HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- ◆ One lesson block below = one 90-minute class. The stage plan is the clock. The notes under it are what you say and what to watch for.
- ◆ Every class follows the same rhythm: warmer → lead-in → Meaning / Form / Pronunciation (with CCQs) → drill (choral, then individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (pairs) → feedback → homework. Learners come to trust the routine, and that lowers anxiety.
- ◆ Dashed "Say:" boxes are lines to say out loud, usually concept-checking questions (CCQs) or instruction-checking questions (ICQs). Teal "Read aloud" scripts are in `materials/module-1/classroom-materials.html` too, so you can read from a printed sheet.
- ◆ The online lesson is the homework. Each lesson has  Listen buttons, so learners can hear every word again at home. Show them the site on a phone in C1.
- ◆ Teal = hands-on / pair work, amber = watch-outs and L1 notes.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Module 1 answers one question: "Who are you?" By the end of C3 every learner can walk up to a stranger, say hello, give a name and spell it, and give a phone number and email slowly and clearly. These are the exact exchanges of a clinic front desk, a job center, a school office, or a first day at work. Each class adds one layer: letters (C1) → names and greetings (C2) → numbers and details (C3). By C3 the whole first-meeting conversation is in place.

PERSONAL INFORMATION: A TRAUMA-INFORMED DEFAULT

From the very first class, learners are asked for personal details. For many adults (refugees, asylum seekers, people without papers, survivors of violence) these questions can feel unsafe. Make this a standing rule, said out loud in C1: in any "about you" task, a learner may use a new identity card (fictional name, age, phone, email; printed in the classroom materials). Age is always optional. Never ask for a real address, immigration status, or documents in class. Nobody has to explain why they choose a card.

- ◆ Print: the Module 1 workbook pages (one per learner), the name tents, the new-identity cards, the six classroom-language phrase cards (to tape on the wall for all 24 classes), the classroom-object picture flashcards, and the C1 spelling cards (A/B). All are in <materials/module-1/classroom-materials.html>.
- ◆ Bring: thick markers for name tents, a pack of index cards, a few mini-whiteboards or scrap paper, tape, and a phone or speaker for the online lesson's  audio.
- ◆ Room: chairs in a horseshoe or small tables of 3–4, so everyone can see the board and each other. Save front seats for anyone with low vision or hearing.
- ◆ Learn about your group from the intake form if you have one: first languages, and whether each person reads their own language and a Latin-script language. This tells you who needs the literacy route in C1 (see Lesson 1.1).
- ◆ Open the slides <slides/module-1-first-words.html> and the online course (<rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/>) on the classroom screen.

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS LEAVE ABLE TO...
1.1	C1 • Wk 1	First-class routine, classroom language, the alphabet, spelling out loud	Say the 26 letters; ask "How do you spell it?"; spell their name (or new-identity name) to a partner; ask for help with 4 survival phrases
1.2	C2 • Wk 1	Greetings by time of day, I'm / My name is, What's your name? , contractions	Greet with the right phrase for the time; introduce themselves; say "Nice to meet you"; say goodbye; choose formal or informal
1.3	C3 • Wk 2	Numbers 0–100, -teen / -ty , age with be , phone numbers and email	Count to 100; hear 14 vs 40; say "I'm 25" (not "I have 25 years"); give a phone number digit by digit and an email with "at" and "dot"

C4 (Week 2) starts Module 2 with the verb to be. Learners have already used I'm, What's and He's 30 as chunks in this module; Module 2 unpacks them.

The English Alphabet & First Sounds

◆ OBJECTIVES (CAN-DO)

- ◆ I can ask for help in class: Can you repeat, please? · How do you spell...? · I don't understand. · Slowly, please.
- ◆ I can say the 26 letters of the English alphabet.
- ◆ I can tell vowels (A E I O U) from consonants.
- ◆ I can spell my name out loud with capital and double, and write down a word a partner spells.

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook Lesson 1.1 · name tents · new-identity cards · 6 classroom-language phrase cards (wall) · classroom-object flashcards (book, pen, pencil, notebook, desk, chair, door, window, teacher)
- ◆ C1 spelling cards A/B · Read-aloud scripts 1.1 (letter dictation, word dictation) · Slides 1–8
- ◆ For the literacy route: the cut-up letter cards and letter-sound picture cards (apple, book, door, egg...) in the classroom materials

BOARD PLAN

Left: Classroom language (stays up all course) → Can you repeat, please? · How do you spell ____? · I don't understand. · Slowly, please. · What does ____ mean? · Can you help me, please?

Center: the 7 sound groups: ay A H J K · ee B C D E G P T V Z · e F L M N S X · eye I Y · oh O · yoo Q U W · ar R

Right: A – N – N – A = A – double N – A · capital M – a – r – i – a · How do you spell it?

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Welcome & name tents	10	T–S	Greet each person at the door: "Hello! I'm ____." Hand out name tents. Model yours on the board. Everyone writes the name they want to be called (or a new-identity name). Walk the room and learn to say every name correctly .
What this course is	5	T–S	Slide 2. 24 classes · 2 a week · 12 weeks · workbook · the online course is homework (show it on your phone, tap a  button). Short L1 help is fine if a learner can translate.

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Classroom language	12	T-S, S	Teach 4 survival phrases with gestures (+2 for stretch). Choral drill → individual. Then the "mumble game": you speak too fast or too quietly on purpose, and learners must use a phrase.
Alphabet: letter names	15	T-S, S	Lead-in: "Which letters do you know?" Build the 7 sound groups on the board. Drill each group chorally, then the hard pairs. Split into the two routes (below) for the last 5 minutes.
Stretch break	5	—	Stand up. Sing the alphabet song once (optional, adults often enjoy it). Water, bathroom.
Vowels & consonants	8	T-S, S	A E I O U in red on the board. Workbook Ex 1 (capital → lowercase) and Ex 3 (circle the vowels).
Spelling out loud	10	T-S, S-S	Model the Anna Costa dialogue (slide 7). Clarify capital and double . Pairs read it twice, then swap roles. Workbook Ex 2 (listen, write the letter).
Spelling-dictation game: "Spell It, Find It"	12	T-S, S-S	Teams race to write the word you spell (script) and hold up the picture. Then workbook Ex 4.
Freer: Spell yourself	8	S-S	ICQs first. Mingle: ask 4 people "What's your name? How do you spell it?" and write the names. New-identity names are fine.
Feedback & homework	5	T-S	2-3 errors you heard, on the board, no names. Homework: online Lesson 1.1 + workbook Ex 5 and journal.
90		Total: 10 + 5 + 12 + 15 + 5 + 8 + 10 + 12 + 8 + 5

◆ THE FIRST-CLASS ROUTINE

- 1 At the door. Smile, shake hands or nod (follow the learner's lead; not everyone shakes hands across genders), and say "Hello! I'm ____." Point to yourself. Most learners will copy you: that is the whole of Lesson 1.2 in miniature.
- 2 Name tents. A folded card on the desk, name facing the room. Model yours first: "My name is ____." Please call me ____." Learners write the name they want to be called. Offer the new-identity cards quietly and without fuss: "You can use your name, or a new name. Both are OK." For learners who cannot yet write their name in Latin letters, write it for them lightly in pencil and let them trace it over in marker.

- 3 Say their names right. Ask each person to say their name, repeat it, and ask "Is that right?" Do not shorten or anglicize a name unless the learner offers a short name. Getting names right is the single biggest trust-builder you have in C1.
- 4 Seating and pairs. Seat people with a different first language next to each other where possible, so English is the shared language. Put a confident reader beside a learner on the literacy route, as a quiet helper, not a translator. Tell the class you will change partners often: "New class, new partner."
- 5 What the course is. Keep it to one slide and five minutes. The only must-knows: when class is, the workbook stays with them, the online course is homework, and mistakes are welcome here.

SAY: In this class, mistakes are OK. Mistakes are how we learn. Everybody here is new to English.

- 6 The wall. Tape the six classroom-language cards to the wall where everyone can see them. Point to them all course, every time a learner needs one.

◆ CLASSROOM LANGUAGE: MEANING, DRILL, PRACTICE

PHRASE	ACT IT OUT	CCQ
Can you repeat, please?	Say a sentence, cup your ear, look confused.	"Do you want me to say it again? (yes) One more time? (yes)"
Slowly, please.	Say a name very fast. Then gesture a slow hand.	"Fast or slow? (slow)"
How do you spell ____?	Write a blank line on the board, point to your mouth, then the line.	"Do you want the letters? (yes) The word, or the letters? (the letters)"
I don't understand.	Say a long, hard sentence. Shrug, shake your head.	"Do you know the meaning? (no) Is it OK to say this? (yes!)"
Stretch: What does ____ mean? · Can you help me, please?	Point to a word on the board, look puzzled.	"Do you want the meaning? (yes)"

Drill: choral (whole class) × 3, then groups (this side / that side), then individuals. Back-chain the long one: please → repeat, please → you repeat, please → Can you repeat, please? Keep the rising tone on the question.

Mumble game (3 min): say things badly on purpose (too fast, too quiet, a hard word, "My name is Xochitl"). Learners call out the right phrase. Praise every attempt. This is the first time most learners have told a teacher "slowly, please" in English. Make it feel good.

SAY: Say "Can you repeat, please?" to me any time. Every class. I am happy to repeat.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION: THE ALPHABET

Letter names vs letter sounds. A letter has a name (B = "bee"), used for spelling out loud, and a sound (B = /b/ in book), used for reading. This lesson teaches names, because the goal is spelling. Learners on the literacy route also need sounds (see the two routes below). Do not mix both on the board for everyone. It overloads.

Teach the names in sound groups, not A to Z. Letters that rhyme are easier to learn together, and the groups show learners why E and I, or G and J, are different:

Sound	Letters	Tip
ay /eɪ/	A H J K	H is "aych" (no h sound at the start in American English)
ee /i:/	B C D E G P T V Z	Z = "zee" in American English ("zed" in British)
e /ɛ/	F L M N S X	Short e + consonant: ef, el, em, en, ess, eks eye /aɪ/	I Y	Y = "why"
oh /oʊ/	O	Also used for 0 in phone numbers (Lesson 1.3)
yoo /ju:/	Q U W	W = "double-yoo" (literally "double U")
ar /ɑ:r/	R	On its own

SAY: Listen: A, H, J, K. Same sound? (yes) ... E and I. Same sound? (no!) E is "ee." I is "eye."

SAY: (point to G) Is this "jay"? (no, "jee") ... (point to J) And this? (jay)

Drill: each group chorally, then the hard pairs back and forth: E/I • G/J • A/R • W/Y • B/V • P/B. Point at letters at random and nominate individuals. Keep it quick and light.

Capital and lowercase. Write Maria on the board. Circle the M: "big letter: capital." Circle the a: "small letter: lowercase." Names start with a capital. Double: write Anna, point at the NN: "Two N's: double N."

SAY: (Anna) How many N's? (two) So we say...? (double N) ... (Maria) Is the M big or small? (big) We say...? (capital M)

◆ TWO ROUTES FOR A MIXED-LITERACY CLASS (LAST 5 MIN OF THE ALPHABET STAGE)

Route 1: Latin-script readers (they already read Spanish, French, Portuguese, Tagalog, Vietnamese, Swahili...). They know the shapes. They need the English names, and to unlearn their L1 names (see the watch-outs). Pairs: one points at letters on the workbook alphabet chart at random, the other says the name. Then they spell three words from the wall to each other.

Route 2: new to Latin script or new to reading (Arabic, Dari/Farsi, Pashto, Amharic, Tigrinya, Chinese, Burmese, Nepali readers, or learners with little schooling). Start with the letters of their own name only. Work on shape, direction (left → right; this matters for Arabic and Farsi readers) and one sound per letter with a picture: B /b/ book • D /d/door · P /p/ pen · W /w/ window. Trace, then copy. 4–6 letters is a great first day.

Route 2 learners join the rest of the class for spelling: they spell their own name (the letters they practiced) instead of new words, and in the dictation game they hold and point to the picture card. Nobody sits out. Watch for b/d/p/q reversals; give them a mnemonic ("b has a belly, d has a door handle") rather than a correction.

◆ SPELLING OUT LOUD & ICQS

Model the dialogue with a confident learner (or the slide). Then pairs: A reads, B reads; swap. Then B uses their own (or new-identity) name.

A: Hello! What's your name?

B: My name is Anna.

A: How do you spell it?

B: A – N – N – A. Anna.

A: And your last name?

B: Costa. C – O – S – T – A.

A: Thank you!

ICQs before "Spell yourself" (mingle):

SAY: Do you sit or stand? (stand) · How many people? (four) · Do you write the names? (yes) · Can you use a new name? (yes)

◆ GAME – "SPELL IT, FIND IT" (SPELLING DICTATION, 12 MIN)

- 1 Stick the 9 classroom-object picture cards on the board, without words. Teams of 3–4, each with a mini-whiteboard or paper.
- 2 Spell a word from the script, clearly, once: "p – e – n." Teams write it, then one runner touches the right picture. First correct team gets a point. Learners may say "Can you repeat, please?" (you repeat, no penalty).
- 3 Round 2: learners take your role. One volunteer from each team spells a word to the other teams.
- 4 Finish with workbook Ex 4 (listen and write), using the second half of the script.

Mixed literacy: in every team, the Route 2 learner is the "finder" who touches the picture when the team's word is written; readers write. Stretch: spell names from the class (from the name tents) instead of objects.

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: Route 2 above; the copy-your-name line in workbook Ex 1; only the letters of their name in Ex 2; a copy of the alphabet chart on the desk all class; pair with a patient reader.
- ◆ Stretch: spell a street name, a city, or an email address; add What does ___ mean? and Can you help me, please?; be the teacher in the dictation game.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, Tagalog speakers: the vowel letter names shift. Their e sounds like English A, and their i sounds like English E. Expect "ee" for I and "ay/eh" for E. Drill E/I with the lesson's tip: "email is E, I am I."
- ◆ French speakers: G and J are exactly reversed (French G ≈ English J, French J ≈ English G). Also Spanish G/J cause confusion. Drill G "jee" / J "jay" as a pair.
- ◆ Arabic speakers: P and B (Arabic has no /p/). Hand on throat: B buzzes, P puffs. Put a paper strip in front of the lips for P. Also reading direction for learners new to Latin script.
- ◆ Japanese and Korean speakers: L "el" vs R "ar". Spanish, Japanese and Korean speakers: B/V. Show teeth on lip for V.
- ◆ Vietnamese, Chinese speakers: final consonants drop in ef, el, em, en, ess, eks, so F sounds like "e". Exaggerate the end. Some Chinese speakers add a vowel ("ef-u").
- ◆ H: "aych" (US). Some learners say "hash" or "ahche" from their L1 names; accept the attempt, model "aych."

◆ FEEDBACK (DELAYED ERROR CORRECTION)

During the mingle, note 2–3 errors on a card. Don't stop the activity. At the end write them on the board without names: e.g., G – I – N – A said "jay – ee...", or "Can you repeat?" without please. Ask the class: "Right or wrong? How do we say it?" Then drill the correct form once.

◆ HOMEWORK

- ◆ Online Lesson 1.1: rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_01.html. Tap 🗣️ on every new word; do the Quick Quiz.
- ◆ Workbook 1.1: Ex 5 (write about you), the checklist, "My new words," and the journal (why do you want to learn English? any language is fine).

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 vowels only = B) A, E, I · Q2 "Bill" = A) capital B – i – double l · Q3 (new) the teacher speaks fast, you say A) Slowly, please.

◆ OBJECTIVES (CAN-DO)

- ◆ I can greet people with the right words for the time of day (Good morning / afternoon / evening) and know that Good night is a goodbye.
- ◆ I can introduce myself: I'm... / My name is... and ask What's your name?
- ◆ I can say Nice to meet you (too), answer How are you?, and say goodbye.
- ◆ I can choose formal or informal words (titles Mr. / Ms. + last name vs first names).

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook Lesson 1.2 · greeting word cards (Hello ... Goodbye) · C2 meeting cards (A/B) · name tents from C1 · new-identity cards
- ◆ Read-aloud script 1.2 ("Which greeting?") · Slides 9–13
- ◆ Draw a simple clock line on the board: 🌞 morning → 12:00 → afternoon → 6:00 → evening → 🌙 bed

BOARD PLAN

Top: time line 🌞 Good morning | 12:00 | Good afternoon | 6:00 p.m. | Good evening | 🌙 Good night (= goodbye!)

Left: What's your name? → I'm Ana. / My name is Ana. → Nice to meet you. → Nice to meet you, too.

Bottom: Formal: Good morning, Ms. Park. · Informal: Hi, Sam!

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Warmer: spell my name	8	S-S	Name tents out. In pairs: "What's your name? How do you spell it?" Partner writes it. Then 3 pairs spell a partner's name to the class while you write it on the board. Quick review of E/I and G/J.
Lead-in: time of day	5	T-S	Point at the time line. Mime waking up, lunch, coming home, going to bed. "What do we say?" Elicit what they know.
Greetings: M/F/P	12	T-S, S	Clarify the 7 greetings with the time line and CCQs. Choral and individual drill. Stand-up "clock" game.
Introducing yourself	12	T-S, S-S	I'm / My name is · What's your name? · And you? Contractions on the board. Drill. Chain around the room.

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Stretch break	5	—	—
Two dialogues	13	T–S, S–S	Read-aloud script: "Which greeting?" (listening). Then the formal and informal dialogues (slide 12): listen, repeat line by line, pairs read, swap. "What's different?"
Controlled practice	10	S, S–S	Workbook Ex 1–4. Pairs check. Check answers on the board.
Freer: meeting cards	15	S–S	ICQs. Pairs get A/B meeting cards (time + place + formal/informal). Act the meeting; swap cards with the next pair; 3–4 rounds. Final round: mingle and meet 3 people.
Feedback	5	T–S	Delayed error correction on the board (see below).
Homework	5	T–S	Show online Lesson 1.2. Workbook Ex 5 + journal.
	90	Total: 8 + 5 + 12 + 12 + 5 + 13 + 10 + 15 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION: GREETINGS

Meaning. Hello and Hi work any time (Hi is informal). The three Good... greetings follow the clock. Good night and Goodbye are for leaving.

SAY: It's 9 a.m. I arrive at work. Good morning or good evening? (good morning)

SAY: It's 8 p.m. I arrive at a party. Good evening or good night? (good evening) ... It's 11 p.m. I go home. Now? (good night)

SAY: "Good night": hello or goodbye? (goodbye!)

SAY: Hi: for my friend or for my boss? (my friend) Hello? (both)

Pronunciation. Good morning is two words with one stress: good MORning. Link Nice to meet you → "nice-tuh-MEE-chuh" (don't teach the spelling of that, just let them hear it). Rising intonation on And you?; falling on What's your name? (wh-questions fall).

Clock game (3 min): everyone stands. Call a time and a place: "7 a.m., the bus!" Learners greet a neighbor with the right phrase. "11 p.m., leaving!" → "Good night!" Anyone who says Good night on arrival sits down, then gets back up next round.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION: INTRODUCTIONS AND CONTRACTIONS

Ask	Answer	Reply
What's your name?	I'm Ana. / My name is Ana.	And you?
How are you?	I'm fine, thanks. / I'm good, thank you. / I'm okay.	And you?
Nice to meet you.	Nice to meet you, too.	—

SAY: "I'm Ana" and "My name is Ana": same meaning? (yes) Which is more formal? (My name is)

SAY: (write I am → I'm) Two words or one word? (one) What goes here? (point at the apostrophe) A letter is gone. Which letter? (a)

SAY: I meet you today, first time. Nice to meet you? (yes) Tomorrow I see you again. Nice to meet you? (no, just "Hi!")

Drill: back-chain Nice to meet you, too: too → you, too → meet you, too → Nice to meet you, too. Then a name chain around the room: A: "I'm Ahmed. What's your name?" B: "I'm Rosa. Nice to meet you." A: "Nice to meet you, too." B turns to C... Keep it fast.

◆ FORMAL VS INFORMAL (CULTURE NOTE)

Formal: boss, doctor, teacher, older person, stranger → Good morning + title + last name (Mr. Lee, Ms. Park), often a handshake. Informal: friends, classmates → Hi + first name. Ms. ("miz") is the safe title for any woman. When unsure, be a little more formal.

SAY: "Ms. Park": first name or last name? (last name) · "Mr. David"? Right or wrong? (wrong: Mr. Lee, or just David)

Tell the class what you want to be called. Many learners will call you "Teacher," which is polite in their cultures; accept it warmly. Don't correct it as an error.

◆ FREER PRACTICE: MEETING CARDS & ICQS

Each card gives a time, a place and who you are (e.g., A: 9 a.m., new job, meet your boss Mr. Diaz / B: You are Mr. Diaz). Pairs act it out: greet → name → nice to meet you → how are you → goodbye. Swap cards with the next pair. Last round: stand up and meet 3 classmates; write their names in workbook Ex 5.

SAY: Do you read the card to your partner? (no, just look and speak) · First you say...? (a greeting) · Last you say...? (goodbye) · Formal card: first name or Mr./Ms.? (Mr./Ms.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: the clock pictures (☀️ / 🌙) on the greeting cards carry the meaning; learners can do the freer practice from memory without reading the card (you whisper the situation); workbook Ex 1 as circling, not writing.

- ◆ Stretch: add See you tomorrow · Please, come in · Excuse me; introduce a partner to a third person ("This is Rosa."); play the formal card with a title and handshake.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "Good night" as hello: Spanish buenas noches, Portuguese boa noite, Tagalog magandang gabi, Italian buonasera/buonanotte confusions: many languages use one phrase for evening hello and goodbye. Expect it. The clock game fixes it.
- ◆ Arabic, Chinese, Russian, many others: dropping am/is: "I Ana," "My name Ana," "What your name?" Point at the missing word with a gesture (a finger in the gap) and let them self-correct.
- ◆ Title + first name ("Ms. Maria," "Mr. David") is common for Spanish, Tagalog, South Asian and West African speakers, where it's polite. Teach title + last name as the US norm, gently.
- ◆ "How are you?" as a real question: some learners answer at length or with health news. Teach it as a greeting ritual; the answer is short.
- ◆ Apostrophes: "Im," "Whats." Also you're vs your. Point at the missing letter.

◆ FEEDBACK (DELAYED ERROR CORRECTION)

Typical board list: "Good night!" (arriving at 8 p.m.) → Good evening · My name Rosa → My name is Rosa · Nice to meet you. / Nice to meet you. → ...too · Mr. David → Mr. Lee. Class corrects, then quick drill.

◆ HOMEWORK

- ◆ Online Lesson 1.2: rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_02.html. Listen to both dialogues with 🎧 and repeat them.
- ◆ Workbook 1.2: Ex 5 (meet 3 people), checklist, "My new words," journal (write how you meet a new classmate).

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 arrive at a party at 8 p.m. = B) Good evening · Q2 contraction of "What is your name?" = A) What's your name? · Q3 (new) someone says "Nice to meet you," you answer C) Nice to meet you, too.

◆ OBJECTIVES (CAN-DO)

- ◆ I can say and understand numbers 0–100, and hear the difference between fourteen and forty.
- ◆ I can ask How old are you? and answer I'm 25 (years old), or politely not answer.
- ◆ I can say a phone number digit by digit (with oh and double) and write one down.
- ◆ I can say and spell an email address with at and dot, and give basic personal information on a form.

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook Lesson 1.3 · number word cards (thirteen/thirty ... nineteen/ninety) · number bingo cards · new-identity cards (A/B info-gap) · pictures: mobile phone, email
- ◆ Read-aloud script 1.3 (teen/ty, phone numbers, emails, bingo caller list) · Slides 14–19

BOARD PLAN

Left: 0–20 in words · 13 thirTEEN ↔ 30 THIRty (stress!) · 40 = forty (no u!)

Center: 21 = twenty + one = twenty-one · How old are you? → I'm 25. / I'm 25 years old. · ~~I have 25 years.~~

Right: (702) 555-0148 → "seven – oh – two · five – five – five · oh – one – four – eight" · 0 = oh · 55 = double five · @ = at · . = dot

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Warmer: meet and greet	7	S–S	Mingle with the C2 routine (greet → name → spell → goodbye) with 3 people. You call a time of day before each round ("It's 7 p.m.!").
Numbers 0–20	10	T–S, S	Count around the circle; fingers up. Drill three, twelve, thirteen (th). Hold up fingers / cards; learners call out.
-teen vs -ty	10	T–S, S–S	Stress contrast with hand signals. Listen-and-circle (workbook Ex 1, script). Pairs: A says one of a pair, B points.
Tens & building 21–99	8	T–S, S	Tens on the board with spelling traps (forty, eighty, ninety). Pattern: ten + one. Workbook Ex 2–3.
Number bingo	10	T–S	Bingo cards; you call from the caller list, stress-heavy. First "Bingo!" reads back their numbers.
Stretch break	5	—	—

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Age with be	8	T-S, S	Use the new-identity cards and people on the slide, not learners' real ages. CCQs on I'm 25 vs I have 25 years . Drill.
Phone & email	12	T-S, S	Model digit by digit with oh , double . Dictation (workbook Ex 4, script). Email: at , dot , spell unclear letters.
Freer: new-identity info gap	12	S-S	ICQs. A/B cards: ask your partner's name (spell it), age, phone, email; fill the form. Swap cards and repeat with a new partner.
Feedback & homework	8	T-S	Delayed error correction (big one: "I have 30 years"). Module 1 recap: the whole first-meeting conversation. Homework.
90		Total: 7 + 10 + 10 + 8 + 10 + 5 + 8 + 12 + 12 + 8

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION: NUMBERS

0–20. Learners know the concepts, just not the words ("You already count every day. Today: new words, same numbers."). The hard sounds: three (tongue between the teeth, not "tree"), twelve (one syllable), thirteen (th + -TEEN).

-teen vs -ty: it's all stress. fourTEEN /ˌfɔːrˈtiːn/ vs FORty /ˈfɔːrti/. Also, American English often says the t in forty, thirty like a quick /d/ ("FOR-dee"), and the -teen keeps a clear, long /t/. Give a hand signal: hand up on the stressed syllable.

SAY: (say "fourTEEN") Loud at the start or the end? (the end) So, 14 or 40? (14)

SAY: I'm not sure: 15 or 50? What can I ask? ("Fifteen, one-five? Or fifty, five-zero?")

Tens and spelling traps: forty (no u), eighty (one t), ninety (keeps the e), fifty (not fivety), thirty (not threety).

Form of 21–99: ten + one with a hyphen: twenty-one, forty-eight.

Drill: pairs chorally (13–30, 14–40 ... 19–90) with the hand signal, then random individuals. Pair game: A says one number of a pair, B points to the card (13 or 30). Swap.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION: AGE (HANDLE WITH CARE)

Ask	Short answer	Full answer
How old are you?	I'm 25.	I'm 25 years old.
How old is he?	He's 30.	He's 30 years old.
How old is she?	She's 19.	She's 19 years old.

Present it with other people first: the identity-card people on slide 16 ("Lina, 34"). Learners ask How old is she? about them. Only then invite How old are you? in pairs, always with the option to answer for their new identity or to say "Sorry, that's private." Teach that phrase as a normal, polite answer. It's also true in American culture that asking adults' ages can be rude.

SAY: "I'm 25." Is this about my name or my age? (age) · "I have 25 years." Right or wrong in English? (wrong) What do we say? (I'm 25.)

SAY: Is "I'm 25" OK, with no "years old"? (yes) Is "I'm 25 years" OK? (no: 25, or 25 years old)

Some learners do not know their exact birth date or age; many refugee documents list January 1. Don't make age a test of truth. The language point is be + number, and a fictional age teaches it just as well.

◆ MEANING · FORM · PRONUNCIATION: PHONE NUMBERS AND EMAIL

Phone numbers are said one digit at a time, in groups, with a small pause: (702) 555-0148 = "seven – oh – two ... five – five – five ... oh – one – four – eight." 0 is often oh; a repeated digit can be double (double five). Email: @ = at, . = dot; spell anything unclear: "ben, B – E – N, at mail dot com."

SAY: Do I say "five hundred fifty-five"? (no) One number at a time? (yes) · 0 in a phone number: "oh" or "zero"? (both OK, "oh" is common)

SAY: (write @) What do we say? (at) (write .) And this? (dot)

Use only fictional numbers (the 555-01xx numbers in this kit are reserved fictional numbers). Dictate from the script (workbook Ex 4). Learners use "Slowly, please" and "Can you say that again?" from the wall. Praise them for it.

◆ FREER PRACTICE: NEW-IDENTITY INFO GAP & ICQS

Everyone gets a new-identity card (A or B) with a name, age, phone and email. With their partner: greet, then ask What's your name? How do you spell it? How old are you? What's your phone number? What's your email? and fill the form on the card. Check by comparing cards at the end. Swap cards, new partner, repeat.

SAY: Do you show your card? (no!) · Do you write your partner's number? (yes) · Do you say "fifty-five" or "five – five"? (five – five) · Can you say "Slowly, please"? (yes)

Stretch: learners who want to may do a final round with their real first name and a made-up phone number. Never collect real phone numbers in class.

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: numerals first, words later (the spoken number and the digit are the survival skill; spelling forty can wait); bingo with numerals only; dictation Ex 4 with only the first number; pair with a reader for the email.
- ◆ Stretch: numbers to 1,000 (two hundred and five); street addresses said the US way ("12 34 Main Street" = twelve thirty-four); a longer email with numbers and a hyphen; ask How old is your...? about a friend or family member (optional).

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Spanish, Portuguese, French, Italian speakers: "I have 30 years." This is the error of the lesson. Make the "have" crossed-out on the board a running joke.
- ◆ Arabic speakers may say "My age is 30" (correct but rare); Russian speakers may drop the subject or be. Chinese, Arabic, Russian speakers: "I 30." Gesture the gap.
- ◆ th: "tree" / "sree" / "free" for three; "tirty" for thirty. Many languages lack /θ/. Tongue out, blow gently. Accept intelligible, don't drill to exhaustion.
- ◆ Vietnamese speakers: final consonants drop: eight → "ay," five → "fi," six → "si." Exaggerate endings; say the number, then its last sound alone.
- ◆ Stress-timed vs syllable-timed: Spanish, French, Tagalog, Japanese speakers give each syllable equal weight, so thirteen/thirty merge. The hand-signal drill is for them.
- ◆ Phone number groups differ by country; learners may group digits the way they do at home. Accept any clear grouping.

◆ FEEDBACK & MODULE RECAP

Board: I have 34 years → I'm 34 · fourty → forty · five hundred fifty-five... → five – five – five. Then recap Module 1 as one conversation. Two volunteers perform it: greet → name → spell → nice to meet you → phone and email → goodbye. Applause.

◆ HOMEWORK

- ◆ Online Lesson 1.3: rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_03.html. Use 🗣️ on the number tables; say every -teen/-ty pair.
- ◆ Workbook 1.3: Ex 5 (correct the mistakes), the form in "Your turn" (real or new identity), checklist, "My new words," journal.

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 "four-TEEN" = A) 14 · Q2 you are 30 = B) I'm 30 years old. · Q3 (new) in the phone number 707-0155, how can you say 0? = B) "oh"

AFTER MODULE 1

CARRY-FORWARD

Keep the classroom-language cards on the wall for all 24 classes, and keep using name tents until you (and the class) know every name. Start every class in Week 2 and 3 with the 2-minute greeting mingle; it's a warm, predictable opening. Keep the new-identity cards in a box by the door: Modules 2 (countries, family) and 5 (have got) need them again.

Informal check before C4: can each learner (1) spell their name, (2) greet and introduce themselves, (3) say a phone number digit by digit? Note anyone who can't yet, and pair them with a buddy in Module 2. Progress Test 1 (C13) covers Modules 1–4.

Module 2 — People, Places & Things

Three classes that give learners the engine of English, the verb to be, and then point it at the world: where people are from, the things in the room, and the people in their lives. By the end of Class 6 a learner can say who they are, name what they see, and introduce a family, real or imagined.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- Each lesson block below is one 90-minute class. The Stage plan is the clock. The Meaning / Form / Pronunciation notes, drill script, and ICQs are the content you say out loud.
- Same rhythm every class: warmer (review the last class) → lead-in → clarify Meaning, Form, Pronunciation with CCQs → drill (choral, then individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (pairs / mingle) → delayed error correction → homework.
- Present from `slides/module-2-people-places.html` (arrow keys). Print the classroom materials before Class 4: flashcards, identity cards, information-gap cards, listening scripts, and the Module 2 picture bingo.
- The online lessons are the homework. Each has  Listen buttons, so learners can hear every word at home.
- Teal = hands-on, amber = watch-outs, dashed boxes = lines to say out loud.

THE THROUGH-LINE

One verb, three worlds. Class 4 teaches am / is / are with people (She's from Mexico). Class 5 points the same verb at things (This is a key. These are keys.). Class 6 adds the words that show who owns what (This is my sister. Her name is Maria.). Keep recycling: every class, every learner says at least one sentence with is and one with are.

THIS MODULE IS PERSONAL: PROTECT YOUR LEARNERS

Home country and family are the two most sensitive topics in an adult ESL beginner class. Some learners are refugees or asylum seekers. Some have family far away, or have lost family. Some prefer not to name their country. Every personal task in this module has a "new identity" option: a learner can talk about any country, a famous person, or a fictional family, and nobody needs to explain why. Model this choice yourself, casually and early, so it feels normal and not like a special exception.

BEFORE MODULE 2

- ◆ Class 4: a large world map (wall map, or project one) and a sheet of small sticky dots or sticky notes. Print and cut the identity cards and the 2.1 information-gap cards. Look up the nationality word for every country your learners have told you about (see the table in Lesson 2.1).
- ◆ Class 5: the realia bag. Fill a cloth bag (one you can't see through) with real things: a pen, a pencil, a book, a notebook, a phone, a key and a bunch of keys, a cup, an apple, an orange, an egg (hard-boiled or plastic), a small umbrella, a watch, a small box, and three or four extra pens. Real objects beat pictures at A1.
- ◆ Class 6: print the Rivera family tree information-gap cards and a blank family-tree template for each learner (both in the materials). Prepare your own short example tree. It can be your real family or a fictional one. Either is fine, and a fictional one is a good model for learners.
- ◆ Print the picture flashcards once for the room (card stock if you can). You will use them in all three classes and in the bingo game.

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS LEAVE ABLE TO...
2.1	C4 • Wk 2	The verb to be ; countries & nationalities	Say where they (or a new identity) are from; ask Where are you from? ; ask and answer yes/no questions with short answers
2.2	C5 • Wk 3	this / that / these / those ; a / an ; plurals; everyday objects	Point to and name things near and far, one and many; ask What's this? / What are these?
2.3	C6 • Wk 3	Family words; my, your, his, her... ; possessive 's ; have / has	Introduce family members (any family shape, or a fictional family); show who owns something

◆ OBJECTIVES: LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ use am / is / are with every subject, in positive and negative sentences and questions
- ◆ ask and answer "Where are you from?" with I'm from + country
- ◆ say a nationality: I'm + nationality, and write both with a capital letter
- ◆ answer yes/no questions with short answers: Yes, I am. / No, she isn't.

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 2.1 (Exercises 1–5, dialogue, speaking task) · Slides 1–7
- ◆ World map + sticky dots · identity cards (cut) · 2.1 information-gap cards A/B · Listening script 2.1

BOARD PLAN

Left: I am · he / she / it is · you / we / they are | I'm not · he isn't · they aren't Centre: Are you from Brazil? → Yes, I am. ✓ (not "Yes, I'm") / No, I'm not.

Right: I'm from + country (Mexico) · I'm + nationality (Mexican) · Capital letters!

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Warmer: review C3	10	S–S	Numbers & personal info. Pairs ask What's your name? How do you spell it? What's your phone number? Learners may use a made-up number. Then 1-minute board race: T says numbers 11–100, learners write them.
Lead-in	5	T–S	Stand at the world map. "I'm from _____. I live in _____." Put a dot on your country. Slide 2. Elicit a few country names in English. Do not go round the room asking each learner yet.
Clarify am / is / are (positive)	15	T–S	Slide 3. Meaning and form from examples (I am Ray. She is from Japan. They are from Italy.). CCQs. The "beat" drill (below): choral, then individual. Contractions: I'm, he's, they're.
Controlled 1	8	S → S–S	Workbook Ex 1 (am/is/are) alone, then check in pairs. T monitors. Quick class check.

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Negatives & questions	12	T-S	Slide 4. Add not . Swap the words for questions (use two learners holding word cards SHE and IS , then swap places). Short answers, the "no Yes, I'm" rule. Question-and-answer drill.
Controlled 2	7	S	Workbook Ex 2 (negatives) and Ex 5 (short answers). Check with the answer key on the slide or board.
Countries & nationalities	10	T-S	Slide 5. Country vs nationality (CCQs). Drill with stress (clap the strong syllable). Add the class's own countries to the board. Workbook Ex 3 (match) and Ex 4 (order the words) as a quick check. The dialogue (Slide 6), then listening script 2.1.
Freer: world-map mingle	15	S-S	See procedure below. Learners choose: themselves, or an identity card. Then information gap (2.1 A/B) if time allows.
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed error correction: write 4–5 sentences you heard (anonymous, mixed right and wrong). Pairs decide  /  and fix.
Homework set-up	3	T-S	Show the online lesson on screen; point to the  buttons. Workbook "Write about you" + journal.
90		Total: 10 + 5 + 15 + 8 + 12 + 7 + 10 + 15 + 5 + 3

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. To be links a person to a fact about them: who they are, where they are from, how they feel. Show it on the board with an equals sign: Sofia = Mexican → Sofia is Mexican.

SAY: She is from Japan. Is Japan her country? (Yes.) Is "from Japan" about now, yesterday, or always? (Now / in general.) She is Japanese. Is "Japanese" a country or a person? (A person — a nationality.)

SAY: I'm not from Spain. Am I from Spain? (No.) Is "Yes, I'm." OK? (No. "Yes, I am.")

Form. Three groups: am (I) · is (he, she, it, one person's name) · are (you, we, they). Negative: add not (isn't, aren't, I'm not; never "amn't"). Question: swap subject and verb (Is she...? Are you...?). Short answers: never contract a positive (Yes, I am.), but negatives may contract (No, I'm not. No, he isn't.). Country after from; nationality with no from.

Pronunciation. Contractions are one beat:    . Where are you from? falls at the end ↘; yes/no questions rise ↗ (Are you from Brazil? ↗). Stress on nationalities moves: BRAzil → BraZILian, ITaly → ITALian, EGYpt → EGYPTian, CHIna → ChiNESE, JAPAN → JapaNESE. Clap it.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 The beat (choral). T claps a slow 3-beat rhythm: "I am · he-she-it IS · you-we-they ARE." ×3, getting faster. Half the room / the other half / women / men / everybody.
- 2 Substitution (choral → individual). T says a subject, learners say the sentence: "She... from Mexico." → "She's from Mexico." Cue: they → They're from Mexico. I → I'm from Mexico. Leo → Leo's from Mexico. Point to individuals after 3–4 choral rounds.
- 3 Question chain. T → S1: "Are you from Brazil?" S1: "No, I'm not." (or Yes, I am.) S1 → S2 with any country. Keep it moving. Any true or imagined answer is fine.
- 4 Stress drill. Hold up two fingers per syllable; learners clap and say: Japan – Japanese, Italy – Italian, Brazil – Brazilian.

◆ FREER PRACTICE: WORLD-MAP MINGLE (15 MIN)

- 1 Choose (3 min). Each learner puts one sticky dot on the map on any country they like: their home, a country they love, or a country they want to visit. Hand out identity cards to anyone who wants one. Say it lightly: "You can be you, or you can be a new person today."
- 2 Mingle (8 min). Stand up, meet 5 people: Hi, I'm _____. Where are you from? – I'm from _____. I'm _____. – Nice to meet you. Then one yes/no question: Are you _____? Learners write each name and country in the workbook speaking grid.
- 3 Report (4 min). Back at tables, learners say two sentences about someone else: "This is Amira. She's from Canada. She's Canadian." Now the third-person is gets practiced.

ICQs before you start: "Do you have to say your real country?" (No, any country.) "How many people do you meet?" (Five.) "Do you sit or stand?" (Stand.) "What do you write?" (Name and country.)

Fast finishers: the 2.1 information-gap cards. A and B each know half of a table of four people; they ask Where is Kenji from? Is he Japanese? to complete it.

◆ NATIONALITY WORDS YOUR LEARNERS MAY NEED

The online lesson teaches 13 pairs. Add the countries in your room. A quick reference:

Country	Nationality	Country	Nationality
Afghanistan	Afghan	Guatemala	Guatemalan
Colombia	Colombian	Haiti	Haitian
the Democratic Republic of the Congo	Congolese	Honduras	Honduran
El Salvador	Salvadoran	Iran	Iranian
Eritrea	Eritrean	Iraq	Iraqi
Ethiopia	Ethiopian	Somalia	Somali

the Philippines	Filipino / Filipina	Syria	Syrian
Ukraine	Ukrainian	Venezuela	Venezuelan
Vietnam	Vietnamese	Russia	Russian

Note the the countries (the USA, the UK, the Philippines, the Democratic Republic of the Congo). If a learner names a country, region, or people differently from a map or from you (for example Kurdistan, Palestine, Taiwan, or a region within a country), write the learner's word. This class is about English, not borders.

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: give a sentence strip I'm from _____. I'm _____. with the country word written for them to copy. In Ex 1, do items 1–4 only. Let them say the mingle sentences without writing; a partner writes the names in their grid. Use the map dot as their "answer".
- ◆ Stretch: add a third fact: I'm from Mexico, but I live in Denver. Ask about two people: Are they from Italy? — No, they aren't. They're from France. Write the full negative and the contracted negative for every item in Ex 2.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Dropping *be (Arabic, Chinese, Russian, Vietnamese, Haitian Creole): I from Syria. She teacher. Point to the gap with a finger: "Something is missing here." Let the learner find am / is.
- ◆ *I'm from Spanish / *I'm Spain (all L1s): country after from, nationality alone. Show the two patterns side by side.
- ◆ Lower-case nationalities (Spanish, Portuguese, French, and non-Latin-script L1s): i'm brazilian.* Circle capitals in red on the board.
- ◆ *Yes, I'm. (all L1s). Contrast on the board with a big **✗.
- ◆ *She are / *They is: the beat drill fixes this; go back to it whenever you hear it.
- ◆ "es-" before s + consonant (Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic speakers): es-Spain, *es-Spanish, es-tudent. Model /speɪn/ with a long hissing sss and no vowel before it.

◆ HOMEWORK

Q1 B (She is from Japan.) · Q2 A (Yes, I am.) · Q3 C (I'm from Spain. I'm Spanish.). Full exercise answers are in the answer key.

◆ OBJECTIVES: LEARNERS CAN...

- name 18 everyday objects with a or an (a pen, an apple)
- use this / that / these / those for near and far, one and many
- make regular plurals: -s, -es, -ies (pens, boxes, babies)
- ask and answer What's this? / What are these? / Is this a...?

◆ MATERIALS

- Workbook 2.2 (Exercises 1–5, dialogue, speaking task) · Slides 8–13
- The realia bag (see "Before Module 2") · object flashcards · 2.2 information-gap cards A/B ("What's on the desk?") · Listening script 2.2

BOARD PLAN

Grid: near 🖐️ / far 🖐️🖐️

one: this pen · that pen | many: these pens · those pens

a + consonant sound: a pen, a book, a cup | an + vowel sound: an apple, an egg, an umbrella

Plurals: pens /z/ · books /s/ · boxes /ɪz/ · babies

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Warmer: review C4	8	T–S, S–S	Ball toss: T throws a soft ball and says a subject + country ("She... Japan"). Catcher: "She's from Japan. She's Japanese." Then pairs: three yes/no questions each (Are you...? Is he...?).
Lead-in: realia bag	10	T–S	Hold up the bag. Pull out one thing at a time: "What's this?" Elicit, or teach the word. Put each object on the front desk. Learners repeat with the article. Slide 8.
Vocabulary + a / an	10	T–S	Picture flashcards (Slide 9): choral then individual. Sort the objects on the desk into two groups, a and an . Elicit the rule from the an group (they all start with a vowel sound). CCQs.

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Clarify this / that / these / those	12	T-S	Slide 10. Hold a pen: this pen . Walk away from the desk and point back at it: that pen . Pick up three pens: these pens . Point across the room at the window(s): those windows . CCQs, then drill (below).
Plurals	10	T-S	Slide 11. Three rules with objects from the bag (pen → pens , box → boxes , key → keys) plus baby → babies , city → cities . Pronunciation of endings: /s/ /z/ /ɪz/.
Model dialogue	5	T-S, S-S	Slide 12. Listening script 2.2 (the guessing game), then learners read in pairs, A and B, then swap.
Controlled practice	12	S → S-S	Workbook 2.2 Ex 1-5 (a/an, plurals, this/that/these/those, questions). Pairs check. T boards the tricky ones.
Freer: mystery bag + info gap	15	S-S	Procedure below: mystery bag (5 min, whole class in groups) then the "What's on the desk?" information gap (10 min, pairs).
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed correction: 5 sentences on the board (* a apple , * This are keys , * boxs ...). Teams fix them.
Homework set-up	3	T-S	Online lesson 2.2 + "Object tour" at home: 8 things, 8 sentences.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. This / these = near me (I can touch it). That / those = far from me (over there). A / an = one, any one. Plural = more than one.

SAY: (Holding a pen.) This is a pen. Is it near me or far? (Near.) One pen or many? (One.)

SAY: (Pointing to windows across the room.) Those are windows. Near or far? (Far.) One or many? (Many.) Can I say "those window"? (No — those windows.)

SAY: An apple. A pen. Why "an"? (Apple starts with a vowel sound.) Can I say "a pens"? (No. "A" means one.)

Form. this / that + singular noun + is; these / those + plural noun + are. a before a consonant sound, an before a vowel sound (it's about the sound: a university, an hour; mention only if asked). Plurals: add -s; add -es after s, x, ch, sh; consonant + y → -ies (but vowel + y → -s: keys, boys). Answers: It's a... (one) · They're... (many).

Pronunciation. this /ðɪs/ (short, hissing s) vs these /ði:z/ (long "ee", buzzing z). Stretch your lips into a smile for these. th /ð/: tongue between the teeth, voice on; learners may say dis, dat, zis. Let them touch their tongue tip. a is weak /ə/. an links: an apple /ə_næpl/. Plural endings: /s/ after voiceless sounds (books, cups), /z/ after voiced sounds (pens, keys), and an extra syllable /ɪz/ after s, x, ch, sh (box-es, watch-es, bus-es). Count syllables on fingers.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Article drill (choral → individual). T holds up an object; class says it with the article: a cup · an apple · a key · an orange · an umbrella · a book. Speed up. Then T says a bare noun, individuals add the article.
- 2 Near / far drill. T stands next to the desk and touches an object: learners chorus "This is a cup." T walks to the back of the room and points at it: "That is a cup." Same with a group of pens: These are pens. / Those are pens.
- 3 Question-and-answer chain. S1 holds an object: "What's this?" S2: "It's a key." S2 picks up two things: "What are these?" S3: "They're pens." Pass the objects on.
- 4 Plural syllable drill. T says the singular, learners say the plural and show the syllables on fingers: box (1) → boxes (2); pen (1) → pens (1).

◆ FREER PRACTICE: MYSTERY BAG & "WHAT'S ON THE DESK?" (15 MIN)

- 1 Mystery bag (5 min). Groups of 4–5. One learner closes their eyes, puts a hand in the bag, and feels one object. The others ask: "Is this a key?" The feeler guesses: "Yes, it is!" or "No, it isn't. It's a..." Pull it out to check. Pass the bag. (If you have only one bag, run it as a whole class with volunteers.)
- 2 Information gap (10 min). Pairs, A and B cards (materials). Each card shows a desk of nine numbered things; three are a "?". A asks about B's objects, and B asks about A's: "Number 2. What are these?" — "They're keys." "Number 4. What's this?" — "It's an umbrella." They write the missing words with a / an or a plural. Then compare the cards.

ICQs: "Can you look in the bag?" (No, eyes closed.) "Who asks the question, the feeler or the group?" (The group.) In the info gap: "Can you show your card to your partner?" (No, not until the end.) "Do you write or only speak?" (Both. Speak, then write the word.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: work from the objects and picture flashcards, not the workbook text. Give a copying card: a pen · an apple · a book · an egg. Do workbook Ex 1 (items 1–4) and Ex 3 (items 1–3) only. In the info gap, they point and say the word; the partner writes it.
- ◆ Stretch: introduce an hour / a university and let them explain the "sound, not spelling" rule. Add colors from their own knowledge (This is a red cup). Ask about a partner's bag: "What's that in your bag?" Irregular plurals as a bonus: man → men, child → children.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ No articles (Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Russian, Vietnamese, many Slavic and African languages): It's pen. This is book. Tap the table twice for "missing word". Expect this for months, and praise every correct a.
- ◆ No plural -s (Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Vietnamese, Thai): three pen, These are key. Vietnamese speakers may know the plural but not pronounce the final -s. Exaggerate the hiss.
- ◆ this / these sound the same (Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic, Italian, French): the short/long vowel contrast is new. Do the smile trick.
- ◆ This are books / *These is (all L1s): match one ↔ one, many ↔ many.
- ◆ Near/far systems differ. Spanish, Japanese, and Korean have three demonstratives, for example (este / ese / aquel). English has only two, and "that" covers both of the far ones.
- ◆ th → d / z / s (most L1s). Accept intelligible versions and don't over-correct at A1. Model and move on.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_05.html ( every object word; Exercises 1–3; quiz) · Workbook 2.2 "Object tour": 8 things at home, 8 sentences (This is a... / These are...) + journal.

◆ CHECK: WORKBOOK SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B (It's an apple.) · Q2 C (These are keys.) · Q3 A (Those are buses.).

◆ OBJECTIVES: LEARNERS CAN...

- name the main family members (mother, brother, aunt, cousin...)
- use my, your, his, her, its, our, their before a noun, matching the owner
- use possessive 's: Anna's brother, my father's car
- introduce family members with This is my... / These are my... and say I have / she has

◆ MATERIALS

- Workbook 2.3 (Exercises 1–5, dialogue, family-tree task) · Slides 14–18
- Family flashcards · Rivera family tree A/B cards · blank family-tree templates · your example tree · Listening script 2.3 · Module 2 picture bingo (if time, or next class)

BOARD PLAN

Left: I → my · you → your · he → his · she → her · it → its · we → our · they → their

Centre: Tom ♂ → his sister | Anna ♀ → her brother 👁👁 look at the OWNER

Right: Anna's brother = the brother of Anna · my parents' house (two parents)

Bottom: I / you / we / they have · he / she / it has | This is my... · These are my... · Who's this?

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Warmer: review C5	8	S-S	Put 10 classroom objects on a tray. Learners look for 30 seconds, then T covers the tray. Pairs write as many as they can with a / an (a key, an orange, three pens). Check: "What's this?" as you uncover each object.
Lead-in: a family	7	T-S	Slide 14. Show your example tree (real or fictional; say which: "This is a TV family" is fine). "This is my... Her name is..." Learners guess the relationships. Tell them now: "On Thursday you can talk about your family, a friend's family, or a family on a card."
Family vocabulary	12	T-S	Slide 15 + flashcards. Teach the words in pairs: mother/father, sister/brother, son/daughter, grandmother/grandfather, aunt/uncle, then cousin, parents, wife, husband, partner, children. Drill (stress: GRAND mother, DAUGH ter). CCQs on the tree.
Clarify possessive	12	T-S	Slide 16. Hold up a learner's pen (with permission): "Is this your pen?" Then "This is her pen. This is his book." The his/her rule (look

Possessive 's	8	T-S	Collect three objects from learners. "This is Ana's phone. These are Omar's keys." Owner first. Mention parents' for the written form only.
have / has	5	T-S	Two examples from the tree: I have one brother. Maria has a son. Only he / she / it takes has . Quick substitution drill.
Controlled practice	13	S → S-S	Workbook 2.3 Ex 1-5 (possessives, 's, family logic, have/has). Listening script 2.3 (the photo dialogue) and learners read it in pairs.
Freer: family trees	17	S-S	Procedure below: Rivera family information gap (7 min), then learners draw a tree of their choice and present it to a partner (10 min).
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed correction, focused on his / her and have / has .
Homework set-up	3	T-S	Online lesson 2.3; workbook journal. Next class starts Module 3 (daily routines). Mention the picture bingo review game.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. A possessive adjective shows who something belongs to, or who a person is connected to. It matches the owner, never the thing.

SAY: Tom has a sister. His sister or her sister? (His.) Why "his"? The sister is a woman! (Because Tom is the owner. Tom is a man.)

SAY: Anna's brother. Who is the brother connected to, Anna or someone else? (Anna.) Is Anna the brother? (No.)

SAY: (Pointing to the tree.) Rosa is Carlos's mother. Is Carlos Rosa's son? (Yes.) Is Rosa older or younger? (Older.)

Form. possessive + noun (my mother, never mother my* or the mother of me*). It does not change for plural (my brother / my brothers). Owner + 's + thing (Tom's phone); plural owner ending in -s → s' (my parents' house). have with I / you / we / they; has with he / she / it and one name. Watch the look-alikes: your / you're, its / it's.

Pronunciation. 's follows the plural rules from Class 5: Pat's /s/, Tom's /z/, Rose's /ɪz/ (extra syllable). his /hɪz/ (short) vs he's /hi:z/ (long). daughter /'dɔ:tər/, and the "gh" is silent. American aunt /ænt/ sounds like "ant" (/ɑ:nt/ is also heard). mom (US) / mum (UK): this is an American course, so model mom. their sounds like there.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Pairs drill (choral). T shows a flashcard and says half; class completes: mother → father, sister → brother, son → daughter, aunt → uncle.
- 2 Pronoun → possessive (choral → individual). T: "I" → "my." "she" → "her." "they" → "their." Fast, mixed order.
- 3 His/her substitution. T points to a man in the tree: "... mother is Rosa." → "His mother is Rosa." Points to a woman → "Her mother is Rosa." Then T points at real people in the room with real objects: "his bag, her pen, their books."
- 4 's chain. S1 picks up S2's object: "This is Lina's phone." Hand it back with "Here you are." "Thank you."

◆ FREER PRACTICE: FAMILY TREES (17 MIN)

- 1 The Rivera family information gap (7 min). Pairs, A and B cards. The same family tree, but A and B have different names missing. They ask "Who is Carlos's wife?" "What's Luis's sister's name?" and write the missing names. Check by comparing.
- 2 Choose a family (2 min). Hand out blank tree templates. Learners choose one: (a) my family, as big or small as I want, and any people I choose (friends and neighbors count; a single parent, grandparents raising children, step-family, or just me and one person are all trees); (b) a famous or TV family; (c) the Rivera family from the card, or a family they invent. No one says which one they chose.
- 3 Draw (3 min). At least four people with names and family words. Boxes and lines; no drawing skill needed.
- 4 Present (5 min). Pairs, then swap partners once: "This is my sister. Her name is... She has two children." Partner asks one question: "Who's this?" Listener then tells the class one fact: "Omar's brother is a driver."

ICQs: "Must you draw your real family?" (No, you choose.) "How many people, minimum?" (Four.) "Say three sentences, or five?" (Five.) "Which words must you use?" (my, his, her.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: give the family flashcards to glue or copy onto the tree instead of writing the words. Sentence frame: This is my _____. Her / His name is _____. Workbook Ex 1 (items 1–4) and Ex 3 (items 1–3) only. Accept three spoken sentences.
- ◆ Stretch: extra words: niece, nephew, stepmother, half-brother, only child, grandchildren, in-laws. Two-step possessives: my mother's brother = my uncle. Write five sentences about the partner's family (third person: Her brother is...).

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ he / she, his / her mix-ups (Tagalog, Chinese, Vietnamese, Turkish, Persian, Finnish, Hungarian, Yoruba, Somali and others with one pronoun for both): My mother, he is a nurse. Anna and his brother. This persists for a long time. Gesture (♂/♀ card) rather than stop the speaker.
- ◆ Possessive agrees with the thing (Spanish, French, Portuguese, Italian): Tom and her sister* because sister is feminine. Keep asking: "Who is the owner?"
- ◆ the brother of Anna (Spanish, Portuguese, French, Arabic): understandable. Model Anna's brother and move on.
- ◆ She have / *He have (all L1s): return to the has rule on the board.
- ◆ Family words don't map one-to-one. Many languages have separate words for older/younger siblings or mother's vs father's relatives (e.g. Tagalog kuya / ate, Chinese, Korean, Vietnamese). English has one word: my older brother, my mother's sister. Invite learners to teach the class their words. It's a good, confidence-building moment.

TRAUMA-INFORMED FAMILY WORK

Never ask "Where is your father?" or "Why is your family not here?" Never require a real tree, a photo, or a number of children. If a learner becomes quiet or upset, move them to the Rivera family without comment. Avoid "Who's the oldest / how old is...?" in a mingle. If a learner shares a loss, a simple "I'm sorry" and moving on is respectful. Don't turn it into a class topic.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_06.html (🔊 the family words; Exercises 1–3; quiz) · Workbook 2.3: finish the family tree, "My new words", and the journal (3–4 sentences with my, his, her).

◆ CHECK: WORKBOOK SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B (Her brother) · Q2 B (my parents' house) · Q3 C (She has two sons.).

MODULE 2 REVIEW: PICTURE BINGO (10–15 MIN)

Play the Module 2 picture bingo (materials) at the end of Class 6 if time allows, or as the warmer for Class 7. You read a sentence from the call list ("These are my keys." "This is my grandmother."); learners find the picture and cover it. The winner must say a sentence about each covered square to win. It recycles this / these, a / an, plurals, family words, and possessives in one game.

Before Class 13 (Progress Test 1): the test covers Modules 1–4. From this module, expect am / is / are (all forms), country vs nationality, a / an, this / these, regular plurals, his / her, and 's.

Module 3 — Everyday Life

Three classes where learners stop naming things and start describing their lives. They get their first tense, the present simple, for their own day. Then they add the clock, the calendar and the he/she -s to talk about other people. Last, they learn there is / there are to describe the place they live.

Lessons 3.1–3.3

Classes C7–C9

Weeks 4–5

CEFR A1

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- One lesson block = one 90-minute class. Every class follows the same shape: warmer → lead-in → Meaning / Form / Pronunciation with concept-checking questions (CCQs) → drill (choral, then individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (pairs) → feedback → homework.
- The stage plan is your clock. Each one adds up to 90 minutes. The numbers in the Time column are minutes.
- Present from `slides/module-3-everyday-life.html`. Print `materials/module-3/classroom-materials.html` before C7. It holds the flashcards, the picture-sequencing cards, the clock information gap, the -s sound cards, the home cards, the listening scripts and the Find Someone Who game.
- The online lessons are the learners' homework and review. Each one has  Listen buttons, so learners can hear every word and dialogue again at home.
- American English is the classroom standard. The online lessons sometimes show British forms (at the weekend, flat, lift, cooker). Teach on the weekend, apartment, elevator, stove, and accept the British forms when learners use them.
- Dashed boxes = lines to say out loud, CCQs and ICQs (instruction-checking questions). Green boxes = scripts you read aloud. Amber = watch-outs.

THE THROUGH-LINE

My day → your day → my home. In C7 learners describe their own routine (I / you / we / they: no -s). In C8 they describe someone else's routine with a clock and a calendar (he / she: -s). In C9 they describe the place where the day happens (there is / there are). Every class ends with the same freer task in a new form: tell a partner about a real life (yours, or a "new identity" card).

TRAUMA-INFORMED: ROUTINES AND HOMES ARE PERSONAL

Some learners have no job right now, work night shifts, share one room with family, or live in a shelter or temporary housing. Never ask anyone to show or explain their real situation. For every personal task, offer three choices out loud: your real life, a "new identity" card (in the classroom materials), or a dream / imagined life. Say it every time, so choosing a card is normal and not a sign that something is wrong.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- ◆ Print the picture flashcards (one set for the board) and the routine picture-sequencing cards (one set per group of three). Card stock helps. Cut them before C7.
- ◆ Print one clock information gap page per pair for C8 (cut A from B), and one set of -s sound cards per group.
- ◆ Bring or make a teaching clock (a paper plate, a brad fastener and two card hands is fine). For C9, bring small realia for prepositions: a cup, a pen, a box, a toy or paper cat.
- ◆ Print the new identity cards and the home cards and keep them on a table where anyone can take one without asking.
- ◆ Plain paper and colored pens for C9 (draw your home).

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
3.1	C7 • wk 4	Present simple (I/you/we/they), don't, Do you...? , routine verbs, time expressions	describe their daily routine in 6+ sentences and ask a partner "Do you...?"
3.2	C8 • wk 4	Telling the time, days of the week, at/on/in , he/she/it -s (+ /s/ /z/ /ɪz/), doesn't / Does...?	ask and say the time, and describe another person's day with times and days
3.3	C9 • wk 5	There is / There are, some/any , prepositions of place, rooms and furniture	describe a room or home in 6+ sentences and ask "Is there...? / Are there any...?"

3.1 · C7

Present Simple — Daily Routines

90 min

OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- say 12+ daily routine phrases (get up, take a shower, go to work, go to bed...)
- describe their day with I/you/we/they + base verb: I get up at seven.
- make negatives with don't: I don't work on Sunday.
- ask Do you...? and answer Yes, I do. / No, I don't.
- use time expressions: in the morning / afternoon / evening, at night, every day

MATERIALS

- Workbook 3.1 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "My day" task)
- Slides 3–7 · Picture flashcards (routines) · Routine picture-sequencing cards (1 set per group of 3) · New identity cards
- Listening scripts 3.1-A (Sam's day) and 3.1-B (Mia's day)

Left: picture cards in a line:  →  →  →  →  →  →  →  →  with the phrase under each.

Center: I / You / We / They + get up at seven. · I don't work on Sunday. · Do you get up early? → Yes, I do. / No, I don't.

STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: family review	8	S–S	Review C6 (2.3). Pairs show a family photo on a phone, a drawing, or a new identity card: "This is my sister. Her name is... My brother's car is..." Monitor possessive 's and his/her .
Lead-in: the teacher's day	7	T–S	Stick 6 flashcards on the board in a mixed order. "This is my day. What do I do first?" Learners guess and you reorder the cards. Say each step: "I get up. I take a shower..." No grammar talk yet.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Vocabulary: routine phrases	12	T-S	Slide 3 + flashcards. Mime → elicit → model → choral drill ×3 → individuals. Mark the stress: get UP , take a SHOWER , go to WORK , go to BED . Learners copy the phrases they need into Workbook "New words."
Listening + picture sequencing	10	T-S → S-S	(1) Workbook Ex 1: read Script 3.1-A twice; learners number the pictures. (2) Groups of 3 get a set of sequencing cards . Read Script 3.1-B (Mia's day) slowly; groups lay the cards in Mia's order. Read again to check. Groups then retell Mia's day with "I": one card each, around the group.
Grammar: I/you/we/they, don't, Do you...?	15	T-S	Slide 4. Meaning (habit, not "now"), form, pronunciation (see notes below). CCQs. Drill the three patterns. Show short answers on the board.
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 2-5 alone, then check in pairs. Go through only the items pairs disagree on.
Freer 1: Same or different?	10	S-S	Slide 7. Model with a strong learner. Each learner uses their sequencing cards (or a new identity card) and asks "Do you...?" Pairs find 3 things that are the same and 2 that are different : "We get up at six. I don't watch TV. My partner watches..." (just say "you"/"we" today). ICQs first.
Freer 2: My day (project)	8	S-S	New partner. Each learner tells their day in 6+ sentences, morning to night, with 1 negative. The listener asks one "Do you...?" question at the end. Stronger pairs: no notes.
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed error correction: write 4 sentences you heard (2 good, 2 with errors) on the board, no names. "Right or wrong? Fix it together." Praise one good sentence from each part of the room.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Show the online lesson on screen; point at a  button. Set the homework (below). Learners tick the "I can..." box in the workbook.
Total	90		8 + 7 + 12 + 10 + 15 + 10 + 10 + 8 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. The present simple is for habits and routines: things we do again and again. It is not for "right now." Point at the time line: every day, every week.

SAY: "I get up at seven." Is this only today? (No.) Is it every day? (Yes.) Is it a habit? (Yes.)

SAY: "I don't work on Sunday." Do I work on Sunday? (No.) On Monday? (Yes. Probably!)

SAY: "Do you get up early?" Is this a question? (Yes.) Can you answer "Yes, I do"? (Yes.) Do you say "Yes, I get up"? (No.)

Form. Three lines on the board, with the subject and verb in different colors:

Positive	I / You / We / They + base verb	We study English every day.
Negative	I / You / We / They + don't + base verb	They don't work on Sunday.
Question	Do + I / you / we / they + base verb...?	Do you cook dinner?
Short answer	Yes, I do . / No, I don't .	(don't say the verb again)

Pronunciation. don't is one syllable with a strong o sound: /daʊnt/. Learners often say "do not" slowly. Model the natural form. In questions, Do you is weak and fast, like /dəjə/: "D'you get up early?" Model it both ways. Accept the slow form in production. The stress is on the main verb: "Do you COOK?" Short answers are stressed: "Yes, I DO." "No, I DON'T."

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Back-chain the model sentence: "at seven" → "get up at seven" → "I get up at seven." Choral ×3, then half the room, then 4–5 individuals.
- 2 Substitution drill (point at a flashcard, then a subject word): T: "We...  " → S: "We go to work." T: "They...  " → S: "They watch TV." Speed up when they are ready.
- 3 Negative transformation: T: "I work on Sunday." (shake head) → S: "I don't work on Sunday."
- 4 Open pairs → closed pairs: S1 asks S2 across the room "Do you get up early?" → S2: "Yes, I do. / No, I don't." Then all pairs together, 1 minute.

◆ PICTURE SEQUENCING – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Groups of 3, one set of 16 sequencing cards, shuffled, picture up.
- ◆ Round 1 (listen): read Script 3.1-B. Groups put Mia's cards in order and put the cards she does not do to one side (Mia doesn't watch TV and doesn't drink coffee).
- ◆ Round 2 (speak): each group member points to a card and says the sentence with "I": "I get up at six." Stronger learners add a time expression.
- ◆ Round 3 (personalize): each learner builds their own day from the cards (or from a new identity card). Keep these cards for the "Same or different?" task.

Answer (Mia): wake up → get up → take a shower → brush my teeth → get dressed → have breakfast → go to work → have lunch → come home → cook dinner → read → go to bed. Not used: drink coffee, watch TV (plus study and go to school).

◆ ICQS BEFORE "SAME OR DIFFERENT?"

SAY: Do you ask questions or write sentences? (Ask questions.) · What is the first word of your question? ("Do.") · How many things are the same? (Three.) · Can you use a new identity card? (Yes.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Picture cards do the work: learners point and say, and write only 3 phrases (copy from the board). In Ex 2, give them the cut-up sentence strips to order physically. In the project, 4 sentences is a success.

STRETCH

Add a time to every sentence and link with then / after that. In the pair task, ask two "Do you...?" questions of their own about the weekend. Early finishers write their day for Ex 5 with no pictures.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I no work" / "I not work" (Spanish, Portuguese, Italian; also Chinese and Vietnamese speakers): the language has no helper verb for negatives. Keep pointing at the don't on the board.
- ◆ "You work here?" with rising intonation and no Do (Spanish, Portuguese, French, Russian). Accept for meaning; then recast: "Do you work here?"
- ◆ "I am work in a hospital" (Arabic, Urdu, Chinese learners who have just learned "be" in Module 2). Show the two patterns side by side: I am a nurse. / I work in a hospital. Never both.
- ◆ Adding -s too early ("I works"): learners who already know "she works." Praise the knowledge, then say: "Good, that is for next class. For I/you/we/they: no -s."
- ◆ "Yes, I work" as a short answer. Point to "do" on the board.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 3.1: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_07.html. Listen to the routine words and the Sam and Mia dialogue with 🎧 and say them out loud. Workbook 3.1: finish Ex 5, "My new words" and the journal (5 sentences about a typical day, with one "don't" sentence).

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B They don't work here. · Q2 C No, I don't. · Q3 (new) B I sleep at night. Picture sequencing (Script 3.1-A, Workbook Ex 1): a 7 · b 1 · c 8 · d 3 · e 5 · f 4 · g 2 · h 6.

◆ OBJECTIVES – LEARNERS CAN...

- ask What time is it? and say the time the easy way (three forty-five) and understand the classic way (quarter to four)
- say and spell the seven days with capital letters
- use at (clock times, night), on (days), in (parts of the day, months)
- describe another person's routine with he/she + verb-s, doesn't and Does...?
- say the -s ending three ways: /s/ works, /z/ plays, /ɪz/ watches

◆ MATERIALS

- Workbook 3.2 (clocks, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "My partner's day")
- Slides 8–12 · teaching clock · day flashcards (word-only) · Clock information gap A/B (1 per pair, 2 sets) · -s sound cards (1 set per group)
- Listening scripts 3.2-A (time dictation), 3.2-B (/s/ /z/ /ɪz/ listen-and-show), 3.2-C (Omar's day)

BOARD PLAN

Left: a big clock. Right half labeled PAST (↓ from 12 to 6), left half labeled TO (↑ from 6 to 12). 3:15 = three fifteen = quarter past three · 3:45 = three forty-five = quarter to four.

Center: I work → She works · She doesn't work · Does she work? → Yes, she does. / No, she doesn't. · have → has

Right: three columns: /s/ works · /z/ plays · /ɪz/ watches. Below: at 7:00 · on Monday · in the morning · at night

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: stand up if...	8	T-S → S-S	Review C7. "Stand up if you get up before six... if you drink coffee in the morning... if you don't watch TV." Then pairs ask each other 3 "Do you...?" questions. Check the homework journal: 2–3 volunteers read one sentence.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Days + at / on / in	10	T-S	Slide 9. Chant the days (clap the stress: MON -day). Point at the silent d in Wednesday and the capital letters. Build the at/on/in "getting bigger" picture: a dot (at 7:00) → a box (on Monday) → a big box (in the morning, in July). Drill: T says a time word, learners say the preposition.
Telling the time	14	T-S → S	Slide 8 + teaching clock. "What time is it?" → "It's..." Teach the easy way first (all learners must produce it). Then the classic past / to for understanding. Drill with the teaching clock. Then Script 3.2-A : time dictation into Workbook Ex 1b.
Clock information gap	12	S-S	Slide 12. A/B cards, Set 1. A and B sit face to face and do not show cards. "What time is it on clock 2?" Partner draws the hands. Then part 2 (Lina's day): "What time does Lina get up?" (This previews the -s: just model it; teach it next.) Compare cards at the end. Fast pairs: Set 2 with a new partner.
Grammar: he / she / it + -s	13	T-S	Slide 10. Use Lina: "Lina gets up at six thirty." Meaning, form, spelling rules, have → has , and the -s moving to does . CCQs and drill (below). Workbook Ex 3 and Ex 5, alone, then check in pairs.
Pronunciation: /s/ /z/ /ɪz/	8	T-S → S-S	Slide 11 + Script 3.2-B . Hand on throat: /s/ no buzz, /z/ buzz, /ɪz/ one extra beat (clap it). Learners show 1, 2 or 3 fingers. Then groups sort the -s sound cards into three columns and say each word (Workbook Ex 4).
Freer: my partner's day	15	S-S	(1) Pairs interview each other with the table in the workbook: "What time do you get up? What do you do on Saturday?" (6 min) (2) New partner: tell them about your first partner: "Ana gets up at six. On Saturday she..." with one "doesn't" (6 min). (3) The listener asks one "Does she..." question (3 min). New identity cards available. ICQs first.
Feedback	5	T-S	Board: 4 heard sentences. Focus on the missing -s and on "doesn't works." Learners fix them.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 3.2; workbook journal. Optional listening: Script 3.2-C (Omar's day) if you have 5 extra minutes; otherwise use it as the C9 warmer.
Total	90		8 + 10 + 14 + 12 + 13 + 8 + 15 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

This is the busiest class. Keep the classic past/to way receptive (learners understand it, and they say the easy way). Cut Set 2 of the information gap. Do the -s sort as a whole class on the board. Never cut the freer task: it is where the -s becomes real.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Time — meaning. Past = minutes after the hour (right side of the clock). To = minutes before the next hour (left side).

SAY: 3:40. Is it before four or after four? (Before.) So is it "twenty past four" or "twenty to four"? (Twenty to four.) Can you also say "three forty"? (Yes!)

SAY: "Half past seven." Is it 6:30 or 7:30? (7:30.)

He / she — meaning. Same habit meaning as last class, now about another person.

SAY: "Lina gets up at six thirty." Is this about me? (No.) About Lina, one person? (Yes.) Every day? (Yes.) What is the extra letter? (-s.)

SAY: "She doesn't work on Sunday." Does Lina work on Sunday? (No.) Where is the -s now? (On "does." Doesn't.) So "work" or "works"? (Work.)

Form.

He / She / It	verb + -s	She works. He gets up.
-es	after s, x, ch, sh, o	watches · finishes · fixes · goes · does
-ies	consonant + y	study → studies (but play → plays)
Irregular	have → has	She has breakfast at seven.
Negative	doesn't + base verb	He doesn't work on Sunday.
Question	Does + he/she + base verb...?	Does she get up early? — Yes, she does. / No, she doesn't.

Pronunciation. /s/ after voiceless sounds p, t, k, f: works, gets, sleeps, cooks, starts. /z/ after voiced sounds and vowels: plays, reads, goes, comes, studies, has, lives. /ɪz/ after s, z, sh, ch, x, ge (hissing sounds): watches, finishes, fixes, relaxes, brushes, washes. This adds a syllable, so clap it: watch (1) → watch-es (2). The /s/ vs /z/ difference is small, and nobody misunderstands it. The /ɪz/ extra beat and saying the -s at all matter much more. Also: does /dʌz/ and says /seɪz/ change their vowel.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Clock drill: move the teaching clock. "What time is it?" (all) → "It's four thirty." Choral, then individuals. Every third time, ask for the classic way from a stronger learner.
- 2 I → she transformation: T: "I work." S: "She works." T: "I watch TV." S: "She watches TV." T: "I have lunch." S: "She has lunch." Choral, then individuals, then fast.
- 3 Negative: T: "She works on Sunday?" (shake head) → S: "She doesn't work on Sunday."
- 4 Question chain: S1 → S2: "Does Lina get up early?" S2: "Yes, she does." S2 → S3: "Does Lina work on Sunday?"... around the room.
- 5 /ɪz/ clap drill: learners clap the beats: watch (1) / watch-es (2), fix / fix-es, finish (2) / fin-ish-es (3).

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE INFORMATION GAP AND THE FREER TASK

SAY: Information gap: Can you show your card? (No.) Who asks first? (A.) What do you draw on the empty clock? (The hands.) What do you say if you don't understand? ("Can you say it again, please?")

SAY: Partner's day: First you ask your partner, or you tell a new partner? (Ask first.) When you tell the new partner, do you say "I" or "he/she"? (He/she.) What letter do you listen for? (-s.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Times only on the hour and half hour (o'clock and thirty). In the information gap, write digits (4:30) instead of drawing hands if needed. Give a days-of-the-week strip to copy from. For -s, the aim is to hear and say it; the spelling rules are for stretch.

STRETCH

Produce the classic way (twenty to four). Add noon/midnight and months with in. In the freer task, compare: "Ana gets up at six, but I get up at seven." Use on the weekend and frequency words they may know (always, never).

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "Half seven" means 6:30 in German, Dutch, Russian, Polish, Hungarian and some others (half toward seven). In British English "half seven" means 7:30! Teach "seven thirty" and "half past seven" and check with a clock every time.
- ◆ Dropping the -s ("He work at night"): very common for Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai, Korean and Japanese speakers (no verb endings in their L1). Vietnamese speakers also often drop final consonants in general. Pull the -s out with your fingers ("works-sss") and accept progress, not perfection.
- ◆ He/she mix-ups (Tagalog siya, Chinese tā, Turkish o, Persian u, Finnish hän are one word for both). Use two picture cards (a man, a woman) and point while you drill. Correct gently; it is a habit, not a lack of knowledge.

- ◆ Days without capitals (Spanish, French, Portuguese, Italian, Russian write lunes, lundi, segunda-feira in lower case). "In Monday" (Spanish en, Portuguese na) and "at the seven" (Spanish a las siete). Spanish and French speakers may also add "the": "on the Monday."
- ◆ 24-hour clock: many learners use 17:00 at work. Accept "five o'clock" and teach in the afternoon / in the evening to replace "p.m." in speech.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 3.2: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_08.html. Listen to the days and the dialogue; say five times out loud both ways. Workbook 3.2: finish "My partner's day" (3 sentences with -s), "My new words" and the journal.

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B quarter to four · Q2 C She doesn't work on Sunday. · Q3 (new) B He watches TV in the evening.
Information-gap answers are printed on the cards' back strip and in the Answer Key.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ name rooms of a home and 15+ pieces of furniture
- ◆ use there is (one thing / uncountable) and there are (two or more)
- ◆ make negatives and questions: There isn't... / Are there any...? — Yes, there are.
- ◆ use some in positives and any in negatives and questions
- ◆ say where things are with in, on, under, next to, between, behind, in front of, above
- ◆ describe a room or home (any kind) in 6+ sentences

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 3.3 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–4 with the living-room picture, dialogue, "Draw your home")
- ◆ Slides 13–18 · home flashcards (rooms + furniture) · realia (cup, pen, box, paper cat) · Find Someone Who sheet (1 per learner) · Home cards A/B/C · plain paper and pens
- ◆ Listening scripts 3.3-A (listen and draw) and 3.3-B (dictation)

Left: a simple room drawing (door, window, bed, table, lamp, cat) labeled.

Center: There is a bed. (1) · There are two chairs. (2+) · There isn't a TV. · There aren't any plants. · Is there a garden? — Yes, there is. / No, there isn't. · Are there any shops? — Yes, there are. / No, there aren't.

Right: a box and a ball in 8 positions: in · on · under · next to · between · behind · in front of · above

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: Find Someone Who	8	S–S (mingle)	Review C7–C8. Learners stand and ask "Do you...?" to fill the grid with names (5 min). Then 3 learners report with -s: " Ana gets up before six." (3 min). If you did not use Script 3.2-C in C8, you can use it here instead of the mingle.
Lead-in: my room	5	T–S	Draw a simple room on the board, talking as you draw: "This is a room. There's a door. There's a window. There are two chairs..." Ask: "What's in the room?" Learners call out words; you write There is / There are above them.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Vocabulary: rooms & furniture	12	T-S → S-S	Slide 13 + flashcards. Elicit, model, drill (stress: KITCHEN , BED room, LIV ing room, WARD robe, ARM chair). Then groups sort the furniture cards into rooms: "Where is a fridge? In the kitchen." Workbook New words.
Grammar: there is / there are, some / any	15	T-S	Slide 14. Meaning, form, pronunciation, CCQs (below). Drill with realia on your desk. Then the question and short answers, then some/any.
Prepositions of place	10	T-S → S	Slide 15. Move a paper cat around a box: "Where's the cat? It's under the box." Drill each one. Then Script 3.3-A : learners listen and draw a room (check with the slide). Keep it light: prepositions come back in depth in Lesson 5.2.
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1-4 (is/are, some/any, the living-room picture, short answers). Pairs check. Board-check only the hard items.
Freer: draw your home and describe it	20	S → S-S	Slide 17. (1) Each learner draws any home: a room, a shared room, a shelter room, an apartment, a house, a dream home, or a Home card. Do not show the partner (4 min). (2) A describes; B listens, draws, and asks "Is there...? Are there any...?" (5 min). (3) Compare pictures, laugh, swap roles (5 min + 5 min). (4) Stretch: one pair tells the class one thing about their partner's home (1 min). ICQs first.
Feedback + module check	5	T-S	Delayed correction: "There is two chairs", "There have a table", "in front the window." Then learners tick the Module 3 "I can..." lists.
Homework set- up	5	T-S	Online lesson 3.3; the dream-home journal; preview C10: "Next class: can and can't . What can you cook?"
Total	90		8 + 5 + 12 + 15 + 10 + 10 + 20 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. There is / there are says that something exists in a place. We use it for new information: "There's a cat in my kitchen!", not "A cat is in my kitchen."

SAY: "There is a bed in my room." How many beds? (One.) "There are two chairs." One chair? (No, two.)

So one = is, two or more = are.

SAY: "There isn't a TV." Is there a TV? (No.) "Are there any shops near the school?" Is this a question? (Yes.) Answer with the same words: (Yes, there are. / No, there aren't.)

SAY: "There is some water." Can you count water, one water, two water? (No.) So is or are? (Is.)

Form.

	One thing / uncountable	Two or more
+	There is (There's) a sofa. / some water.	There are two bedrooms. / some plants.
-	There isn't a garden.	There aren't any windows.
?	Is there a balcony?	Are there any chairs?
Short	Yes, there is. / No, there isn't.	Yes, there are. / No, there aren't.

Pronunciation. There's /ðɛrɪz/ is one syllable; drill it, because it sounds natural. Do not contract there are in writing; in fast speech it sounds like /ðɛrər/. The th /ð/: tongue between the teeth, voice on. Many learners say "dere" or "zere." Accept it for meaning and show the tongue once. Short answers use the full form, stressed: "Yes, there IS." in front of is linked: /ɪn 'frʌnt əv/ ("in-FRUN-tuv").

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Realia drill: put things on your desk. T: (1 pen) "There's a pen." (choral) → (3 pens) "There are three pens." Learners call the sentence as you add or take away items.
- 2 Negative: T holds up an empty hand: "a phone?" → S: "There isn't a phone." "books?" → S: "There aren't any books."
- 3 Question and answer, open pairs: S1: "Is there a clock in this room?" S2 (looks): "Yes, there is." S2 → S3: "Are there any plants?"...
- 4 Where's the cat? Move the paper cat; the room answers: "It's under the box." Then learners move it for each other.

◆ ICQS BEFORE "DRAW YOUR HOME"

SAY: Do you show your picture to your partner? (No, not yet!) · Does it need to be your real home? (No. Any home, or a card.) · A talks and B...? (Draws and asks questions.) · What question can B ask? ("Is there a...? Are there any...?") · When do you show the pictures? (At the end.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Drawing is the task, so pre-literate learners can succeed fully. Give them labeled furniture picture cards to place on their drawing and point to while speaking. Target 4 sentences with "There is / There are" and 2 prepositions (on, next to).

STRETCH

Describe two rooms and connect them ("The kitchen is next to the living room"). Add adjectives they know (big, small, beautiful). Use some/any and between. Tell the class about the partner's home in the third person: "In Omar's home there are..."

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "There have a table" / "Have a table in my room": Portuguese tem, Chinese yǒu, Tagalog may / mayroon, Vietnamese có, Thai mii use "have" for "there is." Mark the contrast on the board: I have a table. (mine) / There is a table. (in the room).
- ◆ "There is two chairs": Spanish hay, French il y a, Italian c'è/ci sono (partly) use one form for singular and plural. Point at the number.
- ◆ "In the kitchen table" (no "there is"): Arabic, Russian, Turkish and Korean often start with the place and leave out "there is." Accept word order at first, but insist on There's.
- ◆ Missing articles: "There is bed" (Russian, Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Vietnamese, many Slavic learners). Recast with "a."
- ◆ in / on: Spanish and Portuguese en / em is both in and on, so "The lamp is in the table." Use the realia: inside the box vs. on top.
- ◆ th / ð: "dere is" / "zere is" (Spanish, Portuguese, French, German, Russian, Arabic, Chinese). Show the tongue once; don't stop the fluency task for it.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 3.3: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_09.html. Listen to the Tom and Sara dialogue with 🎧. Workbook 3.3: finish the 6 sentences about the home you drew, "My new words" and the journal (a dream home).

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B There are two bedrooms. · Q2 B any · Q3 (new) A No, there isn't. Living-room picture (Ex 3): on · under · between · above · in front of · next to.

CLOSING THE MODULE

END OF C9: MODULE 3 WRAP-UP

Recap on slide 18: I get up → She gets up → There is a bed in my room. Learners tick the three "I can..." lists in the workbook. Anything still unticked goes on a sticky note for you. Review it in the C10 warmer and again in the C13 progress test catch-up.

Watch for in Module 4: the -s will keep slipping. That is normal. Keep a "-s police" moment in every warmer ("Tell me one thing your partner does on Sunday") until C13.

Progress Test 1 (C13) covers Modules 1–4. From this module it tests: routine verbs, don't / Do you...?, telling the time (easy way), days, at/on/in, he/she -s, doesn't / Does...?, there is / there are, some/any, basic prepositions and rooms and furniture.

Module 4 — Getting Around & Doing Things

Three classes that move learners from talking about themselves to acting in the world. They say what they can do and what they like, describe what is happening right now, and then shop and find their way in a task-based review class that gets everyone ready for Progress Test 1.

HOW TO USE THIS CHAPTER

- Each lesson block below is one 90-minute class. The stage plan is the clock. The notes after it give the language, the CCQs, the drill and the ICQs.
- Same rhythm every class: warmer/review → lead-in → Meaning · Form · Pronunciation (with CCQs) → drill (choral → individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer speaking → feedback (delayed error correction) → homework.
- C12 is different. It is a task-based review class. There is no new grammar presentation. Learners do real tasks (a map information gap and a classroom shop) while you observe with the speaking checklist. That checklist tells you who needs help in the catch-up part of C13 (Progress Test 1, Modules 1–4).
- Print from <materials/module-4/classroom-materials.html>: flashcards, the Find-someone-who grid, mime cards, the A/B maps, shop price tags and shopping lists, the speaking checklist, and all the read-aloud scripts.
- Project <slides/module-4-getting-around.html> (arrow keys / space). It has the picture-vocabulary, form, dialogue, CCQ and task-instruction slides for all three classes.
- Teal = learners active, amber = L1 watch-outs, dashed boxes = lines to say out loud.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Module 4 is about doing. In 4.1, learners say what they can do and what they like (a café is the context). In 4.2, they describe what people are doing right now, and they learn to tell it apart from the "every day" present simple from Module 3. In 4.3, they use everything: they greet, buy, ask the price, ask the way and give directions. The review class is the halfway point of the course, so celebrate it. Many adult learners arrived unable to say their name in English. Now they can shop and find the station.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- ◆ C10: ability and food/drink flashcards, one Find someone who can... grid per learner, café menu cards + Server/Customer role cards (one set per pair). Bring a real cup and a spoon for the café role-play if you can.
- ◆ C11: action flashcards, mime cards (one set per team of 4–5), the A/B "What are they doing?" park cards (one per pair).
- ◆ C12: A and B maps (one per pair), price tags for two classroom shops, shopping-list cards, play money, and your speaking checklist on a clipboard. Arrange two "shop" tables before class starts. Real items (an apple, a pen, a bag, an umbrella) make the shop feel real and help low-literacy learners.
- ◆ Check the audio on the online lessons works on your classroom computer (🔊 Listen buttons) in case you want a second voice.

Can / Can't — Abilities & Food

OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- say what they can and can't do: I can cook, but I can't drive.
- ask Can you...? and give short answers: Yes, I can. / No, I can't.
- say what food and drink they like, love, don't like: I love coffee. I don't like fish.
- ask Do you like...? → Yes, I do. / No, I don't., and answer an offer politely in a café

MATERIALS

- Workbook 4.1 (words, grammar box, Exercises 1–5, café dialogue)
- Flashcards: ability verbs (swim, cook, dance, sing, play the guitar, play football + word cards) and food & drink
- Find-someone-who grid (1 per learner) · Café menu + Server/Customer cards (1 set per pair)
- Slides 3–11 · Listening script "can or can't?" (materials)

Left: I can swim. ✓ · I can't drive. ✗ · She can sing. (no -s!)

Centre: Can you cook? → Yes, I can. / No, I can't. | Do you like tea? → Yes, I do. / No, I don't.

Right: 😊 I love... · 😊 I like... · 😊 I don't like... · 😊 I hate... | an apple 🍏 · some water 💧

Pron strip: can /kən/ (short, quiet) vs can't /kənt/ (long, strong)

STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
1 Warmer / review C9	7	S–S	"My home" in pairs: each learner says 3 sentences with There is / There are about their home (or a picture home). Two pairs report one sentence.
2 Lead-in	5	T–S	Mime swimming, then a failed attempt at the guitar. " I can swim. I can't play the guitar. " Show slide 4 pictures. Learners guess what you can/can't do.
3 Clarify can / can't	10	T–S	Meaning with CCQs, form on the board (one form for everyone, plain verb, no to), pronunciation of can/can't.

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
4 Drill + listening	8	T-S → S	Choral → individual drill with ability flashcards. Then the "can or can't?" listening (materials script): learners show  or  (thumbs up/down).
5 Questions & short answers	5	T-S	Move can to the front. Open-pair then closed-pair drill: Can you cook? — Yes, I can.
6 Controlled practice	6	S	Workbook Ex 1–2. Pairs check. Board answers.
7 Freer: Find someone who can...	12	S-S	ICQs, then a mingle: everyone stands and asks Can you...? Write one name per box, then ask one extra question. Stop after 9 min for feedback.
8 Feedback & error correction	4	T-S	"Who can play the guitar?" Learners report in 3rd person: Ana can swim. Write 3 errors you heard on the board anonymously, and the class corrects them.
9 Food & drink + like	10	T-S	Food/drink flashcards (drill). Face scale 😊 😐 😞 on the board. Do you like...? — Yes, I do. Quick note: an apple / some water.
10 Controlled practice	6	S	Workbook Ex 3–5 (order the words, circle the short answer, count it / don't count it).
11 Freer: café role-play	12	S-S	Model the café dialogue (slide 11) with a strong learner. Pairs use the menu + Server/Customer cards and swap roles. Fast pairs perform.
12 Wrap-up & homework	5	T-S	"I can..." checklist in the workbook. Set homework (below).
	90		Total: 7 + 5 + 10 + 8 + 5 + 6 + 12 + 4 + 10 + 6 + 12 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. can = able to do it (a skill or ability). can't = not able to. Use your mime: swim well, guitar badly.

SAY: "I can swim." Am I able to swim? (Yes.) Am I swimming now? (No — we don't know.) Is it a skill? (Yes.)

SAY: "She can't drive." Can she drive a car? (No.) Is it possible she can learn? (Yes — "can't" is today.)

Form. subject + can / can't + plain verb. One form for every person. Three traps (write them and cross them out): ~~She cans swim~~ · ~~I can to swim~~ · ~~He can swims~~. Question: Can + subject + verb? Short answers: Yes, I can. / No, I can't.

Pronunciation. In a sentence, can is weak and short /kən/: "I c'n SWIM." The main verb gets the stress. Can't is strong /kənt/: "I CAN'T SWIM." In American English the final t is often not clear, so the vowel and stress carry the difference. In short answers, can is strong: "Yes, I CAN."

Like. like / don't like / love / hate + thing. Question with do: Do you like tea? Answer with do, not like and not can.

SAY: "I love chocolate." Do I like it a little or a lot? (A lot.) "I hate onions." Do I want onions on my pizza? (No!)

SAY: "Do you like tea?" What's the short answer — "Yes, I can" or "Yes, I do"? (Yes, I do.) Why? (The question has "do".)

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Hold up swim. Model ×2: "I can swim." Class ×2 (choral). Hand gesture: fist forward on can, then open hand on the verb, to show the stress.
- 2 Show the card with a ✗ (cross your arms): "I can't drive." Class ×2. Exaggerate the long vowel in can't.
- 3 Substitution: you say a cue, they say the sentence. "cook ✓" → I can cook. "dance ✗" → I can't dance. "she / sing ✓" → She can sing.
- 4 Individual: nominate around the room, quick pace, praise, then back to choral if three people in a row struggle.
- 5 Question chain: S1 asks S2 "Can you ride a bike?" S2 answers truthfully and asks S3 a new question.

◆ ICQS – BEFORE THE MINGLE AND THE CAFÉ

SAY: Find someone who can... Do you write your name or your partner's name? (Partner's.) One name per box or many? (One.) Do you sit or stand? (Stand.) Do you show your paper? (No — ask!)

SAY: Café: Student A is the...? (Server.) What do you say first? ("Hello! Would you like...?") Customer — just "yes"? (No — "Yes, please.") When do you swap? (When I clap.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: use the picture version of the Find-someone-who grid (pictures in each box). Learners draw a tick or ask the partner to write their name. In the workbook, do Ex 1 and Ex 4 only (picture/✓✗ cues). Give a phrase strip: Can you...? · Yes, I can. · No, I can't.

- ◆ Stretch: add ...a little / ...very well (I can cook very well. I can sing a little.) and a follow-up What can you cook? In the café, the customer orders for two people and asks for something not on the menu.
- ◆ New identity option: some learners may not want to talk about skills (for example, lost jobs or qualifications). They can answer as a card character. That's always fine.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "She cans / He can swims": over-using the Module 3 -s. Tap the board rule: can never changes.
- ◆ "I can to swim": learners whose L1 uses an infinitive marker after "can" (for example Spanish puedo nadar is fine, but want to/need to interference) add to. Cross out to every time.
- ◆ can/can't confusion in listening is universal, and it's hardest for learners of languages without weak vowels (Spanish, Japanese, many others). Drill stress, not the final t.
- ◆ "I like the coffee" (general): Spanish, Portuguese, French, Arabic and Italian speakers use the article for general likes. In English, general likes have no article: I like coffee.
- ◆ "Yes, I like." / "Me like...": Spanish me gusta interference. Model the short answer Yes, I do.
- ◆ "I very like...": Chinese and Vietnamese speakers. Offer I really like... or I like... very much.
- ◆ "a rice / breads": give a gentle correction only. The lesson says countability is "not for today."

◆ HOMEWORK

- ◆ Online lesson 4.1 (listen with the  buttons): rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_10.html, including the "I Can... I Like..." speaking project (record 6 sentences on your phone).
- ◆ Workbook 4.1: "Write about you" + "My new words" + journal (2 sentences).

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 C She can swim. · Q2 B No, I don't. · Q3 (new) "Can you swim?" → B Yes, I can.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ make the present continuous: am / is / are + verb-ing (I'm eating. She's reading.)
- ◆ describe what people are doing right now, in a picture or in the room
- ◆ ask and answer What are you doing? and Is she working? — Yes, she is. / No, she isn't.
- ◆ tell the difference: I work in a bank (every day) vs I'm working now (this moment)

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 4.2 (words, grammar box, Exercises 1–5, phone-call dialogue)
- ◆ Action flashcards · Mime cards (1 set per team) · A/B "What are they doing?" park cards (1 per pair)
- ◆ Slides 12–16 · Listening script "Who is it?" (materials)

BOARD PLAN

Left: I am eating. → I'm eating. · He / She is reading. → She's reading. · You / We / They are playing. → They're playing.

Centre: — I'm not / He isn't / They aren't working. | ? Are you working? — Yes, I am. / No, I'm not. | What are you doing?

Spelling: read → reading · write → writing · run → running, sit → sitting, swim → swimming

Right (timeline): EVERY DAY: I work in a bank. (usually, always) | NOW: I'm working now. (now, right now, at the moment)

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
1 Warmer / review C10	7	S–S	"Can you...? / Do you like...?" ball-toss: whoever catches the ball answers and asks the next person. Use the food and ability flashcards as prompts.
2 Lead-in	5	T–S	Stand up and start writing on the board, then stop: " What am I doing? I'm writing. " Sit down and drink water: " I'm drinking. " Show slide 13 pictures.
3 Clarify form & meaning	10	T–S	CCQs for "now." Build the form on the board from am / is / are (Lesson 2.1) + -ing . Contractions.
4 Drill	7	T–S → S	Choral → individual with action flashcards. Include he / she / they . Contractions in speech.

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
5 -ing spelling	5	T-S	Three columns on the board: + ing / drop e / double. Learners shout which column: dance, sit, cook, swim, write, play .
6 Controlled practice	8	S	Workbook Ex 1-3 (-ing, am/is/are, picture sentences). Pairs check.
7 Negatives, questions, short answers	6	T-S	Point at a learner: " Is Ahmed sleeping? " — " No, he isn't. He's listening! " Drill Yes, she is. / No, she isn't.
8 Mime game	11	S-S	ICQs, then teams of 4-5. One learner takes a mime card and acts; the team asks Are you cooking? The actor answers Yes, I am / No, I'm not . When right, the team says the full sentence: " She's cooking pasta! " for a point.
9 Now vs every day	10	T-S → S	Timeline on the board. CCQs. Then workbook Ex 4 (circle: every day or now).
10 Freer: info gap + phone call	12	S-S	A/B park cards: " What is Maria doing? " (7 min). Then pairs read the phone-call dialogue and change it to their home right now (5 min).
11 Feedback & error correction	4	T-S	Board 3-4 errors heard (usually a missing am/is/are). The class fixes them.
12 Wrap-up & homework	5	T-S	"I can..." checklist. Preview C12: "Next class, we go shopping and we find the station!"
	90		Total: 7 + 5 + 10 + 7 + 5 + 8 + 6 + 11 + 10 + 12 + 4 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. Something is happening at this moment, while we speak. It started and it is not finished yet.

SAY: "I'm writing." Am I writing now? (Yes.) Did I finish? (No.) Is it every day? (We don't know / not important.)

SAY: "I work in a bank. Today I'm working at home." Where do I work every day? (In a bank.) Where am I now? (At home.)

SAY: "She usually walks to school, but today she's taking the bus." Is walking her habit? (Yes.) What is she doing today? (Taking the bus.)

Form. subject + am / is / are + verb-ing. Two parts, always. Negative: add not (isn't, aren't, I'm not).

Question: am / is / are first. Short answers repeat am/is/are: Yes, she is. (never ~~Yes, she's~~).

Spelling. Most verbs: + ing. Silent -e: drop it (write → writing). Short word, one vowel + one consonant: double (run → running). Not sure? Just add -ing.

Pronunciation. Contractions in speech: I'm, she's, they're. The ending /ɪŋ/: back of the tongue up, no hard "g." Model sing vs sin. In the question, intonation rises: Are you ↗ working?

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Show read. "She's reading." ×2. Class ×2. Then the full form once ("She is reading") and back to the contraction.
- 2 Subject substitution with the same picture: "I" → I'm reading. "they" → They're reading. "he" → He's reading.
- 3 Picture substitution: flash cook, drink, swim, sing, watch TV. Learners say "He's cooking," etc.
- 4 Negative + correction: hold swim, say "She's sleeping?" → class: "No, she isn't. She's swimming."
- 5 Individual round, then open pairs: S1 "What are you doing?" S2 mimes and says "I'm drinking coffee."

◆ ICQS – BEFORE THE MIME GAME AND THE INFO GAP

SAY: Mime game: Do you show your card? (No!) Do you speak when you are acting? (Only "Yes, I am / No, I'm not.") How do you get the point? (Say the full sentence: "She's cooking.")

SAY: Info gap: Can you look at your partner's card? (No.) What's the question? ("What is ____ doing?") Where do you write the answer? (In the empty box.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: picture-only mime cards (use the flashcards). In the workbook, do Ex 5 (picture sentences) first. Give a strip: He's ____ing. / She's ____ing. / They're ____ing. and let learners trace the -ing.
- ◆ Stretch: add a wear sentence (She's wearing a red coat) and the "usually ... but today ..." frame. In the info gap, add one extra question: "Is he happy?"
- ◆ Private life: the phone-call adaptation is about "your home right now." Learners can invent a home and a family. Never ask who they live with.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I eating / She reading": dropping be is common for Arabic, Russian, Chinese, Vietnamese, Tagalog and Haitian Creole speakers. Hold up two fingers: "two parts."
- ◆ Present simple for now: Spanish, Portuguese, French, German and Russian speakers often say "What do you do now?" / "I cook now." Their L1 uses one present for both. Use the timeline and the CCQ "habit or this second?"

- ◆ "He are working": revisit the Lesson 2.1 match-up: I → am, he/she/it → is, you/we/they → are.
- ◆ -ing pronunciation: Spanish and Vietnamese speakers may say -in or add a hard g (sing-g). Arabic speakers may add a vowel before clusters.
- ◆ "I'm liking / I'm wanting": stretch learners may over-apply -ing. Say simply: "like, want, know — no -ing now."
- ◆ Tagalog / Chinese speakers and he/she: their L1 pronoun doesn't mark gender, so "He's cooking" for a woman is a slip, not a misunderstanding. Correct it lightly.

◆ HOMEWORK

- ◆ Online lesson 4.2: rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_11.html, including the project "What Is Everyone Doing?" (describe 4 people in a photo).
- ◆ Workbook 4.2: "Write about now" + "My new words" + journal.

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B sitting · Q2 C They are watching TV now. · Q3 (new) "What are you doing?" → B I'm cooking.

HOW THIS CLASS WORKS — TASK-BASED

This is a task-based lesson: pre-task (short language input for the two tasks) → task cycle (Task 1: map information gap · Task 2: classroom shop · Task 3: "A Day Out") → language focus (feedback on what you heard). You talk less than in any other class. Learners talk more. Your job during the tasks is to listen and fill in the speaking checklist. It is formative, so it's not a grade.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ shop politely and ask the price: I'd like..., please. · How much is it? / How much are they? · How much is that altogether?
- ◆ ask the way: Excuse me, where's the station? · Is there a bank near here?
- ◆ give and follow simple directions: Go straight on. · Take the first left. · It's on your right, opposite the bank.
- ◆ combine Modules 1–4 (greet, introduce, numbers, be, can, like) in one real conversation

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 4.3 (Exercises 1–5, mini-map, "My Day Out" plan, the Modules 1–4 self-check)
- ◆ A and B maps (1 per pair) · Shop kit: price tags for the Corner Shop and the Market Stall, shopkeeper cards, 8 shopping-list cards, play money
- ◆ "A Day Out" Visitor / Local cards · Speaking checklist (1 copy for you, on a clipboard)
- ◆ Slides 17–22 · Scripts: prices dictation, mini-map directions (materials)

BOARD PLAN

Shop: I'd like a coffee, please. · Can I have a bag, please? · How much is it? (1) → It's $2.50. · How much are they? (2+) → They're $4. · How much is that altogether? · Cash or card? · Here's your change / receipt /rɪ'si:t/.

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
1 Warmer — "Halfway!" review	8	S-S	Onion ring (two circles, inner faces outer). You call a prompt; pairs talk 45 seconds, then the outer circle moves: Hello + name + spell it · Where are you from? · What time do you start work? · What's in your kitchen? · Can you cook? · What are you doing right now?
2 Pre-task A — shopping	12	T-S	Slide 18: the coffee-shop dialogue (you + a strong learner). CCQs for is it / are they and I'd like . Quick drill. Prices dictation (script): learners write 6 prices in workbook Ex 2. Contrast thirteen / thirty, fifteen / fifty .
3 Pre-task B — directions	12	T-S	TPR: everyone stands; you say go straight on / turn left / turn right , and they move or point. Slide 19 phrases. Then the mini-map listening (workbook Ex 4, script): you read directions and learners write the place.
4 Task 1 — Map information gap	15	S-S	ICQs. Pairs sit back to back (or with a folder between them) with the A and B maps. A asks for B's places, B for A's: "Excuse me, where's the pharmacy?" The listener writes the place in the correct "?" box and says the directions back . Checklist: note who asks, gives and follows directions.
5 Report — check the maps	4	S-S → T	Pairs put the maps side by side and compare. Ask 2–3 pairs: "Where's the station?" One learner gives the directions to the class.
6 Task 2 — Classroom shop	20	S-S	Two shops (Corner Shop · Market Stall). 2 shopkeepers per shop; everyone else takes a shopping-list card + play money. Round 1 (8 min) : customers buy everything on their list and write the total. Swap shopkeepers and customers. Round 2 (8 min) with new lists. 4 min to set up and swap. Checklist: I'd like, is it / are they, prices .
7 Task 3 — "A Day Out"	8	S-S	Pairs with Visitor / Local cards act out the whole day: greet + introduce → buy something → ask the way → goodbye. Then swap. 2–3 pairs perform (volunteers only). Fill the last gaps on your checklist.
8 Language focus & feedback	6	T-S	Two columns on the board: "Great English I heard ★" and "Let's fix it 🔧" (anonymous). The class corrects. Drill 2 problem items again (often How much are they? and on your left).

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
9 Self-check, test preview, homework	5	S / T-S	Learners fill the "Look how much I can do" grid in the workbook (😊 😊 😊). Explain C13: what the Progress Test looks like (it's short and friendly, and there's catch-up time). Homework.
	90		Total: 8 + 12 + 12 + 15 + 4 + 20 + 8 + 6 + 5

◆ PRE-TASK LANGUAGE – MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Price questions. How much = the price. One thing → is it → It's.... Two or more → are they → They're.... The whole bill → How much is that altogether?

SAY: (Hold up one apple.) How much is it or how much are they? (Is it.) (Hold up shoes.) (Are they.) "How many" or "how much" for a price? (How much.)

Polite requests. I'd like... = I would like. Polite, not childish. Can I have..., please? is also polite.

SAY: "I'd like a coffee." Is it the same as "I like coffee"? (No — "I'd like" is now, a request. "I like" is always, a feeling.)

Prices. $4.50 = "four dollars fifty" or "four fifty." $13 vs $30: stress thirTEEN vs THIRty. receipt — the p is silent.

Directions (imperative). Plain verb, no you: Go straight on. Turn left. On your left / right (not in). Opposite = on the other side of the street; show it with two hands facing each other.

SAY: "It's opposite the bank." Is it next to the bank? (No.) Do I cross the street? (Yes.) "Take the second left." Do I turn at the first street? (No — the second.)

◆ DRILL SCRIPT (SHORT – THIS IS A REVIEW CLASS)

- 1 Hold up one item, then two: class says "How much is it?" / "How much are they?" Keep a fast rhythm.
- 2 Back-chain the long one: altogether → is that altogether → How much is that altogether?
- 3 Directions with the body (TPR): you say it, they point; then a learner says it and you point, and you get it wrong on purpose so they correct you.
- 4 Open pair: S1 "Excuse me, where's the bank?" S2 (looking at the mini-map) "Go straight on. It's on your left."

◆ ICQS – BEFORE EACH TASK

SAY: Map: Can you see your partner's map? (No.) What do you say first? (Excuse me...) What do you write in the "?" box? (The place.) Where do you start? (At the star — "You are here.")

SAY: Shop: Customers, what do you buy? (The things on my card.) What do you ask? ("How much is it / are they?") What do you write at the end? (The total.) Shopkeepers — do you just say "$4"? (No — "It's four dollars.")

SAY: Day Out: How many parts? (Four: hello, shop, directions, goodbye.) Do you read the card aloud? (No — look, then speak.)

◆ THE SPEAKING CHECKLIST — HOW TO USE IT

- ◆ Write the class names in the checklist before class. Aim to observe every learner at least once across Tasks 1–3. Stand to the side; don't hover or stare at the clipboard. For anxious learners, listen from a distance.
- ◆ Codes: ✓ does it independently · ~ does it with help / after a model · ○ not yet (or not observed, so check it again in C13). Note one example error in the last column if useful.
- ◆ Columns cover Modules 1–4: greet & introduce · can / like · present continuous (use the Day Out small talk, or ask "What are they doing?" about the shop) · I'd like · is it / are they · prices · asks the way · gives directions · follows directions.
- ◆ After class, circle every learner with two or more ○. They form the catch-up group in C13 (see below).

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: pair a pre-literate learner with a patient partner as Map B first (B listens and points before writing). Let them write the first letter of the place or draw its symbol in the "?" box. In the shop, they're a customer with the picture shopping list and real objects, and they can point and ask "How much is it?"
- ◆ Stretch: in the map task, add next to / opposite / on the corner to every direction. In the shop, shopkeepers announce one item "on sale" and customers ask "Is it on sale?" or bargain politely. In Day Out, the visitor asks "Is it far?" and the local gives a time.
- ◆ New identity: Day Out asks "Where are you from?" The Visitor card gives a name and a town to use instead. Say clearly that the card is always okay.
- ◆ Money: use play money only. Some learners may be struggling financially, so keep prices and "budget" talk light and game-like.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "How much cost?" / "How much costs it?": Spanish (¿Cuánto cuesta?), Portuguese, French and Arabic speakers translate the verb. Accept How much does it cost? but drill How much is it?
- ◆ "How many is it?": learners mix up much/many. For prices, it's always much.
- ◆ "Where station?" / "Where is station?": Arabic, Chinese and Russian speakers drop is and/or the article. Drill Where's the station? as one chunk.

- ◆ "Turn to the left" / "in the right": Spanish (gira a la izquierda, a la derecha) and French speakers. Model Turn left. It's on your right.
- ◆ teen / ty in prices: everyone (thirteen/thirty, fifteen/fifty). Vietnamese and Chinese speakers may also drop the final consonants of numbers (fif-).
- ◆ "I want..." / "Give me...": direct requests are polite in many languages and cultures. Present I'd like..., please as "the shop sentence in English," not as a correction of manners.
- ◆ "receipt" with a p and p/b for Arabic speakers (pay/bay, please/bleese): quick minimal-pair drill if it comes up.

◆ HOMEWORK

- ◆ Online lesson 4.3: rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_12.html. Do the capstone "A Day Out" out loud (phone recording is great).
- ◆ Workbook 4.3: "My Day Out" plan + journal. Review for C13: reread workbook pages for Modules 1–4, and do the Quick Quizzes of any two earlier lessons online.

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B How much are they? · Q2 A Go straight on and take the first left. It's on your right. · Q3 (new) "It's opposite the bank" → B on the other side of the street from the bank.

BRIDGE TO C13 — PROGRESS TEST 1

USING THE C12 SPEAKING CHECKLIST IN C13

C13 is Progress Test 1 (Modules 1–4) + catch-up. Before C13, count the ○s in each column of your checklist. The column with the most ○s is your whole-class five-minute review at the start of C13. Learners with two or more ○s join a small catch-up group with you while the others do an extension task. Re-check their ○ items in the group (a 1-minute chat is enough) and update the sheet. Keep the checklist: it's your evidence of speaking progress alongside the written test.

- ◆ Typical catch-up focus areas: How much is it / are they · am/is/are in the present continuous · can + plain verb · following first / second left.
- ◆ Tell learners in C12: "Next class there's a short test. It checks what you know, so we know what to practice. It is not a pass/fail exam." Adults with difficult school histories may worry, so say it twice.

Module 5 — Describing the World Around Me

Three classes that turn plain nouns into real descriptions. Learners count and color things ("two red bags"), say where things are ("It's under the table"), and talk about what people have and how they look ("She's got long dark hair"). The module starts right after Progress Test 1, so C14 opens by handing the tests back in a warm, low-stress way.

Lessons 5.1–5.3

Classes C14–C16

Weeks 7–8

CEFR A1

HOW TO USE THIS CHAPTER

- Each lesson block below is one 90-minute class. The stage plan is your clock. The notes under it (Meaning / Form / Pronunciation, drills, ICQs) are what you say and do.
- Every class follows the same rhythm: warmer → lead-in → clarify (Meaning, Form, Pronunciation + CCQs) → drill → controlled practice (workbook) → freer speaking → feedback → homework.
- Slides: slides/module-5-describing.html . Print sheet (flashcards, A/B cards, scripts, games): materials/module-5/classroom-materials.html . Answers: the Module 5 answer key.
- This module is very visual and physical. Bring real things: a bag with 8–10 everyday objects, a small box, a ball (or an orange), and colored paper or pens. Point, touch, move, and hold things up. Learners with limited literacy follow much more easily when the words are attached to objects.
- Teal = speaking and scripts, amber = watch-outs, dashed boxes = lines to say out loud.

THE THROUGH-LINE

What is it like? → Where is it? → Who has got it? In 5.1 learners describe things (plural, color, adjective). In 5.2 they put those things in places (The red bag is under the table). In 5.3 they give the things to people and describe the people (She's got a red bag and long dark hair). Recycle on purpose: every freer task in 5.2 and 5.3 should include a color or an adjective from 5.1. By the end of C16 a learner can describe a room or a person in 5–6 sentences.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- Mark Progress Test 1 before C14. Write a short, positive comment on every paper (one thing they did well + one thing to practice). Collect 4–5 common errors from different papers for the C14 board (no names).
- Print from the materials sheet: color / adjective / room flashcards; the Describe & Guess cards (one set per 3–4 learners); Spot the Difference A/B cards (one A + one B per pair); What's in your bag? A/B cards and the Who is it? face board (one per pair).

- ◆ Pack a teacher's bag: keys, a phone, two pens, a red notebook, glasses, an umbrella, an apple. You'll use it in all three classes.
- ◆ Bring a small box and a ball or orange for the prepositions demo in C15.

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
5.1	C14 · Wk 7	Progress Test 1 return · plurals (-s/-es/-ies/-ves + irregular) · colors · adjective + noun	...say how many and describe things: "two small red bags," "three children"
5.2	C15 · Wk 8	Prepositions of place · Where is / Where are? · rooms & furniture · at home / at work	...ask and say where things are and describe a room
5.3	C16 · Wk 8	have got / has got · negatives · questions & short answers · hair, eyes, appearance	...say what people have and describe how a person looks

◆ OBJECTIVES – LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ ...make regular plurals (-s, -es, -ies, -ves) and say the common irregular ones (men, women, children, people, feet)
- ◆ ...name 10 colors and ask "What color is it?"
- ◆ ...put an adjective before the noun, with no -s on the adjective ("two red cars")
- ◆ ...use two adjectives in the right order: opinion → size → color ("a nice big red bag")

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Marked Progress Test 1 papers (in folders or face-down) · sticky notes
- ◆ Workbook 5.1 · slides 1–8 · color and adjective flashcards · irregular-plural word cards
- ◆ Describe & Guess cards (one set per group of 3–4) · Listening script 5.1 · the teacher's bag

BOARD PLAN

Left: Our test: ✓ We can... (3 class strengths) · Let's fix it! (4 anonymous sentences)

Middle: one car → two cars · bus → buses /ɪz/ · city → cities · knife → knives | man → men · woman → women · child → children · person → people · foot → feet

Corner: ? What color is it? — It's blue.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
1 · Welcome & Progress Test 1 return	12	T-S · S-S · S	See "Returning Progress Test 1" below. Strengths on the board, pairs fix 4 anonymous errors, each learner writes one goal.
2 · Lead-in: the teacher's bag	5	T-S	Take things out of your bag one by one. Elicit names. Take out two pens: "One pen... two pens!" Stress the /s/.
3 · Plurals: M / F / P	12	T-S	Slide 4. Rules 1–4 with real things, then irregulars with word cards. CCQs. Choral → individual drill (see below).

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
4 · Colors	8	T-S · S	Slide 5 / flashcards. Drill. "Point to something red ." Learners stand and touch something of each color in the room.
5 · Adjective + noun, word order	10	T-S	Slide 6. Build "a car → a red car → two red cars → a nice big red car" on the board. CCQs. Backchain drill.
6 · Controlled practice	12	S · S-S	Workbook 5.1 Ex. 1-4 alone, then check in pairs. Go through answers on the board. Listening script 5.1 ("Listen and draw") if time.
7 · Dialogue: Maya & Leo	8	T-S · S-S	Slide 7. Read it to them (or play  from the online lesson). Q: "Which bag does Maya buy?" (a nice small grey/gray bag). Pairs read both parts, then swap.
8 · Freer: Describe & Guess	15	S-S	Groups of 3-4 with a card set. ICQs first. See the game rules in the materials sheet.
9 · Feedback & delayed correction	3	T-S	Write 3 errors you heard + 1 great sentence on the board. Groups fix the errors together.
10 · Homework	5	T-S	Show the online lesson on the screen. Point to the  buttons and the project. Workbook: "My new words" + journal.
	90	Total: 12 + 5 + 12 + 8 + 10 + 12 + 8 + 15 + 3 + 5

RETURNING PROGRESS TEST 1 (12 MIN) — KEEP IT WARM

1. Celebrate first (3 min). Before any paper comes out, write "We can..." on the board and list three things the whole class did well (for example: spell our names · say the time · use "there is / there are"). Say it out loud.

SAY: Four modules! You can introduce yourself, talk about your family, your day, and your home, in English. That's a lot. Clap for you.

2. Return privately (2 min). Hand papers back face-down or in folders. Never read scores aloud and never compare learners. Everyone gets a written comment: one strength + one thing to practice.

3. "Let's fix it!" (5 min). Show 4 anonymous errors from the tests (for example: She have two children. · I am 30 years. · There is two chairs. · He work in a bank.). Pairs fix them. Take answers. Praise the fixing, not the mistake-free.

4. One goal (2 min). Each learner writes one goal on a sticky note or in the workbook box: "I want to practice ____." Stick it inside the workbook cover.

SAY: A test is a map. It tells us where we are. It doesn't tell us who we are.

Some adults carry hard memories of school and tests. Keep your voice light and move on quickly. Offer a 1:1 chat at the break to anyone who struggled (below about 60%), and plan catch-up with the Module 1–4 online lessons. Don't let the test return grow past 12 minutes. The best encouragement is a good, successful lesson straight after it.

◆ MEANING · FORM · PRONUNCIATION

Plurals — meaning. Hold up one pen, then two pens.

SAY: One pen or more than one? (One.) And now? (More than one, two.) So we add... (s!)

Form. Rule 1: most nouns + -s. Rule 2: after s, x, ch, sh + -es (buses, boxes, watches, dishes). Rule 3: consonant + y → -ies (city → cities), but vowel + y → just -s (day → days, key → keys). Rule 4: some -f/-fe → -ves (knife → knives, leaf → leaves). Irregulars: teach as whole words with the word cards. people = the plural of person.

SAY: One child, two... (children). One person, two... (people). Is "persons" OK? (No, people.)

Pronunciation. At A1 focus on one thing: the extra syllable /ɪz/ after s, x, ch, sh. Clap it: bus (1 clap) → bus-es (2 claps), box-es, watch-es. Don't teach /s/ vs /z/ yet; just model naturally.

Colors — form. Colors are adjectives. Question: What color is it? Answer: It's blue. / It's black and white. We teach gray (American); grey (British) is also correct and appears in the online lesson.

Adjective + noun — meaning & form. Two rules: (1) the adjective goes before the noun, (2) it never takes -s.

SAY: "A car red": OK? (No.) "A red car"? (Yes.) Two cars: "two reds cars" or "two red cars"? (Two red cars.) Which word gets the s? (Cars.)

Two adjectives. Light version: opinion → size → color + noun. Most of the time one adjective is perfect.

SAY: "A nice big red bag." Which word is my feeling? (Nice.) Which word is the size? (Big.) Where is the color? (Last, next to "bag.")

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Plural chain (choral): T: "One book." Ss: "Two books." · "One box." "Two boxes." · "One city." "Two cities." · "One child." "Two children." · "One person." "Two people." Then point at individuals.
- 2 Backchain (the long phrase): "...bag." → "...red bag." → "...big red bag." → "...nice big red bag." → "a nice big red bag." Choral twice, then 4–5 individuals.
- 3 Substitution: say "a red car," then give a cue: "two" → "two red cars" · "blue" → "two blue cars" · "small" → "two small blue cars."

◆ ICQS – BEFORE DESCRIBE & GUESS

SAY: Do you show your card? (No.) Do you say the word on the card? (No!) Do you say the color? (Yes.) How many clues? (Three.) What does your partner ask? ("Is it a...?")

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

Literacy support. Use the picture flashcards for all practice. In Ex. 1 do only the first four items. Let learners copy the plural from the board model. In the game they may use the clue words printed on the card. The clue can be just "Red. Small. Fruit."

Stretch. Two adjectives in every clue ("It's a long yellow fruit."). Add Rule 3/4 words: baby, family, leaf, wife. Write 6 sentences about their room for the project now.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Spanish, Portuguese, French, Italian, Arabic, Vietnamese speakers often put the adjective after the noun: "a car red." Romance-language speakers may also add -s to the adjective: "two reds cars." Show it clearly on the board and drill it.
- ◆ Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Vietnamese, Thai, Tagalog don't mark the plural on the noun, so learners drop the -s: "two book." With the number there, the meaning is still clear. Correct it gently and often.
- ◆ Vietnamese, Cantonese speakers often drop final consonants. Plural -s and -es are hard to hear and say. Exaggerate the end sound and let learners feel it.
- ◆ "persons," "childs," "mans" come from every L1. Keep the irregular word cards on the wall.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson: rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_13.html (listen with , do Exercises 1–2 and the project "Describe Your Things"). Workbook 5.1: finish Ex. 5, "My new words," and the journal.

◆ CHECK — QUICK CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B I have two red cars · Q2 C children · Q3 B a big red bag.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ ...use in, on, under, next to, between, behind, in front of, above (and understand near, opposite, below)
- ◆ ...ask Where is...? / Where are...? and answer It's... / They're...
- ◆ ...name common rooms, furniture, and everyday objects
- ◆ ...describe where 6 things are in a room; say at home, at work, at school

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ A small box and a ball (or an orange) · the teacher's bag · Workbook 5.2 · slides 9–12
- ◆ Preposition and room / furniture flashcards · Listening script 5.2
- ◆ Spot the Difference cards: Room A + Room B (one of each per pair)

Left: 8 simple drawings of a box and a ball: in · on · under · next to · between · behind · in front of · above

Middle: Where is my phone? → It's on the table. | Where are my keys? → They're in your bag.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
1 · Warmer: review 5.1	7	T-S · S-S	Kim's game: show 8 objects from your bag on a table for 30 seconds, cover them, and pairs say/write as many as they can with a color ("a red notebook, two blue pens").
2 · Lead-in: "Where are my keys?"	5	T-S	Act it out: search for your keys, looking worried. Learners help ("There! Table!"). Elicit the question Where are my keys?
3 · Prepositions: M / F / P	15	T-S	Box + ball demo, one preposition at a time, with CCQs. Draw each one on the board. Slide 10.
4 · Drill + actions	8	T-S · S	Choral/individual drill, then TPR: "Put your pen on your book... under your chair... between two bags."

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
5 · Where is / Where are?	8	T-S · S-S	Slide 11. It's (one) / They're (many). Open pairs across the room, then closed pairs with real objects.
6 · Rooms, furniture & things	7	T-S	Flashcards: kitchen, bedroom, living room, bathroom, sofa, shelf, drawer, lamp, remote... Drill quickly. "Where do you cook?" (In the kitchen.)
7 · Controlled practice	10	S · S-S	Workbook 5.2 Ex. 1-4, pairs check. Listening script 5.2 ("Draw the room") if time.
8 · Dialogue: Ben & Ana	6	T-S · S-S	Read it (or play 🎧). Q: "Where is Ben's bag?" (Behind the door.) Pairs read, then swap.
9 · Freer: Spot the Difference	15	S-S	A/B room cards. Pairs sit back to back or hide their cards. ICQs. They find 6 differences by talking only.
10 · Feedback & delayed correction	4	T-S	Pairs say their differences ("In my room the cat is under the table. In B's room it's on the sofa."). Board: 3 errors to fix.
11 · Homework	5	T-S	Online lesson + project "Where Is Everything?" Workbook: Ex. 5, new words, journal.
	90	Total:	7 + 5 + 15 + 8 + 8 + 7 + 10 + 6 + 15 + 4 + 5

◆ MEANING · FORM · PRONUNCIATION

Meaning (box + ball). Show each position with the ball, say the sentence, then check it. Do the ones learners know from Lesson 3.3 (under, next to, between) first. Then do the new ones.

SAY: (ball on top) Is the ball inside the box? (No.) Is it on top? (Yes.) So it's... (on the box).

SAY: (ball inside) Can you see all the ball? (No.) Is it inside? (Yes.) So it's... (in the box).

SAY: (ball in the air over the box) Is it touching the box? (No.) Is it higher? (Yes.) So it's... (above the box).
Touching = on. Not touching = above.

SAY: (two boxes, ball in the middle) How many boxes? (Two.) Is the ball in the middle? (Yes.) So it's... (between the boxes).

SAY: (ball at the back) Can I see the ball? (A little / no.) Is it at the front or at the back? (Back.) So it's... (behind the box). And now? (In front of the box.)

Form. Where is + one thing → It's + preposition + the + place. Where are + two or more → They're... Short answers are natural: "On the table." in front of is always three words. at home / at work / at school are fixed phrases.

Pronunciation. Link the words: Where's_my phone? · It's_on_the table . Stress the preposition when it's the new information: "It's UNDER the table." Between and behind are stressed on the second syllable: be-TWEEN , be-HIND .

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Choral: point to each board drawing and say the full sentence: "The ball is in the box." Ss repeat ×2. Then point in random order, Ss say only the preposition, faster and faster.
- 2 Question-answer: T: "Where's the ball?" (move it) Ss: "It's under the table." Then use two balls/pens: "Where are the pens?" "They're in the bag."
- 3 Open pairs → closed pairs: S1 hides a pen and asks "Where's my pen?" S2 answers. Swap.

◆ ICQS – BEFORE SPOT THE DIFFERENCE

SAY: Do you show your picture to your partner? (No!) Are the two rooms the same? (No, a little different.) How many differences? (Six.) Do you talk or point? (Talk.) What question do you ask? ("Where is the cat?") Where do you write the differences? (In the table on the card.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

Literacy support. Keep the box-and-ball drawings on the board all class; learners can point at a drawing instead of reading the word. The room pictures have word labels. In Spot the Difference they may simply circle the six things that are different instead of writing sentences.

Stretch. Use near, opposite, below too. Add a color to every answer ("The red bag is on the sofa."). After the game, describe their own living room in 6 sentences without notes.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Spanish / Portuguese en and Arabic fi cover both "in" and "on," so you'll hear "The phone is in the table." Use the box: inside = in, on top = on.
- ◆ Spanish, Portuguese, French: "in home" or "in the home" (en casa). Drill at home / at work / at school as chunks.
- ◆ Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Turkish put the location word after the noun ("table on"). Learners may say "The keys are table on." Model the English order: preposition before the place.
- ◆ "Where are my phone?" Plural-less languages (Chinese, Vietnamese, Tagalog...) mix up is/are. Tie it to 5.1: one thing = is / it's, two or more = are / they're.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson: rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_14.html ( Listen, Exercises 1–2, project "Where Is Everything?"). Workbook 5.2: Ex. 5, "My new words," journal.

◆ CHECK – QUICK CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B The cup is between the two books · Q2 B I am at home · Q3 B Where are my keys? · Spot the Difference: lamp, cat, clock, books, cup, bag (full list in the answer key).

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ ...say what people have with have got / has got (and the contractions I've got, she's got)
- ◆ ...make negatives (haven't got / hasn't got) and questions (Have you got...? Has she got...?)
- ◆ ...give short answers: Yes, I have. / No, she hasn't.
- ◆ ...describe a person's hair, eyes, and look (long, short, curly, straight, dark, blond, glasses, beard, tall)

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ The teacher's bag · Workbook 5.3 · slides 13–18 · family flashcards from Module 2 (optional)
- ◆ What's in your bag? A/B cards (one of each per pair) · Who is it? face board (one per pair) · Listening script 5.3

BOARD PLAN

Left: I / you / we / they have got ('ve got) · he / she / it has got ('s got) · ~~X~~ He have got

Middle: haven't got / hasn't got · Have you got a pen? → Yes, I have. / No, I haven't. · Has she got glasses? → Yes, she has. / No, she hasn't. (~~X~~ Yes, I have got.)

Right: She's got = She has got · She's happy = She is happy · She's got long dark hair (~~X~~ hairs) ·  = I have / Do you have...?

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
1 · Warmer: Where is it?	6	T-S · S-S	One learner closes their eyes. The class hides an object. The learner asks "Is it under the chair?" "Is it in the bag?" until they find it. 2–3 rounds.
2 · Lead-in: "What have I got?"	5	T-S	Hold up your bag. "Guess! What have I got in my bag?" Learners guess. Take out each item: "Yes! I've got an umbrella. I haven't got a laptop."
3 · have got / has got: M / F / P	12	T-S	Slide 14. Meaning (= have), form table, contractions. CCQs. Drill.
4 · Negatives, questions, short answers	10	T-S · S-S	Slide 15. Question-and-answer chain around the class with objects: "Have you got a pen?" "Yes, I have."

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
5 · Describing people	7	T-S	Slide 16. Hair (long/short, curly/straight, dark/blond/gray), eyes, glasses, beard, tall. Order: length → type/color → hair.
6 · Controlled practice	10	S · S-S	Workbook 5.3 Ex. 1-4, pairs check. Listening script 5.3 ("Who is it?") as a class check.
7 · Dialogue: Sam & Nadia	6	T-S · S-S	Slide 17. Q: "What has Omar got?" (short dark hair, a beard, glasses, a big blue backpack). Pairs read, swap.
8 · Freer: What's in your bag?	15	S-S	A/B bag cards. ICQs. Ask "Have you got...?", tick the grid, find two things you've both got, report to another pair.
9 · Freer: Who is it?	8	S-S	Face board. A chooses a person secretly; B asks yes/no questions ("Has she got glasses?") to find them. Swap.
10 · Feedback & module wrap-up	6	T-S	3 errors to fix. Then the module "I can" check: learners tick the  lists in the workbook for 5.1-5.3.
11 · Homework	5	T-S	Online lesson + project "Describe a Person." Workbook: Ex. 5, new words, journal.
90		Total: 6 + 5 + 12 + 10 + 7 + 10 + 6 + 15 + 8 + 6 + 5

◆ MEANING · FORM · PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. have got = have, for things we own and how people look. It is not the past tense of get.

SAY: "I've got an umbrella." Is the umbrella mine? (Yes.) Is it now or yesterday? (Now.) "I have an umbrella." Same or different? (Same.)

SAY: "She's got long hair." Is her hair long now? (Yes.) Is it "She is got"? (No, she HAS got.)

Form. I / you / we / they + have got ('ve got). He / she / it + has got ('s got). Negative: haven't got / hasn't got. Question: Have / Has + subject + got...? Short answer: Yes, I have. / No, she hasn't. No got in short answers.

AMERICAN ENGLISH NOTE

The online lesson teaches have got, which is common in British English and everyday speech. In the US, people more often say I have... / Do you have...? / I don't have.... Both are correct. Teach have got (it's on the homework), but model and accept "Do you have a pen?" / "Yes, I do." Learners in the US will hear the have / do form at work and at the doctor, so point it out once and move on.

People. Build it like the lesson: has got + (length) + (type/color) + hair: "She's got long straight blond hair." hair is uncountable here: long hair, not hairs. Use is for tall/short: "He's tall" (= he is).

SAY: "He's tall." Is it "he has" or "he is"? (He is.) "He's got glasses." Has or is? (Has.) How do you know? (Got!)

Pronunciation. Contractions are the natural spoken form: I 've got /aɪv gɒt/ (the /v/ is short but there), she 's got. Short answers are stressed: "Yes, I HAVE." "No, she HASn't." Watch /v/ in have / haven't (Spanish b/v).

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Pronoun switch: T holds a pen: "I've got a pen." Point to a learner: Ss "She's got a pen." / "He's got a pen." Point to two learners: "They've got pens." Point to the class: "We've got pens."
- 2 Question chain: S1 asks S2 "Have you got a phone?" S2 answers "Yes, I have." / "No, I haven't." and asks S3 about a new object. Keep it going around the room.
- 3 Describing: show slide 16 people. T: "Grandfather — hair?" Ss: "He's got short gray hair." T: "Glasses?" Ss: "Yes, he's got glasses." T: "Grandmother — glasses?" Ss: "No, she hasn't."

◆ ICQS — BEFORE WHAT'S IN YOUR BAG?

SAY: Do you show your card? (No.) Do you ask "Have you got a key?" or "Has you got..."? (Have you got.) When your partner says "Yes, I have," what do you do? (Tick ✓.) How many things have you both got? (Find two.)

PRIVACY: BAGS AND BODIES

Use the bag cards, not learners' real bags. A bag can hold medicine, money, or documents that people don't want to show. Learners may choose to show 2–3 things from their own bag as an extra. Describe characters (the face board, the online lesson people), not classmates' bodies. If a learner wants to describe a real family member for the project, that's great. A made-up person ("new identity") is also fine.

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

Literacy support. The bag cards are all pictures. Learners point to a picture and ask "Have you got...?" with the word from the board. In Ex. 1–2 write have / has on the board with a big "he / she / it" arrow next to has. For Who is it? they can ask with gestures (point to their own glasses: "Glasses?") and you model the full question.

Stretch. Describe a person in 6+ sentences without notes, including one belonging and one negative. Use the American form as well: "Does she have glasses? — Yes, she does." Write the project model in the workbook.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Tagalog, Chinese, Vietnamese, Turkish, Finnish: one spoken word for "he" and "she." When learners describe people, he/she mix-ups jump. Point to the picture: man → he, woman → she, and correct right away in the drill.
- ◆ Spanish / Portuguese / Italian: "She has the hair long" (tiene el pelo largo) → "She's got the long hair" or "hairs." Model: She's got long hair (no "the," no -s).
- ◆ Arabic, Russian, Chinese speakers may drop the verb: "She long hair." Point to the missing 's got.
- ◆ Everyone: "He have got..." and "Yes, I have got." Keep the board pointer on has for he/she/it.
- ◆ Japanese / Korean: l/r in long, curly, glasses, brown. Quick minimal-pair fun: long / wrong, glass / grass.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson: rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_15.html ( Listen, Exercises 1–2, project "Describe a Person"). Workbook 5.3: Ex. 5, "My new words," journal. Tell learners to review Module 5 before Module 6. The next class (C17) starts How Often?.

◆ CHECK – QUICK CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B She has got blue eyes · Q2 B No, he hasn't · Q3 B In "He's got a beard," 's = has.

END OF C16 — "I CAN DESCRIBE..."

Ask 3–4 volunteers to say one sentence from each lesson in a chain: "I've got two small black bags. My red bag is under the table. My sister's got long dark hair." Cheer each chain. Recap on the board: two red cars → It's under the table → She's got long hair.

Before Module 6: check the goal sticky notes from C14 with learners who want to talk about them. Anyone who missed a class: send them to the online lesson and give the workbook page to do at home.

Module 6 — Habits, Free Time & Plans

Three classes that let learners talk about their real lives: how often they do things, what they love and hate doing, and when they are free to meet. Each class ends in a real exchange: a class survey with a bar chart, a "find someone who" mingle, and a diary information gap where partners find a time to meet.

Lessons 6.1–6.3

Classes C17–C19

Weeks 9–10

CEFR A1

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- One lesson block = one 90-minute class. The stage plan is the clock. The notes under it are the content: Meaning / Form / Pronunciation with concept-checking questions (CCQs), a drill script, instruction-checking questions (ICQs), differentiation, and L1 watch-outs.
- Every class follows the course rhythm: lead-in → clarify (M/F/P + CCQs) → drill (choral → individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer speaking → delayed error correction.
- Slides: slides/module-6-habits-plans.html. Print sheets (flashcards, survey, mingle, diary cards, listening scripts): materials/module-6/classroom-materials.html.
- The online lessons are homework: lesson_16 (6.1), lesson_17 (6.2), lesson_18 (6.3). Learners can press  Listen at home to hear every word.
- Dashed boxes = lines to say out loud. Teal = speaking tasks and read-aloud scripts, amber = watch-outs.

THE THROUGH-LINE

How often? → Do you like it? → When are you free? Learners first describe their habits (6.1), then their feelings about activities (6.2), then use both to make a plan with someone (6.3). Recycle constantly: in 6.2 follow every "Do you like...?" with "How often do you...?"; in 6.3 invite people to do the hobbies they said they love. By the end of C19 a learner can have a real, short, friendly conversation: "Do you like swimming?" "Yes, I love it. I go twice a week." "Are you free on Saturday? Let's go together!"

TRAUMA-INFORMED REMINDER

Habits, hobbies, and plans are personal. Some learners work nights, care for family, or have little free time or money. Never ask "why?" about a habit. Any learner may use a new identity card (in the materials sheet) and answer as that person, and "I don't know" or "Pass" is always a fine answer. In 6.3, birthdays can be real or invented. Some learners do not know their exact birth date, so never make it a test.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- ◆ Print from classroom-materials.html : job + hobby + season flashcards (one set for you), the class survey sheet and bar-chart sheet (one each per learner, C17), the find-someone-who grid (one per learner, C18), and the A/B diary cards (one per pair, C19). Cut the new identity cards.
- ◆ Draw a long arrow on a poster: always 100% → never 0%. It stays on the wall for all three classes.
- ◆ Make a wall calendar for the current month, or print a blank one. It helps with dates in C19.
- ◆ Bring colored pens or crayons for the bar chart (C17) and two sticky notes per learner (C18).

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
6.1	C17 • wk 9	Adverbs of frequency, position, How often...? , once/twice a week, jobs	say how often they do things and ask others; report class survey results
6.2	C18 • wk 9	love / like / enjoy / don't mind / don't like / hate + -ing ; -ing spelling; object pronouns; hobbies	say what they like and dislike doing and ask Do you like...?
6.3	C19 • wk 10	at / in / on for time; months, seasons, ordinal dates; going to ; present continuous for arrangements; inviting	say dates, invite someone, and agree on a day and time to meet

6.1 · C17

How Often? — Adverbs of Frequency

90 min

◆ OBJECTIVES (CAN-DO)

- ◆ I can say how often I do things with always, usually, often, sometimes, hardly ever, never.
- ◆ I can put the adverb in the right place: before a normal verb, after be.
- ◆ I can ask and answer How often do you...? with once a week, twice a day, every morning.
- ◆ I can say what people in some jobs usually do (a nurse usually works at night).

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 6.1 (words, grammar box, Exercises 1–4, dialogue, speaking, I can...)
- ◆ Flashcards: nurse, driver, teacher, chef, mechanic, waiter, doctor, cleaner, shop assistant
- ◆ Class survey sheet + bar-chart sheet (materials); listening script "Lucy's week"
- ◆ Slides 1–9 (answers on slide 8); the always → never wall poster

BOARD PLAN

always 100% · usually 90% · often 70% · sometimes 40% · hardly ever 10% · never 0%

I always drink coffee. → adverb before the verb

She is always late. → adverb after be "be after, verb before"

How often do you cook? — I cook once / twice / three times a week. · every morning · on Fridays

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Warmer / review C16	8	S-S	"Have got" review: in pairs, find three things you have both got (a phone, a brother, a bike...). Two pairs report: "We have both got...". Then elicit five daily-routine verbs from Module 3 (get up, work, cook, watch TV, go to bed) and write them on the board.
Lead-in: jobs & routines	7	T-S	Show job flashcards and drill the names (stress: ME chanic, SH OP assistant). Ask: "Who works at night? Who works in a restaurant?" Model: "A nurse usually works at night." Learners guess one more.
Meaning: the scale	10	T-S	Tell a true story about your week: "I drink coffee every day, 7 days: I always drink coffee. I go to the gym... 0 days: I never go to the gym." Build the scale on the poster. CCQs (below). Learners stand on an imaginary line across the room: "I sometimes cook" → they walk to the right place.

Form & pronunciation	10	T-S	Board: subject + adverb + verb, and subject + be + adverb. Chant "be after, verb before." Drill (script below): choral → half-class → individual. Mark the weak stress on "hardly ever" and the linking in often_I .
Controlled practice	12	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1 (put the adverb in), Ex 2 (choose the word), Ex 3 (order the words). Learners check in pairs, then confirm on slide 8. Fast finishers: Ex 5 (job and place).
Listening	8	T-S	Read "Lucy's week" (materials) twice. Learners tick how often Lucy does each thing. Check. Then pairs read the Ben & Lucy dialogue aloud (workbook), swap roles once.
How often...? + phrases	8	T-S, S-S	Elicit the question from the dialogue. Board: How often + do/does + subject + verb? Teach once, twice, three times a week / a day / a month, every morning, on Fridays . Drill 5 questions. Quick open pairs across the room.
Freer: class survey + bar chart	17	S-S	ICQs first (below). Each learner has one survey question (cut strips A-H, e.g. "How often do you cook?"). Mingle 9 min: ask 6-8 classmates, tally answers on the survey sheet. Chart 8 min: draw your bars on the bar-chart sheet (one bar per frequency word) and write two sentences: "Four people always cook. Two people never cook." (See the report frame below.)
Report & feedback	5	S-T	3-4 learners hold up their chart and read one sentence. Delayed error correction: write 3 errors you heard on the board (e.g. "I drink always tea"), and the class fixes them together. Praise good sentences first.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Show lesson_16 on the screen; point to the 🗣️ buttons and the "My Week" project. Workbook: finish "Write about you" + journal. Collect or photograph the bar charts for a wall display.

Total 90 = 8 + 7 + 10 + 10 + 12 + 8 + 8 + 17 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING – CCQS

SAY: "I always drink coffee." Do I drink coffee every day? (Yes.) Is there a day with no coffee? (No.)

SAY: "I hardly ever eat fast food." Do I eat fast food every week? (No.) Do I eat it sometimes, maybe one time a month? (Yes, maybe.) Is it zero? (No, almost zero.)

SAY: "I never smoke." How many times? (Zero.) Do we say "I don't never smoke"? (No. Never is already "no.")

SAY: "once a week." How many times? (One.) "twice a day." How many times? (Two.)

◆ FORM & PRONUNCIATION – DRILL SCRIPT

Point to a picture on the slide, say the model twice, then gesture for the class, then two rows, then single learners. Keep a steady beat and stress the adverb.

SAY: I ALways drink coffee. (class) · She USually walks to work. (class) · They're OFten busy. (row 1) · He HARDly ever cooks. (row 2) · I'm NEver late. (individuals)

SAY: Substitution: "I always drink coffee... sometimes!" → I sometimes drink coffee. "...she!" → She sometimes drinks coffee. "...is late!" → She is sometimes late.

Pronunciation: /ˈɔːlweɪz/ always · /ˈjuːʒuəli/ usually (3 syllables are fine: YOO-zhoo-lee) · /ˈɒfən/ often, the t is silent for most American speakers · twice /twɑɪs/ ends in /s/, not /z/.

◆ ICQS – BEFORE THE SURVEY

SAY: How many questions do you ask? (One, my question.) How many people do you ask? (Six to eight.) Do you write names? (No, just a tally mark: |.) Where do you draw the bars? (On the bar-chart sheet.) How long? (Nine minutes, then I ring the bell.)

Report frame on the board: "___ people always ___." · "___ people never ___." · "Most people ___." · "Nobody ___." (e.g. "Nobody always eats fast food"). Model one sentence from your own chart first.

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: give the survey question strip with a picture (cook, TV, bus, coffee...) and the six adverbs as columns with the % and dots (●●●●●● → ○○○○○○). Learners only tally and color bars. For Ex 1, provide the adverb on a card to physically place between two word cards.
- ◆ Stretch: add a frequency phrase to every answer ("I usually cook, about five times a week"), write four report sentences, and ask one follow-up question ("What do you cook?").

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Adverb after the verb ("I drink always coffee"): common for French, Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, and Vietnamese speakers. Point to the board: verb before.

- ◆ Double negative ("I don't never..."): Spanish, Portuguese, Russian, and Arabic allow or need two negatives. Keep one "no" word.
- ◆ Dropping *be ("She always late"): Arabic, Chinese, Russian, and Tagalog speakers. Ask: "Where is the verb?"
- ◆ No article with jobs ("He is nurse"): Chinese, Russian, Arabic, Polish, and Japanese speakers. Also Spanish/Portuguese "is nurse" (no article in L1).
- ◆ -s for he/she: "She never eat meat" is still frequent after Module 3. Recast quietly: "She never eats."

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 6.1: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_16.html (listen to every word; do Exercises 1–2 and the Quick Quiz; record "My Week"). Workbook 6.1: "Write about you" and "My new words" + journal.

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 correct = B) I always drink coffee. · Q2 = B) She is always late. · Q3 (new) "two times a week" = B) twice a week. Survey: any sentence with the adverb in the right place is a success.

◆ OBJECTIVES (CAN-DO)

- ◆ I can say how I feel about activities: love, like, enjoy, don't mind, don't like, hate + verb-ing.
- ◆ I can spell the -ing form (cook → cooking, dance → dancing, swim → swimming).
- ◆ I can use it and them (and me, him, her, us) after a verb.
- ◆ I can ask Do you like...? and answer Yes, I do. / No, I don't.

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 6.2; flashcards: cooking, reading, dancing, hiking, swimming, singing, playing the guitar, playing football + word cards painting, gardening, gaming, shopping
- ◆ Find-someone-who grid (one per learner); listening script "Omar's family"
- ◆ Slides 10–15 (answers on slide 14); two sticky notes per learner

BOARD PLAN

♥♥ I love cooking. · ♥ I like reading. · 😊 I enjoy hiking. · 😊 I don't mind cleaning. · 😞 I don't like gaming. · ✗ I hate waiting.

cook → cooking · dance → dancing · swim → swimming

Do you like swimming? — Yes, I do. I love it. / No, I don't. · Do you like dogs? — Yes, I like them.

She loves dancing.

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Warmer / review C17	8	S-S	Point to the bar charts on the wall. Pairs ask each other three "How often do you...?" questions from the survey. Recast adverb-position errors. Two learners report a partner: "Ana usually cooks."
Lead-in	5	T-S	Show three hobby pictures. Tell the class: "I love reading (♥♥). I don't like swimming (😞). I hate waiting at the bus stop (✗)." Learners guess: "Do you like cooking?" You answer.
Vocabulary: hobbies	10	T-S	Flashcards → drill (choral → individual). Mime game: a learner mimes, the class says "dancing!" Keep the -ing forms from the start. Add "hobby" and "free time."

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Meaning: the feelings scale	8	T-S	Draw the ♥♥ → ✕ scale beside the frequency poster. CCQs for don't mind and hate (below). Learners hold up a thumb (up / side / down) for "cleaning, cooking, shopping..."
Form: -ing spelling	10	T-S, S	Three columns on the board: +ing / drop e / double. Learners sort 9 verb cards (cook, read, play, dance, make, write, swim, run, shop). Drill whole sentences: "I love cooking." Stress the feeling verb and the first syllable: I LOVE COOKing .
Object pronouns	7	T-S	Hold up one book: "Do you like this book?" → "Yes, I like it ." Hold up two: "... them ." Point to a male/female learner (with permission): "Do you know him / her?" Board the subject → object table. Quick drill: teacher says a noun, class says the pronoun (the film → it, the shoes → them, my sister → her).
Controlled practice	12	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1 (-ing forms), Ex 2 (pronouns), Ex 3 (write the feeling with emoji cues). Pair-check, then slide answers.
Dialogue & listening	5	S-S	Read "Omar's family" once; learners circle ♥♥/♥/✕ in Ex 4. Then pairs read Nina & Omar (workbook) and swap roles.
Freer: find someone who... (mingle)	15	S-S	ICQs first (below). Learners stand up and ask "Do you like...?" questions to find a person for each box, write the name, and ask one follow-up "How often do you...?" One name per classmate per box, and no more than two boxes per classmate.
Report & feedback	5	S-T	Learners report in the third person: "Ahmed loves cooking. He cooks every day." Board 3 errors for the class to fix (I love cook / She love reading / I like they).
Homework set-up	5	T-S	lesson_17 online (project "My Hobbies"); workbook "Write about you" + journal. Each learner writes one hobby they love on a sticky note and keeps it for C19 (they will invite a classmate to do it).

Total 90 = 8 + 5 + 10 + 8 + 10 + 7 + 12 + 5 + 15 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING – CCQS

SAY: "I don't mind washing the dishes." Do I love it? (No.) Is it a problem for me? (No.) Is it okay? (Yes. It's okay, not good, not bad.)

SAY: "I hate waiting." Is it a strong feeling? (Yes.) Is it stronger than "I don't like"? (Yes.)

SAY: "I enjoy cooking." Is this a good feeling or a bad feeling? (Good.)

SAY: "Do you like these books?" One book or many? (Many.) So: I like it, or I like them? (Them.)

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

SAY: I love cooking. (class) · I don't mind cleaning. (class) · She loves dancing. (row 1) · He hates shopping. (row 2) · Do you like swimming? — Yes, I do. I love it. (open pairs)

SAY: Substitution: "I like reading... swim!" → I like swimming. "...she!" → She likes swimming. "...hate!" → She hates swimming. "...dance!" → She hates dancing.

Pronunciation: -ing is /ɪŋ/, with no hard /g/ at the end (not "cooking-guh"). don't mind links: don'_mind. loves ends in /z/, likes and hates end in /s/.

◆ ICQS — BEFORE THE MINGLE

SAY: Do you sit or stand? (Stand.) What do you ask? ("Do you like...?") If the answer is yes, what do you write? (The name.) Then what do you ask? ("How often do you...?") Can you write one name in every box? (No, one person, two boxes maximum.) Can you show your paper? (No, ask with words.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: use the picture version of the grid (flashcard images + ♥/✗ icons). Learners ask only "You like...?" with rising intonation, which is acceptable at this stage, and write the first letter of a name or have the partner write it. Reduce to 6 boxes.
- ◆ Stretch: answer with a reason ("I don't like swimming. The water is too cold."), use really enjoy, and report with both: "Ana and I both love hiking."

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Base verb after like ("I like cook"): common for all L1s, especially Chinese, Vietnamese, and Arabic (no -ing form). Praise the meaning, then add the -ing.
- ◆ "I like to cook": Spanish/Portuguese/French speakers use the infinitive. It is correct. Accept it, but model the -ing form.
- ◆ Subject pronoun after the verb ("I like they / she"): Tagalog and Chinese speakers may also mix him/her (one word for both in L1). Point to the person and repeat.
- ◆ Double consonant spelling (swiming, runing) and danceing: all learners. Keep the three-column sort on the wall.
- ◆ Japanese/Korean speakers may mix l/r in love / rub, read / lead. Gentle minimal-pair clap: "reading or leading?"

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 6.2: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_17.html (Exercises 1–2, Quick Quiz, project "My Hobbies"). Workbook 6.2: "Write about you" and the journal.

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 = B) I love cooking. · Q2 "these books" = B) them · Q3 (new) = C) She loves dancing.

THIS LESSON IS FULL, SO PRIORITIZE

The online lesson has a lot: at/in/on, months, seasons, ordinals, going to, present continuous for arrangements, and inviting. In class, produce at/in/on, dates, going to, and invite/accept. Treat the present continuous for the future ("I'm meeting Sam on Friday") as recognition + chunks: learners use it in the diary task by reading from their card, but don't test it.

◆ OBJECTIVES (CAN-DO)

- ◆ I can say the months, seasons, and dates (June 1st = "June first" / "the first of June").
- ◆ I can use at (times, night), in (months, seasons, years, the morning), on (days, dates).
- ◆ I can talk about my plans with going to: I'm going to visit my sister.
- ◆ I can invite someone and accept or say no politely, and agree on a day and time.

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 6.3; flashcards spring, summer, winter + word card fall (autumn); write the 12 months on the board
- ◆ A/B diary cards (one pair set per two learners); listening scripts "Dates dictation" and "A phone invitation"
- ◆ Wall calendar; learners' sticky notes from C18; slides 16–22 (answers on slide 20)

BOARD PLAN

at 7 o'clock · at night · at noon | in the morning · in July · in winter · in 2026 | on Monday · on June 1st · on my birthday

big → in · one day → on · a point → at (US: on the weekend · UK: at the weekend)

1st first · 2nd second · 3rd third · 4th fourth · 5th fifth · 21st twenty-first — we write June 1st, we say "June first"

I'm / She's / We're going to + verb: I'm going to visit my sister. · Would you like to...? — Sure, that sounds great! / Sorry, I'm busy.

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Warmer / review C18	7	S-S	Learners take out their sticky note ("I love hiking"). Mingle 3 min: "Do you like hiking?" "Yes, I do. I love it!" Find one person who likes your hobby, then sit together. That person is your partner for today.

Months, seasons, ordinal dates	11	T-S, S-S	Chant the months (clap the stress: JAN uary , sep TEMBER). Seasons with flashcards. Ordinals 1st-5th + 21st, 22nd, 23rd, 31st on the board: the endings -st, -nd, -rd, -th. Birthday line-up: learners stand in birthday order, January to December, only by asking "When is your birthday?" "It's on March the third." (New identity or any date is fine.)
at / in / on	11	T-S	Draw three boxes: big (in), day (on), point (at). Learners sort 12 time cards (7 o'clock, Monday, July, the morning, night, my birthday, winter, 2026, June 1st, noon, the evening, the weekend). CCQs. Drill in short chunks: at SEV-en , on MON-day , in JU-ly , with weak at/on/in .
Listening: dates dictation	6	T-S	Read the "Dates dictation" script. Learners write the dates as numbers (6/1, 3/22...). Check on the board. Write the American order: month/day.
Going to + arrangements	12	T-S	Show your diary for next week: "On Saturday I'm going to visit my sister. On Monday at three I'm seeing the doctor." Board the form am/is/are + going to + verb. CCQs. Drill (script below). Learners say two true plans to a partner.
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1 (at/in/on), Ex 2 (going to), Ex 3 (write the dates). Pair-check.
Inviting & accepting	7	T-S, S-S	Read "A phone invitation" (materials): learners note day, time, and activity. Elicit the invite/accept/no phrases. Drill with warm intonation (rising on "Would you like to come?"). Pairs read Maya & Leo.
Freer: diary information gap	16	S-S	ICQs first. A and B sit face to face and hide their cards. Each has a week (Monday June 1st – Sunday June 7th) with some plans. Ask "Are you free on Wednesday evening?" / "What are you doing on Monday morning?" Mark the partner's busy times with X . Find the three times you are both free, then plan three things together: "Let's meet on Saturday, June 6th, in the afternoon. Would you like to go to the park?" Write the plans at the bottom of the card.

STAGE	TIME	INT.	PROCEDURE
Report & feedback	5	S-T	Pairs report one plan: "We're going to have dinner on Wednesday, June 3rd, in the evening." Board 3 errors: in Monday · I going to visit · Let's to go. Class corrects.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	lesson_18 online (project "Make a Plan"); workbook "Write about you" + journal. Preview C20 (food & drink: some/any).
Total 90 = 7 + 11 + 11 + 6 + 12 + 10 + 7 + 16 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING – CCQS

SAY: "The party is on June 3rd." Is June 3rd a month, a day, or a time? (A day.) So: in, on, or at? (On.)

SAY: "I'm going to visit my sister on Saturday." Is it now or in the future? (Future.) Is it a plan, an idea I have already decided? (Yes.)

SAY: "I'm seeing the doctor at three." Is it happening now? (No, it's in the future.) Is the time fixed? (Yes, it's an appointment.)

SAY: "Sorry, I'm busy on Friday." Is the answer yes or no? (No.) Is it polite? (Yes.)

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

SAY: June first. (class) · the first of June. (class) · on June twenty-first. (row 1) · in the morning · at seven o'clock · at night (fast round)

SAY: I'm going to visit my sister. (class) · She's going to start a new job. (row 1) · We're going to travel in summer. (row 2) · Are you going to come? (open pairs)

SAY: Would you like to have lunch on Saturday? — Sure, that sounds great! / Sorry, I'm busy. Maybe another day? (open pairs)

Pronunciation: th in ordinals (fourth /fɔːrθ/, fifth): show the tongue between the teeth. third vs thirty. In fast speech "going to" = "gonna": learners should understand it, but say and write going to.

◆ ICQS – BEFORE THE DIARY INFORMATION GAP

SAY: Can you show your card to your partner? (No.) What do you ask? ("Are you free on...?") When your partner is busy, what do you write? (X.) How many free times do you need to find? (Three.) What do you do then? (Plan three things together and write them.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: diary cards have icons (☕ 📅 ⚽) next to each plan. Learners may answer "Monday morning: busy / free" without the full sentence. For dates, give a strip with 1st–31st to point at. Workbook Ex 3: copy the dates, not write from memory.
- ◆ Stretch: give the reason for being busy with the present continuous ("I'm meeting my aunt"), suggest a place and a time with at, and write a short text message invitation (workbook Ex 5).

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "in Monday" (Spanish/Portuguese en, Arabic fi, and others): one word covers in/on/at in many L1s. Use the three-box poster, not rules.
- ◆ Dropping *be in "I going to visit": Chinese, Arabic, Russian, and Vietnamese speakers. Point to the gap: "I ____ going to."
- ◆ "going to visiting" or "Let's to go": keep the base verb after going to and Let's.
- ◆ Dates: many learners write day/month (3/6 = 3 June). In the US 6/3 = June 3rd. Always say the month name when it matters (appointments!).
- ◆ /θ/ in ordinals (fourth → "fort", "fours"): Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic (dialects), Vietnamese, Chinese, Japanese speakers. Vietnamese speakers may drop final consonants: "fif" for fifth.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 6.3: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_18.html (Exercises 1–2, Quick Quiz, project "Make a Plan"). Workbook 6.3: "Write about you" and the journal. Optional: say your birthday two ways to someone at home.

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 = C) I work on Monday. · Q2 = B) is · Q3 (new) "My birthday is ____ July." = A) in. Diary gap: the shared free times are Wednesday June 3rd (evening), Saturday June 6th (afternoon), Sunday June 7th (afternoon).

CLOSING THE MODULE

END OF C19 — QUICK MODULE CHECK (OPTIONAL, 3 MIN)

Each learner says three sentences to a partner: one habit (how often), one like or dislike (-ing), and one plan (going to + at/in/on). Listen for the three forms. Note who needs support before the Module 8 review project (C23), which recycles "my week."

Preview Module 7: "Next class we go out into the world: food and drink, at a café, clothes and the weather."

Module 7 — Out in the World

Three classes that take learners out of the classroom and into the places they go every week: the kitchen and the grocery store, the café, and the clothing store on a rainy day. Learners sort food into "can count / can't count," order politely with I'd like..., and buy a jacket in the right size, at the right price, for the weather.

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- One lesson block = one 90-minute class. The stage plan is the clock. The notes under it are the content: Meaning / Form / Pronunciation with concept-checking questions (CCQs), a drill script, instruction-checking questions (ICQs), differentiation, and L1 watch-outs.
- Same rhythm every class: warmer → lead-in → clarify (M/F/P + CCQs) → drill (choral → individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (pairs / groups) → feedback with delayed error correction → homework.
- This is a role-play module. Each class ends with a real-world simulation: a kitchen information gap (C20), a classroom café (C21), and a clothing store (C22). The props are in materials/module-7/classroom-materials.html. Print and cut them before Week 10.
- The online lessons are the learners' homework (each has  Listen buttons). The classroom is for speaking.
- Teal = hands-on / role-play, amber = watch-outs, dashed boxes = lines to say out loud.

THE THROUGH-LINE

One journey through a normal week: check the kitchen → go to the café → go shopping. The grammar travels with the learner. In C20, some is for positives and any for negatives and questions. In C21, the polite exception appears: Would you like some milk? In C22, this / these and How much is it? finish the shopping trip. Every class recycles numbers and prices from Modules 1 and 4, so learners leave able to handle real money in English.

AMERICAN ENGLISH IN THE CLASSROOM

This kit teaches American English. The online lessons use British words first, with the US word in brackets (bill / check, trousers / pants, jumper / sweater, take away / to go, £ prices). Teach the US words in class, and accept both every time. Say it plainly: "Both are correct. In the US we say check. In the UK they say bill."

BEFORE THE MODULE

- ◆ Print (card stock if you can): picture flashcards, fridge A/B cards (C20), café menus, order pads and customer cards (C21), price tags and shopper cards (C22), and the Module 7 food bingo cards.
- ◆ Realia helps a lot at A1: an empty milk carton, a bag of rice, a few pieces of plastic fruit, paper cups, play money (or paper bills you draw), a scarf, a hat, a pair of gloves, an umbrella. Real objects beat pictures for low-literacy learners.
- ◆ Food and culture: keep examples inclusive. Avoid pork and alcohol in your own examples (the course uses chicken, fish, and beef as "meat"). Some learners fast at certain times of year. Food talk is about words, not what anyone must eat.
- ◆ Money and prices: use dollars in class. Keep prices small and realistic ($2.50 coffee, $35 jacket). Learners on a tight budget should never feel judged. The shopper cards give everyone the same invented budget.

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
7.1	C20 · Wk 10	Food & drink · countable / uncountable · some / any · how much / how many	say what food there is and isn't at home, ask Is there any...? , and make a shopping list
7.2	C21 · Wk 11	At a café · I'd like... / Can I have...? · Would you like...? · prices & paying	order food and drink politely, answer an offer, ask the price, and pay
7.3	C22 · Wk 11	Clothes · this / these + adjectives · shopping phrases · weather · Wear a coat when it's cold	say what they are wearing, talk about the weather, and buy one item of clothing

◆ OBJECTIVES (CAN-DO)

- ◆ I can name 15+ common foods and drinks.
- ◆ I can say if a food is countable (an egg, two eggs) or uncountable (rice, milk).
- ◆ I can say There's some milk. / There isn't any bread. and ask Is there any juice?
- ◆ I can ask How much...? / How many...? and answer with a lot of / not much / not many.

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook Module 7, Lesson 7.1 (words, grammar box, Exercises 1–5, fridge task)
- ◆ Food & drink flashcards (20 picture cards + word-only cards: tomato, carrot, onion, potato)
- ◆ Fridge information-gap cards A and B (one pair per two learners)
- ◆ Slides: slides/module-7-out-in-the-world.html, slides 1–7 · realia (a bag of rice, a milk carton, 2–3 apples)

BOARD PLAN

Left: Can I count it? YES ✓ → an apple · two apples · an egg · three eggs | NO ✗ → rice · milk · water · bread (no -s! no a/an!)

Center: (+) There's some milk. There are some eggs. · (–) There isn't any bread. · (?) Is there any juice?

Right: How much + rice / milk ✗ count · How many + eggs / apples ✓ count · a lot of 👍 (both) · not much (milk) · not many (apples)

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer / review C19	8	S–S	Review 6.3 dates and plans. Pairs ask: "What are you doing on Saturday?" "When's your birthday?" Then lead-in: hold up a shopping bag. "I'm going to the supermarket on Saturday. What do I need?" Elicit any food words learners know.
Vocabulary	12	T–S	Flashcards (slide 3). Show, say, drill: choral ×2, then individual. Word stress on the board: BUT ter, SUG ar, VEG etables (3 syllables: VEJ-tuh-bulz), CHICK en. Quick game: turn a card face-down, learners guess.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Clarify: count / can't count	10	T-S	Two columns on the board. Hold up an apple: "One apple. Two apples." Pour rice into your hand: "One rice? Two rices? No!" Learners come up and stick flashcards in the right column. CCQs below.
Controlled practice 1	6	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1 (C or U) and Ex 2 (a / an / some). Pairs check. Board answers.
Clarify: some / any	10	T-S	Slide 5 (the fridge). "Look! There's some milk. There are some eggs. There isn't any bread. Is there any juice?" M/F/P + CCQs. Drill (script below).
Controlled practice 2	7	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 3 (some / any). Pairs read the sentences to each other. Nominate learners to read answers aloud.
Clarify: how much / how many	10	T-S	Slide 6. "Look at the word after how . Is there an -s? Then many ." Add a lot of / not much / not many with a thumbs-up / thumbs-down gesture. Drill the questions.
Controlled practice 3	5	S	Workbook Ex 4 (circle much / many) and Ex 5 (order the words). Fast finishers: write 2 more questions.
Freer: fridge information gap	12	S-S	A/B cards (materials). Each learner has a fridge with different food. Ask and answer: "Is there any milk in your fridge?" "Are there any eggs?" "How many?" Find 6 differences. Then write one shared shopping list. ICQs first. Monitor and note errors.
Feedback & error correction	5	T-S	Two pairs read their shopping list aloud. Board 3-4 errors you heard (no names). The class corrects them together.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Show the online lesson on screen and point to a  button. Set the kitchen project and WB journal.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Countable / uncountable. Meaning: countable = separate things you can count one by one. Uncountable = one mass, no plural, no a/an. Form: countable has singular/plural (apple → apples). Uncountable takes is, never are. Trick: containers make it countable: a glass of water, a cup of coffee, a bottle of milk, a piece of bread.

SAY: (Hold rice.) Can I count this? One, two, three...? (No.) So do we say "rices"? (No.) Do we say "a rice"? (No.)

SAY: (Hold two apples.) Can I count these? (Yes.) One apple, two...? (Apples.)

SAY: Milk. Can you count it? (No.) So: a glass of milk, or two glasses of milk? (Both OK! We count the glasses.)

some / any. Meaning: a number or amount; we don't say exactly how much. Form: (+) some, (–) and (?) any, with uncountable nouns and plural countable nouns. With one countable thing, use a / an. Pronunciation: some is weak in a sentence: /səm/, "There's s'm milk." Link is there any → "iz-ther-EN-ee."

SAY: "There isn't any bread." Is there bread? (No.) Is it zero or a little? (Zero.)

SAY: "There's some milk." Do I know how much milk? (No, not exactly.) Is there milk? (Yes.)

SAY: "Is there ___ juice?" Is this a question? (Yes.) Some or any? (Any.)

How much / how many. Meaning: both ask about amount. Form: how much + uncountable, how many + plural countable. The -s on the noun is the clue. A lot of = a big amount, with both. Not much + uncountable, not many + countable. Pronunciation: a lot of → "uh-LOT-uv."

SAY: "How many eggs?" Can I count eggs? (Yes.) So much or many? (Many.)

SAY: "There isn't much milk." Is there a lot of milk? (No.) Is there zero milk? (No, a little.)

◆ DRILL SCRIPT (CHORAL → INDIVIDUAL)

- 1 Model ×2, class repeats ×2: "There's some milk." → "There are some eggs." → "There isn't any bread." → "Is there any juice?" (rising at the end).
- 2 Back-chain the long one: "...juice?" → "...any juice?" → "Is there any juice?"
- 3 Substitution drill (flashcards): Show rice +  → learners: "There's some rice." Show apples +  → "There aren't any apples." Show cheese +  → "Is there any cheese?"
- 4 Individual: go around the room fast, one card each. Praise, then re-model any error and have the learner repeat. Don't explain again.
- 5 Question chain: "How many eggs are there?" → the next learner answers "There are a lot of eggs," then asks the next person a new question.

◆ FREER PRACTICE – THE FRIDGE (INFORMATION GAP)

Pairs sit face to face, cards hidden. A's fridge and B's fridge each have 10 foods, and 6 are different. Ask with Is there any...? / Are there any...? / How much...? / How many...? Circle the differences. Then agree on a shopping list of 5 things. Model with a strong learner first.

SAY: ICQs: Can you show your card to your partner? (No.) Do you ask questions or tell? (Ask.) Is milk "Is there" or "Are there"? (Is there.) What do you write at the end? (A shopping list.)

Monitor for: Are there any milk?; There aren't some eggs; How much eggs?; two breads / rices. Write them down for the feedback stage. Don't stop the talk.

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: learners work from the picture cards only. Give them a strip with the two frames already written: "Is there any ___?" / "Are there any ___?" They point at the picture and say the word. In Ex 1, give them the 6 words with pictures and let them sort picture cards into two piles before writing C/U.
- ◆ Stretch: add containers (two bottles of milk, a kilo of rice, a piece of cake) and quantities to the shopping list. Ask them to explain the rule to a partner in their own words.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Uncountable in English, countable in L1. Many languages count bread, fruit, or information (Spanish panes, French des fruits). Expect breads, fruits, rices. Correct gently and point to the NO column.
- ◆ No plurals / no articles (Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Vietnamese; Russian and Arabic have no a/an): expect I want apple, there is egg. Drill an egg / some eggs as fixed chunks.
- ◆ Final -s dropped (Vietnamese, Chinese, Thai): eggs sounds like egg, so learners can't tell countable plurals apart when they listen. Exaggerate the -s in the drill: "eggzzz."
- ◆ Some ≠ Spanish/Portuguese algunos in negatives. No hay algunos is wrong in Spanish too, but learners still produce There aren't some. Use the board rule: (-) and (?) = any.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_19.html (🔊 Listen to the new words and the Nadia & Ben dialogue). Do the kitchen project: say 6 sentences about your kitchen out loud. Workbook 7.1: "My new words" + the 2-sentence journal.

◆ CHECK – QUICK QUIZ

Answers: Q1 correct sentence = B) There's some rice. (no plural, no a with rice); Q2 "How ___ eggs?" = B) many (eggs has -s, so countable); Q3 (new) uncountable word = C) rice.

◆ OBJECTIVES (CAN-DO)

- ◆ I can order politely with I'd like..., please and Can I have..., please?
- ◆ I can answer an offer (Would you like...?) with Yes, please or No, thank you.
- ◆ I can ask How much is that?, understand a price, and pay (Here you are).
- ◆ I can understand a short café conversation and role-play it.

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 7.2 (words, grammar box, Ex 1–4, café task)
- ◆ Café flashcards (coffee, tea, juice, water, cake, muffin, sandwich, salad, chocolate, menu, bill/check, cup, waiter)
- ◆ Classroom café kit: menus (1 per table), order pads, server and customer cards, play money
- ◆ Listening scripts 7.2 A (café conversation) and 7.2 B (prices), read aloud by you
- ◆ Slides 8–12 · optional: paper cups, a tray, a tablecloth. It really helps the mood.

BOARD PLAN

Left: I'd like = I would like 😊 (polite) · I want 😊 (direct) · I'd like a coffee, please. ↘ · Can I have a sandwich, please? ↗

Center: Would you like some milk? → Yes, please. / No, thank you. · Anything else? → No, thanks. That's all. · For here or to go? (UK: eat in / take away)

Right: How much is that? → It's $4.50 ("four fifty") · Here you are. · Keep the change. · Can I have the check, please? (UK: bill)

Corner: $4.15 ≠ $4.50 (four fif-TEEN / FIF-ty) · Homework: lesson_20 + WB 7.2

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer / review C20	7	S-S	Memory chain: "In my fridge there's some milk." → the next learner: "In my fridge there's some milk and there are some eggs." → and so on. Then: "Is there any coffee in your kitchen?"

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Lead-in & café words	10	T-S	Slide 8: a café photo / menu. "Where is this? Do you go to cafés? What do you order?" Flashcards + drill. Add chunks: a cup of coffee, a piece of cake, a bottle of water, a glass of juice (link to C20 containers).
Clarify: I'd like / Can I have	9	T-S	Mime a rude customer ("Coffee!") vs a polite one ("I'd like a coffee, please 😊"). Learners vote on who gets better service. M/F/P + CCQs.
Drill	5	T-S	Back-chain "I'd like a coffee, please." and "Can I have a muffin, please?" Choral, then individual with flashcard prompts.
Offers: Would you like...?	6	T-S → S-S	You are the server with a tray: "Would you like some tea?" Learners answer "Yes, please / No, thank you." Point out some in a polite offer (the exception from C20). Pairs: open-pair offers with the flashcards.
Listening: the café	10	S	Read Script 7.2 A (materials) twice. 1st: gist: "For here or to go?" 2nd: detail: learners circle what Maya orders on the workbook menu (Ex 1) and write the price. Check in pairs, then class.
Listen & repeat	6	T-S → S-S	Disappearing dialogue: dialogue on slide 10. Pairs read it. Rub out / hide 2-3 words each round until pairs perform from memory.
Controlled practice	6	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 2 (polite words) and Ex 3 (match the server's questions and answers).
Prices & paying	5	T-S	Read Script 7.2 B : learners write 5 prices (WB Ex 4). Drill fifteen / fifty stress. "How much is that?" → "It's four fifty." → "Here you are."
Freer: the classroom café	16	S-S (groups)	Tables become cafés. One server per table with an order pad. Customers take a customer card and a menu, order, answer offers, ask the price, pay with play money. Swap roles after 7 minutes (new server, new cards). ICQs first. You monitor and note errors.
Feedback & error correction	5	T-S	Servers read back one order from their pad: "Table 2: one tea, one muffin. $5.25." Board 3-4 errors and correct them together. Praise good politeness.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 7.2 (listen & repeat the café conversation 3 times). WB journal: write your own café order.
90 Total: 7 + 10 + 9 + 5 + 6 + 10 + 6 + 6 + 5 + 16 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

I'd like... / Can I have...? Meaning: I want, but polite. Form: I'd like + a / an / some + noun (I'd like a tea). I'd = I would. Can I have + noun + please? Pronunciation: the /d/ in I'd is small but important: "I'd like" /aɪd laɪk/. Intonation: I'd like... falls ↘ (a statement). Can I have...? rises ↗. Please is warm, not sharp.

SAY: "I'd like a coffee." Is this the same as "I like coffee"? (No!) Which one is ordering now? (I'd like.) Which one is about every day? (I like.)

SAY: "I want a coffee." "I'd like a coffee, please." Same meaning? (Yes.) Which is more polite? (I'd like... please.)

Would you like...? Meaning: a polite offer: "Do you want...?" Form: Would you like + some / a / anything + noun? Answers: Yes, please. / No, thank you. (never just silence). Pronunciation: "Would you" links → "wuh-joo."

SAY: "Would you like some milk?" Is the server asking or offering? (Offering.) Some or any here? (Some. It's a polite offer.)

Prices. $4.50 = "four fifty" or "four dollars and fifty cents." Stress: fifTEEN (15) vs FIFTy (50). How much is that? (never How much it is?).

◆ DRILL SCRIPT (CHORAL → INDIVIDUAL)

- 1 Back-chain: "...please." → "...coffee, please." → "...a coffee, please." → "I'd like a coffee, please." Tap the table on 'd so learners hear it.
- 2 Question: "...please?" ↗ → "...a muffin, please?" → "Can I have a muffin, please?"
- 3 Substitution: show a flashcard; learners order it: cake → I'd like a piece of cake, please. water → Can I have a bottle of water, please?
- 4 Offer / answer pairs: you: "Would you like some sugar?" Half the class: "Yes, please." Other half: "No, thank you." Swap.
- 5 Individual: fast round with a flashcard for each learner. Re-model; don't re-explain.

◆ FREER PRACTICE – THE CLASSROOM CAFÉ

Set up 3–4 tables. Each has a menu and a server with an order pad and play money for change. Customers pick a customer card (e.g., "You are hungry. You have $10. You don't drink coffee."). The server greets, takes the order, offers something (Would you like...?), gives the price, and takes the money. After 7 minutes: swap servers and cards. Customers can visit a different table.

SAY: ICQs: Customers, what do you say first? (I'd like... please.) Servers, what do you write? (The order.) Can you say "I want?"? (Better: I'd like.) When the server offers, what do you answer? (Yes, please / No, thank you.) When do we swap? (When I ring the bell / clap.)

Monitor for: I like a coffee (missing 'd), missing please, How much it is?, silence after an offer, fifteen / fifty confusion on the order pad.

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: use a picture menu (the flashcards on the table) and let the learner point + say "A coffee, please." That is a full, successful order. Servers with low literacy tick pictures on the order pad instead of writing words. Prices can be shown with play money only.
- ◆ Stretch: give stretch customers a "problem card": "They bring the wrong drink" → Excuse me, I'd like a tea, not a coffee. Or they order for two people: We'd like two coffees and a table for two.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I like a coffee." The biggest error in this lesson, across all L1s. The 'd disappears, and so does the meaning. Tap the table on it in every drill.
- ◆ Direct forms from L1. Spanish Me da un café, Arabic ‘aṭīnī, Russian Даўме кофе are polite at home but become Give me a coffee in English, which sounds rude. Say it kindly: "In your language it's polite. In English, I'd like or Can I have."
- ◆ Flat intonation (Arabic, Russian, some Chinese speakers) can sound unfriendly in English. Model a lift on please and a smile. Keep it light. It's about sounding friendly, not about accent.
- ◆ Final /d/ dropped (Vietnamese, Cantonese, Thai): I'd → I. Link it forward: "I-dlike."
- ◆ Tipping culture varies. "Keep the change" is optional. Some learners come from places where tipping is rude, others where it's expected. Teach the phrase, don't teach the custom as a rule.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_20.html:  listen and repeat the café conversation 3 times (slow → normal → friendly). Note: the online lesson uses £ and bill / take away. Tell learners it's British English, and both are fine. Workbook 7.2: journal (your own café conversation).

◆ CHECK – QUICK QUIZ

Answers: Q1 most polite = C) I'd like a coffee, please.; Q2 you don't want more = B) No, thank you. That's all.; Q3 (new) "Would you like some milk?" and you want milk = A) Yes, please.

◆ OBJECTIVES (CAN-DO)

- ◆ I can name 14+ items of clothing and say what I'm wearing.
- ◆ I can use this (one) and these (two or more) with an adjective: I like these shoes. This jacket is nice.
- ◆ I can shop for clothes: say my size, ask to try it on, ask the price, and say I'll take it.
- ◆ I can ask and answer What's the weather like? and say what to wear: Wear a coat when it's cold.

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 7.3 (words, grammar box, Ex 1–5, store task)
- ◆ Clothes + weather flashcards (weather word-only cards: rainy, cloudy, windy, snowing)
- ◆ Clothing store kit: price tags (cut and fold, stick on real clothes or flashcards), shopper cards, play money
- ◆ Listening scripts 7.3 A (the store) and 7.3 B (weather report) · Slides 13–17
- ◆ Realia: a hat, a scarf, gloves, a jacket, an umbrella. Learners' own clothes work too.

Left: this jacket 👉 (1) · these shoes 👉 (2+) · This jacket is nice. These shoes are nice. · always plural: pants · jeans · shoes · socks · boots · gloves (a pair of...)

Center: Can I help you? → I'm just looking, thanks. · What size are you? → I'm a medium. · Can I try it on? · It's too big / too small. · How much is it? · I'll take it.

Right: What's the weather like? → It's sunny ☀️ / cold ❄️ / windy 🌬️ · It's raining 🌧️ / snowing ❄️ · Wear a coat when it's cold.

Corner: US / UK: pants / trousers · sweater / jumper · fall / autumn · Homework: lesson_21 + WB 7.3

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer / review C21	7	S-S	Quick café replay: pairs, 1 minute each role, no cards. "What can I get you?" → "I'd like..." → "Would you like anything else?" → "How much is that?"

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Weather lead-in & words	10	T-S	Look out of the window. "What's the weather like today?" Weather flashcards + gestures (shiver = cold, fan yourself = hot). Drill It's sunny / It's raining . Seasons: "In winter in your country, is it cold?" (Many learners come from places without snow. Invite their weather words.)
Clothes words	10	T-S	Flashcards + point at real clothes in the room: "Maria is wearing a blue sweater." Drill. Sort into two piles: one thing (a hat) / always plural (shoes, jeans, pants).
Clarify: this / these + adjective	8	T-S	Hold up one glove, then two gloves. "This glove. These gloves." Add adjectives from Module 5: This jacket is nice / big / expensive . M/F/P + CCQs. Drill /ɪ/ vs /i:/.
Controlled practice 1	7	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1 (this / these) and Ex 2 (weather). Pairs check.
What to wear	6	T-S → S	Slide 16: "Wear a coat when it's cold." Learners complete WB Ex 3 (match), then say the rules chorally.
Shopping phrases & listening	10	T-S	Read Script 7.3 A (Emma in the store) twice. Q1: What does Emma buy? Q2: What size? Q3: How much? Then drill the 6 phrases. Pron: "try it on" → "try-i-ton". WB Ex 4 (order the dialogue).
Freer: the clothing store	16	S-S (groups)	Half the class are store assistants with price-tagged clothes (flashcards or realia). Half are shoppers with a shopper card (a weather forecast + a budget + a size). Shoppers visit 2 stores, try on, ask prices, and buy what the weather needs within budget. Swap after 7 minutes. ICQs first.
Freer: weather-and-wear talk	6	S-S	Pairs pick a weather card: "What's the weather like?" "It's snowing." "What do you wear?" "I wear boots and a warm coat." Then WB Ex 5 (about you: what I'm wearing today).
Feedback & error correction	5	T-S	Shoppers show what they bought and why: "It's rainy next week, so I need an umbrella. It's $12. Now I have $48." (Keep it in the present: past tense is A2.) Board and correct 3-4 errors.
Homework & module wrap	5	T-S	Online lesson 7.3. WB journal. Preview C23: "Next class is a big review project: the doctor, and your week."

90 Total: 7 + 10 + 10 + 8 + 7 + 6 + 10 + 16 + 6 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

this / these. Meaning: the thing(s) near me, often while pointing. Form: this + singular noun + is; these + plural noun + are. Adjective before the noun (this warm coat) or after be (this coat is warm). Pair clothes are always plural: these jeans, these pants, a pair of shoes. Pronunciation: this /ðɪs/ short vowel, /s/ · these /ði:z/ long vowel, /z/. Smile wide for these.

SAY: (Hold one glove.) This or these? (This.) (Hold two.) This or these? (These.)

SAY: "These jeans are nice." How many jeans? One pair or two? (One pair.) So why "these"? (Jeans are always plural.)

Shopping phrases. Teach as chunks, not grammar. Try it on: the little word goes in the middle (try it on, not try on it). I'll take it = I want to buy it (don't teach will yet).

SAY: "Can I try it on?" Do I buy it now? (No, not yet.) Where do I go? (The changing room / fitting room.)

SAY: "It's too big." Is it good for me? (No.) What do I ask for? (A small / a smaller size.)

Weather. What's the weather like? (like here does not mean "love"). Answer: It's + adjective (sunny, cloudy, windy, cold, hot, warm) or It's + -ing (raining, snowing). Always start with It's. Wear a coat when it's cold: imperative + when.

SAY: "What's the weather like?" Am I asking "Do you like the weather?" (No.) I'm asking: how is the weather? (Yes.)

SAY: "It's raining." Is it raining now? (Yes.) Do I need an umbrella? (Yes!)

◆ DRILL SCRIPT (CHORAL → INDIVIDUAL)

- Minimal pair: "this — these, this — these." Learners hold up 1 or 2 fingers when you say one of them at random.
- Substitution: you show a clothing card + an adjective card: shoes + nice → "These shoes are nice."
jacket + expensive → "This jacket is expensive."
- Back-chain: "...on?" → "...try it on?" → "Can I try it on?" (link: try-i-ton).
- Weather chain: show a weather card → class: "It's snowing." → one learner: "Wear boots when it's snowing."

- 5 Individual: each learner points at something a classmate is wearing: "I like these shoes!" / "I like this sweater!" Adults love a compliment round, and it's great for the mood.

◆ FREER PRACTICE – THE CLOTHING STORE

Stores: 3–4 "shops" with 6–8 price-tagged items each (tags show item, sizes S/M/L, price). Shoppers take a shopper card: "Next week: rainy and cold. You need 2 things. Your size: medium. You have $60." Shoppers greet, ask, try on, say too big / too small when the tag's size doesn't match, ask the price, and buy. Assistants use: Can I help you? · What size are you? · Here you are. · It's $25.

SAY: ICQs: Shoppers, how much money do you have? (Look at your card: $60.) Can you buy everything? (No, only what you need.) What do you ask before you buy? (Can I try it on? How much is it?) Assistants, do you help or buy? (Help.)

Monitor for: this shoes, a pant / a jean, Can I try on it?, It's rain, Is cold (missing It's).

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: shopper cards have pictures (umbrella, coat) and a price number only. The learner can buy with two phrases: "How much is it?" and "I'll take it." In Ex 2, weather emojis are the cue; learners copy the word from the word bank.
- ◆ Stretch: assistants recommend things: These boots are warm. Wear them when it's snowing. Shoppers compare two items: This coat is nice, but it's expensive. This jacket is cheap.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Dropped dummy subject (Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, Arabic, Chinese): Is cold. Is raining. English always needs It's. Hold up an "IT" card and point to it every time.
- ◆ this / these vowel (Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic, Japanese, Vietnamese have no /ɪ/–/i:/ contrast): this and these sound the same. Use the finger drill. Accept the /z/ ending as the clue.
- ◆ /ð/ in this / these / clothes / weather: often dis / dese or zis. Fine for A1 if meaning is clear. Show the tongue between the teeth once and move on. Clothes is one syllable /kloʊz/.
- ◆ p / b (Arabic): pants → bants. Hold a paper strip in front of your mouth: it moves for /p/.
- ◆ "a pant / a jean" (Spanish un pantalón, French un jean): singular in L1, always plural in English.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_21.html (👂 the Emma & Omar dialogue). Every morning this week: say the weather and name what you're wearing. Workbook 7.3 journal. Bring the workbook to C23: we review Modules 1–7.

◆ CHECK – QUICK QUIZ

Answers: Q1 correct = B) I like these shoes.; Q2 weather question = B) What's the weather like?; Q3 (new) "Can I try ___ on?" = A) it.

CLOSING THE MODULE

MODULE 7 WRAP-UP & FOOD BINGO (USE IN C22 IF TIME, OR AS THE C23 WARMER)

Play Food & Clothes Bingo (materials): you read sentences ("There isn't any milk." "I'd like a muffin, please." "Wear a scarf when it's cold."), and learners cover the picture they hear. The first to get a line says "Bingo!" and reads back the sentences. Recap: some / any → I'd like / Would you like some → this / these + How much is it?

Looking ahead: C23 is the Module 8 review project: a doctor's office role-play and a "My Week" talk. It's the last practice class before C24, the final assessment and celebration. Tell learners: "Next class, you use everything. No new grammar. Just talking."

Module 8 — Bringing It All Together

The last teaching class of the course, and the dress rehearsal for the final assessment. No new grammar system: learners use everything from Modules 1–7 in two real-world tasks. First a visit to the doctor's office (booking an appointment, describing a problem, understanding advice), then a "My Week" talk that joins the present simple and going to. You observe, take notes, and plan C24.

1 lesson • review project

Lesson 8.1

Class C23 (+ C24 preview)

Week 12

CEFR A1

90 min

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- C23 is task-based. The shape is pre-task (the language learners need, taught fast) → task (they do it with a partner or group) → report (a few share) → language focus (you fix the errors you noticed). You run this cycle twice: the doctor's office, then My Week.
- New language is small and practical: body parts, I have / I've got a headache, My back hurts, I feel tired, and You should / shouldn't for advice. Everything else is review.
- While learners do the two tasks, you observe with the checklist (in materials/module-8/classroom-materials.html). Your notes tell you who is ready for the C24 speaking assessment, who needs a gentler role-play card, and what to review in the C24 warm-up.
- This is also an emotional class: learners realize the course is nearly over. Name their progress out loud. Many adults have never had a teacher tell them "You did this."
- Teal = tasks, amber = watch-outs and sensitivity notes, dashed boxes = lines to say out loud.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Use it all → show what you can do → celebrate. The doctor's office recycles I'd like... (7.2), times and days (3.2, 6.3), spelling your name (1.1), and How often? (6.1). My Week recycles daily routines (3.1), frequency adverbs (6.1), likes (6.2), and going to plans (6.3). C23 practices exactly the kind of speaking C24 will check, so nothing in the final class is a surprise.

SENSITIVITY: HEALTH IS PRIVATE

Learners never need to talk about their real health. Every patient in this class is a character on a role card with invented symptoms. Never ask "Are you sick?" or "What's wrong with you?" Ask "What's wrong with Sam?" (the card). Some learners have had frightening medical experiences, live with illness or disability, or come from places where clinics were dangerous. If someone volunteers real health information, thank them warmly, don't ask follow-up questions, and offer to talk privately after class, or point them to your program's support staff. Mime pain lightly and with humor, never realistically. Say at the start: "Today we are actors. Nobody talks about their real body."

My Week is personal too. Some learners are unemployed, in shelters, waiting for asylum decisions, or caring for sick family. Offer the "new identity" week cards (a ready-made invented week) to everyone, with no reason needed. Say: "You can talk about your week or a card's week. Both are great practice."

BEFORE THE CLASS

- Print: body-parts flashcards, patient / receptionist / doctor role cards (one set per group of 3), My Week planners (in the workbook) and new-identity week cards, the Find-Someone-Who sheet, and two copies of the observation checklist (one for the doctor task, one for My Week, or one combined).
- Set up a "clinic": two chairs and a desk for the reception, and two chairs for the doctor's room in each corner. A clipboard and a toy stethoscope, if you have one, get a laugh and lower anxiety.
- Know your C24 plan. Tell learners this class what C24 will look like (see "Looking Ahead" below). Check your program's final assessment materials before class so what you say matches them.

◆ OBJECTIVES (CAN-DO)

- ◆ I can name 10 body parts and say what is wrong: I have a headache. My back hurts. I feel tired.
- ◆ I can understand and give simple advice: You should rest. You shouldn't go to work.
- ◆ I can make an appointment on the phone: I'd like to make an appointment. Tuesday at 10:30?
- ◆ I can give a short talk (8+ sentences) about my normal week and my plans for next week.

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 8.1 (words, grammar box, Ex 1–6, doctor task, My Week planner, final journal)
- ◆ Body & health flashcards · My Week picture prompts
- ◆ Doctor's office role cards: 6 patients, receptionist, doctor (groups of 3)
- ◆ New-identity week cards (for anyone who wants them)
- ◆ Listening scripts 8.1 A (the appointment call), 8.1 B (at the doctor), 8.1 C (model My Week talk)
- ◆ Find-Someone-Who (course review warmer) · Observation checklist · Slides: slides/module-8-bringing-it-together.html

BOARD PLAN

Left: 🤒 I have a headache. = I've got a headache. · a cold · a cough · a sore throat · a temperature · My back hurts. My feet hurt. · I feel sick / tired.

Center: You should rest. You shouldn't go to work. (should + verb, no "to", no "-s") · What's the matter? · I'd like to make an appointment. → Tuesday at 10:30? / on Wednesday

Right: MY WEEK · Every week: I usually work... I often cook... (present simple) | Next week: I'm going to visit... (plans)

Corner: one tooth → two teeth · one foot → two feet · Homework: lesson_22 + final journal · C24 = final class 🎉

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: Find someone who	7	S-S (mingle)	Course-review mingle (materials). Learners stand, ask Do you...? Can you...? Are you going to...? , and write a name. Recycles Modules 1–

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
			7. Feedback: "Who can cook? Who is going to travel?"
Pre-task 1: body parts	7	T-S	Slide 3. Teacher says "Touch your head... your hand... your foot." Learners touch and repeat. Flashcards. Plurals: tooth → teeth , foot → feet . Quick drill.
Pre-task 2: health problems	10	T-S	Slide 4. Light mimes (hand on forehead, cough). Three patterns: I have / I've got a... , My ... hurts, I feel.... M/F/P + CCQs. Drill. Say the sensitivity line: "We're actors today."
Pre-task 3: advice with should	7	T-S → S-S	Slide 5. "I have a cold." → "You should rest. You shouldn't go to work." CCQs. Drill. Pairs: one says a flashcard problem, the other gives advice. Then WB Ex 2-3.
Listening: at the doctor	7	S	Read Script 8.1 B twice. Gist: "Is it serious?" (No, a cold.) Detail: learners tick the problems and write the advice (WB Ex 4). Pairs read the dialogue (slide 6).
Pre-task 4: the appointment call	6	T-S	Read Script 8.1 A . Learners write the day and time (WB Ex 5). Highlight I'd like to make an appointment, on + day, at + time , spelling a name. Back-chain the key line.
TASK 1: the doctor's office	14	S-S (groups of 3)	Roles: patient, receptionist, doctor. 2 min to read cards and plan. Then: phone call → check-in → doctor visit → advice. Rotate roles twice (≈ 4 min each), so everyone is the patient once. ICQs first. You observe with the checklist .
Pre-task 5: two time frames	6	T-S	Timeline on the board: EVERY WEEK NEXT WEEK. Read Script 8.1 C (model talk). Learners raise one hand for "every week" sentences, two hands for "next week." Highlight the time words. Offer new-identity week cards.
TASK 2: My Week talk	16	S → S-S (groups of 3)	Plan (6 min): the WB planner, 4 present + 4 future sentences, key words only (not full scripts) for confident writers. Tell (10 min): in threes, each speaker talks for 1–2 minutes, and the listeners ask one question each (What are you going to do on Saturday?). You circulate with the checklist .

Report & language focus	5	T–S	2–3 volunteers give their talk to the class (only volunteers). Applause! Board 3–4 errors from both tasks (no names) and correct them together.
Looking ahead & homework	5	T–S	Preview C24 (slide 13): what the final assessment looks like, and the celebration. Homework: the online lesson, practice the My Week talk out loud, and the final A1 journal.
90			Total: 7 + 7 + 10 + 7 + 7 + 6 + 14 + 6 + 16 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

Protect both tasks. Cut in this order: (1) shorten the warmer to 4 minutes; (2) skip the pairs reading of the doctor dialogue; (3) run Task 1 with only two rotations. Never cut Looking Ahead. Learners must leave knowing what C24 looks like.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Health problems. Three fixed patterns. (1) I have a / I've got a + problem (headache, cold, cough, sore throat, temperature, stomachache). In the US, I have is most common. The online lesson teaches I've got. Both are correct. (2) My + body part + hurts (one) / hurt (two or more): My back hurts. My feet hurt. (3) I feel + adjective: sick, tired, dizzy, better. Pronunciation: headache /'hɛdɛɪk/, "ache" = "ake." Stomach /'stʌmək/, "STUM-uk." Cough /kɒf/ rhymes with "off."

SAY: "I have a cold." Am I cold, like winter? (No.) Am I sick? (Yes, a little. Nose, throat.)

SAY: "My feet hurt." One foot or two? (Two.) So "hurt" or "hurts"? (Hurt.)

SAY: "I feel tired." Is this a body part? (No.) It's how my whole body feels. (Yes.)

should / shouldn't. Meaning: advice, a good idea (not a rule or an order). Form: subject + should + base verb. Same for every person, no to, no -s: She should rest. Negative shouldn't. Question Should I take medicine? Pronunciation: the I is silent: /ʃʊd/ rhymes with "good." Shouldn't /'ʃʊdnɪt/.

SAY: "You should rest." Is it a good idea or a rule? (A good idea.) Do I have to rest? (No, but it's a good idea.)

SAY: "You shouldn't go to work." Is going to work a good idea today? (No.)

SAY: "He should rests" or "He should rest"? (He should rest. No -s after should.)

Two time frames (review). Every week = present simple + frequency adverb (I usually work on Mondays; he works, with -s). Next week = be going to + verb (I'm going to visit my sister). The time word goes first, so the listener knows: usually, every day, on Saturdays vs. next week, tomorrow, on Friday night.

SAY: "Next week I'm going to start a class." Now or future? (Future.) Is it a plan? (Yes.)

SAY: "I usually cook on Sundays." One time or every week? (Every week.)

◆ DRILL SCRIPT (CHORAL → INDIVIDUAL)

- 1 Touch and say: "Head." (touch) → class: "head" ... fast: "hand – foot – leg – stomach – back – throat." Then learners lead.
- 2 Back-chain: "...ache." → "...headache." → "I have a headache." Then substitution with flashcards: stomach → I have a stomachache; throat → I have a sore throat; back → My back hurts.
- 3 Problem → advice chain: you: "I have a cold." Class: "You should rest!" You: "I have a toothache." Class: "You should see a dentist!" Then learners give the problems.
- 4 The appointment line: "...appointment." → "...make an appointment." → "I'd like to make an appointment." Say it with a smile on the phone (hand to ear).
- 5 Individual: each learner picks a flashcard and says one problem sentence. The next learner gives advice. Re-model errors; don't explain again.

◆ TASK 1 – THE DOCTOR'S OFFICE (GROUPS OF 3)

Round: (1) The patient phones the receptionist, asks for an appointment, and spells their name. The receptionist offers a day and a time from their card. (2) The doctor asks What's the matter? The patient describes the problem from their card. The doctor asks one question (Does your stomach hurt? How do you feel?) and gives 2 pieces of advice from the doctor card. (3) The patient thanks the doctor. Then rotate roles and take a new patient card.

SAY: ICQs: Are these your real problems? (No! From the card.) Who talks first on the phone? (The receptionist: "Good morning, how can I help you?") How many pieces of advice does the doctor give? (Two.) When do you change roles? (When I clap.)

Observe for (checklist items 1–4): a clear problem sentence, understanding and using should, day + time with on / at, spelling a name, repair language (Sorry, can you say that again?).

◆ TASK 2 – MY WEEK (GROUPS OF 3)

Plan: the workbook planner, 4 sentences about a normal week (present simple + usually / always / often / sometimes / never) and 4 about next week (going to). Literacy support: draw it (see below). Tell: each speaker talks for 1–2 minutes without reading word by word. Glancing at notes is fine. Each listener asks one question. Then the next speaker.

SAY: ICQs: How many sentences? (Eight or more.) Every week: which grammar? (I usually work...) Next week? (I'm going to...) Listeners: what do you do at the end? (Ask one question.) Can you use a week card? (Yes, if you want.)

Observe for (checklist items 5–8): present simple with a frequency adverb, going to + verb, time words at the start, answering a follow-up question, and overall fluency and clarity.

◆ THE OBSERVATION CHECKLIST → C24

Print it from the classroom materials. One row per learner, 8 can-do items, three marks: ✓ did it clearly · ~ did it with help or errors that affect meaning · ○ not yet / didn't try. You won't see every learner do everything. That's fine. Aim to observe each learner in at least one task. After class, use the sheet to:

- ◆ Choose C24 role-play cards: learners with mostly ✓ can take any card (café, store, or doctor). Learners with ~ / ○ on items 1–4 should get the role-play they did best today.
- ◆ Plan the C24 warm-up: the two items with the most ~ / ○ across the class become the 10-minute review before the assessment starts.
- ◆ Spot who needs reassurance: anyone who didn't speak in Task 2 gets a quiet word at the end of C23: "You can do this. Next class is friendly, and I'll help you."
- ◆ Don't grade C23. It's practice. Tell learners so. The checklist is for your planning, not their record.

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

- ◆ Literacy support: patient cards have a picture (the flashcard) plus one sentence to say. The My Week planner can be pictures: learners draw or stick My Week picture prompts on a 7-day strip, then talk from the pictures. Receptionists with low literacy use the clock face on their card instead of written times. Accept 5–6 sentences instead of 8.
- ◆ Stretch: patients ask a question back (How often should I take it?, recycling 6.1), and doctors add You should ... for three days. In My Week, add a third frame with he / she: "My sister usually works on Saturdays. Next week she's going to..." (recycles the -s). Add a "because" to one plan.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I have cold" / "I am cold" (Spanish tengo frío = I'm cold, tengo un resfriado = I have a cold; Portuguese, French similar). English: I'm cold (temperature) vs I have a cold (sick). Draw a snowflake and a tissue on the board.

- ◆ "It hurts me the head" (Spanish me duele la cabeza, Portuguese dói-me a cabeça, Italian mi fa male la testa). English uses the possessive: My head hurts.
- ◆ "should to" / "should rests": all L1s, especially where modals take an infinitive marker (German, Russian). Drill should + verb as one chunk.
- ◆ Dropped "be" in *going to (Arabic, Chinese, Russian, Vietnamese): I going to visit. Board: I'm going to, and tap the 'm.
- ◆ he / she -s in the stretch task (Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai: no verb endings; Tagalog, Chinese speakers may also mix he / she). Keep the -s on the board.
- ◆ "Stomach" spelled as said ("stomak"), and ache pronounced "a-chay" (Spanish/Italian reading). Model /erik/.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/lesson_22.html: 🎧 listen and repeat the doctor conversation. Say your My Week talk out loud twice at home (record it on your phone if you can). Workbook 8.1: the final A1 journal. Bring the workbook to C24.

◆ CHECK – QUICK QUIZ

Answers: Q1 good advice = B) You should rest. (no to, no -s); Q2 next-week plan = B) Next week I'm going to start a new job.; Q3 (new) "My feet ____." = A) hurt (two feet → plural verb).

LOOKING AHEAD — C24: FINAL ASSESSMENT & CELEBRATION

WHAT TO TELL LEARNERS AT THE END OF C23 (SLIDE 13)

C24 has two parts. First, a short, friendly final assessment: a one-to-one speaking check with you (a few questions about you and your week, and one role-play like today's: café, store, or doctor), plus the short listening / reading / writing tasks in the kit's final assessment. Then a celebration: certificates, a look back at what everyone can do now, and the next step, the A2 course.

Say it simply: "Next class is our last class. You talk with me for about five minutes, like today. No surprises: it's everything we practiced. Then we celebrate!"

Reduce anxiety: show the course's first lesson on screen and ask, "Week 1: could you say 'I usually work on Mondays and next week I'm going to visit my family'?" Let them hear how far they've come. Remind them the online lessons stay open for review.

Celebration planning: if learners want to bring food to share in C24, great, and it recycles Module 7! Ask everyone to label their dish with its main ingredients (allergies, halal, vegetarian). Nobody should feel they have to bring anything. Invite learners who want to to give their My Week talk to the whole group as a "graduation speech."

TEACHER REFLECTION (AFTER C23)

Look at your checklist and answer three questions: Which two can-dos need a C24 warm-up? Which learners need a quiet word of encouragement? Which role-play card will each learner get in C24? Write your answers on the back of the checklist.
