN)

Check: 6 sentences, every verb in the past with -ed (irregulars like went are fine; they are a bonus), and / then at least twice, one time word. Model: Yesterday I worked in the morning. At lunchtime I called my mother and we talked for twenty minutes. Then I walked to the store. In the evening I cooked rice and chicken. After that, I watched TV and I listened to music. I stayed home all evening.

◆ SPEAKING – PICTURE STORIES (CLASSROOM MATERIALS)

Maria's Saturday (Card A)	Sam's Sunday (Card B)
1 cleaned the kitchen · 2 cooked lunch · 3 called her mother · 4 walked in the park · 5 watched a movie · 6 listened to music	1 played football · 2 visited his grandmother · 3 talked for an hour · 4 danced at a party · 5 studied English · 6 stayed home

On the listener grid, Maria's pictures = kitchen, cook, phone, park, TV, headphones; Sam's = football, grandmother, speech bubble, dance, notebook, house. Success = the listener's numbers match. The six "other" pictures are the partner's own story, so nothing is left over at the end.

◆ -ED SOUND SORT CARDS (CLASSROOM MATERIALS)

/t/	/d/	/ɪd/
worked · watched · cooked · walked · talked · finished · stopped · danced	played · studied · cleaned · listened · arrived · stayed · called · lived	started · wanted · visited · needed · waited · decided · painted · ended

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

What is the past of study?

A) studyed

B) studied

C) studdied

Why: consonant (d) + y → change y to -ied. We don't double the d.

Q2

Which verb has an extra beat (/ɪd/)?

A) worked

B) played

C) wanted

Why: want ends in a t sound, so we add a syllable: want-ed. Worked and played stay one beat.

Q3 · new

Which verb ends with a /t/ sound?

A) played

B) cleaned

C) watched

Why: watch ends in /tʃ/, a sound with no buzz, so the ending is /t/. Play (vowel) and clean (n) are voiced → /d/.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (1.2)

"work-ed / play-ed" (extra syllable) · "Yesterday I walk to the park." (no ending) · "She workeds." · "studied / plained / stoped" · "wanted" said as one syllable "want" · "I didn't worked" (early use of didn't: note it for C3) · played / prayed (l/r). The first two matter most for being understood.

1.3 · IRREGULAR VERBS, DIDN'T & DID...? (C3)

◆ EXERCISE 1 – WRITE THE PAST FORM

1 went · 2 saw · 3 bought · 4 took · 5 ate · 6 thought · 7 gave · 8 told · 9 made · 10 drank · 11 met · 12 wrote

Watch for: "bayed/boughted," "brought" for bought, "taked," "eated," "thinked," "drinked/drunk," "writed." A regularized form ("goed") shows the learner knows the rule. Praise that, then give the form.

◆ EXERCISE 2 – MAKE IT "NO"

- 1 She didn't have breakfast.
- 2 They didn't go to the beach.
- 3 We didn't watch TV.
- 4 He didn't buy a ticket.
- 5 I didn't eat lunch at work.

Also correct: did not. Wrong: "didn't had," "didn't went," "didn't watched," "doesn't buy" (present), "wasn't eat."

◆ EXERCISE 3 – DID-QUESTIONS

a.

- 1 Did they see the show?
- 2 Did she make dinner?
- 3 Did you meet your friend?
- 4 Did he read the email?
- 5 Did you take the bus?

b. (Script 1.3-B) Personal answers. Correct form: Yes, I did. / No, I didn't. For question 5 (What did you eat...?) a short answer is fine: "Rice and fish." / "I ate rice and fish." Wrong: "Yes, I ate." · "No, I didn't eat." (acceptable but long) · "Yes, I do."

◆ EXERCISE 4 – LISTEN: MARKET DAY (SCRIPT 1.3-A)

1 T · 2 F (they took the bus) · 3 T · 4 F (Dina didn't buy anything) · 5 F (at a small restaurant) · 6 T

Stretch corrections: They didn't take a taxi. · Dina didn't buy any fruit. · They didn't eat lunch at home.

◆ EXERCISE 5 – WORD ORDER + WAS/WERE OR DID?

1 What did you do last weekend? · 2 Where did they go? · 3 Who did you meet? · 4 Were (be + at home) · 5 Did (action verb go) · 6 Were (be + tired)

Also correct for 1: Last weekend, what did you do? Wrong: "What you did...?", "Where they went?", "Who you met?"

◆ SPEAKING – WEEKEND MINGLE + ONE-MINUTE STORY (OPEN)

Mingle notes can be 2–3 words. In the report, check: he/she + past verb ("She went...", not "She goes / She go"), one didn't + base. Story checklist (from the online lesson): 5+ past verbs; regular and irregular; one didn't + base; one did-question answered. Model: Last summer I went to the lake with my cousins. We took an early bus and arrived at nine.

The weather was perfect. We swam, and we ate chicken and rice under a tree. I didn't bring a hat, so my face was very red! Did we have a good time? Yes, we did.

◆ IRREGULAR-VERB MEMORY GAME (CLASSROOM MATERIALS)

Main 16 pairs: go–went · have–had · do–did · see–saw · get–got · make–made · come–came · take–took · eat–ate · drink–drank · buy–bought · give–gave · find–found · meet–met · write–wrote · think–thought. Bonus 4: know–knew · say–said · tell–told · read–read.

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

What is the past of buy?

A) buyed

B) bought

C) boughted

| Why: buy is irregular: bought, with no -ed. It rhymes with thought and caught.

Q2

Choose the correct sentence.

A) I didn't went to work.

B) I didn't go to work.

C) I wasn't go to work.

| Why: didn't already shows the past, so the main verb is the base: go. C mixes be with an action verb.

Q3 · new

Choose the correct question.

A) Did you at home last night?

B) Were you at home last night?

C) Did you were at home last night?

| Why: "at home" needs the verb be, and be makes its own question: Were you...? A has no main verb; C puts did with be. (Did you stay home? would also be correct.)

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (1.3)

"I didn't went." · "Did you went / bought...?" · "What you did yesterday?" · "You went to the party?" (no did; OK in casual speech with rising intonation, but teach Did...?) · "Did he was there?" · "Yes, I went." (short answer) · "I goed / buyed / eated." · "Went to the park." (no subject) · bought / brought confusion · read past said /rid/.
Correct the first three in controlled work; note the rest for feedback.

Module 2 — Describing & Comparing: Answers

Answers to every Module 2 workbook exercise and self-check question, with the "why," acceptable alternatives, the classroom-materials answers (city and phone information gaps, superlatives quiz, countable/uncountable sort, kitchen-cupboard information gap, listen-and-stand), and the errors you can expect to hear most.

Lessons 2.1–2.3

Classes C4–C6

9 self-check items

17 exercises

MARKING PRINCIPLE

At A2, mark meaning and form, and be generous with spelling while it is new. "Biger" in a correct comparative sentence is a spelling note, not a wrong answer. "More cheaper" is a grammar error: mark it. American English is the model; British forms (further for distance, flat, autumn, the cinema, film, pounds) are acceptable when a learner uses them.

2.1 • COMPARATIVES & SUPERLATIVES (C4)

◆ EXERCISE 1 – WRITE THE TWO FORMS

Word	Compare two	Number one	Rule
1. big	bigger	the biggest	double the g
2. nice	nicer	the nicest	ends in -e: add -r / -st
3. happy	happier	the happiest	y → i
4. expensive	more expensive	the most expensive	long word
5. hot	hotter	the hottest	double the t
6. easy	easier	the easiest	y → i
7. beautiful	more beautiful	the most beautiful	long word
8. good	better	the best	irregular
9. bad	worse	the worst	irregular

The superlative column must have the. Without it = half a mark / a note. Watch for: "biger," "nicer" spelled "niceer," "happyer," "more happy" (accepted in speech by some native speakers, but teach happier), "gooder," "baddest."

◆ EXERCISE 2 – THAN OR THE?

1 than · 2 the · 3 than · 4 the · 5 than · 6 the Tip for learners: -er or more before the gap → than. -est or best after the gap → the. Wrong: "then" in 1, 3, 5 (spelling; mark it, and teach than = compare, then = next).

◆ EXERCISE 3 – LISTEN AND COMPLETE (SCRIPT 2.1-A)

1 the cheapest · 2 more expensive (than the pizza place) · 3 much better · 4 the best (food in the area) · 5 the most expensive · 6 farther away · 7 cheaper. They go to the Thai restaurant.

Accept further in 6 (the online lesson uses it). If a learner writes "the most cheap," the listening is right but the form isn't: go back to the syllable test.

◆ EXERCISE 4 – FIX THE MISTAKE

- 1 This bag is cheaper than that one. (one form only: no more)
- 2 Tokyo is the biggest city in Japan. (short word: -est, double the g)
- 3 My new job is better than my old one. (irregular: no more)
- 4 A plane is faster than a car. (than, not then)
- 5 This is the hottest day of the year. (short word: -est, double the t)

Also accept 2 "Tokyo is the largest city in Japan." Watch for learners who fix one thing and add a new error: "the most biggest."

◆ EXERCISE 5 – THREE CAFÉS

1 cheaper · 2 the oldest · 3 newer · 4 the best · 5 more expensive · 6 the farthest (or the furthest)

Two more sentences (open). Any true sentence from the table is correct. Models: Café Sol is the cheapest café. The Corner is the most expensive. Bean House is the newest. Bean House is the closest / nearest to school. Café Sol is closer than The Corner. Bean House is better than Café Sol. Café Sol is not as good as The Corner. Check that the fact matches the table: "The Corner is the cheapest" is good grammar but wrong information.

◆ SPEAKING – COMPARE THREE THINGS (OPEN)

Success = 4 comparatives with than (one -er and one more) and 2 superlatives with the, no mixed forms. Model (the three city cards): Port Mara is bigger than Greenfield. Greenfield is cheaper than Port Mara. Lake Sora is hotter than Greenfield. Port Mara is more expensive than Lake Sora. Port Mara is the oldest city. Greenfield has the most parks.

◆ COMPARE TWO CITIES – INFORMATION GAP (MATERIALS SET B1)

	Port Mara	Greenfield
people	850,000	120,000
an apartment (a month)	$1,400	$950

a bus ticket	$2.50	$1.75
summer temperature	84°F (29°C)	75°F (24°C)
age of the city	300 years	150 years
parks	12	20
to the airport	22 miles (35 km)	56 miles (90 km)
universities	3	1

Model comparatives: Port Mara is bigger than Greenfield. Greenfield is smaller / cheaper than Port Mara. Port Mara is more expensive than Greenfield. Port Mara is hotter in summer. Greenfield is cooler. Port Mara is older than Greenfield. Greenfield is newer. The airport is closer to Port Mara / farther from Greenfield. Greenfield has more parks. Port Mara has more universities. Stretch: Greenfield is not as expensive as Port Mara. "Which city is better for...?" Any answer with a reason is right: e.g. "Greenfield is better for a family. It's cheaper, and it has more parks." / "Port Mara is better for a student. It has more universities."

◆ THREE PHONES – INFORMATION GAP SET 2 (MATERIALS SET B2)

	Zeta S	Nova 5	Orion Max
price	$199	$449	$899
screen	6.1 inches	6.4 inches	6.9 inches battery	18 hours	24 hours	30 hours camera	★★★	★★★★	★★★★★
weight	170 g (6 oz)	185 g (6.5 oz)	225 g (8 oz)
year	2023	2025	2026

Model superlatives: The Zeta S is the cheapest / the lightest / the oldest. It has the smallest screen. The Orion Max is the most expensive / the heaviest / the newest. It has the biggest screen, the best camera and the longest battery. The Nova 5 is cheaper than the Orion Max but more expensive than the Zeta S. "Which phone is best for you?" is open: accept any reason.

◆ CLASS SUPERLATIVES QUIZ (MATERIALS SET C)

Round 1: 1 B the Pacific · 2 C Everest · 3 A the cheetah · 4 B the blue whale · 5 B Venus (the trick! Mercury is closer to the sun, but Venus is hotter) · 6 C Russia · 7 B India (since 2023; China is second) · 8 C Antarctica.

Bonus: 9 light ("Light is faster than sound.") · 10 neither: "A kilo of rice is as heavy as a kilo of feathers!"

Bonus point = a correct full sentence: "The Pacific is the biggest ocean." "The cheetah is the fastest land animal." Accept "the most big" as the right fact but no sentence point. Round 2 (class records) has no fixed answers: the team with the most correct guesses wins.

◆ SCRIPT 2.1-B – COMPARATIVE DICTATION (OPTIONAL)

1 The train is faster than the bus. · 2 My phone is cheaper than your phone. · 3 This is the biggest supermarket in town. · 4 Winter here is colder than fall. · 5 Her English is better than my English. · 6 It's the most expensive hotel in the city. Mark spelling of the adjective forms and than; ignore small slips elsewhere.

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Choose the correct sentence.

A) This car is more faster than mine.

B) This car is faster than mine.

C) This car is faster then mine.

Why: fast is short, so -er + than. A mixes two forms (more + -er). C uses then (time) instead of than (compare).

Q2

"Of all three restaurants, this one is ____."

A) more expensive

B) the most expensive

C) the most expensivest

Why: three or more → superlative: the most + long adjective. A compares only two. C mixes two forms.

Q3 · new

Choose the correct sentence.

A) This is the worse day of my life.

B) This is the most bad day of my life.

C) This is the worst day of my life.

Why: bad is irregular: bad → worse → the worst. A uses the comparative after the. B treats bad like a long word.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (2.1)

"more cheaper" · "more big" / "more good" · "the most biggest" · "bigger that / bigger of" · "the biggest of the world" · "It is most expensive" (no the) · "He is tall than me" (no -er) · "biger / hoter" · "more better" · "then" for than · "the more expensive" for the superlative. Correct the first five during controlled practice; in the information gap, note them for the feedback stage.

2.2 · QUANTIFIERS — SOME, ANY, MUCH, MANY (C5)

◆ NEW WORDS — C OR U? (THE BOXES)

C: apple, banana, egg, tomato, vegetables. U: rice, bread, milk, water, sugar, cheese, coffee, butter, salt, juice, money.

Note for strong learners: in a café, "two coffees" / "two juices" (= two cups / glasses) is normal. At A2, keep the basic rule: the drink itself is U.

◆ COUNTABLE / UNCOUNTABLE SORT CARDS (MATERIALS SET D)

C: egg, apple, banana, tomato, sandwich, muffin, cup, chair. U: rice, bread, milk, water, sugar, cheese, coffee, salt, butter, juice, money, information, furniture, homework.

The "surprise U" cards: bread, money, information, furniture, homework. Expect groups to put them under C. That is the point: discuss, then fix.

◆ EXERCISE 1 — C OR U?

1 egg	2 water	3 banana	4 rice	5 money	6 tomato
C	U	C	U	U	C
7 cheese	8 bread	9 apple	10 information	11 bottle	12 furniture
U	U	C	U	C	U

The most-missed items: 5 money, 8 bread, 10 information, 12 furniture. Use the containers: a loaf of bread, a piece of information, a piece of furniture.

◆ EXERCISE 2 — SOME OR ANY?

1 some (+) · 2 any (–) · 3 any (?) · 4 some (+) · 5 some (a request: we expect "yes") · 6 any (–)

Item 5 is the trap. "Can I have any water?" is not wrong English in every context, but it sounds strange for a polite request: mark it and explain.

◆ EXERCISE 3 — MUCH, MANY OR A LOT OF?

1 many (eggs = C, question) · 2 much (time = U, negative) · 3 a lot of (positive) · 4 much (water = U, question) · 5 many (bananas = C, negative) · 6 a lot of (positive)

Also correct: 2 "a lot of" and 5 "a lot of" (I don't have a lot of time is natural). Wrong: 3 "many" is possible in formal English but not the natural choice here; 6 "much coffee" in a positive sentence sounds unnatural: correct it to a lot of.

◆ EXERCISE 4 – A FEW OR A LITTLE?

1 a little (sugar = U) · 2 a few (apples = C) · 3 a little (cheese = U) · 4 a few (friends = C) · 5 a little (milk = U)

◆ EXERCISE 5 – HOW MUCH OR HOW MANY?

1 How many (eggs) · 2 How much (rice) · 3 How much (price: always how much) · 4 How many (bottles: we count the bottles) · 5 How much (money)

Item 3 is the A1 price question: "How much are the bananas?" asks about money, not the number of bananas. Item 4: water is U, but bottles is C.

◆ EXERCISE 6 – AT THE SHOP (SCRIPT 2.2-A)

a) bread ✓ · tomatoes ✓ · rice ✓ · coffee ✗ · eggs ✗ · milk ✗

b) 1 one (loaf) · 2 a few (accept "four"; the seller counts four) · 3 a small bag · 4 five dollars ($5) · 5 They have a lot of coffee at home.

Eggs and milk are not in the dialogue: learners who tick them are guessing from the topic. Replay the line.

◆ SPEAKING – THE KITCHEN-CUPBOARD INFORMATION GAP (MATERIALS SET E)

Item	Amount	Say
eggs (A)	12	There are a lot of eggs.
milk (B)	½ cup	There's a little milk. / There isn't much milk.
rice (A)	a big bag	There's a lot of rice.
bread (B)	✗	There isn't any bread.
apples (A)	3	There are a few apples.
bananas (B)	✗	There aren't any bananas.
tomatoes (A)	4	There are a few tomatoes.
cheese (B)	a small piece	There's a little cheese.
sugar (A)	a big bag	There's a lot of sugar.
salt (B)	a little	There's a little salt.
butter (A)	✗	There isn't any butter.
juice (B)	2 bottles	There are two bottles of juice.

coffee (A)	a big jar	There's a lot of coffee.
chicken (B)	X	There isn't any chicken.
vegetables (B)	a lot	There are a lot of vegetables.
water (A)	6 bottles	There are six bottles of water. / There's a lot of water.

(A) = the amount is printed on Student A's card; (B) = on Student B's card. Shopping lists: Pancakes (eggs, milk, butter, sugar, bananas) → buy some milk, some butter, a few bananas; we don't need any eggs or sugar. Chicken and rice (chicken, rice, vegetables, tomatoes, salt) → buy some chicken; maybe some salt. Sandwiches and salad (bread, cheese, butter, tomatoes, vegetables) → buy some bread, some butter, some cheese. Accept any list that matches the cupboard, with some / a few / a little used correctly.

◆ SCRIPT 2.2-B – C OR U? DICTATION

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Choose the correct sentence.

A) We don't have some bread.

B) We don't have any bread.

C) We don't have any breads.

Why: negatives take any. C is wrong because bread is uncountable: no plural.

Q2

"How ___ eggs are in the box?"

A) many

B) much

C) a little

Why: eggs are countable, so How many. Much and a little go with uncountable nouns.

Q3 · new

"I take ____ milk in my coffee."

A) a few

B) a little

C) many

Why: milk is uncountable, and it's a small amount: a little. A few and many are for countable nouns.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (2.2)

"a bread" / "some breads" · "informations," "furnitures," "moneys" · "How much eggs?" · "I have much friends" · "There is milk?" (no any) · "We don't have some..." · "a few milk / a little eggs" · "three egg" (no -s) · "I don't have no money." Correct the countable/uncountable errors every time in controlled practice; in the kitchen task, recast and move on.

2.3 · ADVERBS OF FREQUENCY & MANNER (C6)

◆ EXERCISE 1 – PUT THE WORD IN THE RIGHT PLACE

- 1 I always drink tea in the morning. (before the main verb)
- 2 She is never late for class. (after is)
- 3 We sometimes go to the movies. (also correct: Sometimes we go to the movies.)
- 4 He often checks his phone.
- 5 They are usually tired on Mondays. (after are)
- 6 My brother hardly ever cooks.

Accept "the cinema" (British). Wrong: "She never is late," "I drink always tea," "My brother cooks hardly ever" (possible in speech, but teach the middle position), "He often check" (lost -s).

◆ EXERCISE 2 – MAKE THE "HOW?" WORD

1 quickly · 2 slowly · 3 carefully (double l: careful + ly) · 4 easily (y → ily) · 5 happily (y → ily) · 6 simply (-le → -ly) · 7 well (irregular) · 8 fast (no change) · 9 hard (no change)

Watch for: "carefully," "easily," "simply," "goodly," "fastly," and "hardly" for 9. Hardly is a real word but it means "almost not."

◆ EXERCISE 3 – GOOD OR WELL?

1 good (+ noun teacher) · 2 well (how he plays) · 3 well (how they cook) · 4 good (+ noun idea) · 5 well (how he speaks) · 6 good (after is: it describes the soup)

Item 6 surprises learners: after be (and look, feel, taste) we use the adjective. "This soup is well" is wrong. "I feel well" (= not sick) is also correct English, but not part of this lesson.

◆ EXERCISE 4 – LISTEN (SCRIPT 2.3-A)

1 every day · 2 quickly · 3 slowly · 4 hardly ever · 5 twice · 6 three times · 7 fast ... well

◆ EXERCISE 5 – HOW OFTEN DO YOU...? (OPEN)

Answers are personal; check only the form. Good answers: short ("Twice a week.") or full ("I exercise twice a week." / "I usually cook dinner." / "I call my family every day." / "I go to the supermarket once a week."). Wrong: "I exercise two times in week," "I usually am cook," "Always I cook."

◆ EXERCISE 6 – MY WEEK (OPEN)

Look for: 2 frequency adverbs in the right place (before the main verb / after be) and 2 manner adverbs after the verb or verb + object, with well not good. Model: I usually get up at six. I am always hungry at lunch. I drive carefully. I speak English slowly, but I understand well.

◆ HOW OFTEN? SURVEY + ADVERB MIME GAME (MATERIALS SETS F, G)

Survey: no fixed answers. Check the report sentences for the he/she -s and the adverb position: "Ana hardly ever eats fast food." "Jun cooks three times a week." Mime game: the target sentence is present continuous + manner adverb: "You're drinking coffee nervously!" Accept "You drink coffee nervously" for the point, then recast. No point for the adjective form ("You're driving careful").

◆ SCRIPT 2.3-B – LISTEN AND STAND (WORD ORDER)

1 ☒ stand · 2 ☒ sit (I always drink coffee) · 3 ☒ stand · 4 ☒ sit (She is usually late) · 5 ☒ sit (He speaks English well) · 6 ☒ stand · 7 ☒ sit (I never eat meat) · 8 ☒ stand

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Which sentence puts the frequency adverb in the correct place?

A) I drink always coffee.

B) I am always busy in the morning.

C) I always am busy in the morning.

| Why: with be (am), the adverb goes after it. A puts it after a main verb (it must go before). C puts it before am.

Q2

"She dances really ____."

A) well

B) good

C) goodly

Why: the word describes the verb dances, so we need the adverb well. Good is an adjective; goodly is not the adverb of good.

Q3 · new

"I ____ go to the gym. Maybe once a year."

A) always

B) usually

C) hardly ever

Why: once a year is almost never: hardly ever (~10%). Always and usually mean most of the time.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (2.3)

"I drink always coffee" · "She usually is late" · "She speaks very well English" · "I don't never..." · "one time / two times a week" · "She sings good" · "fastly" · "I work hardly" (= almost not!) · "carefully / easily" · "She usually walk" (lost -s) · "Always I..." at the start. Correct word order in controlled practice; let one time a week go in fluency work and recast it.

Classes C7–C9

9 self-check items

15 exercises

MARKING PRINCIPLE

At A2, mark meaning and form together, but be generous about the choice of future. Going to, will and the present continuous overlap a lot in real English. Mark a choice wrong only when it changes the meaning (e.g. might for a fixed plan, or the present simple for an arrangement). A small spelling slip ("studing") is a success with a note. American English is the model; British forms (film, cinema, flat, mum, at the weekend, Shall we...?) are acceptable when a learner uses them.

3.1 • "GOING TO" — PLANS & PREDICTIONS (C7)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — NADIA'S WEEKEND (SCRIPT 3.1-A) visit her aunt	clean the house	see a movie	go shopping	cook	drive	work	go to bed early

✓	✗	✓	✗	✓	✗	✗	✓

Traps in the script: Nadia says "I'm not going to clean the house. I cleaned it last week!" (a past verb, a good A2 contrast), and her brother is going to drive, not Nadia. Spoken follow-up: "She's going to visit her aunt. She isn't going to work."

◆ EXERCISE 2 — MAKE A "GOING TO" SENTENCE

- 1 I'm going to cook dinner tonight.
- 2 She's going to study next week.
- 3 We're going to travel in the summer.
- 4 They're going to move soon.
- 5 He's going to start a new job tomorrow.
- 6 Are you going to call me tonight?

Also correct: full forms (I am going to...); move house (British). Wrong: "She going to study" (no is) · "She's going to studying" · "Do you going to call me?"

◆ EXERCISE 3 – NEGATIVE, THEN QUESTION

- 1 They aren't going to help us. → Are they going to help us?
- 2 You aren't going to call me tonight. → Are you going to call me tonight?
- 3 He isn't going to learn to drive. → Is he going to learn to drive?
- 4 I'm not going to cook tonight. → Are you going to cook tonight?

Also correct: They're not / You're not / He's not going to... (both negative forms are natural). Wrong: "I amn't" · "I'm not going to cooking" · "Is you going to...?"

◆ EXERCISE 4 – PLAN OR PREDICTION?

1 E (you can see the glass) · 2 P · 3 E (gray, windy sky) · 4 P · 5 E (the bus is full) · 6 P.

If a learner argues that 4 is also "evidence" (the wedding is booked), praise the thinking: the key question is "Did someone decide it?" Yes → plan.

◆ EXERCISE 5 – NEXT OR IN? THEN "MY PLANS"

1 next month · 2 in ten minutes · 3 next year · 4 in two days · 5 next Tuesday.

Also correct in 5: on Tuesday (not offered). Wrong: "in next month," "the next year" (for the future from now).

My plans (open). Look for: the right be form, going to + base verb, a time word in each sentence, one negative, one evidence prediction. Model: This weekend I'm going to visit my cousin. We're going to cook together on Saturday. I'm not going to work on Sunday. Next month I'm going to start a computer class. Next year I'm going to learn to drive. Look at the sky: it's going to be a nice day!

◆ SPEAKING – PLANS MINGLE (FIND SOMEONE WHO)

Answers are personal. Check the question form: Are you going to + base verb...? and the short answers Yes, I am. / No, I'm not. In the report stage listen for He's / She's going to... (not "He going to" and not "He's go to").

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Choose the correct sentence.

A) She's going to studying tonight.

B) She's going to study tonight.

C) She's going to to study tonight.

Why: be + going to + base verb. A uses -ing; C has two tos.

Q2

"___ you going to come?" — "No, I'm ___."

A) Are ... not

B) Is ... not

C) Are ... aren't

Why: you takes are; the short "no" with I is I'm not (there is no "I amn't" / "I aren't").

Q3 · new

I'm going to visit my family ___ two weeks.

A) next

B) in

C) on

Why: in + an amount of time counts forward from now. next goes with a time name (next week), not a number.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (3.1)

"I going to travel." (no be) · "She's going to studying." · "I'm going to to go." · "Tomorrow I visit my aunt." (present simple for a plan) · "the next week" / "in next month" · "Is you going to...?" · "Yes, I'm." Correct the first three and the missing be every time; let "gonna" go in speech (but not in writing).

3.2 · "WILL" & "MIGHT" — PREDICTIONS & DECISIONS (C8)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — THE WEATHER FORECAST (SCRIPT 3.2-A)

Day	The weather	Sure or not sure?
Friday	sunny and hot (about 85°F)	will (sure)
Saturday afternoon	cloudy; it might rain	might (not sure)
Sunday	rainy and windy (a storm in the evening)	will (sure)
Monday	cold; it might snow	might (not sure)

Accept pictures (    ) or single words. Accept "cloudy" alone for Saturday if the learner circled might.

◆ EXERCISE 2 — WILL OR WON'T

1 won't · 2 will · 3 won't · 4 will ('ll) · 5 won't.

In 5 the word order is "he probably won't be" (probably before won't, but after will: "he'll probably be"). Stretch point only.

◆ EXERCISE 3 – MIGHT

- 1 We might travel next summer.
- 2 She might be at the meeting.
- 3 They might move to a new city.
- 4 It might not rain.

Also correct: Maybe we'll travel next summer. (same meaning). Wrong: "We might to travel" · "She might is at the meeting" · "It mightn't rain" (rare; accept as British but don't teach it) · "It might won't rain."

◆ EXERCISE 4 – QUICK DECISIONS: MATCH

1 c (I'll get it!) · 2 e (I'll carry it for you.) · 3 a (I'll close the window.) · 4 f (I'll get you some water.) · 5 b (I'll help you after class.) · 6 d (I won't, I promise.)

◆ EXERCISE 5 – WILL OR GOING TO?

- 1 'm going to (a plan decided last week)
- 2 'll (a decision now)
- 3 'll (an offer)
- 4 'm going to (a plan decided this morning)
- 5 'll (a decision now: ordering)

Also acceptable: I'm cooking pasta tonight for 4 (an arrangement; Lesson 3.3). For 1 and 4, "I'll..." is understood but sounds like a new decision; mark it with a note, not as wrong.

◆ SPEAKING – MY 6 PREDICTIONS (OPEN)

Check: will / won't / might + base verb, no to, no -s. Model: Next year I'll speak better English. I think I'll make new friends. I won't forget my first English class. Phones won't have buttons in the future. I might change my job. It might snow in December.

◆ QUICK-DECISION CARDS & CRYSTAL BALL GAME (CLASSROOM MATERIALS)

Quick-decision cards: any I'll... answer that fits is correct. The suggested answers are printed small on each card. The game is open: check the modal + base verb and the die word (1–2 won't, 3–4 might, 5–6 will).

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

"___ you be at the party?" — "No, I ___."

A) Will ... won't

B) Will ... will

C) Do ... won't

Why: questions put will at the front, and the short "no" answer is won't. Do is never used with will.

Q2

You planned this last week: a trip to the beach on Saturday. Which is best?

A) I'll go to the beach on Saturday.

B) I'm going to go to the beach on Saturday.

C) I might go to the beach on Saturday.

Why: a plan decided before now → going to. A sounds like a new decision; C means you are not sure.

Q3 · new

"The phone's ringing!" You decide to answer it now. What do you say?

A) I'm going to get it.

B) I'll get it!

C) I get it.

Why: a decision at the moment of speaking → will ('ll). A is for a plan made before; C (present simple) is not a future here and can mean "I understand."

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (3.2)

"She will comes." · "I will to help you." · "He might to come." · "Maybe I go." · "I will a coffee." (German/Dutch will = want) · "won't" said like "want" · "Yes, I'll." · "Do you will...?" Correct the -s and to after modals every time; treat won't/want as a pronunciation focus, not a grammar error.

3.3 · FUTURE ARRANGEMENTS & SUGGESTIONS (C9)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — NOW OR FUTURE?

1 N (now) · 2 F (tomorrow) · 3 F (on Sunday) · 4 N (at the moment) · 5 F (next month) · 6 N (Shh! = right now).

◆ EXERCISE 2 – WHAT'S IN THE DIARY?

- 1 We're leaving at 6 o'clock.
- 2 She's starting her new job next week.
- 3 I'm not working tomorrow.
- 4 Are you doing anything tonight?
- 5 They're flying to Rome on Friday.

Also correct: full forms (We are leaving...). Going to answers ("We're going to leave at 6") are correct English, but the exercise practices the present continuous: accept with a note. Wrong: "We leave at 6" (for this task) · "I'm not work tomorrow" · "Do you doing anything?"

◆ EXERCISE 3 – SUGGEST IT THREE WAYS

- 1 Let's go to the beach.
- 2 Why don't we go to the beach?
- 3 How about going to the beach?
- 4 Let's have a picnic in the park.
- 5 Why don't we have a picnic in the park?
- 6 How about having a picnic in the park?

Also correct: How about a picnic in the park? (a noun). Wrong: "Let's to go" · "Let's going" · "Why don't we going?" · "How about go?" · "How about to have?"

◆ EXERCISE 4 – MATCH THE INVITATION AND THE REPLY

1 b (a reason for tonight) · 2 c (already has a Saturday plan) · 3 d (busy right now) · 4 a (accepts, asks the time).

Other matches can work too (e.g. 1 → a). Accept any match where the reply fits the time in the invitation. The key point: every "no" has a reason or "Maybe another time."

◆ EXERCISE 5 – LEO AND GRACE (SCRIPT 3.3-A)

- 1 Going to the movies on Friday (evening). (Accept: "see a movie," "the movie theater.")
- 2 She's working late on Friday.
- 3 On Saturday.
- 4 At 11 (eleven o'clock in the morning).
- 5 At the market (at the entrance / the front of the market).

6 At the market (at the food stands).

Why not 9 a.m.? Grace is taking her mom to the doctor at nine. Good listeners may add this.

◆ DIARY INFORMATION GAP (CLASSROOM MATERIALS)

	A is free	B is free
Afternoons	Thursday	Monday · Wednesday · Friday · Sunday
Evenings	Tuesday · Thursday · Saturday · Sunday	Thursday

The only free time for both: Thursday evening. The activity, time and place are the pair's choice. Success = they find Thursday evening, make at least one suggestion with Let's / Why don't we / How about + -ing, and confirm: "So we're meeting on Thursday at seven at..."

◆ SPEAKING – MY WEEK (OPEN)

Check: -ing form in the diary ("meeting Tom," "working"); in speech, am / is / are + -ing + the day. Model: On Monday evening I'm going to English class. On Wednesday afternoon I'm taking my daughter to the park. On Friday I'm working late. On Sunday I'm having lunch with my cousins. (Note: "I'm going to English class" = present continuous of go; praise it.)

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Which is correct after "How about...?"

A) How about go to the park?

B) How about going to the park?

C) How about to go to the park?

| Why: How about takes -ing or a noun. Let's / Why don't we / Shall we take the base verb.

Q2

Choose the plan in your diary (the future).

A) I'm cooking dinner right now.

B) I'm meeting Sara tomorrow at 8.

C) It will probably rain later.

| Why: the time word tomorrow at 8 makes the present continuous a future arrangement. A is now; C is a prediction.

Q3 · new

"Would you like to come to dinner on Friday?" Say "no" politely.

A) No.

B) I'd love to, but I'm working on Friday.

C) No, I don't like.

Why: a polite English "no" shows you want to say yes and gives a reason. A sounds rude; C sounds like you don't like the person or the food (and needs an object: "I don't like it").

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (3.3)

"How about go to the park?" · "Let's to meet at six." · "Why don't we to go?" · "Why you don't come?" · "I meet Sara tomorrow." (for an arrangement) · "Yes, I would like." · "in Friday" · a flat "No." Correct the verb form after the four suggestion patterns every time; model the warm "I'd love to, but..." instead of correcting a direct "no" as a mistake.

Module 4 — Experiences & Advice: Answers

Classes C10–C12

9 self-check items

16 exercises

MARKING PRINCIPLE

At A2, mark meaning and the target form. In 4.1 the target is the tense choice (present perfect with no time, past simple with a time); a spelling slip in a participle ("written") is a note, not a wrong answer. American English is the model; British forms (practise, holiday, centre, mustn't in speech, have got to) are acceptable when a learner uses them. Informal American "Did you ever...?" is real English, but mark the present perfect as the expected answer in written exercises.

4.1 • PRESENT PERFECT — LIFE EXPERIENCES (C10)

◆ EXERCISE 1 – PAST PARTICIPLES

see	eat	go (experience)	write	try	drink	take	ride	meet	break
seen	eaten	been	written	tried	drunk	taken	ridden	met	broken

For go, accept gone with a note: it is a real participle, but for experience we use been. Common slips: "drank" (past, not participle), "writen" (one t), "rided," "brokeed."

◆ EXERCISE 2 – LISTEN TO LINA AND TOM (SCRIPT 4.1-A)

Has Lina ever...?	✓ / ✗	When?
been to another country	✓	2021 (Canada)
seen snow	✓	in 2021 / in Canada / "in the winter"
ridden a horse	✓	when she was twelve eaten sushi	✗	—
met a famous person	✗	—

Listening trap: Tom has eaten sushi (last week), not Lina. Learners who tick sushi heard the right words for the wrong person.

◆ EXERCISE 3 – PRESENT PERFECT OR PAST SIMPLE?

- 1 have visited (no time word: experience)
- 2 visited (last summer = a finished time)
- 3 have never eaten (life up to now)
- 4 saw (on Saturday)
- 5 been (participle after have; went is the past)
- 6 lost (two weeks ago: the switch to past simple)
- 7 broke (in 2020)
- 8 have tried ("I don't remember when": no time, so experience)

◆ EXERCISE 4 – QUESTIONS + FOLLOW-UPS

- 1 Have you ever seen a whale? → Where did you see it?
- 2 Have you ever met a famous person? → Who did you meet?
- 3 Have you ever cooked for ten people? → What did you cook?
- 4 Have you ever ridden a horse? → When did you ride it?

The follow-up uses the base verb after did. Wrong: "Where did you saw it?" "Have you ever see...?" "Did you ever seen...?" "Have ever you...?" (word order).

◆ EXERCISE 5 – BEEN OR GONE?

1 gone (she is at the store now) · 2 been (went and came back, three times) · 3 gone (he is at home, not here) · 4 been (experience).

◆ DIALOGUE – UNDERLINE / CIRCLE (OPEN TASK)

Present perfect: Have you ever been · I've been · Have you ever tried · I haven't · I've never eaten · I've been to Italy · I haven't seen · he's gone. Past simple: did you go · I went · I ate · I saw. The switch: "Wow! When did you go?" The time question moves the talk into the past simple. (He's flying is the present continuous for a future arrangement, from 3.3.)

◆ SPEAKING – INTERVIEW + EXERCISE 6 (OPEN)

Check: Have you ever + participle; a short answer; the detail in the past simple with a time word; never without not.
Model: I've ridden a horse. I've been to Canada. I've cooked for twenty people. I've never broken a bone. I've never seen a whale. Detail: I went to Canada in 2021.

◆ FIND SOMEONE WHO (CLASSROOM MATERIALS, SET B)

Answers are personal. Listen for the pattern in every "yes" box: Have you ever...? → Yes, I have. → When / Where did you...? → I + past simple. Report sentences: Amir has ridden a horse. He rode one in Morocco when he was ten. The participles on the sheet: been, eaten, swum, sung, cooked, lost, won, met, seen, climbed, made, danced, drunk (bonus row: "No, never" gets the name).

◆ SELF - CHECK

Q1

Choose the correct present-perfect sentence.

A) She has eat sushi.

B) She has eaten sushi.

C) She have eaten sushi.

Why: has (she) + past participle (eaten). A uses the base verb; C uses have with she.

Q2

Which is correct? "I ___ Paris ___."

A) have visited ... last year

B) visited ... last year

C) have visit ... last year

Why: last year is a finished time, so the past simple. The present perfect never takes an exact past time word.

Q3 · new

"Have you ever been to Mexico?" "Yes, I have. I ___ there in 2020."

A) have gone

B) went

C) have been

Why: this is the switch. The experience is open ("Yes, I have"); the detail has a time (in 2020), so the past simple.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (4.1)

"I have been there last year." · "Yes, I did." / "Yes, I have been." (short answer) · "She has went." / "I have saw." · "I haven't never..." · "Have ever you...?" · "Where did you went?" (after the switch) · "He has gone to Italy" about someone sitting in the room · "I been there" (no 've).

4.2 · HAVE TO / MUST / SHOULD — RULES & ADVICE (C11)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — SIGNS

1 c · 2 d · 3 a · 4 b · 5 e · 6 f.

Accept spoken versions with can't for 1 and 5 ("You can't smoke here"): this is the usual American form.

◆ EXERCISE 2 — SAM'S FIRST DAY (SCRIPT 4.2-A)

1 has to (wear a badge) · 2 doesn't have to (wear a suit) · 3 mustn't (use his phone in the kitchen) · 4 has to (sign a form) · 5 doesn't have to (bring lunch) · 6 should (go to bed early).

For 3, accept can't. For 6, has to is wrong: it's advice from his friend, not a rule.

◆ EXERCISE 3 — CIRCLE

1 have to · 2 don't have to · 3 mustn't · 4 doesn't have to · 5 have to · 6 has to (he).

◆ EXERCISE 4 — FIX THE MISTAKE

- 1 You must show your ticket.
- 2 She should see a doctor.
- 3 He has to work on Sunday.
- 4 She has to work late.
- 5 Do I have to sign here? (also correct but formal: Must I sign here?)

Rule: must and should + base verb, no to; the -s goes on has only; must takes no do.

◆ EXERCISE 5 — ADVICE (EXAMPLES; ACCEPT ANY SENSIBLE ADVICE)

- 1 You should go to bed early. / You shouldn't drink coffee at night.
- 2 You should practice every day. / You should listen to the online lessons. / You shouldn't be afraid of mistakes.
- 3 You should drink some water and rest. / You shouldn't eat so fast next time.
- 4 You should set an alarm. / You should leave home earlier. / You shouldn't stay up so late.
- 5 Maybe you should talk to them. / Maybe you should write them a friendly note. / Maybe you should talk to the building manager.

Mark the form: should / shouldn't + base verb. Wrong: "You should to sleep," "You should sleeping," "You must sleep" (grammatical, but too strong for friendly advice: a note, not an error).

◆ EXERCISE 6 + JOURNAL (OPEN)

Model: At work I have to wear a badge. On Sunday I don't have to get up early. I think I should call my family more often. Check has to for he/she and don't have to used for a real choice.

◆ RULES INFORMATION GAP (CLASSROOM MATERIALS, SET D)

Scenario 1 · New job (warehouse)	Scenario 2 · Community pool	Scenario 3 · School office
● have to: wear the safety vest · wear the badge · clock in at 7:00 · wash hands after the break ● don't have to: bring lunch (free lunch on Fridays) · wear a uniform ● mustn't / can't: use your phone on the floor · eat in the loading area	● have to: take a shower first · wear a swim cap (long hair) · show your card ● don't have to: pay on Mondays (free) · bring a towel (free towels) ● mustn't / can't: run · bring glass bottles · swim when the lifeguard isn't there	● have to: fill in a form · bring a proof of address (for example, a bill) · sign the form ● don't have to: buy a uniform (a free one for new students) · pay for lunch (free for all students) ● mustn't / can't: park in the bus lane · leave children in the car

Reason sentences on the B cards use because. Accept can't for every ● line.

Q1

"The concert is free. You don't have to buy a ticket." This means...

A) Buying a ticket is not necessary. It's your choice.

B) You are not allowed to buy a ticket.

C) You have to buy a ticket.

Why: don't have to = not necessary. B is the meaning of mustn't; C is the opposite.

Q2

Your friend has a bad cough. The best advice:

A) You should to see a doctor.

B) You should see a doctor.

C) You shoulds to see a doctor.

Why: should + base verb, no to, no -s, for every person.

Q3 · new

The sign says "No food." You ____ eat here.

A) don't have to

B) mustn't

C) should

Why: the sign says it is not allowed, so mustn't (or can't). A would mean "eating is optional."

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (4.2)

"You must to go." / "You should to rest." · "She have to work." / "She has to works." · "You don't have to smoke here" (meaning mustn't) · "Do you must...?" · "I must to go now" as a goodbye (teach I have to go / I've got to go) · "You should going..." · very strong advice to friends ("You must see a doctor!"); fine in an emergency, bossy otherwise.

4.3 · REVIEW PROJECT — TELLING A TRAVEL STORY (C12)

◆ EXERCISE 1A — WHICH PHRASE FITS?

- 1 A ticket to Boston, please.
- 2 I have a reservation. (The name is...)
- 3 Excuse me, how do I get downtown?
- 4 What time is check-out?

Accept polite variations: "Can I have a ticket to Boston, please?" · "Hi, I booked a room online." · "Excuse me, where is downtown?" · "When is check-out?" Also accept the center / the centre for 3.

◆ EXERCISE 1B — DICTATION (SCRIPT 4.3-B)

- 1 Excuse me, where's the check-in, please?
- 2 What time does the train leave?
- 3 Is breakfast included?
- 4 Can you say that again, please?

Mark one point per sentence for meaning; ignore a missing comma or capital. where is for where's is fine.

◆ EXERCISE 2 — CHOOSE THE RIGHT FORM

1 went (last summer) · 2 was / were (a lot of shops = plural) · 3 warmer · 4 have never tried ('ve never tried) · 5 have ever had ('ve ever had) · 6 going to visit.

Item 4 keeps the experience in the present (I want to try it next year), like the online lesson — the past perfect is not taught at A2. If a learner writes had never tried in a past story, accept it: "Good. Later you will learn had never too."

Item 5: the best... I've ever had is a fixed pattern; I ever had (no 've) is common in American speech and acceptable orally.

◆ EXERCISE 3 – SOFIA'S TRIP (SCRIPT 4.3-A)

a) Top to bottom: 5 (next year, the mountains) · 1 (first time in a big city, cold and windy) · 4 (never seen a building so tall) · 2 (train, museum, market) · 3 (busier than the park, a lot of tourists).

b) Heard: first, then, after that, but, so, because, in the end. Not heard: later.

◆ EXERCISE 4 – JOIN THE SENTENCES

1 so · 2 but · 3 because · 4 so.

Check with the question: result → so; surprise / contrast → but; reason → because.

◆ STORY FRAME + "MY TRIP" JOURNAL – A MODEL ANSWER

READ ALOUD

① Two years ago I went to San Diego with my sister. It was summer and the weather was hot. ② First, we took the bus from Los Angeles. Then we walked on the beach and visited the zoo. After that we ate fish tacos at a small restaurant. ③ The beach was quieter than the city, and there were a lot of families. The zoo was the most interesting place, but it was very expensive. ④ I've never seen a panda before, so it was amazing. It was the best day I've ever had. ⑤ Next summer I'm going to go back. I think I'll stay for a week.

Open task: score the spoken story with the speaking checklist (classroom materials, Set H). For the written journal, check that the four underlined examples are real: a past (went), a comparative (quieter than), a present perfect (I've never seen) and a future (I'm going to go).

◆ TRAVEL ROLE-PLAY CARDS (CLASSROOM MATERIALS, SET F)

Role-play 1 · Station (A asks, B answers)	Role-play 2 · Hotel (B asks, A answers)
Ticket to Chicago · leaves 10:25 · platform 6 · arrives 2:50 · $38 one way	Name Silva , 3 nights · breakfast yes , 6:30–9:30 · check-out 11 a.m. · Wi-Fi yes , free , password SUNNY24 · room 214 , 2nd floor

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

At the station, you want to know when your train goes:

A) How much is the platform?

B) What time does it leave?

C) Do you have any rooms?

Why: leave = go away from the station. A asks a price; C is a hotel question.

Q2

Which is correct for a travel story?

A) Last year I have went to Peru, and it was great.

B) We visited Peru last year. I've never seen mountains like that!

C) I have gone to Peru yesterday.

Why: last year → past simple (visited); the life experience with no time → present perfect (I've never seen). A mixes have with the past form; C uses the present perfect with yesterday. (The online lesson's version of B says had never seen, the past perfect. Accept that form too; it is not taught at A2.)

Q3 · new

Next summer I ____ visit Greece. I bought the tickets!

A) went to

B) am going to

C) have visited

Why: a future plan (tickets bought) → going to (Module 3). A is past; C is an experience.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (4.3)

Present tense for the whole story ("Last year I go...") · "I have been there last year" · "It was the best trip I ever had" (OK in speech) / "the best trip I have ever" (no participle) · "a luggage" / "luggages" · "arrive to the hotel" · "more better" / "the most biggest" · "It was very funny" meaning fun · a list with no links ("We go. We eat. We sleep.") · "Excuse me" missing, so a question sounds abrupt.

Module 5 — Telling Stories: Answers

Answers to every Module 5 workbook exercise and self-check question, with the "why," acceptable alternatives, the classroom-materials answers (picture stories, Story Road), and the errors you can expect to hear most.

Lessons 5.1–5.3

Classes C14–C16

9 self-check items

15 exercises

MARKING PRINCIPLE

At A2, mark meaning and form together, but be generous with small slips: "I was studing" is the right tense with a spelling note, not a wrong answer. In when/while sentences, accept any version where the long action is continuous and the short action is simple, in either order. American English is the model; British forms (film, having a shower, travelling, flat, football for soccer) are fully acceptable.

◆ MY GOAL AFTER PROGRESS TEST 1 (WORKBOOK FRONT PAGE)

Personal; no marking. Check only that the goal is concrete and small ("say five irregular verbs every morning," "use the 🎧 buttons three times a week"). Revisit it privately at the end of C16.

5.1 • PAST CONTINUOUS — WHAT WAS HAPPENING (C14)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — AT EIGHT O'CLOCK LAST NIGHT (SCRIPT 5.1-A)

1 Mr. Díaz	2 Mrs. Okafor	3 her son	4 the two students	5 Mr. Chen	6 the woman on the balcony
d (cooking)	a (reading)	b (playing the guitar)	c (dancing)	e (sleeping in his armchair)	f (drinking tea)

g (swimming) is extra. Listening traps: the son "wasn't doing his homework," the students "weren't studying," and Mr. Chen's TV "was on, but he wasn't watching it." Learners who write "TV" for Mr. Chen have missed the negative. Replay that line.

◆ EXERCISE 2 — WAS OR WERE?

1 was • 2 were • 3 was • 4 were • 5 was • 6 were (my sister and I = we)

◆ EXERCISE 3 — MAKE IT "NO"

- 1 They weren't listening carefully.
- 2 She wasn't working on Sunday.

3 We weren't playing outside.

4 You weren't listening to me!

Also correct: were not / was not (full forms). Wrong: "They didn't listening," "She wasn't work," "We not playing."

◆ EXERCISE 4 – WORD ORDER: QUESTIONS

1 What were you doing at nine?

2 Was she working yesterday morning?

3 Where were they going?

4 Was it raining at 6 a.m.?

About you: Yes, I was. / No, I wasn't. (Longer answers are fine: "No, I wasn't. I was watching a movie.") Wrong: "Yes, I was sleeping" as a short answer is not wrong English, but in the drill we want "Yes, I was." "Yes, I did" is the common error.

◆ EXERCISE 5 – WHILE

1 While the children were playing, we were watching TV.

2 While she was studying, her brother was singing.

3 While I was waiting for the bus, it was raining.

Also correct: the other order without a comma (We were watching TV while the children were playing.). No. 3 can also be "It was raining while I was waiting for the bus." My yesterday (open): check was/were + -ing and a time phrase in each sentence. Model: At 8 a.m. I was taking the bus to work. At 1 p.m. I was having lunch with a friend. At 9 p.m. I was watching TV.

◆ SPEAKING – THE ALIBI GAME (OPEN)

No fixed answers. Success = 5 time slots completed with was/were + -ing, and detectives ask 6+ correct questions ("What were you doing at 8:30?"). In the report, listen for said + past continuous: "Ana said they were watching TV." Don't correct reported speech beyond that; it is B1.

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Which sentence is correct?

A) I cooking dinner at eight.

B) I was cooking dinner at eight.

C) I was cook dinner at eight.

Why: the past continuous needs two parts: was + verb-ing. A has no was; C has no -ing.

Q2

"___ they watching TV?" — "No, they ___."

A) Were ... weren't

B) Was ... wasn't

C) Were ... wasn't

Why: they takes were in the question and in the short answer. C mixes the two.

Q3 · new

I ___ his name, so I said hello.

A) was knowing

B) knew

C) was know

Why: know is a state verb, not an action you can "photograph," so it stays in the past simple. C is also missing -ing.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (5.1)

"I cooking dinner." (no was) · "They was watching TV." · "I was cook." · "Were you sleep?" · "Yes, I did." (for "Were you...?") · "What you were doing?" (statement word order in a question) · "I was knowing / wanting..." · "studing," "runing," "writting" (-ing spelling) · "cookin'" (/ɪn/). Correct the first three; let the /ɪn/ go during the Alibi Game.

5.2 · PAST CONTINUOUS VS PAST SIMPLE — WHEN & WHILE (C15)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — LENA'S RAINY SATURDAY (SCRIPT 5.2-A) a coffee	b park	c bus stop	d sunny	e umbrella	f read	g happy	h  run

7	1	5	8	3	2	6	4

The same order works for the Set C Story A cards: park → read on a bench → start to rain → run to the bus stop → wait for the bus / a man arrive → old friend Marco → drink coffee, talk → sun shine again.

◆ EXERCISE 2 – PAST SIMPLE OR PAST CONTINUOUS?

1 was reading · 2 rang · 3 began · 4 was driving · 5 were watching · 6 was sleeping

Wrong: "ringed," "began" (past participle), "was ringing" for no. 2 (the ring is the short event). Contractions are fine.

◆ EXERCISE 3 – WHEN OR WHILE?

1 when · 2 While · 3 while · 4 when · 5 While · 6 when

No. 2: When I was walking... is also possible English (when = at the time that), so accept it with a smile. The lesson's target is while + the long action. No. 3: the long action is "was running," so while.

◆ EXERCISE 4 – ONE SENTENCE WITH WHEN OR WHILE

- 1 She was crossing the road when a car stopped. / While she was crossing the road, a car stopped.
- 2 We were watching the movie when the baby woke up. / While we were watching the movie, the baby woke up.
- 3 I was waiting for the bus when I saw an accident. / While I was waiting for the bus, I saw an accident.

Also correct: ...the film... (British). Check the comma when the sentence starts with While. Wrong: "When she was crossing the road, a car was stopping." (the stop is short).

◆ EXERCISE 5 – WRITE LENA'S STORY (OPEN)

Check: 5 sentences, one when, one while, continuous for the background and simple for the events. Model: Last Saturday Lena was walking in the park. She was reading on a bench when it started to rain. She ran to the bus stop. While she was waiting for the bus, her old friend Marco arrived. They went to a café, and while they were drinking coffee, they talked for two hours.

◆ SPEAKING – SOMETHING HAPPENED! (OPEN)

Success = scene (1–2 past-continuous sentences) + event (past simple, with when or suddenly) + an ending; 6+ sentences; the listener reacts and asks "And then what happened?" For story cards (Set D), any logical ending is correct.

◆ PICTURE-STORY CARDS – STORY B, "OMAR'S KITCHEN" (SET C, STRETCH)

Most logical order: cook pasta / sing → phone ring (his mother) → sit on the sofa / talk → smell smoke / alarm → run to the kitchen / pasta black → order pizza / laugh. Model: Omar was cooking pasta and singing when his phone rang. It was his mother. While he was talking to her on the sofa, the pasta was burning. Suddenly the smoke alarm started. He ran to the kitchen. The pasta was black! In the end, he ordered a pizza and laughed. Accept "sit on the sofa" before "phone ring" if the group explains it ("He was sitting on the sofa when the phone rang").

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Which sentence is correct?

A) I was walking home when it was starting to rain.

B) I was walking home when it started to rain.

C) I walked home when it started to rain.

Why: the walking is the long background (continuous); the rain starting is the sudden event (simple). A makes the dot continuous; C loses the background.

Q2

"___ she was cooking, the phone rang."

A) While

B) When

C) During

Why: while + the long action. During needs a noun (during dinner), not a subject + verb. B is possible in real English, but while is the best answer here.

Q3 · new

When the movie ended, we ___ home.

A) were going

B) went

C) was going

Why: nothing was in progress; one event happened, then another. Both verbs are past simple. C also has the wrong form for we.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (5.2)

"...when it was starting to rain." (continuous for the event) · "While I fell..." (simple for the background) · "During I was sleeping..." · "When I was sleeping the phone was ringing." · "the phone ringed," "I falled," "it begun" · no comma after an opening While... (writing only) · "suddenly" at the end of the sentence. Correct the tense of the event first; the rest can wait.

5.3 · USED TO — LIFE IN THE PAST (C16)

◆ EXERCISE 1 – CARMEN, THEN AND NOW (SCRIPT 5.3-A)

1 farm	2 walk to school	3 long hair	4 big city	5 bus to work	6 hate vegetables	7 love vegetables	8 stories to her son
THEN	THEN	THEN	NOW	NOW	THEN	NOW	NOW

Extra question: No, they didn't. (Also fine: "No. They didn't use to have a TV.") Follow-up in class: turn the THEN answers into used to sentences: "Carmen used to live on a farm."

◆ EXERCISE 2 – USED TO OR DIDN'T USE TO?

1 used to · 2 didn't use to · 3 used to · 4 didn't use to · 5 used to · 6 didn't use to

The clue is the second half: "but now she loves it" → before, she didn't like it. Wrong: "didn't used to" (see Ex 3).

◆ EXERCISE 3 – USE TO OR USED TO?

1 use to · 2 used to · 3 use to · 4 use to · 5 used to · 6 use to Rule: after did / didn't → use to. This is a writing-only rule; the two forms sound the same.

◆ EXERCISE 4 – RIGHT OR WRONG?

- 1 X → I didn't use to smoke.
- 2 X → She used to live in Madrid.
- 3 ✓ We used to walk to school.
- 4 X → Yesterday I went to the doctor. (one time = past simple)
- 5 X → He used to have a car.

◆ EXERCISE 5 – THEN VS NOW

- 1 I used to live in a village, but now I live in a city.
- 2 I used to have short hair, but now I have long hair. (or: ...but now it's long.)
- 3 I used to play soccer, but now I watch soccer. (or: ...but now I just watch it.)

Any subject is fine (She used to...). football is also correct. Your turn (open): check used to + base verb and but now + present simple. Character sentences are just as good as personal ones.

◆ SPEAKING – THEN & NOW (OPEN)

Success = 4 THEN sentences with used to / didn't use to, 1+ but now, and 2 correct questions from the partner ("Did you use to...?" — "Yes, I did. / No, I didn't."). Character cards (Set E) list the facts, so partners can check each other.

Model (Captain Rosa): I used to be a sailor. I used to live on a ship. I used to eat fish every day. I didn't use to have a phone. But now I'm a chef, and I live in a small apartment.

◆ STORY ROAD BOARD GAME (SET G) – SQUARES WITH FIXED ANSWERS

3 They weren't sleeping. · 5 were · 8 I knew the answer. · 11 While · 12 rang · fell · began · broke · 15 ...when it started to rain. · 17 Did you use to play soccer? · 18 use to · 21 I didn't use to like coffee. · 23 Yesterday I saw a movie. All other squares are open: the group decides if the sentence is OK.

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Which sentence is correct?

A) I used to lived in Madrid.

B) I used to live in Madrid.

C) I used to living in Madrid.

| Why: used to + base verb. The past is already in used, so the verb stays plain; not past tense (A) and not -ing (C).

Q2

"___ you ___ play soccer?"

A) Did ... use to

B) Did ... used to

C) Do ... use to

| Why: questions use did, and after did the -d goes: use to. C is present, but used to is only for the past.

Q3 · new

Yesterday I ___ an old friend.

A) used to meet

B) met

C) use to meet

| Why: yesterday = one time, so we use the past simple. Used to is for habits and long states.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (5.3)

"I didn't used to..." / "Did you used to...?" (writing) · "I used to lived / living..." · "I use to go to the gym" (meaning usually, now: Spanish, Portuguese, Tagalog) · "Yesterday I used to..." · "Before I play soccer" (no used to) · "I was used to play..." · "He uses to..." (adding -s) · /ju:zd tu:/ with a /z/ and a full "to." Correct meaning errors (present habit, one-time event) first; the use/used spelling only in writing.

Module 6 — Joining Ideas Together: Answers

Classes C17–C19

9 self-check items

15 exercises

MARKING PRINCIPLE

At A2, mark meaning and structure first. A joined sentence with the right linker and a small slip (a missing comma, "recieve") is a success with a note, not a wrong answer. The comma after an if-clause and before but / so is a writing habit: mark it as a note, never as a grammar error. American English is the model; British forms (watch a film, neighbour, football for soccer, shop for store) are acceptable when a learner uses them. Where several linkers make sense, accept any answer with clear logic.

6.1 • FIRST CONDITIONAL — REAL POSSIBILITIES (C17)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — LENA'S WEEKEND (SCRIPT 6.1-A)

1 sunny on Saturday	2 rains	3 finishes early	4 market closed	5 gets home Sunday	6 has time
c	e	b	f	a	d

Is Lena sure about the supermarket? No, because she says might. Accept "No" / "Maybe" / "She isn't sure." Item 5 uses when: she is sure she will get home. Point this out after checking.

◆ EXERCISE 2 — WRITE THE VERB

- 1 If it rains, we'll stay home.
- 2 If you study, you 'll pass / will pass the test.
- 3 If she calls, I'll answer.
- 4 We won't be late if we leave now.
- 5 If I have time, I 'll help / will help you.
- 6 If you don't hurry, you 'll miss / will miss the bus.

Also correct: do not hurry; might pass / might help (the meaning changes to "maybe," but the grammar is right).

Wrong: "If it will rain," "If she will call," "you'll to pass," "If I has time," "If you won't hurry."

◆ EXERCISE 3 – MATCH + WARNING / PROMISE / PLAN

1	If you touch the stove, b you'll burn your hand.	⚠ warning
2	If you help me today, d I'll help you tomorrow.	🤝 promise
3	If the weather is nice, a we'll have a picnic in the park.	📅 plan
4	If you don't take an umbrella, e you'll get wet.	⚠ warning
5	If I get the job, c I'll buy you dinner!	🤝 promise

Item 5 can also be a 📅 plan if a learner explains it well. Accept it.

◆ EXERCISE 4 – CHANGE THE ORDER

- 1 We'll go to the beach if it's sunny. (no comma)
- 2 If I finish early, I'll call you. (comma after early)
- 3 I'll text you if the bus is late. (no comma)

A missing or extra comma is a writing note. The online lesson treats "If it rains we'll stay home" as a punctuation tip, not a grammar error — do the same: "good grammar, add the comma."

◆ EXERCISE 5 – CIRCLE

1 When (I will get home tonight: sure) · 2 If (a lot of money is only possible) · 3 might ("I'm not sure") · 4 will ("Don't worry! He's very kind" = sure) · 5 won't (the result needs will not, not the present).

Item 2: a learner who says "When I win..." as a joke about a sure win is using when correctly for their meaning. Laugh, then ask: "Are you sure?"

◆ SPEAKING – THE IF-CHAIN (TEACHER'S MODEL, SCRIPT 6.1-C)

If it rains, I'll stay home. → If I stay home, I'll cook. → If I cook, I'll eat too much. → If I eat too much, I'll feel sleepy. → If I feel sleepy, I'll go to bed early. → If I go to bed early, I'll get up early. → If I get up early, I'll go for a walk... in the rain!

What to listen for: the result's verb moves into the if-half without 'll ("I'll cook" → "If I cook"), and the he/she -s when a learner uses a card person ("If she cooks, she'll..."). Any logical chain is correct; funny chains are better.

◆ MY "IF... I'LL..." PLAN (OPEN)

Look for: present simple after if; 'll / won't / might + base verb; one might; one when with something sure. Model: If it's sunny on Saturday, I'll go to the park. If I finish work early on Friday, I'll visit my sister. If I'm hungry after class, I'll buy a sandwich. If my friends are free, we'll watch a movie. If I have time, I might go to the library. When I get home tonight, I'll call my mother.

Q1

Choose the correct sentence.

A) If it will rain, we'll stay home.

B) If it rains, we'll stay home.

C) If it rains, we stay home tomorrow.

Why: present simple after if, will in the result. A puts will in the if-clause; C has no will for a future result.

Q2

Which sentence shows the speaker is sure it will happen?

A) When I get home, I'll call you.

B) If I get home, I'll call you.

C) If I get home, I might call you.

Why: when = it will happen for sure; only the time is open. if = maybe.

Q3 · new

"I'm not sure. If I have time, I ____ come to the party."

A) will

B) might

C) am

Why: "I'm not sure" = a possible result, so might. will is too sure; am come is not a verb form.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (6.1)

"If it will rain, ..." · "When I will get home, ..." · "If it rain, we stay home." (no -s, no will) · "I'll to help you." · "I will helps." · "I call you" for "I'll call you" (the /l/ disappears) · "I won't" heard as "I want" (and the reverse) · "If I will have time..." in the If-chain (Beep!).

6.2 · RELATIVE CLAUSES — WHO, WHICH, THAT, WHERE (C18)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — WHO, WHICH OR WHERE?

1 who · 2 which · 3 where · 4 who · 5 where · 6 which

Also correct: that in 1, 2, 4 and 6 (people and things). In 2 the pronoun can be dropped ("the phone I bought yesterday"), but the exercise asks for a word. Wrong: that in 3 and 5 (places need where).

◆ EXERCISE 2 – MAKE ONE SENTENCE

- 1 I have a friend who lives in Texas.
- 2 This is the car which broke down.
- 3 That's the school where I studied.
- 4 He's the man who fixed my roof.
- 5 This is the park where we play soccer.

Also correct: that in 1, 2 and 4; "the school (that / which) I studied at" and "the park (that) we play soccer in" (stretch forms); football for soccer. Wrong: "a friend who she lives," "the car which it broke down," "the school where I studied there."

◆ EXERCISE 3 – FIND THE MISTAKE

- 1 That's the man who (or that) lives next door. (people → who)
- 2 She's the woman who works at the bank. (delete she)
- 3 This is the town where I grew up. (place → where; or "the town that I grew up in")
- 4 Is this the book that (or which, or nothing) you bought? (never what)

◆ EXERCISE 4 – SAM'S STREET (SCRIPT 6.2-A)

1 Nadia	2 Mr. Park	3 Café Sol	4 Rosa	5 Kim's Market	6 Leo
d	a	f	b	e	c

For the "Say it" step, insist on a full sentence: "Café Sol is the café where Sam meets his friends." A learner who says "Café Sol is where Sam meets his friends" is also correct.

◆ EXERCISE 5 – DEFINE IT! (OPEN)

Models: 1 A nurse is a person who works in a hospital and helps doctors / takes care of sick people. 2 An airport is a place where you catch a plane / planes land. 3 A key is a thing which opens a door / you use to open a door. 4 Open. Check the pronoun matches the icon (person → who, place → where, thing → which/that) and that the word itself is not repeated.

◆ INFORMATION GAP – OUR APARTMENT BUILDING (MATERIALS SET E)

Who / what	Answer
------------	--------

Mrs. Chen	the neighbor who bakes bread every Sunday
Mr. Ali	the man who fixes things in the building
Ana	the nurse who lives on the top floor
the Ortiz family	the family that has a big dog
Room B	the room where people wash their clothes
the roof garden	the place where neighbors have parties in summer
the green bike	the bike that someone left in the hall
the blue door	the door which goes to the parking lot

Learners write short answers on their cards ("the man who fixes things"); full-sentence answers in speaking ("He's the man who...").

◆ PEOPLE, PLACES & THINGS IN MY LIFE (OPEN)

Look for: the right pronoun for each icon, no repeated subject, no comma before the clause. Model: My neighbor Ana is a person who always says hello. My brother is the friend that I call every day. The library is a place where I study. Kim's Market is the store where I buy rice. My phone is a thing which I use all the time. My blue jacket is the coat that my mother gave me.

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Choose the correct sentence.

A) That's the man which lives next door.

B) That's the man who lives next door.

C) That's the man who he lives next door.

Why: who is for people. A uses which (things); C repeats the subject (who = he).

Q2

Which word joins "This is the café. We met there."?

A) where

B) who

C) which

Why: the café is a place, and there becomes where: "This is the café where we met."

Q3 · new

Choose the correct sentence.

A) That's the book I bought yesterday.

B) That's the man lives next door.

C) That's the town that I grew up.

Why: in A, a new subject (I) follows, so that can be dropped. In B a verb follows, so who must stay. C needs where (or "...grew up in").

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (6.2)

"the man which works..." · "the woman who she works..." · "the book what I bought" · "the town that I was born" · "the café where we met there" · "the man, who lives next door" (comma) · "the lives-next-door man" (word order) · "a place who you buy bread" · "It's a person where..." in Define it! (point at the icon).

6.3 · LINKING WORDS — AND, BUT, SO, BECAUSE, ALTHOUGH (C19)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — CHOOSE THE LINKER

1 so (result) · 2 because (reason) · 3 but (contrast) · 4 and (add) · 5 Although (surprise, starts the sentence) · 6 so (result)

Also correct: Though in 5. Wrong: because in 1 or 6 (it gives a reason, not a result: "I was hungry because I made a sandwich" has the wrong logic).

◆ EXERCISE 2 — BECAUSE OR SO?

- 1 I took the bus because it was raining. / It was raining, so I took the bus.
- 2 I was late for work because I missed the bus. / I missed the bus, so I was late for work.
- 3 She stayed home because she was sick. / She was sick, so she stayed home.

Also correct: Because it was raining, I took the bus. (comma after the first half). Wrong: "It was raining because I took the bus" (logic reversed) · "Because it was raining, so I took the bus" (two linkers).

◆ EXERCISE 3 – BUT → ALTHOUGH

- 1 Although the room was small, it was comfortable.
- 2 Although he has a lot of money, he isn't happy.
- 3 Although it was cold, we went to the beach.

Also correct: Though...; the although half second ("It was comfortable although the room was small."). Wrong: "Although the room was small, but it was comfortable." A missing comma after the first half is a writing note.

◆ EXERCISE 4 – MAKE IT SMOOTH (SEVERAL RIGHT ANSWERS)

- 1 It was cold, so I stayed inside and read a book.
- 2 The bus was late, so I took a taxi, but it was expensive.
- 3 I love my job because I help people, although it's hard. / My job is hard, but I love it because I help people. / Although my job is hard, I love it because I help people.

Accept any version with logical linkers and no double linker. Literacy-support learners: two ideas joined with one linker is a success ("It was cold, so I stayed inside.").

◆ EXERCISE 5 – CARLOS'S STRANGE DAY (SCRIPT 6.3-A)

1 because · 2 but · 3 so · 4 Although · 5 and · 6 so

◆ SENTENCE BUILDER – STEP 1 HALVES (MATERIALS SET G)

First half	Second half
I was hungry,	so I made a sandwich.
I stayed home	because it was raining.
I like my job,	but the hours are long.
We went to the park	and played soccer.
Although the store was busy,	we found everything quickly.
The bus didn't come,	so I walked to work.
She's happy	because she passed the test.
My town is small,	but it has a great market.
Although I was tired,	I went to English class.

I cleaned the kitchen	and cooked dinner.
The rent is expensive,	so I share an apartment.
I called my sister	because it was her birthday.

Some halves can swap and still make sense ("I stayed home because it was her birthday"). If a group defends a logical match, accept it. The comma at the end of a first half is a clue for but / so.

◆ SENTENCE BUILDER – STEP 2 MODEL PARAGRAPHS (TOPIC ENVELOPES)

My job (Rosa): I'm a cleaner at a hospital, and I work at night. The work is hard, but I like it because I help the nurses and patients. I finish at six in the morning, so I sleep in the afternoon. Although the pay isn't great, my coworkers are very kind.

My town (Emil): I live in a small town near the mountains. It's quiet, but there's a big park and a good library. The library is open late, so I study there after work. I like my town because the people say hello. Although the winters are long, the summers are beautiful.

My weekend (Amal): On Saturday I went to the market with my daughter, and we bought fruit and vegetables. It was raining, so we took the bus home. On Sunday I wanted to rest, but my friends visited. Although I was tired, we had a great time because we cooked together.

Groups' versions will differ: check that each linker's logic is right and that although has no but.

◆ MY PARAGRAPH (OPEN) – WHAT TO LOOK FOR

Check	Success at A2
Length	5–7 sentences (literacy support: 3 joined sentences)
Linkers	4+ different linkers with the right logic; one because ; one but or although
No double linkers	no although... but , no because... so
Commas	before but / so , after the although half (a note, not a mistake)
Shape	a first sentence that says the topic; an ending ("I like it because...")
Bonus	a first conditional or a relative clause from C17–C18

Write one kind comment and underline each correct linker. Correct at most two errors per paragraph, and choose the ones from this module.

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Choose the correct sentence.

A) Although it rained, but we went out.

B) Although it rained, we went out.

C) Although it rained, so we went out.

Why: one contrast word is enough. A adds but; C adds so.

Q2

"I stayed home ____ it was raining."

A) because

B) so

C) but

Why: "it was raining" is the reason. so introduces a result; but a contrast.

Q3 · new

"It was cold, ____ I wore a coat."

A) because

B) so

C) although

Why: wearing a coat is the result of the cold. With because the logic reverses ("It was cold because I wore a coat").

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (6.3)

"Although it rained, but we went out." · "Because I was tired, so I slept." · "I was so tired so I slept." · "I was tired, because I slept." (reason/result reversed) · "Because it was raining." as a lonely written sentence · "and... and... and..." with no other linker · "although" / "altough" (spelling) · no comma before but / so (a note).

Module 7 — Getting Things Done: Answers

Answers to every Module 7 workbook exercise and self-check question, with the "why," acceptable alternatives, the classroom-materials answers (Riverside map directions, ticket office, restaurant bookings, store policy, clinic appointments, pharmacy), and the errors you can expect to hear most.

Lessons 7.1–7.3

Classes C20–C22

9 self-check items

15 exercises

MARKING PRINCIPLE

Module 7 is functional: mark whether the task gets done, politely and clearly. A direction with a small grammar slip ("Turn to left") that gets the partner to the right box is a success with a note. A grammatically perfect order that sounds rude ("I want the soup.") is a register point to coach, not a wrong answer. American English is the model; British forms from the online lessons (single, return, straight on, first turning, starter, bill, zip, fitting room, Have you got...?, chemist's) are always acceptable.

7.1 • TRAVEL & DIRECTIONS (C20)

◆ EXERCISE 1 – LISTEN AND FOLLOW THE MAP (SCRIPT 7.1-A)

- 1 the park (straight, cross Main Street at the lights, on your right)
- 2 the hotel (right at the lights onto Main Street, past Lake Avenue, on your right)
- 3 the café (straight to Hill Street, left, past Oak Avenue, on your right)
- 4 the bank (straight, cross River Road, first building on your left)

◆ EXERCISE 2 – READ AND FIND

a) pharmacy · b) museum · c) school · d) movie theater

Distractors: a) bank (opposite, on the left) · b) supermarket (on the right) · c) library (opposite, on the right) · d) hospital (it is also past Lake Avenue, but on your right).

◆ EXERCISE 3 – THE MISSING WORD

1 get · 2 straight · 3 left · 4 opposite · 5 platform · 6 round-trip · 7 off · 8 change

Also correct: 4 across from is a good synonym, but it is two words, and the box word is opposite. 6 return (UK). 5 track is what many U.S. stations say; accept it. Wrong: "go to straight," "get out the bus."

◆ EXERCISE 4 – PUT THE DIRECTIONS IN ORDER

Sentence	Number
Go past the supermarket.	3
Go straight for two minutes.	1
The movie theater is on your left, next to the café.	5
Cross the street at the traffic lights.	4

The "It's on your left, next to..." sentence always comes last: it tells you that you have arrived. (This route is not on the Riverside map.)

◆ EXERCISE 5 – AT THE TICKET OFFICE (SCRIPT 7.1-B)

round-trip · to Lakeview · $17.50 · leaves at 9:45 · platform 3 · change? no (it's direct; it arrives at 10:35)

Accept "seventeen fifty" in words. Learners often write $70.50 (seventy/seventeen): drill the stress, sevenTEEN vs SEVenty.

◆ MAP INFORMATION GAP – MODEL DIRECTIONS (ALL START AT THE ★, WALKING NORTH)

#	Place	Model directions
1	bank	Go straight. Cross River Road. It's on your left, on the corner, opposite the pharmacy.
2	pharmacy	Go straight. Cross River Road. It's on your right, opposite the bank.
3	post office	Go straight to the traffic lights. Cross Main Street. It's on your left, opposite the park.
4	park	Go straight to the traffic lights. Cross Main Street. It's on your right, opposite the post office.
5	museum	Go straight to the end of Center Avenue. Cross Hill Street. It's on your left, opposite the supermarket.
6	supermarket	Go straight to the end of Center Avenue. Cross Hill Street. It's on your right, opposite the museum.
7	library	Go straight to the traffic lights. Turn left onto Main Street. Go past Oak Avenue. It's on your right, opposite the school.
8	school	Go straight to the traffic lights. Turn left onto Main Street. Go past Oak Avenue. It's on your left, opposite the library.

9	café	Go straight to Hill Street. Turn left. Go past Oak Avenue. It's on your right.
10	hospital	Go straight to the traffic lights. Turn right onto Main Street. Go past Lake Avenue. It's on your left, opposite the hotel.
11	hotel	Go straight to the traffic lights. Turn right onto Main Street. Go past Lake Avenue. It's on your right, opposite the hospital.

Other routes are fine if they work (e.g. to the café: left at the lights, right onto Oak Avenue, left onto Hill Street). "It's between Main Street and River Road" is also a correct way to place the bank or pharmacy. What matters: the partner writes the name in the right box.

◆ TICKET OFFICE CARDS – ANSWERS (TIMETABLE ON THE CLERK CARD)

Traveler	Train	Platform	Change?	Ticket & price
1 · job interview in Center City, arrive by 9:00	8:15 (arrives 8:40)	2	no, direct	round-trip · $8.00
2 · Lakeview, arrive before 9:30	8:30 (arrives 9:25)	1	yes, at Center City	one-way · $9.75
3 · Westfield, training at 11:00	8:50 (arrives 10:10)	4	yes, at Lakeview	round-trip · $25.00
4 · two people, Center City, after 9:00	9:05 (arrives 9:30)	2	no, direct	2 round-trips · $16.00
5 (stretch) · Lakeview, direct train only	9:45 (arrives 10:35)	3	no, direct	one-way · $9.75

Traveler 2: the 9:45 is direct but too late (10:35). Traveler 3: the 10:20 is direct but arrives at 11:30, too late. These are the "listen to the details" traps.

◆ SPEAKING – WRITE DIRECTIONS (OPEN)

Check: 4+ steps, imperatives with no subject, one position phrase at the end. Model (★ to the hospital): Go straight to the traffic lights. Turn right onto Main Street. Go past Lake Avenue. The hospital is on your left, opposite the hotel. You can't miss it! Learners must not be asked to write directions to their home.

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

You need help to find the bank. What is the most polite start?

A) Where bank?

B) Excuse me, how do I get to the bank?

C) You must tell me the bank.

Why: open with Excuse me and use a full question with do. A is too short and direct; C sounds like an order.

Q2

You want to go to Chicago and come back the same day.

A) A one-way to Chicago.

B) A round-trip to Chicago.

C) A platform to Chicago.

Why: round-trip = there and back (UK return). A one-way ticket doesn't bring you home; a platform is where you wait.

Q3 · new

You are on a bus. Your stop is next. What do you do?

A) I get off the bus.

B) I get out the bus.

C) I get down the bus.

Why: buses, trains and planes take on/off. Get out of is for cars and taxis (and B is missing of). C translates Spanish bajar / Tagalog bumaba.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (7.1)

"How I get to the station?" · "Where is bank?" · "Go to straight." · "Turn to left." / "in the left" · "get in the bus" · "a ticket for return" · "opposite of the park" (no of) · "lef" / "reft" (pronunciation). Correct the first four; they block communication or sound abrupt.

7.2 · EATING OUT & SHOPPING (C21)

◆ EXERCISE 1 – BOOK A TABLE (SCRIPT 7.2-A)

Name Silva · 4 people · Saturday · 8:00 (7:30 is fully booked) · special request a table by the window · phone 555-0142

Learners often write 7:30 because they hear it first. That's the point of the task: the first time isn't the final time.

◆ EXERCISE 2 – TOO, TOO MUCH, TOO MANY OR ENOUGH?

1 too · 2 too much (salt can't be counted) · 3 too many (people = plural) · 4 enough (adjective + enough) · 5 enough (enough + noun) · 6 too

Also correct: 2 a lot of / so much fit the grammar but not the meaning (a problem). 6 very is grammatical, but "I can't drink it" shows it is a problem, so too.

◆ EXERCISE 3 – COMPLETE THE POLITE PHRASES

1 like · 2 have · 3 check (UK bill) · 4 try · 5 refund · 6 recommend

◆ EXERCISE 4 – MAKE IT POLITE (MODEL ANSWERS)

- 1 I'd like a table, please. / I'd like to book a table, please. / Do you have a table for two?
- 2 Could we have the check, please? / Can I have the check, please?
- 3 Excuse me. I'm afraid there's a problem with my soup. It's cold. Could I have a hot one, please?
- 4 I'm so sorry about that. I'll bring you a hot one right away. / I'm sorry. Let me take it back to the kitchen.

Any answer with a polite opener (I'd like / Could I / Excuse me / I'm sorry) and please is correct. For 3, all three steps (soften → explain → ask) earn full credit; two steps is a success at A2.

◆ EXERCISE 5 – WHAT'S THE PROBLEM? (SCRIPT 7.2-B)

1 cold · a new soup | 2 two desserts · fix the check | 3 not long enough · an exchange

◆ RESERVATION BOOK – POSSIBLE BOOKINGS (FRIDAY, ROSA'S KITCHEN)

Caller	Asks for	Good answers
1 · Kim, 2 people, window	7:30 (fully booked)	7:00 or 8:30 by the window (8:00 is free but not by the window)
2 · Okafor, 4 people, window, not before 6:30	7:00 (booked)	8:00 by the window (6:30 is free but not by the window)
3 · Novak, 6 people, birthday cake	6:30	6:30 is free · own cake: yes, no charge
4 · Reyes, 4 people, vegetarian, not after 8:00	7:30 (fully booked)	6:00, 6:30 or 8:00 · vegetarian dishes: yes

If two pairs share a book and both take the same table, the second host says "I'm sorry, that table is booked now." That's realistic and good practice.

◆ PROBLEMS & RETURNS CAROUSEL – EXPECTED OUTCOMES

Card	Problem	Good outcome
R1	soup is cold	server apologizes and brings a hot one
R2	ordered chicken, got fish	server apologizes, takes the fish back, brings the chicken (maybe a free drink for the wait)
R3	check shows two desserts, not one; want to split it	server fixes the check and splits it in two
S1	jacket: broken zipper, receipt, 5 days ago	refund (receipt + within 30 days) or exchange
S2	jeans not long enough, receipt	exchange for a longer size
S3	gift shirt, wrong size, no receipt, wants a refund	no refund: exchange or store credit only (store policy)

◆ SELF - CHECK

Q1

The soup has much more salt than you want.

A) There's too many salt.

B) There's too much salt.

C) There's enough salt.

Why: salt is uncountable, so too much. C means the amount is OK, which is the opposite of the problem.

Q2

A jacket is too small for you.

A) It's not enough big.

B) It's not big enough.

C) It's too big enough.

Why: enough goes after an adjective: big enough. C mixes too and enough.

Q3 · new

Your soup is cold. What is the best thing to say to the server?

A) This soup is bad. Take it.

B) Excuse me, I'm afraid there's a problem with my soup. It's cold.

C) I want new soup now.

Why: B softens (Excuse me, I'm afraid...) and explains the problem clearly. A and C are understandable but sound angry, and they don't say what is wrong.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (7.2)

"I want a table / Give me..." (register) · "It's enough big." · "too much people" · "This tea is too good." (as praise) · "The account, please." · "Can I try it?" (for clothes: try it on) · "I'm afraid" pronounced as a real fear, with a worried face. Coach the tone as much as the grammar.

7.3 · HEALTH & APPOINTMENTS (C22)

◆ EXERCISE 1 – WHAT'S THE PROBLEM?

1 headache · 2 sore throat · 3 stomachache · 4 toothache · 5 backache

Also correct: stomach ache (two words, common in the UK). I have toothache / backache (no a) is also normal. Wrong: "a head pain," "a pain of stomach."

◆ EXERCISE 2 – SINCE OR FOR?

1 since Monday · 2 for three days · 3 since last night · 4 for a week · 5 since nine o'clock · 6 for two hours

Rule: since + a point in time, for + a length of time. "since three days" is the most common error (French depuis, Spanish desde hace, German seit).

◆ EXERCISE 3 – COMPLETE THE SENTENCES

1 appointment · 2 since · 3 for · 4 should · 5 hurts

◆ EXERCISE 4 – MATCH THE PROBLEM AND THE ADVICE

1 c · 2 b · 3 d · 4 e · 5 a

Other sensible matches are fine if learners can explain them (e.g. 5 d, 3 a). The point is pairing a problem with helpful advice.

◆ EXERCISE 5 – ANA CALLS THE CLINIC (SCRIPTS 7.3-A AND 7.3-B)

a) Patient Ana Costa · a sore throat and a fever since Monday · Dr. Lee · today (Wednesday) · 4:15 · 10 minutes early Friday at 10:30 with Dr. Patel is offered first, but Ana asks for something earlier. Learners who write "Friday" missed the change.

b) One every 3 hours · not more than 6 a day · You should drink lots of water, and you'd better rest. (See the doctor again if it isn't better in a few days.)

◆ CLINIC INFORMATION GAP — POSSIBLE APPOINTMENTS

Calendar: today is Friday; bookings are for next week, plus one urgent slot today at 4:00 with Dr. Patel.

Pretend patient	When free	Good appointments
Tomás Rivera · sore throat since Tuesday, fever since last night · feels very unwell	not Mon–Wed mornings	today at 4:00 (urgent) · otherwise Mon 2:00 or Tue 4:45
Grace Mensah · backache for two weeks	after 9:30; not Thursday	Mon 10:30 · Mon 2:00 · Tue 4:45 · Wed 5:30
Leo Park · bad cough for five days, can't sleep	only after 5:00 p.m.	Wed 5:30 (the only one)
Nadia Haddad · headache since Monday, dizzy when she stands up	mornings only	Mon 10:30 · Tue 8:30 · Thu 9:45 · Fri 8:00

◆ PHARMACY ROLE-PLAY — WHAT THE PHARMACIST SHOULD SAY (INVENTED PRODUCTS)

Patient asks for something for...	Product	How often / how many a sore throat (Tomás)	ThroatEase lozenges	1 every 3 hours · not more than 6 a day
a backache (Grace)	WarmBack heat patch	1 patch a day, for 8 hours a cough (Leo)	CalmCough syrup	2 spoons, 3 times a day, after meals · can make you sleepy: You'd better not drive.
a headache (Nadia)	HeadClear tablets	1 tablet every 6 hours, with food · not more than 3 a day

Check the advice forms, not the medicine: You should rest. You'd better see the doctor if... Why don't you drink some tea? The products are invented for language practice.

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Leo started to feel sick on Monday. Now it's Thursday.

A) I've felt sick since Monday.

B) I've felt sick for Monday.

C) I've felt sick since three days.

Why: Monday is a starting point, so since. B needs a length (for three days); C mixes since with a length. (UK: I've felt ill, the online lesson's version, is also correct.)

Q2

Which sentence gives advice correctly?

A) You should to rest.

B) You should see a doctor.

C) You should drinking water.

Why: should + base verb. No to, no -ing.

Q3 · new

Which is the strongest advice?

A) Why don't you rest?

B) You should rest.

C) You'd better see a doctor today.

Why: 'd better is stronger than should: it says "this is important; there may be a problem if you don't." Why don't you...? is the softest, a friendly idea.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (7.3)

"I have pain my head." · "I have fever." (no article) · "I'm sick since Monday." / "since three days" · "You should to rest." · "Why you don't rest?" · "You had better to..." · "head-ache" with /tʃ/ (like chair) · "cow" for cough.
Correct since/for and should to; recast the rest.

Module 8 — Experiences, Plans & Review: Answers

Answers to every Module 8 workbook exercise and self-check question, with the "why," acceptable alternatives, the classroom-materials answers (for/since sort, to-do list information gap, verb sort, Verb Pattern Race model sentences), what to look for in the life-story project, and the errors you can expect to hear most.

Lessons 8.1–8.3

Classes C23–C25

9 self-check items

14 exercises

MARKING PRINCIPLE

At A2, mark meaning first, then form. A sentence with the right tense and a small spelling slip ("swiming") is a success with a note. American English is the model. British forms (at the weekend, flat, films, neighbourhood) are acceptable. American speakers also use the past simple with just / already / yet (I just ate. Did you eat yet?); accept it in speaking, but the workbook exercises test the present perfect.

8.1 • PRESENT PERFECT — FOR, SINCE, JUST, ALREADY, YET (C23)

◆ EXERCISE 1A — FOR OR SINCE? (SORT)

for 🕒 (a length of time)	since 📅 (a start point)
three years · a long time · ten minutes · six months · two weeks	2019 · Monday · I was a child · last summer · 9 o'clock

Quick test for learners: "Can you count it?" → for. "Is it on a calendar or a clock, or an event?" → since.

◆ EXERCISE 1B — WRITE FOR OR SINCE

1 for two years · 2 since 2019 · 3 since we were children · 4 for three hours · 5 since last June

Item 3 is the trap: we were children is an event (a start point), even though it sounds long.

◆ EXERCISE 2 — LISTEN TO ANA (SCRIPT 8.1-A)

- 1 since 2021
- 2 for three years
- 3 since 2022
- 4 for one year (also: for a year)
- 5 since last September

6 for two months

Bonus: Ana lived in Texas for two years. "Lived" (past simple) because it's finished: she doesn't live in Texas now. Accept any answer with that idea: "finished," "not now," "she lives here now."

◆ EXERCISE 3 – LEO'S MOVING DAY (SCRIPT 8.1-B)

Leo's list	✓ / ✗	just / already pack the kitchen things	✓	already (on Thursday)
clean the bathroom	✓	just (five minutes ago)
call the electric company	✗	—
return the keys	✗	— (tomorrow)
buy boxes	✓	already change my address	✓	just say goodbye to the neighbors	✗	—

Sentences (any 3): He's already packed the kitchen things. · He's just cleaned the bathroom. · He hasn't called the electric company yet. · He hasn't returned the keys yet. · He's already bought boxes. · He's just changed his address. · He hasn't said goodbye to his neighbors yet. Check he's = he has + past participle and yet at the end.

◆ EXERCISE 4 – JUST, ALREADY OR YET?

A. 1 just (one minute ago) · 2 already (done) · 3 yet (question, at the end) · 4 yet (negative, at the end) · 5 just (a moment ago)

Item 2: just is also possible if a learner explains "a moment ago," but already is the best answer (Don't cook for me = it's done). Item 5: already is also acceptable.

B. 6 I've just paid the bill. · 7 Have you called the doctor yet? · 8 She's already bought the tickets.

Wrong: "I've paid just the bill." · "Have you yet called the doctor?" · "She's bought already the tickets." (She's bought the tickets already is heard in relaxed speech; accept it, but teach the middle position.)

◆ EXERCISE 5 – NOW OR FINISHED?

1 have lived (since 2022, up to now) · 2 ate (yesterday, finished) · 3 worked (in 2019, finished) · 4 Have you seen (yet) · 5 have known (for ten years, still friends)

Item 4: "Did you see the new movie yet?" is common American speech; accept it if a learner argues for it, but the time-word clue (yet) points to the present perfect.

◆ SPEAKING – HOW LONG HAVE YOU...? / MY LIFE UP TO NOW (OPEN)

Check: How long have you + past participle (not "How long do you live...?"); for + length, since + start point; just / already in the middle; yet at the end. Model: I've lived in this city since 2021. I've had my phone for two years. I've known my best friend since school. I've just finished my homework. I've already paid my phone bill this month. Have you eaten lunch yet?

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Choose the correct sentence.

A) I've worked here since two years.

B) I've worked here for two years.

C) I've worked here for 2019.

Why: two years is a length of time → for. A uses since with a length; C uses for with a start point (2019 needs since).

Q2

Which sentence puts the word in the right place?

A) Have you finished yet?

B) Have you yet finished?

C) Have you finished already yet?

Why: yet goes at the end of questions and negatives. C uses two time words together.

Q3 · new

I ___ in this city since 2021.

A) live

B) have lived

C) lived

Why: since + a start point, and I still live here → present perfect. A is the common L1-transfer error (Spanish vivo aquí desde..., French depuis); C means it's finished, but since doesn't work with a finished past.

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (8.1)

"I live here since 2020." / "I am living here for five years." (the #1 error) · "since three years" · "for 2019" · "I've lived here for five years ago." · "I've finished yet." · "Have you yet eaten?" · "I've ate / I've went / I've saw" · "How long do you live here?" · "She's worked" read as "she is worked" · "I've eaten at seven o'clock." (finished time → I ate).

8.2 · VERB PATTERNS — -ING OR TO-INFINITIVE (C24)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — WHICH COLUMN?

+ -ing	+ to
enjoy · finish · don't mind · keep · suggest	want · decide · hope · need · plan · promise · would like

5 in the -ing column, 7 in the to column. If a learner asks about like: both patterns are OK; would like is to only.

◆ EXERCISE 2 – -ING OR TO?

1 reading · 2 to travel · 3 painting · 4 to pass · 5 waiting · 6 going · 7 to speak · 8 to swim

Spelling notes: swim → swimming (item 8 needs no -ing, but learners who write "to swimming" have mixed both patterns). A spelling slip ("waitting") = right pattern, spelling note.

◆ EXERCISE 3 – FIND THE MISTAKE

- 1 I enjoy reading. (enjoy + -ing)
- 2 I want to go home. (want + to)
- 3 I'd like to go out tonight. (would like always + to)
- 4 She finished eating. (finish + -ing)
- 5 We decided to stay one more night. (decide + to)

Also correct for 1: I like to read / I love reading only if the learner changes the first verb on purpose; the task is to fix the pattern, so prefer I enjoy reading.

◆ EXERCISE 4 – LENA AND OMAR (SCRIPT 8.2-A)

1 L enjoys dancing · 2 O loves hiking · 3 L doesn't mind cooking · 4 O keeps buying books · 5 L wants to learn to swim · 6 O hopes to visit his brother (in Chicago) · 7 O would like to learn to play the guitar · 8 L has decided to join a swimming pool

◆ EXERCISE 5 – WRITE ABOUT YOU (OPEN)

Check the second verb only: 1–2 need -ing (I enjoy playing soccer. I don't mind washing the dishes.); 3–6 need a base verb after the printed to (I want to find a new job, not "to finding"). Model: On the weekend, I enjoy sleeping late. I don't mind cleaning the kitchen. This year, I want to get my driver's license. I've decided to save money. One day, I'd like to visit Canada. I hope to open a small business.

◆ SPEAKING – HOBBIES & PLANS INTERVIEW (OPEN)

Check that the answer keeps the pattern of the question: "What do you enjoy doing?" → "I enjoy cooking." "What do you want to do?" → "I want to travel." Reporting with he/she: "She enjoys dancing" (the -s goes on the first verb only).

◆ VERB-PATTERN SORT CARDS (CLASSROOM MATERIALS, SET E)

+ -ing: enjoy · don't mind · finish · keep · suggest. + to: want · need · would like · decide · hope · plan · promise · learn · try. both: like · love · hate.

Stretch note (don't test at A2): try + -ing also exists with a different meaning ("try adding salt" = experiment); try to = make an effort. stop + -ing / stop + to also differ. Keep to the lesson's list.

◆ SELF-CHECK

Q1

Choose the correct sentence.

A) I want travelling this year.

B) I want to travel this year.

C) I want to travelling this year.

Why: want + to + base verb. C mixes both patterns.

Q2

Which sentence is correct?

A) She enjoys dancing.

B) She enjoys to dance.

C) She enjoys dance.

Why: enjoy + -ing. B is the common Romance-language error; C (no change) is common for Chinese and Vietnamese speakers.

Q3 · new

"I'd like ____ a coffee, please."

A) having

B) to have

C) have

Why: would like always takes to, even though like alone can take -ing. C (no to) is common for German speakers (ich möchte haben).

ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (8.2)

"I enjoy to read." / "I suggest to go." / "She finished to eat." (the #1 error) · "I want go." / "I enjoy cook." · "I'd like going out." · "I would like go." · "I want that I go." · "I decided stay." · "He keeps to forget." · "I want to travelling." · spelling: "swiming," "danceing," "makeing" · "sing-g" (hard g). Correct the pattern; let the pronunciation go during the game.

8.3 · REVIEW PROJECT — MY LIFE STORY & FUTURE PLANS (C25)

◆ EXERCISE 1 — LISTEN TO MAYA'S STORY (SCRIPT 8.3-A)

- 1 In a small town by the sea. Her family used to run a little café.
- 2 For four years — since she started university.
- 3 No, not yet. She's going to apply to a design studio next week.
- 4 To open her own studio one day, maybe back by the sea. If she gets the job, she'll stay in the city for a while.

Circle (heard): used to run · were cooking · I've lived · I've just finished · I'm going to apply · I'll stay · If I get. Not heard: was working · I lived · If I will get (that one is also wrong grammar!). Accept short answers ("by the sea; a café").

◆ EXERCISE 2 – PAST, UP TO NOW, OR FUTURE?

#	Answer	Tense
1	P	past simple (grew up)
2	N	present perfect + since
3	F	going to (a plan)
4	P	used to (old habit / state)
5	N	present perfect + just
6	F	first conditional
7	P	past continuous + past simple (when)
8	F	will (a prediction)
9	N	present perfect + yet

◆ EXERCISE 3 – CHOOSE THE RIGHT FORM

1 used to · 2 have lived · 3 was working (in progress when the phone rang) · 4 are going to · 5 will (first conditional; 'I'll is fine)

Item 3 is adapted from the online lesson so that the past continuous has a clear "interrupted action" context (Module 5.2).

◆ EXERCISE 4 – CORRECT THE MISTAKE

1 for three years · 2 since 2015 · 3 want to travel · 4 used to play · 5 yet (negative → yet at the end) · 6 If it rains

Item 5 uses a negative, where already is truly wrong (the online lesson does the same). Note: already in a question ("Have you finished your homework already?") is correct English — it shows surprise.

◆ STORY-PLANNING FRAME AND STORY CIRCLES (OPEN)

Success at A2 = three clear parts, 10+ sentences, understood by the group. Look for at least: one past simple + one used to or past continuous (part 1); one for / since (part 2); one going to or will + one If..., I'll... (part 3); one verb pattern (I'd like to..., I want to..., I enjoy...). Key words (not full sentences) in the frame are the right way to plan.

Literacy support target: 6 sentences, 2 per part.

Model (the online capstone, adapted): I grew up in a small village in the mountains. When I was a child, I used to walk to school with my brother, and my parents were working on a farm. Life was simple and happy. I've lived in the city for three years now, since I came here for work. I've learned a lot, and I've just started an evening English class. Next year, I'm going to look for a better job. I think I'll study more, too. If I improve my English, I'll apply for a job in an office. One day, I'd like to visit every country I've read about!

Don't mark the content, the story choice (real / partly fictional / card), or the length of the past part. A learner who starts at "up to now" has completed the task.

Q1

Which sentence talks about a past habit?

A) I used to play the piano.

B) I used to played the piano.

C) I going to play the piano.

Why: used to + base verb. B adds -ed twice; C is a future form with am missing.

Q2

"If I ____ the exam, I'll celebrate."

A) pass

B) will pass

C) passed

Why: first conditional: If + present simple, will + verb. No will in the if part.

Q3 · new

I've already signed up. Next year I ____ study nursing.

A) am going to

B) used to

C) have

Why: a decided plan (I've already signed up) + next year → going to. B is the past; C ("I have study") is not a tense.ERRORS YOU WILL HEAR MOST (8.3)

"I am living here since 2019." · "When I had 20 years..." (age with have) · "I used to played" / "I use to" · "If I will get the job..." · "I going to open a shop" (no be) · "I moved here for five years" (→ I've lived here for five years) · no tense change at all, with time words doing the work (Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai speakers) · "I grew up in small town" (article). In the report stage, board only 3–4 of these; praise the stories first.
