

Final Test — A1 Exit Check

The end-of-course check on all eight modules, taken on the last day, which is also a celebration. It shows each learner what they can now do in English and gives you the evidence for the next step: Everyday English (A2), or another round of A1 with more support. It is never a pass/fail verdict on a person.

 ~60 min written

+ ~5 min interview each

Written /85 • Speaking /15 • Total /100

Covers Modules 1–8

FRAME IT AS "SHOW WHAT YOU CAN DO"

By Class 24 your learners have met you 23 times. Use that trust: "Today you show me your English. Twelve weeks ago: hello. Today: a whole café, a doctor, your week!" Do every example item together, keep the room warm and unhurried, and plan the celebration so it happens whatever the scores are. Every learner gets a certificate of attendance. The test decides the next class, not who gets to celebrate.

RUNNING CLASS 24 (90 MIN)

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Welcome & set-up	5 min	T-S	Greet everyone. Review the icons on the board. Papers go out face down, and learners write their names.
Part 1 • Listening	15 min	T-S	Whole class. Read each script on the teacher pages twice . Do the example items first.
Parts 2–5 • written	45 min	S	Individual work. Interviews run at the same time at a side table (or in the hallway). Call learners one by one for about 5 minutes each, which is 8–9 learners. If a volunteer or co-teacher is free, they supervise the room. If not, sit where you can see everyone.
Break	5 min	—	Collect papers. Set out snacks if your program allows.
Remaining interviews + celebration	20 min	S-S • T-S	Finish the remaining interviews while the class makes an "I can..." wall : each learner writes (or dictates) three things they can do now on sticky notes. Then certificates, one sentence each ("I can..."), a class photo if everyone agrees, and how to join Everyday English

(A2). For a large class, start interviews in the second half of Class 23, during the review project.

◆ YOU NEED

- ◆ One learner paper each (the middle section of this pack), in color if possible
- ◆ Teacher pages: listening scripts, the interview script, the picture prompts (cut or show on screen), role-play cards, and one interview grid per learner
- ◆ The key and rubrics: assessment/assessment-key.html
- ◆ Certificates, sticky notes, and a timer

◆ WHAT EACH PART CHECKS

- ◆ Listening /15: times, dates, prices; key words; a café conversation
- ◆ Vocabulary /15: food, home, jobs, clothes (pictures) + odd one out
- ◆ Grammar /20: one item for each main structure in Modules 1–8
- ◆ Reading /15: a friend's email + a café menu
- ◆ Writing /20: a form + 6 sentences about your week
- ◆ Speaking /15: an individual interview with a role-play

LITERACY-ADAPTED VERSION

Same paper, different delivery. Read all instructions and items aloud, enlarge the paper, and give extra time or split it over Classes 23 and 24. Part 2: accept pointing or copying from the word bank. Part 3: read both choices aloud. Part 4: read the email and menu aloud and ask the questions orally (the menu prices can be pointed to). Part 5A: the learner copies details from a card. Part 5B: the learner says their six sentences while you scribe, and you score Range and Accuracy from what they say. Mark the paper "Adapted". For these learners, the interview and listening are the main evidence for placement. The key explains how to recommend A2 together with literacy support instead of holding someone back for reading and writing alone.

REAL OR NEW IDENTITY, ALWAYS

The form, the interview, and the "my week" writing all invite personal details. Say before you start: "Real or new, no problem." New-identity cards from the progress test work here too. Never ask follow-up questions about home country, family members who are absent, or immigration status.

Hi Maria,

How are you? I'm fine. I'm in my new flat! It's small, but it's nice. There's a big window in the living room, and my sofa is next to the window.

I usually get up at seven. I work in a café from Monday to Friday. I like my job, but I hate getting up early!

On Saturday I'm going to visit my sister. She's got a new baby, a girl! Her name is Sofia.

Would you like to have lunch on Sunday? Let's meet at one o'clock.

Love,

Lina

AFTER THE TEST

Score with the key and put written + speaking on the placement summary. Tell each learner their next step privately and kindly before they leave, or at a short one-to-one in the following week. Never read scores aloud. The key's "grade to outcome" table shows who is ready for Everyday English (A2), who goes on with a review plan, and who should repeat A1 with support.
