Twice a week for 90 minutes, you learn to tell stories about your past, talk about your experiences and plans, and handle everyday situations: directions and tickets, restaurants and stores, and the doctor's office. Between classes, the free online lessons (with audio) are your homework.

- ◆ Learners who are still building basic reading and writing are welcome. Every lesson has literacy-support options, and the tests have an adapted version.

■ What's Provided

- ◆ A Student Workbook for all 24 lessons, in clear A2 English with icon instructions (the learner keeps it)
- ◆ A welcome handout with class rules, what to bring, and QR codes to the online lessons
- ◆ For the teacher: a Teacher's Guide (a 90-minute plan for every class), slides, picture flashcards, role-play cards, listening scripts, games, and answer keys
- ◆ Free access to the companion online course: Everyday English (A2), with  audio

- ◆ Class 26 • Final Test (all 8 modules): the same skills plus an individual speaking interview with a clinic, restaurant, or station role-play
- ◆ Rubrics follow the CEFR A2 descriptors. Results decide the next class, never who gets to celebrate
- ◆ Tasks about your life can always use a “new identity” or an imagined story instead of real details

■ Homework & the Online Course

- ◆ After each class, do the matching online lesson at home: about 20–30 minutes, with  Listen buttons for model sentences and dialogues
- ◆ Plus one workbook page to review the class
