

Everyday English (A2 Elementary)

The full teaching manual for a 13-week adult-education A2 class (26 classes × 90 minutes): lesson stages and timing, board plans, drilling and concept-check questions, pair-work, error correction, differentiation, and L1 watch-outs.

8 modules • 24 lessons

26 classes • 90 min • 13 weeks

Teacher copy • not for students

CONTENTS

MOD 1 Talking About the Past

- 1.1 Past Simple — Was & Were
- 1.2 Past Simple — Regular Verbs (-ed)
- 1.3 Past Simple — Irregular Verbs & Questions

MOD 2 Describing & Comparing

- 2.1 Comparatives & Superlatives
- 2.2 Quantifiers — some, any, much, many
- 2.3 Adverbs of Frequency & Manner

MOD 3 Talking About the Future

- 3.1 "Going to" — Plans & Intentions
- 3.2 "Will" & "Might" — Predictions & Decisions
- 3.3 Future Arrangements & Making Suggestions

MOD 4 Experiences & Advice

- 4.1 Present Perfect — Life Experiences
- 4.2 Have to / Must / Should — Obligation & Advice
- 4.3 Review Project — Telling a Travel Story

MOD 5 Telling Stories

- 5.1 Past Continuous — What Was Happening
- 5.2 Past Continuous vs Past Simple — when & while
- 5.3 used to — Life in the Past

MOD 6 Joining Ideas Together

- 6.1 First Conditional — Real Possibilities
- 6.2 Relative Clauses — who, which, that, where
- 6.3 Linking Words — and, but, so, because, although

MOD 7 Getting Things Done

- 7.1 Travel & Directions — Getting Around
- 7.2 Eating Out & Shopping — Ordering, Booking & Problems
- 7.3 Health & Appointments

MOD 8 Experiences, Plans & Review

- 8.1 Present Perfect — for, since, just, already, yet
- 8.2 Verb Patterns — -ing or to-infinitive
- 8.3 Review Project — My Life Story & Future Plans

Module 1 — Talking About the Past

The first three classes of A2. Learners meet a new group and show you what they can already do in English. Then they learn the past simple: first was / were, then regular -ed verbs and their three sounds, and last the common irregular verbs with didn't and Did...?. By C3 they can ask a classmate "What did you do last weekend?" and tell a short true story.

3 lessons

Lessons 1.1–1.3

Classes C1–C3

Weeks 1–2

90 min per class

CEFR A2

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- One lesson block = one 90-minute class. Every class follows the same shape: warmer → lead-in → Meaning / Form / Pronunciation with concept-checking questions (CCQs) → drill (choral, then individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (pairs, groups, mingle) → feedback with delayed error correction → homework.
- The stage plan is your clock. Each one adds up to 90 minutes. The numbers in the Time column are minutes.
- Present from slides/module-1-the-past.html. Print materials/module-1/classroom-materials.html before C1. It holds the flashcards, the welcome question cards and the A1 diagnostic grid, the new identity cards, the "Where were they?" information gap, the -ed sound sort cards, the picture-story cards, the irregular-verb memory game, the weekend mingle sheet and all the listening scripts.
- The online lessons are the learners' homework and review. Each one has  Listen buttons, so learners can hear every model sentence again at home.
- American English throughout. The online lessons and this kit both use American English (vacation, apartment, movie, store, practice, memorize) and American phonetic symbols (/wɜːkt/, /wɒtft/). Accept British forms when learners use them (on holiday, flat, film, shop). Both are correct English.
- Dashed boxes = lines to say out loud, CCQs and ICQs (instruction-checking questions). Green boxes = scripts you read aloud. Amber = watch-outs.

THE THROUGH-LINE

How was it? → What did I do? → What did you do? In C1 learners describe where they were and how it was (was / were: no action verbs yet). In C2 they add actions with regular -ed verbs, positive sentences only, and learn to say the ending three ways. In C3 they add the irregular verbs and the question and negative with did. Now they can have a real conversation about the weekend. Every class ends with the same freer task in a bigger form: tell someone about a real past day (yours, or a "new identity" card).

TRAUMA-INFORMED: THE PAST IS PERSONAL

"What did you do last weekend?" is an easy question for most people. But for some adults, the recent past holds hard things: a lost job, a hospital visit, a court date, a family far away. Questions like "Where were you last year?" or "When did you come here?" can be painful for newcomers and refugees. Never ask about migration, the home country or "last year" in a whole-class task. Keep personal questions to yesterday and last weekend. For every personal task, offer three choices out loud: your real life, a new identity card, or an imagined day ("your dream weekend"). Say it every time, so choosing a card is normal.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- ◆ Placement. Ideally, learners took the toolkit placement test (../../instructor-toolkit/placement-test.html (in the shared ESL toolkit)) before C1. If not, the C1 welcome mingle doubles as a quick A1 diagnostic (see Lesson 1.1). It will not replace a placement test, but it will show you who needs extra support.
- ◆ Print the welcome question cards (Set B, one set per 12 learners) and one copy of the diagnostic grid for you, on a clipboard. Print name tents (folded paper is fine).
- ◆ Print the picture flashcards (one set for the board) and the new identity cards. Keep the identity cards on a side table where anyone can take one without asking.
- ◆ For C1: one "Where were they?" information-gap page per pair (cut A from B). For C2: one -ed sound sort set per group of 3–4, and one picture-story page per pair. For C3: one memory game set per group of 3–4 (card stock helps: learners must not see through the cards) and one weekend mingle sheet per learner.
- ◆ Bring a phone photo or a drawing of your last weekend (a park, a market, a meal). Teacher stories are the best lead-ins in this module.

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
1.1	C1 • wk 1	Welcome + A1 diagnostic; was / were, wasn't / weren't, Was...? / Were...? , past time words (yesterday, last, ago), There was / There were	say where they were and how it was yesterday, and ask "How was your weekend? Where were you?"
1.2	C2 • wk 1	Past simple of regular verbs (positive), four -ed spelling rules, three sounds /t/ /d/ /ɪd/	tell a past day in 6+ sentences with regular verbs, linked with and / then , saying the -ed endings clearly
1.3	C3 • wk 2	20 common irregular verbs; didn't + base verb; Did...? + short answers; Wh- questions with did ; was/were vs did	ask and answer "What did you do last weekend?" and tell a one-minute story with regular and irregular verbs

1.1 · C1

Welcome to A2 · Past Simple — Was & Were

90 min

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ meet classmates and talk about themselves with A1 language (be, present simple, can)
- ◆ use was (I / he / she / it) and were (you / we / they) to say where they were and how things were
- ◆ make negatives (wasn't / weren't) and questions (Was...? / Were...?) with short answers
- ◆ use past time words: yesterday, last night, last week, two days ago, in 2020
- ◆ describe a past place with There was / There were

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 1.1 (Welcome box, New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, speaking task)
- ◆ Slides 1–9 · name tents · Welcome question cards (Set B) · A1 diagnostic grid (your copy) · picture flashcards (feelings, weather, places) · "Where were they?" information gap A/B (1 per pair) · New identity cards
- ◆ Listening scripts 1.1-A (How was your weekend?) and 1.1-B (dictation)

BOARD PLAN

Left: a time line: ← PAST (yesterday · last week · two days ago) | NOW ●. Above NOW: I am at school. Above PAST: I was at home.

Center: two columns. am / is → was (I, he, she, it) · are → were (you, we, they). Below: He wasn't at work. · Were you at home? → Yes, I was. / No, I wasn't. · How was your weekend?

Right: last + Monday / week / night · two days / an hour + ago · in 2020 · There was a café. / There were many people.

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Welcome & name tents	8	T-S	Greet each person at the door. Learners write the name they want to be called on a name tent (a new-identity name is fine). Go around the room and learn to say every name correctly . Introduce yourself in 3 sentences with A1 language: "I'm _____. I teach English. I can play the guitar."
Getting to know you = A1	15	S-S (mingle)	Slide 3. Each learner takes three welcome question cards , one of each color (BE · DO · CAN). They stand, find a partner,

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
diagnostic			ask one question, answer, then swap cards and find a new partner (3–4 rounds). You walk with the diagnostic grid and listen (see "Running the diagnostic" below). Last 3 minutes: 3–4 learners tell the class one thing about a partner: "Ana can cook pasta. She likes tea." ICQs first.
About this course	4	T–S	Slide 2. 26 classes, 2 a week, 13 weeks; the workbook; the online course is homework (show it on a phone and tap a  button). A2 = stories, plans and real life . Module 1 = the past.
Lead-in: now → then	5	T–S	Point at the NOW dot. "Where are you now?" (At school.) "Where were you at eight this morning?" Answer for yourself first: "I was on the bus. I was tired!" Show your weekend photo: "This is the park. I was there on Sunday. It was sunny." Write am → was on the time line. No rules yet.
Grammar: was / were (+ – ?)	15	T–S	Slides 4–6. Picture flashcards for "How was it?" words (happy, tired, nervous, sunny, cold...). Then Meaning, Form, Pronunciation and CCQs (below). Drill the positive, the negative and the question with short answers.
Listening: How was your weekend?	6	T–S → S	Workbook Ex 3. Read Script 1.1-A once for gist ("Who had a good weekend?"), then again: learners circle True or False. Check in pairs, then on the board.
Time words + There was / were	8	T–S	Slide 7. Build the last / ago / in column on the board. Drill: T says "Monday" → S: "last Monday"; T says "two days" → S: "two days ago." Then "Remember there is / there are ? Now: there was / there were ." Describe the park in your photo: "There were a lot of people. There wasn't a café."
Controlled practice	10	S → S–S	Workbook Ex 1, 2 and 4 alone, then check in pairs. Board-check only the items pairs disagree on. Early finishers: Ex 5.
Freer: Where were they? → Where were you?	10	S–S	Slides 8–9. Read the model dialogue with a strong learner. Then (1) information gap : A and B ask "Where was Omar on Saturday? How was it?" and complete their tables (5 min). (2) Personal: "How was your weekend? Where were you?" with real life or a new identity card (5 min). ICQs first.
Feedback	4	T–S	Delayed error correction: 4 sentences on the board (2 good, 2 with errors, no names): "You was at home." / "Did you were tired?" Learners fix them.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Show online lesson 1.1 on screen; point at a  button. Set the homework (below). Learners tick the "I can..." box in the workbook.
Total	90		8 + 15 + 4 + 5 + 15 + 6 + 8 + 10 + 10 + 4 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

The welcome mingle is the most important part of C1. Do not cut it: the group needs it, and you need the diagnostic. Cut instead: the dictation (Script 1.1-B) and Ex 4 go to homework, and the information gap becomes a 5-minute task with 3 people only. Never skip the personal "How was your weekend?" question at the end.

◆ RUNNING THE DIAGNOSTIC – WHAT TO LISTEN FOR

The mingle is a friendly first conversation, not a test. Learners must never feel watched. Hold the grid on a clipboard, stand near a pair for 30–60 seconds, and join in sometimes ("Oh, can you cook rice? I can't!"). Mark each learner ✓ (easy and accurate) · ~ (understands, some errors) · ✗ (can't produce it yet) in three columns:

- ◆ BE: I'm / she's / they're, Are you...? Listen for a dropped be ("I tired," "She teacher") and "I have 30 years."
- ◆ PRESENT SIMPLE: I work / I don't work, Do you...?, and he/she -s in the report at the end ("Ana likes tea"). The third-person -s is the hardest A1 point; ~ is normal.
- ◆ CAN: I can / I can't + base verb, Can you...? Listen for "I can to swim" and "I can swimming."

What to do with the results: Mostly ✓ and ~ = the learner is ready for A2. Many ~ for BE = go slowly today, because was/were is built on am/is/are. Many ✗ in two or three columns = check the placement privately (the toolkit's oral placement interview takes 5 minutes) and give extra support from Day 1. If half the class drops the he/she -s, spend 3 minutes of the C2 warmer on it. Never share the grid with learners. Keep it; compare it with the Progress Test in C13.

◆ MEANING · FORM · PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. Was / were is the past of am / is / are. We use it for where people were, how things were, and what places were like, in a finished time (yesterday, last week).

SAY: "I was tired last night." Now or before? (Before.) Am I tired now? (We don't know. Maybe not.) Which word shows the past? (Was.)

SAY: "They were at the park." One person or more? (More.) So was or were? (Were.)

SAY: "You were right, Ana." How many people is "you" here? (One.) Was or were? (Were: you is always were.)

SAY: "Were you at home? — No, I wasn't." Was she at home? (No.) Do we say "Did you were...?" (No! Be never needs did.)

Form. Put the A1 forms next to the new ones so learners see the pattern:

Positive	I / he / she / it + was · you / we / they + were	She was at home. We were happy.
Negative	wasn't (was not) · weren't (were not)	He wasn't at school. They weren't ready.
Question	Was / Were + subject...?	Were you late? Was it cold?
Short answer	Yes, I was . / No, I wasn't .	(never "Yes, I's")
Wh-	Wh- word + was / were + subject	How was your weekend? Where were you?
Place	There was + one / uncountable · There were + plural	There was a café. There were many people.

Time words. last + a time word (last Monday, last week, last night); a length of time + ago (two days ago, an hour ago); in + a year (in 2020). No "the": last week, not "the last week."

Pronunciation. In positive sentences was and were are weak and fast: /wəz/, /wər/: "I w'z TIRED." Stress goes on the important word. In short answers they are strong: "Yes, I WAS." /wʌz/. wasn't has two syllables /'wʌznt/; weren't has one /wɜːnt/ (it sounds like "went" with an r). Questions with How was...? fall at the end; yes/no questions (Were you...?) usually rise.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Back-chain: "last night" → "tired last night" → "I was tired last night." Choral ×3, half the room, then 4–5 individuals. Keep was weak.
- 2 Subject substitution (point at people in the room): T: "I... at home." S: "I was at home." T: "They..." S: "They were at home." T: "Ana..." S: "Ana was at home." T: "You..." S: "You were at home." Speed up.
- 3 Negative transformation: T: "He was at work." (shake head) → S: "He wasn't at work." T: "We were late." → S: "We weren't late."
- 4 Question and short answer, open pairs: S1 → S2: "Were you at home last night?" S2: "Yes, I was. / No, I wasn't." S2 → S3: "Was it cold yesterday?"... around the room. Then: "How was your weekend?" → "It was great / OK / terrible."

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE MINGLE AND THE INFORMATION GAP

SAY: Welcome mingle: How many cards do you take? (Three, one of each color.) How many questions do you ask each person? (One.) What do you do after the question? (Swap cards and find a new partner.) Can you use a new identity? (Yes.)

SAY: Information gap: Can you show your paper? (No.) What do you ask? ("Where was... on Saturday? How was it?") Do you write or draw? (Write.) What do you say if you don't understand? ("Can you say that again, please?")

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

In the mingle, read the question card to the learner once and let them keep one card only. In the grammar stage, color-code: was in blue with I/he/she/it, were in red with you/we/they, and let them copy the table. In the information gap, they can point to a place picture (flashcards) instead of writing. Dictation 1.1-B: sentences 1–2 only.

STRETCH

Ask two follow-up questions in the mingle (the small text on each card). In the freer task, add There was / There were and a reason: "It was great because there weren't many people." Try When I was a child, I was... (only if they choose to). Early finishers write 5 sentences for Ex 5 with no help.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "You was / They was": all learners, and common in some spoken English too. Keep pointing at the two columns. You is always were, even for one person.
- ◆ Dropping be: "Yesterday I tired." / "The party very good." (Arabic, Russian, Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai and others have no linking verb here.) Recast: "You were tired."
- ◆ No past form at all: "Yesterday I am at home." (Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai, Indonesian and Tagalog speakers often show the past with a time word only.) Praise the time word, then add the verb: "Yesterday I was..."
- ◆ "Did you were...?" / "I didn't was...": learners who know a little about did (Spanish, Portuguese and Arabic speakers often). Be never takes did; put was / were first.
- ◆ "Ago" in the wrong place: "ago two days" (Spanish hace dos días, Portuguese há dois dias, Arabic, Turkish and others). "The last week" (Spanish la semana pasada, French la semaine dernière). Drill the chunks: two days ago · last week.
- ◆ "It had many people" / "Had a party" for "There were..." (Portuguese tinha, Spanish había, Tagalog may, Chinese yǒu, Vietnamese có). The same "have = there is" transfer as in A1.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 1.1: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_01.html. Listen to the model sentences and the "How was your weekend?" dialogue with  and say them out loud. Workbook 1.1: finish Ex 5 (yesterday: 4 sentences), "My new words" and the journal (where were you and how did you feel at different times yesterday?).

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B They were happy. · Q2 A Were ... wasn't · Q3 (new) C two days ago. Script 1.1-A (Ex 3): 1 T · 2 F · 3 T · 4 T · 5 F · 6 T. Information gap: see the Answer Key.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ make the past simple of regular verbs with -ed, the same form for every person
- ◆ spell the ending with the four rules: worked · liked · studied · stopped
- ◆ say the ending three ways: /t/ worked, /d/ played, /ɪd/ wanted (extra syllable)
- ◆ tell a past day in 6+ sentences, joined with and and then (positive sentences only)

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 1.2 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "My day yesterday")
- ◆ Slides 10–13 · picture flashcards (regular verbs) · -ed sound sort cards (1 set per group of 3–4) · Picture-story cards A/B + listener grid (1 page per pair) · New identity cards
- ◆ Listening scripts 1.2-A (/t/ /d/ /ɪd/ listen and show) and 1.2-B (Rosa's day)

BOARD PLAN

Left: I / you / he / she / we / they + worked (the same for everyone! no -s). Spelling: work → worked · like → liked · study → studied (but play → played) · stop → stopped

Center: three columns with a symbol at the top: /t/ 🗨️ no buzz: worked, watched · /d/ 🐝 buzz: played, called · /ɪd/ 🗨️ one more beat: want-ed, need-ed (after t or d only)

Right: Yesterday I started work at eight, and I cooked lunch. Then I called my sister.

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: How was your weekend? (review)	8	S-S → T-S	Review C1. New pairs (not the same as C1): "Where were you yesterday at 8 a.m.? At 8 p.m.? How was it?" 3 minutes each. Then 2–3 volunteers read one journal sentence. Recast any "You was" on the spot, quickly and kindly. Use the diagnostic: if the he/she -s was weak in C1, add "Tell me about your partner: She likes... " (2 min).
Lead-in: my day yesterday	5	T-S	Tell your day with 5 flashcards in order on the board: "Yesterday I worked in the morning. I walked to the park. I cooked dinner. I called my mother. I watched TV." Ask: "What's the same at the end of every verb?" (-ed.) Underline it.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Vocabulary + form: regular verbs	12	T-S	Slide 10 + flashcards. Elicit the base verb from the picture, then the past. Show "the same for everyone" (I / she / they worked : no -s). Then Slide 11: the four spelling rules with CCQs. Learners copy the verbs they need into Workbook "New words."
Spelling practice	8	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1 alone. Pairs check. Then a 2-minute "board race": two teams, you say a verb, one learner from each team writes the past on the board (stop, try, dance, stay, plan).
Pronunciation: /t/ /d/ /ɪd/	10	T-S	Slide 12. Hand on throat: /t/ no buzz, /d/ buzz, /ɪd/ one more beat (clap it). Key point: most -ed verbs are one syllable (workt, playd). Then Script 1.2-A : learners show 1, 2 or 3 fingers. Drill (below).
-ed sound sort	10	S-S (groups)	Groups of 3-4 get the sort cards . Put the three header cards on the table. Take turns: pick a card, say the word out loud, put it in a column. The group agrees or says "Say it again!" Check with the answer strip. Then Workbook Ex 2.
Listening: Rosa's day	7	T-S → S	Workbook Ex 3. Read Script 1.2-B twice; learners number the pictures. Check. Ask: "What did Rosa do after work?" as a fixed phrase only (the grammar of did is next class); learners answer "She walked to the market."
Controlled practice	8	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 4 (gap-fill) alone, then read the story aloud to a partner, saying every -ed correctly . The partner listens for /ɪd/ in started .
Freer: picture story → my yesterday	12	S-S	Slide 13. (1) Picture-story info gap : A tells Maria's Saturday; B finds and numbers the 6 pictures on the listener grid. Swap: B tells Sam's Sunday (6 min). (2) New partner: tell your day yesterday (or a new identity card) in 6+ sentences with and / then . The listener retells it: "You worked, then you cooked..." (6 min). ICQs first.
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed correction on the board: "work-ed" (two syllables), "He cookeds", "I studied", "I play football yesterday" (no -ed). Learners say the right form, with the right sound.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 1.2; workbook Ex 5 and journal (5 sentences, with the sound of each -ed). Preview C3: "Next class: went, saw, bought... and questions: What did you do? "
Total	90		8 + 5 + 12 + 8 + 10 + 10 + 7 + 8 + 12 + 5 + 5

POSITIVE SENTENCES ONLY (ON PURPOSE)

The online lesson keeps 1.2 to positive sentences and saves didn't / Did...? for 1.3. Its dialogue still starts "What did you do yesterday?" Teach that one question as a fixed phrase today (learners need it, and they answer with -ed). If a learner asks about "I didn't...", say: "Great question. That's next class!" Do not correct learners who use didn't correctly already.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. The past simple is for a finished action at a finished time: yesterday, last week, two days ago. It is often a story: this, then this, then this.

SAY: "I cooked dinner last night." Now or in the past? (Past.) Is it finished? (Yes.) Which part of the verb shows the past? (-ed.)

SAY: "She worked yesterday." Do we add -s for she? (No.) So: I worked, she worked, they worked... All the same? (Yes!)

SAY: "worked." How many beats? (One.) "wanted." How many beats? (Two.) Why? (After t, we add a syllable.)

Form — the four spelling rules.

Most verbs	+ -ed	work → worked · play → played · watch → watched
Ends in -e	+ -d	like → liked · live → lived · arrive → arrived
Consonant + y	y → -ied	study → studied · try → tried (but vowel + y: play → played, stay → stayed)
1 syllable: vowel + consonant	double + -ed	stop → stopped · plan → planned (never double w, x, y: showed, fixed, played)

Pronunciation — the three sounds. Spelling and sound are two different steps.

/ ɪd/	after a t or d sound: one extra syllable	wanted · needed · started · visited · decided
/t/	after a voiceless sound (p, k, s, sh, ch, f): no buzz	worked · watched · stopped · danced · finished · liked
/d/	after a voiced sound (vowels, b, g, l, m, n, r, v, z): buzz	played · called · cleaned · lived · arrived · studied

The /t/ vs /d/ difference is small, and nobody misunderstands it. What matters for being understood: (1) say an ending at all, and (2) don't add a syllable except after t/d ("work-ed" sounds wrong). In fast speech the -ed before a consonant almost disappears (walked to → "walk-to"), so the time word carries the past. Point this out when learners listen: "Listen for yesterday, too."

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Base → past (flashcards): T shows cook: "cook" → S: "cooked." Choral, then individuals. Hold up fingers for the sound (1, 2, 3) as you go.
- 2 Sound groups: drill each column as a chain: "worked, watched, cooked, walked" (/t/) · "played, called, cleaned, stayed" (/d/) · "wanted, needed, started, visited" (/ɪd/, clap the extra beat).
- 3 Minimal contrast: T: "I work every day." (point forward) / "I worked yesterday." (point back). Learners say which one: "Now or past?" Then they produce both.
- 4 Chain story: S1: "Yesterday I cleaned the kitchen." S2: "Yesterday I cleaned the kitchen and I called my mother." S3 adds one more... Stop at 5 and start a new chain.

◆ THE -ED SOUND SORT – HOW TO RUN IT

- Groups of 3–4, one set of 24 word cards + 3 header cards (/t/ 🐝 · /d/ 🐝 · /ɪd/ 🐝). Cards face down in a pile.
- Turn by turn: take a card, say it out loud with a hand on the throat, put it under a header. Others agree or say "Say it again!" The group may move a card only after saying it again together.
- When the pile is empty, each learner reads one column aloud. Then turn over the answer strip and check. Talk about the mistakes: "Why is danced /t/?" (The c sounds like s: no buzz.)
- Round 2 (stretch): each learner takes 3 cards and makes one true sentence about yesterday with each.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE SORT AND THE PICTURE STORY

SAY: Sort: Do you read the word quietly or say it out loud? (Out loud.) How many columns? (Three.) What do you say if you are not sure? ("Say it again!")

SAY: Picture story: Can your partner see your card? (No.) Who talks first? (A.) What does B do? (Listens and numbers the pictures.) Do you say "clean" or "cleaned"? (Cleaned: it's the past.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Pictures do the work: in the sort, the teacher or a partner reads each card and the learner decides the sound with fingers. Focus on 8 verbs only (worked, cooked, walked, played, called, cleaned, wanted, visited). Spelling rules are for recognition; copying the verbs is enough. Freer task: 4 sentences with picture cards is a success.

STRETCH

Add the doubling rule for longer words for recognition only (preferred, traveled; British travelled). In the freer task, use 8+ verbs, a time for each, and after that / later. Retell the partner's day in the third person to a new partner: "Ali worked, then he..."

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "Work-ed", "play-ed" (an extra syllable on every verb): learners who read English "as it is written," e.g. Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, Arabic, Swahili speakers. Clap the beats: worked = 1, wanted = 2.
- ◆ No ending at all: "Yesterday I walk to the park." (Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai, Korean, Japanese; Vietnamese speakers also drop final consonants in general.) Make the ending visible: put your hand out and "catch" the -t. Accept progress, not perfection.
- ◆ An extra vowel after the ending: "worked-o", "play-do" (Japanese, Korean, Brazilian Portuguese: words don't end in a consonant cluster). Model the "quick" ending and let it be soft.
- ◆ l / r: played / prayed, collected / corrected (Japanese, Korean, some Chinese speakers). Only correct it when the meaning changes.
- ◆ Spelling transfer: "studyed", "plaied", "stoped", "visitted". Point to the rule on the board, not the learner.
- ◆ "He cookeds" / "She workeds": learners who over-apply the present -s from A1. "Good memory! But in the past: no -s for anyone."

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 1.2: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_02.html. Listen to the wordlist and model sentences with 🎧; practice the three sounds out loud (worked, played, wanted). Workbook 1.2: finish Ex 5 (6 sentences about yesterday), "My new words" and the journal (5 sentences, with /t/, /d/ or /ɪd/ next to each verb).

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B studied · Q2 C wanted · Q3 (new) C watched (/t/). Script 1.2-B (Ex 3): a 6 · b 1 · c 5 · d 2 · e 3 · f 4. Picture story: Maria = kitchen, cook, phone, park, TV, music · Sam = football, grandmother, talk, dance, study, home.

◆ OBJECTIVES – LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ say and write 20 common irregular past forms (went, had, saw, made, took, ate, bought...)
- ◆ make negatives with didn't + base verb: I didn't go.
- ◆ ask Did you...? and answer Yes, I did. / No, I didn't.
- ◆ ask Wh- questions with did: What did you do? Where did you go? Who did you meet?
- ◆ choose between was/were (be) and did (action verbs)
- ◆ tell a one-minute story with 5+ past verbs, regular and irregular

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 1.3 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, weekend mingle)
- ◆ Slides 14–18 · picture flashcards (irregular verbs) · Irregular-verb memory game (1 set per group of 3–4) · "What did you do last weekend?" mingle sheet (1 per learner) · New identity cards
- ◆ Listening scripts 1.3-A (Market day) and 1.3-B (Did you...? listen and answer)

BOARD PLAN

Left: verb families: go → went · have → had · see → saw · buy → bought, think → thought · drink → drank, sing → sang, swim → swam · say → said, tell → told

Center: I went to the park. → I didn't go to the park. → Did you go to the park? → Yes, I did. / No, I didn't. Draw a box around did and write: 1 past word is enough!

Right: What / Where / When / Who + did + you + base verb? · be → Were you at home? · action → Did you stay home?

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: -ed sounds, yesterday	7	S–S	Review C2. Pairs: A says 3 true sentences about yesterday with regular verbs; B shows 1, 2 or 3 fingers for each -ed sound. Swap. Then 2 learners read a journal sentence with the sound marked.
Lead-in: "I goed?"	5	T–S	Tell your weekend on purpose with a mistake: "On Saturday I goed to the market..." Wait. Most classes laugh and correct you: "Went!" "Yes! Some verbs don't use -ed."

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
			They're irregular." Finish the story with 5 irregular verbs (went, bought, saw, ate, had).
Vocabulary: irregular verbs	12	T-S	Slide 14 + flashcards. Picture → base verb → past. Teach in families (board, left): the sound patterns make them easier. Choral drill: base → past, then past → base. Point out read /rid/ → read /rɛd/. Learners copy into Workbook "New words."
Memory game	12	S-S (groups)	Slide 15. Groups of 3–4, 16 pairs face down. Turn over 2 cards; if they match (go / went), say a sentence with the past verb to keep the pair: "Last weekend I went to the park." Most pairs wins. ICQs first. Stretch groups add the 4 bonus pairs.
Grammar: didn't, Did...?, Wh-	15	T-S	Slide 16. Meaning, form, pronunciation, CCQs (below). The key: did is the past word, so the main verb goes back to its base. Show the "one pattern for all" table. Then was/were vs did . Drill.
Listening: Market day	7	T-S → S	Workbook Ex 4. Read Script 1.3-A twice; learners circle True or False. Stretch: correct the false sentences with didn't : "They didn't take a taxi. They took the bus."
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1, 2, 3 and 5 alone, then check in pairs. For Ex 3b, read Script 1.3-B : learners write a short answer about themselves.
Freer: What did you do last weekend?	12	S-S (mingle)	Slide 17. Model with a strong learner. Learners stand with the mingle sheet . Ask 4 classmates: "What did you do last weekend? Where did you go? Did you have a good time?" and write notes. Part 2: find someone who... (Did you...? questions). Real life, a new identity card, or a dream weekend. Then 3 learners report one classmate's weekend with he/she + past . ICQs first.
Feedback + module check	5	T-S	Delayed correction: "I didn't went", "Did you bought...?", "What you did?", "Did he was there?" Then learners tick the three Module 1 "I can..." lists.
Homework set- up	5	T-S	Online lesson 1.3; the one-minute story (record it on a phone if possible); journal. Preview C4: "Next class: bigger, better, the best!"

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Total	90		7 + 5 + 12 + 12 + 15 + 7 + 10 + 12 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. Same meaning as 1.2: a finished action in the past. Irregular verbs only change the positive form. In negatives and questions, every verb is the same: did / didn't + base verb.

SAY: "I didn't go to the party." Did I go? (No.) Which word shows the past? (Didn't.) So do we need "went"? (No: go.)

SAY: "Did you see the game?" Is it a question about now or the past? (The past.) The answer is yes. What do you say? ("Yes, I did." not "Yes, I saw.")

SAY: "Were you at home?" / "Did you stay home?" Which one uses the verb be? (Were you...) Can we say "Did you were..."? (No! Be never uses did.)

Form.

Positive	regular: verb + -ed · irregular: learn the form	I played. / I went.
Negative	subject + didn't + base verb	She didn't have breakfast. We didn't watch TV.
Question	Did + subject + base verb...?	Did you go out? Did she eat lunch?
Short answer	Yes, I did . / No, I didn't .	(don't repeat the verb)
Wh-	Wh- + did + subject + base verb...?	What did you do? Where did they go? Who did you meet?

Pronunciation. Did you joins in natural speech: /dɪdʒə/ ("Didja go?"). What did you sounds like "Whadja" / 'wʌdʒə/. Learners should understand this; they can say it slowly. didn't = /dɪdnt/: the final t is often silent, so the listener hears "didn". Stress the main verb and the negative: "I DIDN'T GO." Short answers are strong: "Yes, I DID." Irregular vowel sounds to drill: saw /sɔ/, bought, thought /ɔt/ (the gh is silent), said /sɛd/ (not "sayed"), read /rɛd/, ate /ɛt/.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Base ↔ past ping-pong: T: "go" → S: "went." T: "bought" → S: "buy." Speed up; mix directions. Then pairs do the same with the memory cards face up.
- 2 Negative transformation: T: "I went to the market." (shake head) → S: "I didn't go to the market." T: "She had lunch." → S: "She didn't have lunch." Listen for "didn't went."

- 3 Question and short answer, open pairs: S1 → S2: "Did you watch TV last night?" S2: "Yes, I did. / No, I didn't." S2 → S3: "Did you cook yesterday?"... around the room.
- 4 Wh- question build: write the answer, learners make the question: "I went to the beach." → "Where did you go?" "I met my cousin." → "Who did you meet?" "I bought shoes." → "What did you buy?"
- 5 be or did? T: "at home" → S: "Were you at home?" T: "stay home" → S: "Did you stay home?" T: "tired" → "Were you tired?" T: "sleep well" → "Did you sleep well?"

◆ THE IRREGULAR-VERB MEMORY GAME – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Groups of 3–4. Shuffle the 32 cards (16 base + 16 past) and place them face down in rows. White cards are base verbs; shaded cards are past forms.
- ◆ Turn by turn: turn over 2 cards and say both words out loud. A match = a base card + its past (buy / bought). To keep the pair, say a sentence with the past verb about last weekend: real, a new identity, or silly ("I bought a cat"). The group checks the sentence. Match → play again. No match → turn them back.
- ◆ Most pairs at the end wins. Then each learner turns their pairs into negatives: "I didn't buy a cat."
- ◆ Easier: play face up (a matching race) with 8 pairs. Harder: add the 4 bonus pairs, and the sentence must include a time word.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE MEMORY GAME AND THE MINGLE

SAY: Memory game: How many cards do you turn over? (Two.) Do you say the words or only look? (Say them.) What do you do to keep a pair? (Say a sentence in the past.) If it's not a match? (Turn them back.)

SAY: Mingle: How many people do you talk to? (Four.) What's the first question? ("What did you do last weekend?") Do you need to talk about your real weekend? (No. Real, a card, or a dream weekend.) Do you write long sentences? (No, notes: 2–3 words.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Play the memory game in a picture-only version: the teacher or a partner reads each card. Learn 8 verbs first (went, had, ate, drank, saw, bought, made, took). In the mingle, ask only 2 questions and draw notes (  ). Allow "I go... went to the park" self-repair: that is a success.

STRETCH

Add the bonus pairs and the families (bring → brought, teach → taught, pay → paid, sell → sold, begin → began). In the mingle, ask two follow-ups ("Who did you go with? What did you eat?"). Tell the one-minute story with one was/were sentence, one negative and one because.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I didn't went" / "Did you went?": the #1 past-tense error, for all L1s. Use the board rule: "1 past word is enough." Correct it every time in controlled practice; let it go during the mingle and note it for feedback.
- ◆ "I goed, buyed, eated": this is a good sign (the learner knows the -ed rule). Praise the rule, give the irregular form.
- ◆ "You went to the park?" with rising intonation and no did (Spanish, Portuguese, French, Russian, Arabic, Chinese). Understandable; recast: "Did you go to the park?"
- ◆ "What you did yesterday?" / "Where you went?" (many L1s keep statement word order in questions). Drill the question frame: What + did + you + base verb.
- ◆ "Went to the park" with no subject (Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, Arabic, Japanese, Korean, Chinese can drop the subject). "Who went? I went."
- ◆ "Did he was there?" / "Were you go?": mixing be and did. Use the "be or did?" drill.
- ◆ bought / brought, thought / taught: they sound alike for many learners. Teach bought first; brought is stretch.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 1.3: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_03.html. Listen to the irregular verbs, the past story and the dialogue with 🎧. Say ten past forms without looking. Workbook 1.3: finish the one-minute story plan, "My new words" and the journal (5 irregular verbs in true sentences + 1 negative + 1 question).

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B bought · Q2 B I didn't go to work. · Q3 (new) B Were you at home last night? Script 1.3-A (Ex 4): 1 T · 2 F · 3 T · 4 F · 5 F · 6 T. Memory game pairs are printed on the answer strip.

CLOSING THE MODULE

END OF C3: MODULE 1 WRAP-UP

Recap on slide 18: How was it? → I worked. I went. → Did you...? I didn't... Learners tick the three "I can..." lists in the workbook. Anything still unticked goes on a sticky note for you. Review it in the C4 warmer.

The past is the spine of A2. It comes back in Module 4 (the travel-story project, and the present perfect vs past simple), Module 5 (past continuous, used to) and Module 8 (my life story). Keep a 2-minute "past warmer" in every class until C13: "What did you do yesterday? Tell your partner three things." It costs nothing and it works.

Progress Test 1 (C13) covers Modules 1–4. From this module it tests: was/were (+ – ?), past time words (last, ago), There was/were, regular -ed spelling and the three sounds, 20 irregular verbs, didn't + base, Did...? + short answers, and Wh- questions with did.

Module 2 — Describing & Comparing

Module 1 gave learners the past for telling stories. Module 2 gives them the words for choosing and describing, which they need every day for shopping, cooking and talking about habits. In three classes they compare things (cheaper than, the best), talk about amounts (some, any, much, many, a few, a little), and say how often and how they do things (usually, twice a week, carefully, well).

3 lessons

Lessons 2.1–2.3

Classes C4–C6

Weeks 2–3

90 min per class

CEFR A2

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- One lesson block = one 90-minute class. Every class has the same shape: warmer (review of the last class) → lead-in → Meaning / Form / Pronunciation with concept-checking questions (CCQs) → drill (choral, then individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (pairs and groups) → feedback with delayed error correction → homework.
- The stage plan is your clock. Each one adds up to 90 minutes. The numbers in the Time column are minutes.
- Present from `slides/module-2-comparing.html`. Print `materials/module-2/classroom-materials.html` before C4. It holds the flashcards, the countable/uncountable sort cards, the compare two cities / three phones information gap, the class superlatives quiz, the kitchen-cupboard information gap, the How often? survey, the adverb mime game cards, the new identity habit cards and all listening scripts.
- The online lessons are the learners' homework and review. Each one has  Listen buttons, so learners can hear the model sentences and dialogues again at home.
- A2 recycles A1. Learners met some / any with food (A1 7.1), adverbs of frequency (A1 6.1) and the present continuous (A1 4.2). Treat those parts as quick review + extension. Comparatives, superlatives, much / many / a few / a little and adverbs of manner are new.
- American English throughout. The online lessons and this kit both use American English (apartment, fall, the movies, movie, five dollars, practice, farther). Accept British forms when learners use them (flat, autumn, the cinema, film, five pounds, further).
- Dashed boxes = lines to say out loud, CCQs and ICQs (instruction-checking questions). Green boxes = scripts you read aloud. Amber = watch-outs.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Which one? → How much? → How often and how? In C4 learners compare things and choose (a city, a phone, a restaurant). In C5 they talk about amounts in a kitchen and on a shopping list. In C6 they describe actions: how often they do them and how they do them. All three are "describing" language. Each class ends with a real choice or a real description: which phone to buy, what to buy for dinner, how my week goes.

TRAUMA-INFORMED: COMPARE THINGS, NOT PEOPLE'S BODIES OR LIVES

Never compare classmates' height, weight, age, looks, money or homes. The lesson has "My brother is taller than me" as a model, and that is fine for a family member the learner chooses to talk about, but all class games use things, cities, products and neutral class facts (who knows the most languages, who got up earliest today). "My home town vs. this city" can be painful for refugees and people who could not choose to leave. Always offer the city fact cards or a dream city instead. Some learners may have little food at home: in C5, the kitchen task uses the picture cupboard cards or an imagined kitchen, and nobody has to describe their own fridge. Say the choices out loud every time: your real life, a card, or an imagined one.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- Print the picture flashcards (one set for the board: adjectives, food, adverbs). Card stock helps.
- For C4: one compare-cities information gap page per pair (cut A from B), plus the three-phones Set 2 for fast pairs. One superlatives quiz answer sheet per team of 3–4.
- For C5: one set of countable/uncountable sort cards per group of 3; one kitchen-cupboard information gap page per pair. Optional realia: a bag with a bottle of water, a packet of rice, two apples, some tea bags.
- For C6: one How often? survey per learner; one set of mime cards (actions + adverbs) per group of 4–5.
- Put the new identity habit cards and city fact cards on a side table where anyone can take one without asking.

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
2.1	C4 • wk 2	Comparatives (-er / more ... than), superlatives (the -est / the most), spelling rules, good-better-best , bad-worse-worst , far-farther-farthest ; bonus (not as ... as)	compare two cities or products using numbers, and say which of three is the cheapest / best
2.2	C5 • wk 3	Countable / uncountable nouns, some / any (+ some for offers), much / many / a lot of, a few / a little , How much...? / How many...? , containers (a bottle of)	ask and answer about what is in a kitchen, and make a shopping list for a meal

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
2.3	C6 · wk 3	Adverbs of frequency + position (before the main verb, after be), How often...? once / twice / three times a week , adverbs of manner (-ly), well / fast / hard, good vs well	describe their habits and how they do things in 6+ sentences, and ask "How often do you...?"

2.1 · C4

Comparatives & Superlatives

90 min

◆ OBJECTIVES – LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ form comparatives with -er (short adjectives) and more (long adjectives) + than: The bus is cheaper than the train.
- ◆ form superlatives with the -est and the most: It's the most expensive restaurant in town.
- ◆ spell nicer, happier, bigger correctly and use better / the best, worse / the worst
- ◆ ask for and give numbers to compare two cities or products in an information gap
- ◆ (bonus) say two things are equal or not equal with as ... as / not as ... as

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 2.1 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "Compare three things")
- ◆ Slides 3–9 · Adjective flashcards · Compare two cities information gap A/B (1 per pair) + Three phones Set 2 · Class superlatives quiz sheet (1 per team) · city fact cards
- ◆ Listening scripts 2.1-A (Where should we eat?) and 2.1-B (comparative dictation: optional, or use it as the C5 warmer)

BOARD PLAN

Left: two drawn phones with price tags: 📱 $200 · 📱 $450. Under them: The first phone is cheaper than the second. The second phone is more expensive than the first.

Center: a table: cheap → cheaper → the cheapest · nice → nicer → the nicest · happy → happier → the happiest · big → bigger → the biggest · expensive → more expensive → the most expensive · good → better → the best · bad → worse → the worst

Right: TWO things → comparative + than · THREE or more → the + superlative · ❌ more cheaper · ❌ the most biggest

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: two truths and a lie	8	S-S	Review C3 (1.3, irregular past + questions). Each learner writes 3 short sentences about last weekend (one is false): "I went to the market. I saw a movie. I bought a new phone." The partner asks "Did you...? Where did you...?" and guesses the lie. New identity cards are fine. Monitor did + base verb in questions.
Lead-in: which phone?	5	T-S	Draw two phones with prices ($200, $450). "I need a new phone. Which one do I buy? Why?" Elicit ideas in any words ("This is cheap"). Then say the target: "Yes: this phone is cheaper than that phone." Write it. No rules yet.
Vocabulary: adjective pairs	7	T-S	Slide 3 + flashcards. These are A1 words: elicit fast. Hold up a card, learners say the adjective and its opposite: big / small, cheap / expensive, fast / slow, old / new, hot / cold, easy / difficult, good / bad. Mark the stress on long words: exPENSive, DIFFicult, BEAUtiful, INteresting.
Grammar 1: comparatives	15	T-S	Slides 4–5. Meaning, form, the syllable test, the four spelling rules, than , pronunciation (notes below). CCQs. Drill (script below). Learners copy the board table into the workbook Grammar box.
Grammar 2: superlatives + irregulars	10	T-S	Slide 6. Add a third phone ($900). "Which is the cheapest? The most expensive?" Build the superlative column next to the comparative one. Then good / better / the best, bad / worse / the worst, far / farther / the farthest . CCQs on slide 7. Quick drill: T says an adjective → S say all three forms.
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1, 2 and 4 alone, then check in pairs. Go through only the items pairs disagree on. Early finishers start Ex 5 (the café table).
Listening: where should we eat?	5	T-S	Slide 8. Workbook Ex 3. Read Script 2.1-A twice: once for gist ("Where do they go?" → the Thai restaurant), once to fill the gaps. Check on the slide. Pairs read the dialogue in the workbook once, then swap roles.
Freer 1: compare two cities (info gap)	12	S-S	Slide 9. A/B cards. Each learner has half the facts about Port Mara and Greenfield . They ask "How many people live in Greenfield?" "How much is a bus ticket in Port Mara?" and write the numbers. Then each pair writes 4 comparatives and decides: "Which city is better for a family? For a student? Why?" ICQs first. Fast pairs: Set 2 (three phones) with superlatives.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Freer 2: class superlatives quiz	8	S-S (teams)	Teams of 3–4. Round 1 (world quiz): read the 8 questions (+ 2 bonus); teams choose A/B/C and answer in a full sentence for a bonus point ("The Pacific is the biggest ocean."). Round 2 (class records, if time): teams guess, then ask, "Who knows the most languages?" See the materials for neutral questions only.
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed error correction: write 4 sentences you heard (2 good, 2 with errors, no names): "Greenfield is more cheaper than Port Mara." "It's the most big city." Learners fix them. Praise one good comparison from each part of the room.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Show the online lesson; point at a 📶 button. Set the homework (below). Learners tick the "I can..." box.
Total	90		8 + 5 + 7 + 15 + 10 + 10 + 5 + 12 + 8 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

Keep the bonus (not) as ... as receptive: show it on slide 5, and don't drill it. Move Round 2 of the quiz to the C5 warmer. Never cut the city information gap: it is the moment the grammar becomes real.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. A comparative compares two things. A superlative picks the number one from a group of three or more.

SAY: "The bus is cheaper than the train." How many things? (Two.) Which one costs less money? (The bus.) Is the train cheap? (Maybe, but the bus is cheaper.)

SAY: "This is the cheapest phone in the shop." How many phones are in the shop? (Many: three or more.) Is there a phone cheaper than this one? (No.) So it is number...? (One.)

SAY: "Tom is as tall as his father." Is Tom taller? (No.) Is his father taller? (No.) So they are...? (The same.)

Form. Count the syllables (clap them).

1 syllable	adjective + -er + than • the + adjective + -est	cheap → cheaper than → the cheapest
-------------------	---	-------------------------------------

2+ syllables	more + adjective + than · the most + adjective	expensive → more expensive than → the most expensive
2 syllables + -y	y → -ier / -iest	happy → happier → the happiest · easy → easier ends in -e	+ -r / -st	nice → nicer → the nicest
vowel + consonant	double the last letter	big → bigger · hot → hotter · thin → thinner
irregular	learn them	good → better → the best · bad → worse → the worst · far → farther/further → the farthest/furthest

Pronunciation. The -er and than are weak: "CHEAP-er-thn" /ˈtʃi:pə ʔən/. Model the natural chunk: cheaper than · bigger than · better than. The stress stays on the adjective: more exPENSive, the most BEAUtiful. The before a superlative is usually /ðə/: "thuh CHEAPest". The th in than / the is voiced /ð/: tongue between the teeth, and buzz. Accept "dan" early on; don't stop fluency for it.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Back-chain: "than the train" → "cheaper than the train" → "The bus is cheaper than the train." Choral ×3, half the room, then 4–5 individuals.
- 2 Prompt drill with flashcards (hold up two): T: "Bus, taxi... cheap." → S: "The bus is cheaper than the taxi." T: "Summer, winter... hot." → S: "Summer is hotter than winter." T: "Hotel, hostel... expensive." → S: "The hotel is more expensive than the hostel."
- 3 Three-form chain: T: "big" → S1: "bigger" → S2: "the biggest". Go fast around the room. Put good and bad in often.
- 4 Open pairs → closed pairs: S1: "Which is faster, a bus or a plane?" → S2: "A plane is faster than a bus." Then all pairs, 1 minute, with the flashcards.

◆ COMPARE TWO CITIES – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Pairs sit face to face. A and B do not show their cards. Each card has 8 facts, and half the numbers are missing (?).
- ◆ Pre-teach the questions on slide 9: How many people live in...? How much is a bus ticket? How hot is it in summer? How old is...? How far is the airport? (How much is only for prices today. C5 will teach it for amounts.)
- ◆ Round 1 (6 min): ask, answer, and write the numbers. Round 2 (4 min): write 4 comparatives together: "Greenfield is smaller than Port Mara." Round 3 (2 min): choose a city for a family, a student or a retired person, and say why.
- ◆ Set 2 (three phones) needs superlatives: "The Zeta is the cheapest. The Nova has the best camera." Give it to fast pairs, or use it in C5's warmer.

Full facts (for monitoring): Port Mara: 850,000 people · apartment $1,400 a month · bus ticket $2.50 · 84°F (29°C) in summer · 300 years old · 12 parks · airport 22 miles (35 km) · 3 universities. Greenfield: 120,000 people · $950 · $1.75 · 75°F (24°C) · 150 years old · 20 parks · airport 56 miles (90 km) · 1 university. Full answers and model sentences are in the answer key.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE CITY INFORMATION GAP

SAY: Do you show your card? (No.) · Do you ask questions or read? (Ask.) · Which question is for money? ("How much...?") · What do you write after you ask? (The number.) · How many comparisons do you write together? (Four.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Use the flashcards and the board table as a "look-up" wall. In Ex 1, do only the first 5 adjectives. In the info gap, the learner only asks and writes the numbers; the partner writes the sentences. Four spoken comparisons with than is a success. Clap the syllables together for the -er / more choice.

STRETCH

Add much before comparatives ("much cheaper," "much more expensive") and use not as ... as: "Greenfield is not as expensive as Port Mara." In the quiz, write the extra sentence for every answer. Early finishers do Set 2 and give a spoken "sales pitch" for one phone.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "more big" / "more cheaper" (Spanish más grande, Portuguese mais, French plus, Tagalog mas malaki, Italian più): these languages use one "more" word for every adjective. Clap the syllables and point at the  on the board.
- ◆ "bigger that / bigger of" (Spanish que, Portuguese do que, Italian di): model than many times. And "the biggest of the world" → in the world (Spanish, Portuguese, French, Italian).
- ◆ "He is tall than me" / "He than me tall" (Chinese 比 bǐ, Japanese yori, Korean boda): the adjective doesn't change in these languages. Look for the missing -er.
- ◆ "It is most expensive" / "biggest city" (no the): Arabic, Russian, Chinese, Japanese, Korean and many other speakers drop the article. Keep pointing at the.
- ◆ than / then spelling mix-up (all learners, and many native speakers). "dan / zan" for /ð/ (Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic, French, Russian). Let the sound go in fluency work.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 2.1: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_04.html. Listen to the model sentences and the restaurant dialogue with  and say them out loud. Do the online Exercises 1–3. Workbook 2.1: finish Ex 5, the "Compare three things" plan, "My new words" and the journal (4 sentences comparing three places, foods or phones).

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B This car is faster than mine. · Q2 B the most expensive · Q3 (new) C This is the worst day of my life.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ sort nouns into countable (eggs, apples) and uncountable (rice, milk, bread, money) and count uncountables with containers (a bottle of water, a bag of rice)
- ◆ use some in positives and offers, any in negatives and questions
- ◆ use many (countable) and much (uncountable) in questions and negatives, and a lot of in positives
- ◆ use a few (countable) and a little (uncountable) for small amounts
- ◆ ask How many...? and How much...? to find out what is in a kitchen and make a shopping list

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 2.2 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–6, dialogue, shopping list)
- ◆ Slides 10–14 · Food flashcards · Countable/uncountable sort cards (1 set per group of 3) · Kitchen-cupboard information gap A/B (1 per pair) · optional realia bag
- ◆ Listening scripts 2.2-A (At the shop) and 2.2-B (C or U? dictation)

BOARD PLAN

Left: two columns. C (1, 2, 3 ✓): an egg · three eggs · apples · bananas · bottles. U (1, 2, 3 ✗): rice · milk · water · bread · money · sugar. Under U: a bottle of water · a bag of rice · a loaf of bread.

Center: (+) some · (–) any · (?) any · (offer) Would you like some tea?

Right: a matching table. C: How many? · not many · a few. U: How much? · not much · a little. Both (+): a lot of.

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: this or that?	7	S–S	Review C4. Hold up two flashcards at a time: tea or coffee? summer or winter? bus or train? Pairs give an opinion with a reason: "Tea is better than coffee. It's cheaper and healthier." Then 2–3 learners say one superlative about the class quiz or the cities. Check the homework journal.
Lead-in: my bag	5	T–S	Take things out of a bag (real or on slide 10): two apples, a bottle of water, a packet of rice. "How many apples? Two. How much rice? ...I can't count rice!" Learners laugh. That is the idea of the class.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Vocabulary + C/U sort	10	T-S → S-S	Slide 10 + food flashcards: quick A1 review (apple, egg, rice, bread, milk, cheese, sugar, water, coffee, banana, tomato, money). Then groups of 3 get the sort cards and sort them into C and U. Check with the board. Surprise cards: bread, money, furniture, information, homework are U.
Grammar 1: some / any (review)	8	T-S	Slide 11. A1 review: some (+), any (- and ?). New: some in offers and requests ("Would you like some tea?" "Can I have some water?"). CCQs. Quick drill: T says a sentence in (+), learners make it (-) and (?).
Grammar 2: much / many / a lot of / a few / a little	15	T-S	Slide 12. Meaning, form, pronunciation (notes below). Build the matching table: C words on one side, U words on the other. Then How many...? / How much...? and the A1 price question "How much is it?" CCQs. Drill.
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1-5 alone, then check in pairs. Literacy-support learners do Ex 1 and Ex 2 with the sort cards in front of them.
Listening: at the shop	7	T-S → S-S	Slide 13. Workbook Ex 6. Read Script 2.2-A twice. Learners tick what the shopper buys and write how much / how many. Check. Pairs read the dialogue and change the food and the numbers.
Freer: kitchen-cupboard information gap + shopping list	18	S-S	(1) 12 min: A and B have the same kitchen, but different things are missing on each card. They ask "Is there any milk?" "How much rice is there?" "How many eggs are there?" and answer with a lot of / a few / a little / not any . They write the answers. (2) 6 min: pairs choose one meal on the card and write a shopping list: "We need a few tomatoes and some cheese. We don't need any rice." ICQs first.
Feedback	5	T-S	Board: 4 heard sentences. Focus on "How much eggs?", "a rice," "some breads," "I have much friends." Learners fix them.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 2.2; workbook shopping-list journal. Optional: Script 2.2-B as a 3-minute dictation if you have time; otherwise use it as the C6 warmer.
Total	90		7 + 5 + 10 + 8 + 15 + 10 + 7 + 18 + 5 + 5

Meaning. Countable = you can say "one, two, three." Uncountable = liquids, powders, materials and ideas: no "one, two." A lot of = a big amount. A few / a little = a small amount, but enough.

SAY: "Rice." Can I say "one rice, two rices"? (No.) So it is...? (Uncountable.) How do I count it? ("A bag of rice, two bags of rice.")

SAY: "How many eggs?" Can I count eggs? (Yes.) "How much milk?" Can I count milk? (No.) Which word goes with countable: much or many? (Many.)

SAY: "I have a little money." Do I have a lot? (No.) Do I have zero? (No. I have some, not much.) "A few friends": can I count them? (Yes.)

SAY: "Would you like some tea?" Is this a question? (Yes.) Why not "any"? (It's an offer. We think the answer is yes.)

Form.

	Countable (plural)	Uncountable
(+) big amount	a lot of eggs	a lot of rice
(-) / (?)	not many eggs · How many eggs?	not much rice · How much rice?
small amount	a few eggs	a little rice
some / any	some eggs · any eggs?	some rice · any rice?
zero	There aren't any eggs.	There isn't any rice.

Pronunciation. a lot of is one fast chunk: "a-LOT-uh" /ə'lɑ:rən/, with an American flap t (like a quick d). Some is usually weak /səm/: "I have s'm milk." A few eggs links: "a-fyoo-weggs." A little: "a-LID-l" (American flap t). Stress the question word in "How MUCH?" / "How MAny?". Check the /s/ or /z/ at the end of plurals: eggs, apples, tomatoes.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- C or U? T holds up a flashcard: "Rice." → S (together): "Uncountable! How much rice?" T: "Eggs." → S: "Countable! How many eggs?" Speed up.
- Big or small? T: "Eggs, big amount." → S: "a lot of eggs." T: "Milk, small amount." → S: "a little milk." T: "Tomatoes, small." → S: "a few tomatoes."
- Transformation: T: "There's some cheese." (shake head) → S: "There isn't any cheese." (question face) → S: "Is there any cheese?"

- 4 Open pairs: S1: "How much water is there?" (points at a bottle) → S2: "There's a little water." Then closed pairs with the sort cards, 1 minute.

◆ KITCHEN-CUPBOARD INFORMATION GAP – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ A and B sit face to face and do not show the cards. Both cards show the same 16 kitchen items. On A's card, 8 items have an amount and 8 have a ?. B's card is the opposite.
- ◆ Model on slide 14 with a strong learner: "Is there any milk?" → "Yes, there's a little milk." · "How many eggs are there?" → "There are a lot of eggs. Twelve!" · "Are there any bananas?" → "No, there aren't any."
- ◆ Learners write the amount under each "?" item (a number, a word or ✕). Then they compare cards to check.
- ◆ Part 2: choose one meal (pancakes, chicken and rice, or a salad) from the recipe box and write what you need to buy. Report: "For the pancakes, we need some milk and a few eggs. We have a lot of sugar."

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE KITCHEN INFORMATION GAP

SAY: Do you show your card? (No.) · For eggs, do you ask "How much" or "How many"? (How many.) · For rice? (How much.) · What do you write? (The amount.) · Is it your real kitchen? (No, it's the card kitchen.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

The sort cards have pictures: learners sort physically and say "How many... / How much...?" Color-code: countable cards and many / a few in one color, uncountable and much / a little in another. In the info gap, the learner answers with a number or a hand sign (a lot / a little) and the partner writes. In the workbook, do Ex 1, 2 and 5 only.

STRETCH

Add containers to the shopping list ("two bottles of milk, a kilo of rice"). Teach not enough / too much receptively. Early finishers write the dialogue for a phone call: "Can you buy some...? How many...?" Ask them for any in a negative with no: "There's no milk" = "There isn't any milk."

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "a bread," "breads," "informations," "furnitures," "moneys," "advices" (Spanish, Portuguese, French, Italian, Russian, Arabic): these words are countable in many languages. Keep a "surprise U" list on the board all class.
- ◆ "How much eggs?" (Chinese duōshǎo 多少, Japanese ikutsu / dore kurai, Vietnamese bao nhiêu, Tagalog ilan / magkano are sorted differently): check with "Can you count it?"

- ◆ "I have much friends / much money" (Spanish mucho, Portuguese muito): correct to a lot of in positives.
- ◆ "There is milk?" / "Have milk?" with no any or no verb (Chinese, Vietnamese, Russian, Tagalog "May gatas?"). Recast: "Is there any milk?"
- ◆ Missing plural -s: "three egg, a few tomato" (Vietnamese, Chinese, Japanese, Korean, Thai, where plurals aren't marked). Listen for the final /s/ /z/.
- ◆ "I don't have no money" (Spanish no tengo nada, Portuguese, Russian double negatives). One negative: "I don't have any money."

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 2.2: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_05.html. Listen to the shop dialogue with 🎧 and read it out loud as the shopper. Do the online Exercises 1–3. Workbook 2.2: the shopping list, "My new words" and the journal (a meal you like: what you need and what you don't need). The kitchen can be real or imagined.

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B We don't have any bread. · Q2 A many · Q3 (new) B I take a little milk in my coffee.

◆ OBJECTIVES – LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ use always, usually, often, sometimes, hardly ever, never in the right place: before the main verb, after be
- ◆ ask How often...? and answer with once a week, twice a month, three times a day, every morning
- ◆ make adverbs of manner with -ly (quickly, carefully, easily, simply) and put them after the verb or verb + object
- ◆ use well, fast, hard and choose good (adjective) or well (adverb)
- ◆ describe their week and how they do things in 6+ sentences

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 2.3 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–6, dialogue, "My habits")
- ◆ Slides 15–17 · Adverb flashcards + frequency cards (0%–100%) · How often? survey (1 per learner) · Adverb mime game cards (1 set per group of 4–5) · new identity habit cards
- ◆ Listening scripts 2.3-A (How often do you cook?) and 2.3-B (Where does it go? listen and stand)

BOARD PLAN

Left: a line from 100% to 0%: always · usually · often · sometimes · hardly ever · never. Under it: I always drink coffee. (before the main verb) · I am always tired. (after be)

Center: How often do you...? → once a week (1×) · twice a month (2×) · three times a day (3×) · every day. (These go at the end.)

Right: quick → quickly · careful → carefully · easy → easily · simple → simply · good → well · fast → fast · hard → hard. She is a good singer. = She sings well.

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: what's in the bag?	7	T-S → S-S	Review C5. Read Script 2.2-B (C or U? dictation) or play "My shopping bag" as a chain: S1: "In my bag there's some rice." S2: "In my bag there's some rice and a few apples." S3 adds one more... Correct a / some / a few / a little .
Lead-in: how often?	4	T-S	"I drink coffee every day. I go to the movies... once a year! How often do you drink coffee?" Elicit A1 words (always, sometimes, never). Put the 0–100% line on the board and let learners place them.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Grammar 1: frequency adverbs + position	10	T-S	Slide 15. A1 review of the words + the new word hardly ever . The key rule: before the main verb, after be . Then never = one negative only. CCQs. Drill (below).
How often...? + once / twice	7	T-S → S-S	Slide 15. once, twice, three times + a + day / week / month / year . They go at the end. Drill "How often do you...?" with flashcards. Then Script 2.3-A + Workbook Ex 4 (listen and complete).
Survey: How often do you...?	10	S-S (mingle)	Learners stand up with the How often? survey. Ask 4 classmates 2 questions each and write short answers. Report with -s and an adverb: "Ana hardly ever eats fast food. Jun cooks every day." New identity habit cards available. ICQs first.
Grammar 2: adverbs of manner	14	T-S	Slide 16. Mime to elicit: walk quickly, walk slowly, speak quietly. Meaning, form (-ly and spelling), position (after the verb + object), well / fast / hard, good vs well, hard vs hardly . CCQs. Drill.
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1, 2, 3 and 5 alone, then check in pairs. Script 2.3-B (listen and stand) as a quick whole-class check of word order if needed.
Freer: adverb mime game	13	S-S (groups)	Slide 17. Groups of 4-5 with one set of action cards and adverb cards, face down. One learner takes one card of each and mimes it: eat a sandwich + nervously . The group guesses in the present continuous (A1 4.2): "You're eating a sandwich nervously!" First correct guess wins the card. Then play "In the manner of the word" as a class (see below). Nobody has to stand up: miming at a desk is fine.
Module wrap- up	5	S-S	"My habits" project in pairs: 3 sentences with frequency adverbs + 3 with manner adverbs (Workbook speaking box). Then learners tick the three "I can..." lists for Module 2.
Feedback	5	T-S	Board: 4 heard sentences, e.g. "I drink always coffee." "She sings very good." "He runs fastly." "I don't never cook." Learners fix them.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 2.3; workbook journal. Preview C7: "Next class: plans. What are you going to do this weekend?"

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Total	90		7 + 4 + 10 + 7 + 10 + 14 + 10 + 13 + 5 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

Do the survey with only 2 classmates (5 min). Skip "In the manner of the word" and play only the card version. Never cut the mime game: it makes the manner adverbs memorable, and it is the class's favorite part.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Frequency — meaning. How often = how many times. Point at the percentage line.

SAY: "I hardly ever watch TV." Do I watch TV a lot? (No.) Never? (Not never. Maybe one time in a month.) Is it closer to "sometimes" or to "never"? (Never.)

SAY: "She is usually late." What is the verb? ("is.") Where is "usually": before or after "is"? (After.) "She usually gets up early." Before or after "gets"? (Before.)

Manner — meaning. A manner adverb answers how? An adjective describes a thing or person; an adverb describes an action.

SAY: "She drives carefully." Is she fast and dangerous? (No.) Does she look at the road? (Yes.) Does "carefully" tell us about her or about her driving? (Her driving.)

SAY: "He's a good cook." "He cooks well." Same meaning? (Yes.) Which word goes with the noun "cook"? (Good.) Which word goes with the verb "cooks"? (Well.)

SAY: "I work hard." Do I work a lot, with effort? (Yes.) "I hardly work." Do I work a lot? (No! Almost not.)

Form.

main verb	subject + adverb + verb	She usually walks to work.
be	subject + be + adverb	They are never late.
helper verb	after the first helper	I can never remember. • Do you usually walk?
How often?	once / twice / three times + a + period (at the end)	I go to the gym twice a week .
manner	adjective + -ly (after the verb or verb + object)	He speaks English slowly . ❌ He speaks slowly English.

spelling	-y → -ily · -le → -ly	easy → easily · happy → happily · simple → simply · terrible → terribly irregular	good → well · fast → fast · hard → hard	She sings well. He runs fast. They work hard.

Pronunciation. The stress stays on the adjective part: CAREfully, QUICKly, HAPpily, EASily. Usually has 3–4 syllables: "YOO-zhoo-uh-lee" /'ju:zuəli/: drill it slowly. Often: most Americans say "OFF-en" with a silent t; "off-ten" is also correct. Once = "wunts" /wʌns/ (the spelling surprises learners). Hardly ever links: "hard-lee-YEV-er."

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- Frequency cards: hold up a % card. T: "Drink coffee... 100%." → S: "I always drink coffee." T: "Be late... 0%." → S: "I'm never late." Mix be and main verbs so learners have to think about the position.
- Move the adverb: T: "She walks to work. (usually)" → S: "She usually walks to work." T: "They are tired. (often)" → S: "They are often tired."
- How often? chain: S1: "How often do you cook?" → S2: "Three times a week. How often do you exercise?" → S3...
- Adjective → adverb with mime: T: "quick" (mime running) → S: "quickly." T: "careful" → "carefully." T: "good" → "well!" Then full sentences: T: "She's a careful driver." → S: "She drives carefully."

◆ ADVERB MIME GAME – HOW TO RUN IT

- Card version (groups of 4–5): put the 15 action cards and the 12 adverb cards face down in two piles. S1 takes one of each and mimes. The group guesses: "You're drinking coffee... happily!" The first learner to say both the action and the adverb keeps the cards. Then that learner mimes next.
- Ask for the full sentence before the point counts: "You're driving a car carefully." A guess with the adjective ("You're driving careful") = no point until someone fixes it.
- "In the manner of the word" (whole class): one volunteer goes outside the door. The class chooses an adverb card (e.g. loudly). The volunteer comes back and gives commands: "Anna, open the door in the manner of the word." "Everybody, say hello in the manner of the word." The class does it. The volunteer guesses the adverb (3 guesses).
- Consent first: nobody has to mime alone. A learner can mime with a partner, or be the "guesser" only. Leave out angrily if someone in the group looks uncomfortable.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE MIME GAME

SAY: How many cards do you take? (Two: one action, one adverb.) · Do you speak when you mime? (No!) · What does the group say? ("You're ...ing ...ly!") · Do you have to stand up? (No. You can mime at your desk.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

The frequency cards use percentages and icons (●●●●, ●●○○, ○○○○). Learners hold up a card to answer "How often...?" before they say the word. The action cards have pictures. In the workbook, do Ex 1 (first 3 items), Ex 2 and Ex 3. In the project, 4 sentences is a success.

STRETCH

Add very / really / quite ("She speaks really quickly"). Start sentences with Sometimes / Usually for emphasis, but never with always / never. Early finishers write a short "My week" paragraph with 3 frequency and 3 manner adverbs, then underline and check each position.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I drink always coffee" / "She speaks very well English" (Spanish, Portuguese, French, Italian, German, Dutch put the adverb after the verb, and let it go between the verb and the object). Model: verb + object stay together.
- ◆ "I don't never cook" (Spanish no... nunca, Portuguese não... nunca, Russian никогда не, Italian): the double negative is correct in these languages. In English, never is enough.
- ◆ "one time a week / two times a day" (Spanish una vez, Portuguese uma vez, Tagalog isang beses, Chinese 一次): understandable. Teach once / twice as the natural form.
- ◆ "She sings good" (German gut, Dutch, and in very informal American speech too). Correct gently: "She sings well." Mention that people sometimes say "It's going good," but well is standard.
- ◆ "fastly" / "hardly" for effort (all learners). "I work hardly" means the opposite of what they want!
- ◆ Verb with no -s after the adverb: "She usually walk to work" (Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai, and anyone focused on the new word). Recycle the A1 he/she -s.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 2.3: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_06.html. Listen to the dialogue and the model sentences with 🎧 and say them out loud. Do the online Exercises 1–3. Workbook 2.3: Ex 6, "My new words" and the journal (4 true sentences about your week: 2 with frequency adverbs, 2 with manner adverbs). Underline each adverb and check its position.

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B I am always busy in the morning. · Q2 A well · Q3 (new) C I hardly ever go to the gym.

CLOSING THE MODULE

END OF C6: MODULE 2 WRAP-UP

Recap on slide 18: cheaper than · the best → some, any, a few, a little → usually, twice a week, carefully, well. Learners tick the three "I can..." lists in the workbook. Anything still unticked goes on a sticky note for you. Review it in the C7 warmer and again in the C13 catch-up.

Watch for in Module 3: Module 3 is about the future (going to, plans). Frequency adverbs will come back ("I usually... but next week I'm going to..."). Keep a quick "C or U?" moment in warmers until C13: learners keep saying "a bread" and "informations" for a long time. That is normal.

Progress Test 1 (C13) covers Modules 1–4. From this module it tests: comparatives and superlatives (-er / more, -est / the most, spelling, better / best, worse / worst, than / the), countable and uncountable nouns, some / any, much / many / a lot of, a few / a little, How much / How many, frequency adverb position, How often...? once / twice, -ly adverbs and good vs well.

Module 3 — Talking About the Future

Three classes that give learners the whole future toolkit of A2. First comes going to for plans and for predictions you can see coming. Then will and might for guesses, quick decisions, offers and promises. Last, the present continuous for arrangements in your calendar, plus Let's... / Why don't we...? / How about...? to make plans with other people.

3 lessons

Lessons 3.1–3.3

Classes C7–C9

Weeks 4–5

90 min per class

CEFR A2

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- One lesson block = one 90-minute class. Every class follows the same shape: warmer → lead-in → Meaning / Form / Pronunciation with concept-checking questions (CCQs) → drill (choral, then individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (pairs, groups, mingle) → feedback with delayed error correction → homework.
- The stage plan is your clock. Each one adds up to 90 minutes. The numbers in the Time column are minutes.
- Present from slides/module-3-the-future.html. Print materials/module-3/classroom-materials.html before C7. It holds the flashcards, the plans mingle (Find Someone Who), the quick-decision cards, the Crystal Ball / Weather Forecaster game, the calendar information gap, the "future identity" cards and the listening scripts.
- The online lessons are the learners' homework and review. Each one has  Listen buttons, so learners can hear the model sentences and dialogues again at home.
- This is extension, not a first meeting. A1 Lesson 6.3 already introduced going to, the present continuous for plans and Let's.... Many learners will recognize the forms. Check what they know in the lead-in and move faster where they are strong. The new A2 work is the choice between the three futures, evidence predictions, will / might, and polite suggestions and replies.
- American English throughout. The online lessons and this kit both use American English (movie, the movies, apartment, mom, move, practice). Lesson 3.3 still teaches Shall we...? as one of four suggestion patterns and notes that Americans more often say Should we...?; teach Should we...? next to it. Accept British forms when learners use them (film, cinema, flat, mum, move house).
- Dashed boxes = lines to say out loud, CCQs and ICQs (instruction-checking questions). Green boxes = scripts you read aloud. Amber = watch-outs.

THE THROUGH-LINE

My plans → my guesses → our plans. In C7 learners talk about their own plans and intentions (I'm going to...) and predict from what they can see (It's going to rain). In C8 they predict what they think or are not sure about (will / won't / might) and make decisions on the spot (I'll get it!). In C9 they make plans with another person: they suggest, accept or decline politely, find a free time in two calendars, and confirm the arrangement (So we're meeting on Thursday at seven.). The end of every class is the same freer task in a new form: share real (or imagined) plans with a partner.

TRAUMA-INFORMED: THE FUTURE IS NOT EASY FOR EVERYONE

For some adult learners the future is uncertain or painful: a visa or asylum decision, a job search, family far away, temporary housing. Never ask "Are you going to stay in this country?", "Where will you live next year?" or "When will you see your family?" Keep tasks to small, everyday plans (this weekend, tonight, next week) and to light predictions (the weather, sports, the class, technology). For every personal task offer three choices out loud: your real plans, a "future identity" card (in the classroom materials), or a dream / imagined future. Anyone can say "Pass!" in the prediction game. Say it every time, so choosing a card is normal and not a sign that something is wrong.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- ◆ Print the picture flashcards (one set for the board): weekend activities, time expressions, weather and the certainty cards. Card stock helps. Cut them before C7.
- ◆ Print one Plans Mingle (Find Someone Who) sheet per learner for C7.
- ◆ For C8: one set of quick-decision cards per pair and one Crystal Ball / Weather Forecaster set per group of 3–4. Bring one die per group (or use a free dice app on a phone). Cut the cards.
- ◆ For C9: one calendar information gap page per pair (cut A from B) and one blank calendar per learner for round 2.
- ◆ Print the future identity cards and keep them on a side table where anyone can take one without asking.
- ◆ Bring a real paper calendar or a calendar / planner (or show your phone calendar on screen) for the C9 lead-in. A toy phone or a real phone for the "The phone's ringing!" demo in C8 is fun.

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
3.1	C7 • wk 4	be going to + base verb (+ / - / ? / short answers / Wh-), plans vs predictions from evidence, future time expressions, next vs in	describe their plans for next weekend or this year in 6+ sentences, and ask "What are you going to do...?"
3.2	C8 • wk 4	will / won't for predictions, instant decisions, offers and promises; might / might not for possibility; Will you...? ; will vs going to (light)	make 6+ predictions with will / won't / might , and react to a situation with a quick decision or offer ("I'll get it!")
3.3	C9 • wk 5	Present continuous for arrangements; now vs future (the time word decides); Let's / Why don't we / Shall we + base verb, How about + -ing; Would you like to...? ; accepting and declining politely	arrange to meet a friend: suggest, accept or decline with a reason, agree a day and time, and confirm the plan

3.1 · C7

"Going to" — Plans & Predictions

90 min

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ form be going to + base verb for every person, with short forms: I'm / she's / they're going to...
- ◆ make negatives (I'm not / isn't / aren't going to), yes/no questions with short answers (Yes, I am. / No, I'm not.) and Wh- questions (What are you going to do?)
- ◆ tell apart a plan (decided before now) and a prediction from evidence (Look at those clouds! It's going to rain.)
- ◆ use future time expressions: tonight, tomorrow, this weekend, next week / month / year, in the summer, in two days, soon, and choose next or in
- ◆ describe their plans for next weekend or this year in 6+ sentences

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 3.1 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "My plans" table)
- ◆ Slides 3–8 · Picture flashcards (weekend activities + time expressions) · Plans Mingle sheet (1 per learner) · Future identity cards
- ◆ Listening scripts 3.1-A (Nadia's weekend) and 3.1-B (What's going to happen?)

BOARD PLAN

Left: a time line with an arrow: NOW → tonight → tomorrow → this weekend → next week → next month → next year. Under it: next Monday / in two days.

Center: I'm going to visit my sister. · She's going to start a new job. · They aren't going to travel. · Are you going to cook? → Yes, I am. / No, I'm not. · What are you going to do?

Right: two boxes. 🧠 PLAN (I decided): "I'm going to study tonight." · 👁️ EVIDENCE (I can see it): "Look at the clouds! It's going to rain."

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: how often?	8	S–S	Review C6 (2.3, adverbs of frequency and manner). Pairs ask 4 questions: "How often do you cook? ... Do you drive carefully?" and answer with always / usually / sometimes / never and an adverb of manner. Two pairs report one surprising answer.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Lead-in: my weekend	7	T-S	Show 4 flashcards of your weekend plans (e.g. market, cook, park, visit family). "Guess! What am I going to do this weekend?" Learners guess ("You're going to..."); you say yes / no. Ask: "Do you know this from A1?" Most will. Write two correct guesses on the board. No grammar talk yet.
Time expressions + next / in	10	T-S → S	Slide 4. Build the time line on the board with the word-only flashcards. Drill each expression (stress: toNIGHT , toMORrow , this WEEKend , next WEEK). Then next vs in : "next Monday" (a name of a time) vs "in two days" (count forward from now). Quick-fire: T says "Monday / two weeks / summer / an hour / year"; learners say "next Monday / in two weeks / next summer / in an hour / next year."
Grammar: be going to	15	T-S	Slides 5–6. Meaning (plans), form (the be verb changes; going to + base verb stays), negatives, questions and short answers, then the second use: prediction from evidence. CCQs and drill (see notes). Learners copy the grammar box into their workbook if they want to, or just point to it.
Listening: Nadia's weekend	8	T-S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1. Read Script 3.1-A twice. Learners tick ✓ (going to) or ✗ (not going to). Pairs compare, then say it: "She's going to visit her aunt. She isn't going to clean the house."
Evidence predictions	8	T-S	Read Script 3.1-B (six short situations) or act them out: hold a cup at the edge of your desk, look worried, run late with a bag. Learners call out the prediction: "It's going to fall!" "You're going to be late!" Then Workbook Ex 4 (plan or prediction?).
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 2, 3 and 5 alone, then check in pairs. Board-check only the items pairs disagree on. Early finishers start the "My plans" table.
Freer: Plans Mingle	14	S-S (mingle) → T-S	Slide 8. (1) Each learner writes 3 of their own plans in the "My plans" table (real, a future identity card, or imagined) (3 min). (2) Mingle with the Find Someone Who sheet: "Are you going to... this weekend?" If yes, write the name and ask the extra question (7 min). (3) Sit down. Four learners report with he/she: "Ana is going to visit her family next month. She's going to take the bus." (4 min). ICQs first.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed error correction: write 4 sentences you heard (2 good, 2 with errors, no names): "I going to travel." · "She's going to studying." Learners fix them together. Praise one good plan from each part of the room.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Show online lesson 3.1 on screen; point at a  button. Set the homework (below). Learners tick the "I can..." box in the workbook.
Total	90		8 + 7 + 10 + 15 + 8 + 8 + 10 + 14 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING · FORM · PRONUNCIATION

Meaning 1: plans and intentions. A decision made before now. The person has the plan in their head.

SAY: "I'm going to visit my sister this weekend." Is this now or the future? (The future.) Did I decide now, or before? (Before.) Is it a plan? (Yes.) Am I sure? (Yes, it's my plan.)

Meaning 2: prediction from evidence. We can see something now, so we know what will happen.

SAY: (Point at the cloud picture on slide 6.) "Look at those clouds! It's going to rain." Is it raining now? (No.) Can I see something? (Yes, black clouds.) Did I plan the rain? (No! I can see it coming.)

SAY: "She isn't going to come." Is she coming? (No.) "Are you going to cook tonight?" Can you answer "Yes, I'm"? (No. "Yes, I am.")

Form. Color the be verb in one color and going to + base verb in another. Only the be part changes.

Positive	subject + am / is / are + going to + base verb	I'm going to cook. · She's going to study. · We're going to travel.
Negative	subject + 'm not / isn't / aren't + going to + base verb	He isn't going to come. · They aren't going to wait.
Question	Am / Is / Are + subject + going to + base verb...?	Are you going to come? — Yes, I am. / No, I'm not.

Wh-question	Wh- + am / is / are + subject + going to...?	What are you going to do? · Where is she going to go?
Time	next + time name · in + amount of time	next Monday, next year · in two days, in an hour

Pronunciation. In natural speech to is weak: /tə/, and the stress falls on the main verb and the time: "I'm going to VISit my SISter this WEEKend." Model the relaxed form. Learners will hear "gonna" /ˈɡʌnə/ in real life; teach it for listening only. In writing, always going to. Yes/no questions rise at the end ("Are you going to COOK? ↗"); Wh- questions fall ("What are you going to DO? ↘"). Short yes answers are full and stressed: "Yes, I AM." (never "Yes, I'm.")

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Back-chain: "this weekend" → "visit my sister this weekend" → "going to visit my sister this weekend" → "I'm going to visit my sister this weekend." Choral ×3, half the room, then 4–5 individuals.
- 2 Person substitution (point at a learner, a pair, yourself): T: "She... cook dinner" → S: "She's going to cook dinner." T: "They... travel" → S: "They're going to travel." T: "I... study" → S: "I'm going to study."
- 3 Negative transformation: T: "I'm going to work tomorrow." (shake head) → S: "I'm not going to work tomorrow." T: "He's going to come." → S: "He isn't going to come."
- 4 Evidence prompts: hold up a flashcard or act: umbrella + dark sky → "It's going to rain." · a learner yawning → "He's going to sleep!" · a cup at the edge of the desk → "It's going to fall!"
- 5 Open pairs → closed pairs: S1 asks S2 across the room: "What are you going to do this weekend?" → S2: "I'm going to..." → S2 asks S3... Then all pairs, 1 minute.

◆ PLANS MINGLE – HOW TO RUN IT

- Everyone stands with the sheet and a pen. Model with a strong learner first: "Are you going to cook something special this weekend?" — "Yes, I am." → write the name → extra question: "What are you going to cook?"
- One name per box. Ask each person only 1–2 questions, then move on. A "No, I'm not." is fine: say "OK, thanks!" and ask someone else.
- The sheet has two parts: this weekend and this year / next year. Everyone must get at least 2 names in each part.
- Learners with a future identity card answer as their card person. Nobody has to explain why.
- Report back with he/she (this recycles the he/she forms of the be verb): "Omar is going to learn to drive next year."

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE MINGLE

SAY: Do you stay in your seat or walk around? (Walk around.) · What is the first word of your question? ("Are.") · If the answer is "Yes, I am," what do you do? (Write the name and ask the extra question.) · How many names in each part? (At least two.) · Can you use a future identity card? (Yes.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Work only with I'm going to and I'm not going to + the flashcard phrases. In the mingle, give a sheet where the questions are already fully written ("Are you going to...?") and learners only write a ✓ and the first letter of the name, or draw a small face. Target: 4 spoken sentences about their plans, with pictures from the flashcards as prompts.

STRETCH

Add a reason with because ("I'm going to learn to drive because I want a new job."). Use two time expressions in one plan ("next month, on the weekend"). In the report stage, compare: "Ana and I are both going to travel, but she's going to go by bus." Early finishers write 3 evidence predictions about the classroom right now.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I going to travel" (no be): Arabic, Russian, Chinese, Vietnamese and Haitian Creole speakers (no "be" in present sentences). Point at the be color on the board every time: "I'm going to...".
- ◆ "I go to travel" / "I'm going to traveling": Spanish voy a viajar, Portuguese vou viajar, French je vais voyager map word for word. Also "going to to go." Drill: "going to + plain verb."
- ◆ Present simple for a plan: "Tomorrow I visit my aunt." (Spanish, German, Russian, Chinese, Japanese: the present can mean the future). It is understood; recast with going to.
- ◆ "the next week" / "in the next Monday" / "next two days": Spanish la próxima semana, French la semaine prochaine. Teach "next week" with no the, and in + an amount of time.
- ◆ "Is you going to...?" / "You are going to come?" (no inversion; Spanish, Portuguese, French, Russian use intonation only). Accept for meaning, then recast: "Are you going to come?"

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 3.1: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_07.html. Listen to the model sentences and the weekend dialogue with 🎧 and say them out loud. Do the online exercises and the Quick Quiz. Workbook 3.1: finish Ex 5 ("My plans," 6 sentences), "My new words" and the journal (3 true plans for next week + 1 prediction from something you can see).

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B She's going to study tonight. · Q2 A Are ... not · Q3 (new) B in two weeks. Nadia's weekend (Ex 1): ✓ visit her aunt, see a movie, cook, go to bed early · ✗ clean the house, go shopping, drive, work.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ use will / 'll / won't + base verb (the same for every person) to make predictions and give opinions: I think it'll be sunny.
- ◆ make an instant decision, an offer or a promise with I'll...: The phone's ringing. — I'll get it!
- ◆ use might / might not + base verb when they are not sure: I might go to the party.
- ◆ ask Will you...? and answer Yes, I will. / No, I won't.
- ◆ feel the difference: plan → going to; decision now or opinion → will; not sure → might

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 3.2 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "My 6 predictions")
- ◆ Slides 9–13 · Weather flashcards + the five certainty cards (will ✓✓ → won't) · Quick-decision cards (1 set per pair) · Crystal Ball / Weather Forecaster game (1 set per group of 3–4) + 1 die per group · a phone (real or toy)
- ◆ Listening scripts 3.2-A (the weekend weather forecast) and 3.2-B (sure or not sure?)

BOARD PLAN

Left: a certainty line: 100% will → probably will → 50% might → probably won't → 0% won't. Weather icons ☀️ ☁️ ☔️ above it.

Center: I / you / he / she / we / they + will ('ll) + base verb · won't = will not · might (not) + base verb ·

Will you be there? → Yes, I will. / No, I won't.

Right: three uses of will: 🎱 prediction ("I think it'll rain.") · ⚡ decision now ("The phone's ringing." "I'll get it!") · 🤝 offer / promise ("I'll carry it." "I won't forget.")

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: guess my plan	8	S-S (groups)	Review C7. In groups, one learner mimes a plan (pack a bag, cook, paint a wall). The others guess with a question: "Are you going to travel?" — "Yes, I am! / No, I'm not." Then 2–3 volunteers read one plan from their homework journal.
Lead-in: the weather forecast	8	T-S → S	Slide 9. Weather flashcards: elicit and drill sunny, rainy, cloudy, windy, snowy, hot, cold . Then read Script 3.2-A (the weekend weather forecast) twice. Learners complete

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
			Workbook Ex 1 (the weather for Friday–Monday + sure or not sure).
Grammar: will / won't / might	14	T–S	Slide 10. Use the forecast: "It will be sunny on Friday. It won't rain. It might snow on Monday." Stick the certainty cards on the board line. Meaning, form (no -s, no to, same for everyone), questions and short answers. CCQs and drill (below). Then Script 3.2-B : learners hold up the right certainty card.
Pronunciation: 'll & won't	7	T–S	I'll, you'll, it'll, we'll (a dark l, tongue up). Then the big one: won't /wʊnt/ vs want /want/. Minimal-pair game: T says "I won't go / I want to go"; learners show 👎 (won't) or 👍 (want). Then learners test each other in pairs.
Quick decisions & offers	14	T–S → S–S	Slide 11. Demo: your phone rings on the desk. "The phone's ringing!" Look at a learner and elicit: "I'll get it!" Do 3 more live (drop your pens, "It's cold in here," a heavy bag). CCQs. Then pairs use the quick-decision cards : A reads the situation, B answers at once with "I'll...". Swap after 6 cards. Add promises: A says "Don't forget!" / "Call me!" → B: "I won't. / I will, I promise."
Will or going to?	5	T–S	Slide 12. Two sentences side by side: "I'm going to paint my room this weekend." (plan, decided yesterday) · "You dropped your pen. I'll pick it up." (decision now). CCQs. Keep it light: "Both are often OK. Plan → going to. Now → will."
Controlled practice	10	S → S–S	Workbook Ex 2–5 alone, then check in pairs. Go through only the items pairs disagree on (usually Ex 5).
Freer: Crystal Ball game	14	S–S (groups)	Slide 13. Groups of 3–4 choose a deck: Crystal Ball (life, the class, the world) or Weather Forecaster . A player takes a card and rolls the die: 1–2 = won't, 3–4 = might, 5–6 = will. They make a prediction with that word and one reason. The group reacts: "I agree!" / "I don't think so. I think it'll...". Rules on the card sheet. ICQs first.
Feedback	5	T–S	Board: 4 heard sentences, e.g. "She will comes." · "I will to help you." · "Maybe I go." · "I'm going to get it!" (for a phone ringing: correct, but I'll is more natural). Learners fix them.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 3.2; workbook "My 6 predictions" and the journal (my life in five years: one will, one won't, one might, or a dream future).
Total	90		8 + 8 + 14 + 7 + 14 + 5 + 10 + 14 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

This is the busiest class (three uses of will + might). Keep "will vs going to" to the slide and the two CCQs; the workbook Ex 5 does the rest. Cut the second half of the quick-decision cards. Never cut the Crystal Ball game: it is where might becomes real.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning: prediction / opinion. What I think will happen. No plan, and often no evidence in front of me.

SAY: "I think our team will win." Do I know? (No, I think.) Is it a plan? (No.) Is it the future? (Yes.) · "It won't rain tomorrow." Rain tomorrow: yes or no? (No.) Am I sure? (Yes, quite sure.)

Meaning: might. Maybe. 50/50. Not sure.

SAY: "I might go to the party." Am I going to the party? (Maybe.) Is it a plan? (No, not yet.) Is "I might go" the same as "Maybe I'll go"? (Yes.) · "We might not come." Are they coming? (Maybe not.)

Meaning: instant decision / offer / promise. I decide at the moment of speaking.

SAY: (Phone rings.) "I'll get it!" Did I plan this yesterday? (No!) When did I decide? (Now.) · "That bag looks heavy. I'll carry it." Is this an offer? (Yes, I want to help.) · "I'll call you tomorrow, I promise." Is this a promise? (Yes.)

SAY: Will or going to: "I'm going to paint my room this weekend." Did I decide before or now? (Before. It's a plan.) · "Oh, you dropped your pen. I'll pick it up." Before or now? (Now.)

Form. Modal verbs never change: no -s, no to, no do. Learners who just worked hard on the he/she -s need to hear this clearly.

Positive	subject + will ('ll) + base verb	It'll be sunny. · She will come.
Negative	subject + won't (will not) + base verb	I won't forget. · They won't be late.
Possibility	subject + might / might not + base verb	I might go. · We might not have time.
Question	Will + subject + base verb...?	Will you be there? — Yes, I will. / No, I won't.

Wh- question	Wh- + will + subject + base verb...?	What will you do? · When will they arrive?
Softeners	I think... · I'm sure... · probably · maybe	I think it'll rain. · He'll probably be late.

Pronunciation. In speech we use 'll: /l/ /aɪ/, you'll /jʊl/, it'll /ɪtəl/ (two syllables), we'll /wɪl/. If learners drop the 'll completely ("I help you"), the future meaning is lost, so this matters. won't /woʊnt/ rhymes with don't; want /wɑnt/ has a different vowel. Mix-ups can reverse the meaning ("I won't go" / "I want to go"). might /maɪt/: say the final t. probably is often said "PROB-ly" in fast speech; accept both. Short answers: "Yes, I WILL." (never "Yes, I'll.") "No, I WON'T."

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Certainty drill (point at a card on the board line): T: "rain tomorrow" + 100% → S: "It'll rain tomorrow." + 50% → "It might rain tomorrow." + 0% → "It won't rain tomorrow." Choral, then individuals, then faster.
- 2 won't / want listen-and-show: "I won't eat." / "I want to eat." / "They won't come." / "They want to come." Learners show 🙅 or 🙆.
- 3 Quick-decision chain: T: "I'm thirsty." → S1: "I'll get you some water." → S1 to S2: "It's dark in here." → S2: "I'll turn on the lamp." → around the room.
- 4 Question and short answer, open pairs: S1: "Will you be here next class?" S2: "Yes, I will." S2 → S3: "Will it be sunny tomorrow?" S3: "I think it will. / It might."
- 5 Make it softer: T: "She will be late." → S: "She might be late." T: "We will travel next summer." → S: "We might travel next summer."

◆ CRYSTAL BALL GAME – HOW TO RUN IT

- Groups of 3–4, one card deck face down, one die. Put the certainty cards (won't / might / will) in the middle as a reminder.
- Player 1 takes a card ("the weather this weekend," "this class next month," "phones in 20 years") and rolls: 1–2 = won't, 3–4 = might, 5–6 = will. They make a prediction with that word and add a reason: "Phones won't have buttons in 20 years, because everything is touch now."
- The group reacts with one phrase: "I agree!" · "Maybe." · "I don't think so. I think..." The player who reacts best (clear, polite, with a reason) keeps the card. Most cards wins.
- "You" cards are about the person on your left, and must be kind and light ("You'll have a great weekend." "You might find a great recipe."). Any player can say "Pass!" and take a new card.
- Some learners are not comfortable with fortune-telling for cultural or religious reasons. The Weather Forecaster deck uses the same rules with weather maps and needs no crystal ball. Offer the choice without comment.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE QUICK-DECISION CARDS AND THE GAME

SAY: Quick decisions: Does B think for a long time? (No! Answer fast.) · What are the first words? ("I'll...") · Is it a plan from yesterday? (No, a decision now.)

SAY: Crystal Ball: What do you do first? (Take a card and roll the die.) · You roll a 3. Which word? (Might.) · A 6? (Will.) · A "you" card: a sad prediction or a kind one? (A kind one.) · Don't like a card? ("Pass!" and take a new card.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Focus on two uses: weather predictions and I'll... decisions. Use the picture certainty cards (✓✓ / ? / ✗) instead of the words. In the quick-decision round, the teacher or a partner reads the situation card aloud; the learner answers from the picture hint on the card. Target: 3 weather sentences (will / won't / might) and 3 quick decisions.

STRETCH

Use probably in the right place ("It'll probably rain." / "It probably won't rain."). Use I don't think... will (more natural than "I think... won't"). In the game, the reacting player must disagree with a reason. Early finishers write 3 predictions about their city in 20 years.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "She will comes" / "I will to help" / "He might to come": everyone, but especially learners who just drilled he/she -s, and learners whose L1 uses a full verb for "will" (French il viendra, Spanish vendrá). Chant: "will + plain verb."
- ◆ German and Dutch "will" = want: Ich will ein Kaffee → "I will a coffee" (meaning I want). Show the contrast: I want a coffee (now, a wish) / I'll have a coffee (a decision, ordering).
- ◆ won't / want confusion in sound: Spanish, Portuguese, Arabic, Chinese and Vietnamese speakers may say both as /wan/ or drop the final t. Vietnamese speakers also often drop the final t in might and won't. Use the 👍 / 👎 game.
- ◆ "Maybe I go to the party" instead of might (Arabic, Chinese, Korean, Tagalog baka / seguro). It is understood. Give the two correct options: "Maybe I'll go." / "I might go."
- ◆ Will for a plan: "I will visit my aunt on Sunday" for a fixed plan (Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, French, where the future tense does this job). Not wrong, just less natural. Gently offer I'm going to...
- ◆ "I think it won't rain" (direct translation for Russian, Spanish, Chinese and many others). Correct English, but "I don't think it'll rain" is more natural. Stretch only.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 3.2: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_08.html. Listen to the model sentences with 🎧 and say them; do the exercises and the Quick Quiz. Workbook 3.2: finish "My 6 predictions" (2 will, 2 won't, 2 might), "My new words" and the journal (my life in five years: real or a dream future).

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 A Will ... won't · Q2 B I'm going to go to the beach on Saturday. · Q3 (new) B I'll get it! Weather forecast (Ex 1): Fri sunny, sure (will) · Sat cloudy + might rain in the afternoon · Sun rainy and windy, sure (will) · Mon cold, might snow.

◆ OBJECTIVES – LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ use the present continuous with a time word for fixed arrangements: I'm meeting Sara on Friday at six.
- ◆ tell "now" from "future" by the time word: I'm working now. / I'm working tomorrow.
- ◆ suggest an activity with Let's / Why don't we...? / Shall we...? + base verb and How about + -ing / noun
- ◆ invite with Would you like to...?, accept warmly, and decline politely with a reason (I'd love to, but I'm working on Friday.)
- ◆ arrange to meet: find a free time, agree an activity, and confirm the plan (So we're meeting on Thursday at seven.)

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 3.3 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "My week" calendar)
- ◆ Slides 14–17 · a real calendar / planner or your phone calendar · Calendar information gap A/B (1 page per pair) · blank calendars (1 per learner) · future identity cards
- ◆ Listening scripts 3.3-A (Leo and Grace make a plan) and 3.3-B (dictation)

BOARD PLAN

Left: your calendar for this week, 4 lines: Tue 6 pm: meeting Ana · Thu: working late · Sat: taking my son to football · Sun 1 pm: having lunch with my mom. Above it: am / is / are + -ing + time =  arrangement.

Center: two lines: I'm working now. (present) / I'm working tomorrow. (future) · Are you doing anything on Friday?

Right: Let's + go · Why don't we + go? · Shall / Should we + go? · How about + going? / Saturday?

Below: 👍 Good idea! / Sure, that sounds great. · 🙏 I'd love to, but... / Maybe another time.

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: I'll do it!	8	T-S → S-S	Review C8. Quick-fire situations ("I'm cold." "My phone is dead." "I can't find my keys.") → learners answer with "I'll...". Then pairs make 3 predictions for the weekend with will / might / won't. Two volunteers read a sentence from their "life in five years" journal (only if they want to).

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Lead-in: my calendar	6	T-S	Show your calendar or calendar (board plan left). "What am I doing on Tuesday evening?" Learners read: "You're meeting Ana." "Is it a plan in my head, or in my calendar with a time and a person?" (In the calendar.) "Is it now?" (No, Tuesday.)
Grammar: present continuous for arrangements	13	T-S	Slide 14. Meaning, form (the same as A1 present continuous), and "the time word decides." CCQs and drill (below). Then Workbook Ex 1 (now or future?) together, fast.
Controlled practice 1	8	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 2 (make arrangements from prompts) alone, then pairs check. Pairs then ask each other 3 real questions: "Are you doing anything tonight / this weekend / on Friday?"
Suggestions, invitations & replies	12	T-S	Slide 15. Meaning, form (three + base verb, one + -ing), polite yes and no. Drill with intonation: friendly high start for suggestions, "I'd love to, but..." for a soft no. Slide 16: read the Mia and Ben model dialogue in two halves of the room, then swap.
Listening: Leo and Grace	7	T-S	Workbook Ex 5. Read Script 3.3-A twice (be both voices, or ask a confident learner to read Grace). Learners answer: what day, what time, where, what activity. Check: "So they're meeting..."
Controlled practice 2	6	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 3 (suggest it three ways) and Ex 4 (match the invitations and replies). Pairs check.
Freer: Calendar information gap	20	S-S	Slide 17. (1) A/B calendar cards, face to face, don't show. Goal: find the one free time you both have, agree an activity, and confirm. "Are you doing anything on Monday afternoon?" — "Yes, I'm going to the dentist. How about Tuesday?" (8 min). (2) Compare cards (1 min). (3) Round 2: each learner fills a blank calendar with 6 arrangements (real, a future identity card, or imagined) (4 min) and does it again with a new partner, adding an invitation and one polite no (6 min). (4) Two pairs confirm their plan to the class (1 min). ICQs first.
Feedback + module check	5	T-S	Delayed correction: "How about go to the park?" · "Let's to meet at six." · "I meet Sara tomorrow." (for an arrangement) · "Why you don't come?" Then learners tick the Module 3 "I can..." lists.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 3.3; the "my real week" journal; preview C10: "Next class: Have you ever... ? Have you ever eaten sushi?"
Total	90		8 + 6 + 13 + 8 + 12 + 7 + 6 + 20 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning: arrangement. A fixed plan, often with another person, a time and a place. It is "in the calendar." Learners know the form from A1 (present continuous for now); only the meaning is new.

SAY: "I'm meeting Sara on Friday at six." Am I meeting her now? (No.) When? (Friday at six.) Does Sara know? (Yes, we agreed.) Is it in my calendar? (Yes.)

SAY: "I'm working now." / "I'm working tomorrow." Which one is the future? (Tomorrow.) What tells you? (The time word.)

Meaning: suggestions and invitations.

SAY: "Let's go to the park." Is it only for me, or for you and me? (You and me: together.) • "How about Saturday?" Is it a question or an order? (A question, an idea.) • "I'd love to, but I'm working." Is it yes or no? (No.) Is it polite? (Yes, very.) • "Would you like to come to dinner?" Is it an invitation? (Yes.)

Form.

Arrangement	am / is / are + verb-ing + future time	We're leaving at 6. • She's starting her new job next week.
Negative / question	'm not / isn't / aren't + -ing • Am / Is / Are + subject + -ing?	I'm not working tomorrow. • Are you doing anything tonight?
+ base verb	Let's ... • Why don't we ...? • Shall we ...? (US: Should we ...?)	Let's eat out. • Why don't we take the bus? • Shall we meet at 7?
+ -ing / noun	How about ...?	How about watching a movie? • How about Saturday?
Invitation	Would you like to + base verb? • (friendly) Do you want to...?	Would you like to come to dinner? — Yes, I'd love to!

Replies	👍 Good idea! · Sure, that sounds great. · Yes, I'd love to. · 🙏 Sorry, I can't. · I'd love to, but... · Maybe another time. · Thanks, but I already have plans.	Negative suggestion: Let's not stay late.
---------	---	---

Pronunciation. Arrangements: stress the verb and the time: "I'm MEETing Sara on FRIDay." Why don't we is fast and linked: /waɪ daʊn wi/ ("why-dohn-we"), with the t almost gone. How about links: /haʊ ə'baʊt/ ("how-a-BOU"). Let's /lets/: say the s. Suggestions start high and friendly. A polite no has a fall-rise on love: "I'd LOVE to, but..." Flat, low intonation on "No." can sound rude in English even with polite words: model the warm version.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Calendar drill (point at your calendar on the board): T: "Tuesday?" → S: "You're meeting Ana." T: "Thursday?" → S: "You're working late." Then learners ask: "What are you doing on Sunday?" → T answers.
- 2 Now or future? T says a sentence; learners point at the floor (now) or over their shoulder forward (future): "I'm cooking right now." / "I'm cooking for my family on Sunday." / "She's sleeping at the moment." / "She's flying to Rome next month."
- 3 One idea, four ways: T: "go to the park" → S1: "Let's go to the park." → S2: "Why don't we go to the park?" → S3: "Shall we go to the park?" → S4: "How about going to the park?" New idea each round.
- 4 Reply drill: T suggests; T shows 👍 or 🙏. Learners reply: 👍 "Good idea!" / "Sure, that sounds great." · 🙏 "I'd love to, but I'm busy. Maybe another time."
- 5 Confirm: T: "Thursday, seven, the café." → S: "So we're meeting on Thursday at seven at the café. See you then!"

◆ CALENDAR INFORMATION GAP – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Pairs sit face to face; A and B cards are different. Each calendar has an afternoon and an evening for Monday–Sunday. Most slots are full.
- ◆ Step 1: find a free time. Learners ask about a slot: "Are you doing anything on Monday afternoon?" The partner reads the arrangement: "Yes, I'm going to the dentist." Ask for the next slot or suggest: "How about Tuesday evening?"
- ◆ Step 2: when both are free, suggest an activity from the ideas box (two ways: "Let's... / Why don't we...?"). The partner accepts or says a polite no to the first idea and suggests another.
- ◆ Step 3: agree a time and place ("Shall we meet at seven? At the station?") and confirm: "So we're meeting on ... at ... See you then!"
- ◆ Answer: the only free time for both is Thursday evening. Pairs who finish fast use the blank calendars (round 2).

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE CALENDAR INFORMATION GAP

SAY: Can you show your calendar? (No!) · What are you looking for? (A free time for both of us.) · What question do you ask? ("Are you doing anything on...?") · When you find a free time, what do you do? (Suggest an activity, agree a time, then confirm.) · How do you say a polite no? ("I'd love to, but...")

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Give an icon calendar (👨⚕️ dentist, 💼 work, 🎉 party, ⚽ football) so learners can "read" the slot without reading words, and a phrase strip: "Are you doing anything on...?" / "Yes, I'm... / No, I'm free." / "Let's...!" / "OK! See you then." Target: find the free time and make one suggestion with Let's. Skip round 2 or do it with a partner who writes.

STRETCH

Use all four suggestion patterns and Would you like to...? in round 2. Decline twice before accepting, with a different reason each time. Add a place and a reason ("Let's meet at the station. It's easy by bus."). After the task, write the text message that confirms the plan.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Present simple for an arrangement: "I meet Sara tomorrow" (German, Russian, Spanish, French, Chinese, Japanese). It is understood; point at the calendar: "In the calendar → I'm meeting."
- ◆ "Let's to go" / "How about go?" / "Why don't we to go?": very common (Spanish ¿Qué tal si vamos?, Portuguese Que tal irmos?, French Et si on allait?). Use the "one idea, four ways" drill and a hand signal for the -ing.
- ◆ "Why you don't come?" (no inversion; Spanish ¿Por qué no vienes?, Arabic, Chinese). Drill the chunk "Why don't we..." as one piece.
- ◆ Saying no: cultures differ. Some learners (Japanese, Chinese, Korean, Filipino, many Arabic speakers) avoid a clear "no" and say "maybe" when they mean no. Others (German, Dutch, Russian, Israeli) may sound very direct with "No." Teach the English middle: a short reason + "Maybe another time." Say that in English, "maybe" is sometimes really "maybe."
- ◆ "Yes, I would like." to Would you like to...? (French, Spanish). Teach the chunk "Yes, I'd love to."
- ◆ "in Friday" / "on the weekend" vs "at the weekend": on Friday, at seven, on the weekend (US). Accept British at the weekend.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 3.3: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_09.html. Listen to the Mia and Ben conversation with 🎧 and read it aloud; do the exercises and the Quick Quiz. Workbook 3.3: finish "My week" (4 arrangements), "My new words" and the journal (3 real or imagined plans for this week + 1 suggestion to a friend).

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B How about going to the park? · Q2 B I'm meeting Sara tomorrow at 8. · Q3 (new) B I'd love to, but I'm working on Friday. Leo and Grace (Ex 5): 1 the movies on Friday evening · 2 she's working late · 3 Saturday · 4 at 11 (in the morning) · 5 at the market entrance · 6 at the market (the food stands).

CLOSING THE MODULE

END OF C9: MODULE 3 WRAP-UP

Recap on slide 18, the "three futures" line: I'm going to... (my plan) → I'll... / It might... (decision now, guess) → We're meeting at... (our arrangement). Learners tick the three "I can..." lists in the workbook. Anything still unticked goes on a sticky note for you. Review it in the C10 warmer and again in the C13 progress-test catch-up.

Watch for in Module 4: the present perfect (I've been to..., Have you ever...?) brings a new have + past participle. Learners who just learned "am / is / are + going to" may mix the helper verbs ("I'm been to Japan"). Keep a 2-minute "three futures" warmer (one plan, one prediction, one arrangement) in C10–C12.

Progress Test 1 (C13) covers Modules 1–4. From this module it tests: be going to (+ / – / ?), plan vs evidence prediction, future time expressions and next / in, will / won't / might, instant decisions and offers with I'll, Will you...? short answers, the present continuous for arrangements, Let's / Why don't we / How about + -ing, and polite accepting and declining.

Module 4 — Experiences & Advice

Three classes that close the first half of A2. Learners meet the present perfect for life experiences and learn when to switch back to the past simple. Then they use have to / must / should to explain rules and give advice. Last, they put all of Modules 1–4 together in one task: telling a travel story. You score that story with a speaking checklist that feeds Progress Test 1 (C13).

3 lessons

Lessons 4.1–4.3

Classes C10–C12

Weeks 5–6

90 min per class

CEFR A2

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- One lesson block = one 90-minute class. Every class follows the same shape: warmer → lead-in → Meaning / Form / Pronunciation with concept-checking questions (CCQs) → drill (choral, then individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (pairs, groups, mingle) → feedback with delayed error correction → homework.
- The stage plan is your clock. Each one adds up to 90 minutes. The numbers in the Time column are minutes.
- Present from slides/module-4-experiences-advice.html (slides 3–8 for C10, 9–13 for C11, 14–18 for C12). Print materials/module-4/classroom-materials.html before C10. It holds the flashcards, the Find Someone Who game, the experience identity cards, the rules information gap, the problem-page cards, the travel role-play cards, the trip cards, the listening scripts and the C12 speaking checklist.
- The online lessons are the learners' homework and review. Each one has  Listen buttons, so learners can hear the model sentences again at home.
- American English throughout. The online lessons and this kit both use American English (practice, the center, vacation, movies, travelers). Accept British forms when learners use them (practise, centre, holiday, films). Mustn't is much less common in American speech than in British English: see the note in 4.2 (the online lesson 4.2 has a matching note).
- Dashed boxes = lines to say out loud, CCQs and ICQs (instruction-checking questions). Green boxes = scripts you read aloud. Amber = watch-outs.

THE THROUGH-LINE

What I've done → what we have to do → where I went. In C10 learners open a topic with the present perfect ("Have you ever...?") and then switch to the past simple for the details ("When did you go?"). That switch is the most important idea in the module; it comes back in every class. In C11 they explain rules and give advice. In C12 they tell a whole travel story that uses every A2 tense so far: past (Module 1), comparing and quantities (Module 2), future (Module 3) and the present perfect (Module 4). The story is the module's review project and your speaking evidence for Progress Test 1.

TRAUMA-INFORMED: EXPERIENCES, JOURNEYS AND RULES CAN BE PERSONAL

"Have you ever...?" and "Tell me about a trip" can touch painful memories: a hospital stay, a lost job, a long journey to a new country, time in a camp. Never ask about migration journeys, and never make a learner explain one. In every personal task, offer three choices out loud: your real life, a card (experience identity cards in C10, trip cards in C12), or something imagined. Teach "Pass!" and "I'd rather not say" on the first day of the module, and model using them yourself. In C11, keep rules and advice everyday (work, school, the pool, the library, health, sleep). If a learner raises an immigration, legal, housing-court or money problem, don't give advice: say "That's important. Let's talk after class," and refer them to your program's caseworker or a legal-aid service.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- Print the picture flashcards (one set for the board) and cut them before C10.
- Print one Find Someone Who sheet per learner (C10) and one set of experience identity cards. Put the identity cards on a side table where anyone can take one without asking.
- Print the rules information gap (one A/B pair per two learners, three scenarios) and one set of problem-page cards per group of three (C11).
- Print the travel role-play cards (one A/B set per pair) and the trip cards (two or three sets on the side table) for C12. Print one speaking checklist grid for yourself and one individual score slip per learner.
- Bring 3–4 of your own "experience" photos or objects for the C10 lead-in (a ticket stub, a photo of snow, a souvenir, a medal). A picture on your phone is fine.
- Decide how you will hear every C12 story: live in groups, or learners record on their phones and play the recording for you. See the note in 4.3.

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
4.1	C10 • wk 5	Present perfect (have/has + past participle) for life experience, ever / never, been vs gone ,	ask and answer "Have you ever...?" and add a past-simple detail ("Yes, I

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
		short answers, the present perfect → past simple switch	have. I went there in 2019.") in 6+ turns
4.2	C11 · wk 6	have to / has to, don't have to vs mustn't, must, should / shouldn't ; everyday and workplace rules; giving advice	explain 3 rules at work, school or a public place, say what is optional, and give friendly advice for an everyday problem
4.3	C12 · wk 6	Review project. Travel phrases (station, hotel, asking for help) + all Modules 1–4 grammar in one connected travel story, with linking words	tell a real or imagined travel story in 5 steps (about 3–5 minutes) and answer a partner's questions about it

4.1 · C10

Present Perfect — Life Experiences

90 min

OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- form the present perfect: I've / you've / she's + past participle, and haven't / hasn't
- say 15 common past participles, including the irregular ones been, seen, done, eaten, written, broken, taken, ridden
- ask Have you ever...? and answer Yes, I have. / No, I haven't. / No, never.
- switch to the past simple for the details: "Yes, I have." → "When did you go?" → "I went in 2019."
- choose been (went and came back) or gone (still there)

MATERIALS

- Workbook 4.1 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–6, dialogue, interview table)
- Slides 3–8 · Picture flashcards (experiences) · Find Someone Who (1 per learner) · Experience identity cards · your own 3–4 "experience" photos or objects
- Listening scripts 4.1-A (Lina and Tom) and 4.1-B (experience or finished time? listen and show)

BOARD PLAN

Left: a time line from "born 🧒" to "NOW 📌". Over the whole line, a big box labeled MY LIFE — no time. On the line, one ✕ labeled 2019.

Center: I have (I've) been to Mexico. · She has (she's) eaten sushi. · Have you ever ridden a horse? → Yes, I have. / No, I haven't. / No, never. · I've never broken a bone.

Right: the switch: OPEN (present perfect, no time) → EXPLAIN (past simple + time). Have you ever...? → When / Where / Who with / How was it? → I went... It was... Below: been = went + came back 🔄 · gone = still there ➡

STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: weekend plans	8	S–S	Review C9 (3.3, arrangements and suggestions). Pairs make a plan for this weekend: "What are you doing on Saturday?" "Why don't we...? / Let's... / How about...?" Two pairs report their plan. Check the journal: 2–3 volunteers read one sentence.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Lead-in: my experience box	7	T-S	Show your 3-4 photos or objects. "I've seen snow. I've ridden a horse. I've never been to China." Learners guess which one is not true (make one false). Then they ask you "When...?" and you answer in the past simple. Don't name the grammar yet.
Vocabulary: experiences + participles	12	T-S → S-S	Slide 3 + flashcards: fly in a plane, ride a horse, swim in the ocean, climb a mountain, sing karaoke, eat sushi, cook for ten people, lose your phone, break a bone, meet a famous person . Then slide 4: the participle table. Drill base → past → participle in a rhythm (see – saw – seen). Pairs test each other: A says the base, B says the participle. Learners copy the hard ones into "New words."
Grammar: form + meaning + the switch	15	T-S	Slides 4-6. Form (have/has + participle, contractions, negatives). Then the time line on the board: present perfect = the whole-life box, no time; past simple = one X with a time. CCQs (below). Drill the question and short answers. Finish with the switch: "Have you ever been to Mexico?" "Yes, I have." "When did you go?" "I went in 2019."
Listening: open, then explain	8	T-S	(1) Script 4.1-A (Lina and Tom): Workbook Ex 2. Learners tick what Lina has done and write when . (2) Script 4.1-B : learners hold up 1 finger for an experience (present perfect, no time) or 2 fingers for a finished time (past simple). Ask "What's the time word?" after each 2.
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1, 3, 4, 5 alone, then check in pairs. Go through only the items pairs disagree on. Ex 3 (present perfect or past simple?) is the one to watch.
Freer: Find Someone Who + follow-up	20	S-S (mingle)	Slide 8. Drill 3 follow-up questions first: When did you...? Where did you...? How was it? Learners stand, walk and ask Have you ever...? A "yes" gets a name and one follow-up question in the past simple; they write a 2-3 word note (12 min). Then seated pairs report: "Amir has ridden a horse. He rode one in Morocco when he was ten." (6 min). Last, 2 learners tell the class (2 min). Identity cards available. ICQs first.
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed error correction: 4 heard sentences on the board, no names (2 good, 2 with errors: "I have been there last year," "Did you ever...?", "She has went"). Learners fix them together.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Show the online lesson on screen; point at a  button. Set the homework (below). Learners tick the "I can..." box.
Total	90		8 + 7 + 12 + 15 + 8 + 10 + 20 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

Cut Script 4.1-B (use it as the C11 warmer instead) and shorten the controlled practice to Ex 3 and Ex 4 only. Never cut the follow-up question in the mingle. Without it, learners practice only the present perfect and never make the switch, and the switch is the point of the lesson.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. The present perfect talks about experience in my life up to now, when the exact time is not important and we don't say it. The past simple talks about one finished time that we say or know. In real talk, English speakers open a topic with the present perfect and then explain it with the past simple. Point at the board: box first, then the ✕.

SAY: "I've been to Mexico." Did I go to Mexico? (Yes.) Do we know when? (No.) Is the time important here? (No, only the experience.)

SAY: "I went to Mexico in 2019." Do we know when? (Yes, 2019.) Is it finished? (Yes.) So present perfect or past simple? (Past simple.)

SAY: "Have you ever eaten sushi?" Am I asking about yesterday? (No.) About what time? (Any time in your life.)

SAY: "I've never broken a bone." Did I break a bone last year? (No.) In my whole life? (No, never.) Do I need "not"? (No! "never" is already negative.)

SAY: "She's gone to the store." Is she here now? (No.) "She's been to the store." Is she here now? (Yes. She went and came back.)

Form.

Positive	I / you / we / they have ('ve) + participle · he / she / it has ('s) + participle	I've been to Canada. She's tried Thai food.
-----------------	---	---

Negative	haven't / hasn't + participle · have / has + never + participle	He hasn't seen it. I've never eaten octopus.
Question	Have / Has + subject + ever + participle...?	Have you ever ridden a horse?
Short answer	Yes, I have . / No, I haven't . / No, never .	(not "Yes, I did." not "Yes, I have been.")
The switch	Details with a time → past simple	When did you go ? — I went in 2019. It was great.

Participles. Regular verbs: the same as the -ed past (visited, tried, worked). Many irregulars are also the same as the past (met, made, had, read, lost, won). Teach the "different" group as a set: been, gone, seen, done, eaten, drunk, taken, written, broken, ridden, flown, swum, sung.

Pronunciation. Contractions are normal in speech: I've /aɪv/, she's /ʃi:z/, haven't /'hævənt/. In questions have is weak: "Have you ever...?" sounds like /həv jə 'evər/. Model it slowly, then fast. In short answers have is strong: "Yes, I HAVE." The stress in the question goes on the participle and the key noun: "Have you ever RIDden a HORSE?" Been in American English is /bɪn/ (like "bin") in fast speech; both /bɪn/ and /bi:n/ are fine.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Participle rhythm: T: "see" → S: "saw – seen." T: "eat" → S: "ate – eaten." Choral, then individuals. Clap on the participle.
- 2 Back-chain the question: "a horse?" → "ridden a horse?" → "ever ridden a horse?" → "Have you ever ridden a horse?" Choral ×3, then 4–5 individuals.
- 3 Picture prompt drill (point at a flashcard): T:  → S1: "Have you ever climbed a mountain?" → S2: "Yes, I have. / No, never."
- 4 The switch (the key drill): T: "Yes, I have!" → S: "When did you...?" T: "Mexico. Yes, I have." → S: "When did you go?" → T: "I went in 2019." Then open pairs across the room, then closed pairs for 1 minute.
- 5 Fix the time word: T: "I've been to Paris last year." (look confused) → S: "I went to Paris last year!" Repeat with 3–4 sentences.

◆ FIND SOMEONE WHO – HOW TO RUN IT

- One sheet per learner. Show the example row on the slide: "Have you ever ridden a horse?" "Yes, I have." "Where did you ride it?" "In Morocco." → write Amir · Morocco, age 10.
- One name per box. Ask a person one or two questions, then move on. A "No, never" is fine: say "OK, thanks!" and ask someone else.
- Teach two safe phrases before you start: "Pass!" and "I'd rather not say." Anyone may use them, for any reason. Learners with an identity card answer as their card person.

- ◆ Walk around and listen for the switch. When you hear "Yes, I have. I have been there in 2018," just point at the board ✕.
- ◆ Stretch: learners ask a second follow-up ("Who did you go with? How was it?"). Early finishers look for someone who has done the "bonus" row.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE MINGLE

SAY: Do you sit or walk? (Walk.) · First question: "Have you..." or "Did you...?" ("Have you ever...?") · The answer is "Yes." What do you ask next? (A past question: When did you...? Where did you...?) · How many names in one box? (One.) · Do you have to answer every question? (No. You can say "Pass!")

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Give a Find Someone Who sheet with the pictures only (flashcard minis) and 6 rows, not 12. They write a name or just the first letter, and ask one follow-up only: "When?" Aim for four participles they can say without reading (been, seen, eaten, done). In Ex 3, read each sentence aloud and let them circle what sounds right.

STRETCH

Add a second follow-up and an opinion ("It was the best food I've ever eaten"). Use been vs gone about people in the class ("Maria has gone to the office"). Early finishers write six interview turns for Ex 6 with no book. Introduce once / twice / three times ("I've been there twice").

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I have been there last year" (Spanish, Portuguese, French, Italian, German, Dutch speakers). Their perfect tense can take a past time word (Spanish he estado in Spain, French j'ai visité... l'année dernière, German ich bin... gewesen). This is the error of the module. Point at the ✕ every time.
- ◆ "Did you ever...?" / "Yes, I did": learners who have heard American speakers. "Did you ever...?" is real informal American English, so don't call it "wrong." But teach Have you ever...? as the classroom and test form.
- ◆ "I am already eat" / "I finish" for experience: Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai, Indonesian and Malay mark completion with a particle (le, rồi, sudah) and have no helper verb. Point at have + participle: two parts, always.
- ◆ "She has went" / "I have saw" (all learners): the past form after have. Return to the three-column table.
- ◆ "I haven't never...": Spanish, Portuguese, Italian, French and Russian use double negatives (no he ido nunca). One negative only: I've never been or I haven't been.
- ◆ Contractions disappear: Arabic, Russian and Japanese speakers often drop 've in speech ("I been there"). Tap your lips: "I've."

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 4.1: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_10.html. Listen to the model sentences with  and say them out loud; do the three online exercises. Workbook 4.1: finish Ex 6, "My new words" and the journal (five "I have..." sentences: three positive, two with never, plus one past-simple detail). Start a participle list at the back of the workbook.

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B She has eaten sushi. · Q2 B visited ... last year · Q3 (new) B went. Listening Ex 2 (Script 4.1-A): Lina has been to Canada (2021), has seen snow (in Canada), has ridden a horse (when she was twelve); she has never eaten sushi; she has never met a famous person.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ explain rules with have to / has to and ask Do I have to...?
- ◆ say something is optional with don't have to, and not allowed with mustn't (or can't), and keep the two apart
- ◆ read and say strong written rules with must
- ◆ give and ask for advice with should / shouldn't and What should I do?, softened with maybe / I think
- ◆ use the base verb after all of them (no to after must or should)

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 4.2 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–6, dialogue, problem-page task)
- ◆ Slides 9–13 · rules and advice flashcards · Rules information gap A/B (3 scenarios) · Problem-page cards (1 set per group of 3) · sticky notes
- ◆ Listening scripts 4.2-A (Sam's first day) and 4.2-B (dictation)

BOARD PLAN

Left: three traffic lights. ● have to / must = do it (a rule) · ● don't have to = your choice · ● mustn't / can't = don't do it (not allowed).

Center: I have to wear a uniform. · She has to work on Saturday. · Do I have to pay? → No, you don't have to. It's free. · You mustn't smoke here. · You should see a doctor. · You shouldn't worry. · What should I do?

Right: + base verb: ~~must to go~~ · ~~should to go~~ · ~~has to work~~ work. Soft advice: Maybe you should... · I think you should...

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: experience chain	8	S–S → T–S	Review C10. Pairs ask 3 "Have you ever...?" questions with one follow-up each. Then a class chain: S1 tells one thing about a partner: "Nadia has been to Brazil." S2 must ask a past-simple question: "When did she go?" Check 2–3 journal sentences.
Lead-in: what do the signs	7	T–S	Slide 9: six signs (🚫 🚰 🚰 🚰 🚰 🚰 FREE 🤔). "Where can you see this sign? What does it mean?"

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
say?			Learners explain in any words. You recast: "Yes: you mustn't smoke here. You have to wash your hands."
Grammar 1: have to / must / mustn't / don't have to	15	T-S	Slides 10–11. The three traffic lights. Meaning first, then form (has to ; do/does for questions and negatives; must has no -s and no do). CCQs, especially don't have to ≠ mustn't . Drill (below).
Rules information gap	12	S-S	A/B cards. Scenario 1: A is a new worker, B is a coworker with the rules list. A asks "Do I have to...?"; B answers from the card and adds the reason. Swap roles with Scenario 2 (a community pool) or Scenario 3 (a school office). A writes  /  /  on the card. ICQs first.
Grammar 2: should / shouldn't	8	T-S	Slide 12. Mime a headache: "What should I do?" Learners give ideas; you shape them: "You should take a break. You shouldn't look at your phone." CCQs: advice ≠ rule. Show the softeners: Maybe you should... / I think you should...
Listening + controlled practice	15	T-S → S	(1) Script 4.2-A (Sam's first day): Workbook Ex 2, write has to / doesn't have to / mustn't . (5 min) (2) Workbook Ex 1, 3, 4, 5 alone, check in pairs. (10 min)
Freer: the problem page	15	S-S (groups of 3)	Slide 13. Each group gets the problem-page cards face down. Reader picks a card and reads the problem as if it is theirs. The two advisers each give one piece of advice with should / shouldn't and one fact with have to / don't have to . The reader chooses the best advice: "Thanks! I think I'll..." Rotate roles each card. Last 3 minutes: each group writes its best advice on a sticky note for the "Ask the Class" board.
Feedback	5	T-S	Read 3–4 sticky notes aloud. Delayed correction on the board: "You must to...", "She have to...", "You don't have to smoke here" (for a no-smoking sign), "Do you must...?"

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 4.2; the "three sentences about me" journal. Preview C12: "Next class you tell a travel story. Real or imagined. Think about a trip tonight — any trip, even a day trip."
Total	90		8 + 7 + 15 + 12 + 8 + 15 + 15 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. Have to = a rule or a need, usually from outside (the boss, the school, the doctor). Must = a strong rule, very common on signs and written rules. Don't have to = not necessary: your choice. Mustn't = not allowed. Should = a good idea (advice), not a rule.

SAY: "You don't have to pay. It's free." Can I pay if I want? (Yes. It's OK.) Do I need to pay? (No.) Is it my choice? (Yes.)

SAY: "You mustn't smoke here." Is it my choice? (No.) Is it OK to smoke? (No. It's not allowed.) So is "don't have to" the same as "mustn't"? (No! Very different.)

SAY: "You should see a doctor." Is it a rule? (No.) Is it a good idea? (Yes.) Who decides? (You do.)

SAY: "She has to work on Saturday." Does she want to? (Maybe not!) Does she need to? (Yes. It's her job.)

AMERICAN ENGLISH: MUSTN'T VS CAN'T

Americans rarely say mustn't in conversation. They say can't or you're not allowed to: "You can't park here." Teach mustn't so learners understand signs, forms and British speakers, but model can't as the everyday spoken form and accept both. Also accept have got to / gotta if learners know it.

Form.

	I / you / we / they	he / she / it have to	I have to wear a badge.	She has to wear a badge.
negative	You don't have to come.	He doesn't have to come.
question	Do I have to sign?	Does she have to sign?
must / mustn't	same for all: You / He must stop. You mustn't run. (no -s, no do) should / shouldn't	same for all: You should rest. Should I call? What should I do?
all of them	+ base verb . Only have to keeps its to .

Pronunciation. In speech have to is /'hæftə/ ("hafta") and has to is /'hæstə/ ("hasta"): the v becomes f. Model it, but accept the careful form. Mustn't /'mʌsənt/: the first t is silent. Should /ʃʊd/: the l is silent, like could and would. In advice, stress the main verb: "You should REST." In don't have to, stress DON'T to show the meaning: "You DON'T have to pay."

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Traffic-light drill: hold up a color card and a picture. 🟢 + badge → S: "You have to wear a badge." 🔴 + phone → S: "You mustn't / can't use your phone." 🟡 + ticket (FREE) → S: "You don't have to buy a ticket."
- 2 He/she transformation: T: "I have to work late." → S: "She has to work late." T: "I don't have to cook." → S: "He doesn't have to cook."
- 3 Question chain: S1 → S2: "Do you have to get up early?" S2: "Yes, I do. / No, I don't." S2 → S3 with a new verb.
- 4 Advice round: T mimes a problem (tired, cold, lost, late). Learners call out: "You should..." "You shouldn't..." Then one learner mimes for the class.
- 5 Kill the "to": T: "You must to go." → S (stamp once): "You must go!" Four quick items.

◆ THE PROBLEM PAGE – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Groups of three: one reader, two advisers. Cards face down. The reader reads the problem aloud as their own ("Dear Ask Ana... I'm always tired at work").
- ◆ Each adviser gives one should / shouldn't sentence and, if possible, one have to / don't have to fact ("You don't have to buy a gym membership. You should walk after dinner.").
- ◆ The reader answers: "Good idea! / Hmm, I can't do that because..." and picks the best advice. Rotate roles.
- ◆ All problems are everyday ones (sleep, a new job, a noisy neighbor, a child's school, learning English, a broken phone). If a group invents a legal or immigration problem, gently steer them: "Let's choose an everyday problem today."
- ◆ Stretch: advisers must soften (Maybe you should... / I think you should...) and give a reason with because.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE INFORMATION GAP AND THE PROBLEM PAGE

SAY: Information gap: Can you show your card? (No.) Who asks the questions first? (A, the new person.) What is the question? ("Do I have to...?") B says "No, you don't." Is it OK to do it? (Yes, it's your choice.)

SAY: Problem page: Who reads the card? (The reader.) How many pieces of advice from each adviser? (One, or two.) Which word do you use for advice: "should" or "must"? (Should.) Is it a real problem from your life? (No, it's on the card.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Use the traffic-light cards as the main tool: learners hold up    for each rule you read. In the problem page, read the problem card to them; they give advice from a bank of 6 picture phrases (see a doctor, go to bed early, drink water, ask your boss, take a break, call a friend) with "You should..." Target: 3 correct sentences.

STRETCH

Compare rules: "In my country you don't have to..., but here you have to..." (keep it everyday: shops, school, tipping). Add had to for the past ("When I was a child, I had to walk to school"). As advisers, give two options and a reason: "You could... or you should... because..."

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "You must to go" / "You should to rest": Spanish tener que / deber, French devoir, Arabic lāzim an, Russian nado / dolzhen. Learners copy the to from have to. Stamp on the "to."
- ◆ "You don't have to smoke" meaning "don't smoke": in German (du musst nicht = you don't have to) and many other languages the negative of "must" means "not necessary," while in others it means "not allowed." Both directions cause trouble. Use the traffic lights every time.
- ◆ "She have to work" / "She has to works": the -s goes on has, once. Chinese, Vietnamese and Thai speakers often drop it; others add it twice.
- ◆ "Do you must...?" / "You mustn't to...": learners treat must like a normal verb. Recast with the natural question: "Do you have to...?"
- ◆ Politeness and directness: in many cultures giving strong advice is kind; in American English "You must..." to a friend can sound bossy. Teach Maybe you should... / I think you should... as friendly, not weak.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 4.2: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_11.html. Listen to the model sentences with ; do the three online exercises. Workbook 4.2: finish Ex 6, "My new words" and the journal (one thing I have to do, one thing I don't have to do, one thing I should do more). Also: think of a trip for C12, real or imagined, and bring one photo or object if you like.

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 A Buying a ticket is not necessary. · Q2 B You should see a doctor. · Q3 (new) B mustn't. Listening Ex 2 (Script 4.2-A): 1 has to · 2 doesn't have to · 3 mustn't · 4 has to · 5 doesn't have to · 6 should.

A TASK-BASED REVIEW, NOT A NEW-GRAMMAR CLASS

There is no new grammar today. The class is built around one real task: tell a travel story so that a listener can follow it and enjoy it. Learners plan with a five-step frame, rehearse with a partner, then tell the story to a small group while you listen with the speaking checklist. Language work comes from the task: short focus-on-form moments when you hear a gap, not long presentations. The checklist results feed C13 (Progress Test 1): they are your evidence of spoken narrative across Modules 1–4, and they tell you who goes to which catch-up station.

◆ OBJECTIVES – LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ use travel phrases at a station, at a hotel and when asking for help, politely (Excuse me... please)
- ◆ choose the right tense for each part of a story: was/were for the scene, past simple for events, comparatives and quantifiers for description, present perfect for experience, going to / will for the next trip
- ◆ join sentences with first, then, after that, but, so, because, in the end
- ◆ tell a real or imagined travel story in 5 steps (3–5 minutes) and answer a partner's questions

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 4.3 (travel phrases, wordlist, Exercises 1–4, the story-planning frame, the "I can" checklist)
- ◆ Slides 14–18 · travel flashcards · Travel role-play cards A/B (station, hotel) · Trip cards (imagined trips) · Speaking checklist: one class grid for you + one score slip per learner
- ◆ Listening scripts 4.3-A (Sofia's trip: the model story) and 4.3-B (travel-phrases dictation)
- ◆ Optional: learners' phones for recording

BOARD PLAN

Across the top: the story road, left to right: ① SCENE (was / were) → ② WHAT I DID (past simple) → ③ COMPARE (-er / the most / a lot of) → ④ EXPERIENCE (I've never... / the best... I've ever...) → ⑤ NEXT TIME (going to / will)

Left: linking words: first · then · after that · later · but · so · because · in the end

Right: partner questions: Where did you go? · What did you do? · How was it? · Have you ever...? · What are you going to do next time?

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: advice for a traveler	8	S-S → T-S	Review C10–C11. Pairs: "Have you ever been to a big city / an airport / the ocean?" + one follow-up. Then the class gives advice for a visitor to this town: "You should try... You don't have to... You have to..." Write 3 good sentences on the board.
Travel language: station + hotel	12	T-S → S-S	Slides 14–15 + flashcards. Drill the phrases in chunks with Excuse me... please . Then the travel role-play cards : A (traveler) / B (clerk), station then hotel, swap. Learners write the times and prices they hear. Script 4.3-B (dictation, Workbook Ex 1b) if time.
Model story: listen	8	T-S	Read Script 4.3-A (Sofia's trip) twice. First listen: "Where did she go? Did she like it?" Second listen: Workbook Ex 3, learners number the five steps and circle the linking words they hear.
Grammar review: the story road	10	T-S → S	Slide 16. Put 5 sentences from Sofia's story on the board in the wrong order. Learners match each one to a step on the story road and name the tense. Focus on the step ④ switch: "I've never seen... before" / "It was the best trip I've ever had." Then Workbook Ex 2 (choose the tense) alone.
Plan: the story frame	12	S	Slide 17. Learners fill the story-planning frame in the workbook: notes, not full sentences (key words, verbs in the past). Choose a real trip, a day trip, or a trip card . Walk around and help with vocabulary; check one verb in each step.
Rehearse with a partner	10	S-S	Pairs. A tells the story from notes; B asks the five partner questions from the board (one per step) and gives one "I liked..." comment. Swap. Then learners turn the notes page over and tell it again to a new partner, faster (4-3 style: second telling shorter).

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Story circles + speaking checklist	20	S-S (groups of 3-4) • T-S	Groups of 3-4. Each learner tells the story (3-4 min) with notes turned over (a quick look is OK). Listeners each ask one question. You sit with one group at a time and score with the speaking checklist . Groups that finish choose the "best moment" of each story. See the note below on hearing everyone.
Feedback + module wrap	5	T-S	Delayed correction from your checklist notes (no names): 3-4 sentences, especially the tense switch. Praise one line from each group. Learners tick the Module 4 "I can..." lists.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 4.3; write the "My Trip" story (6-8 sentences) in the workbook journal. Tell learners plainly about C13: "Next class is a friendly check. It helps me help you."
Total	90		8 + 12 + 8 + 10 + 12 + 10 + 20 + 5 + 5

HEARING EVERY STORY

In 20 minutes you can score about 6-8 learners live. Choose one of these for the rest, and tell the class which one before the story circles: (a) learners record the story on their phone in the story-circle stage and play it for you in the C13 catch-up time; (b) the rest tell their story to you in the C13 catch-up stations; (c) in a large class, score the checklist in two halves across C12 and C13. Anyone who prefers to tell the story only to you (not a group) may do so. That is a normal choice, not a problem.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION (REVIEW FOCUS)

Meaning: each tense has a job in the story. Show the story road on slide 16 and ask which step each sentence belongs to.

SAY: "The hotel was small, but it was clean." Which step? (① the scene.) Why "was"? (It's the past; it describes.)

SAY: "I've never seen the ocean before." Is this about one day or my whole life? (My whole life, up to now.) Can I add "last year"? (No! Then: "I saw the ocean last year.")

SAY: "Next year I'm going to visit Greece." Past or future? (Future.) Is it a plan? (Yes. Going to = a plan.)

SAY: "We arrived late, so we went to bed." Why did we go to bed? (Because we arrived late.) Which word shows the result? (So.)

Form: the review table.

① Scene	was / were · there was / there were	It was spring. The streets were busy.
② What I did	past simple: regular -ed + irregular	We arrived at night and took a taxi.
③ Compare	-er than · the most · a lot of / some / a few	The beach was quieter than the city. There were a lot of tourists.
④ Experience	present perfect: I've never... (before) · the best... I've ever...	I've never eaten fish like that. It was the best meal I've ever had.
⑤ Next time	going to (plan) · will (decision / prediction)	Next year I'm going to go back. I think I'll stay longer.
Glue	first · then · after that · but · so · because · in the end	First we..., then... In the end...

Pronunciation. Two things matter most for a listener: the -ed ending (/t/ walked, /d/ stayed, /ɪd/ visited: only /ɪd/ adds a beat) and pausing between the five steps. Teach "chunk and pause": say a linking word, pause, then the next part. Luggage /'lʌɡɪdʒ/: two syllables. Souvenir /ˌsu:və'nɪr/: stress at the end.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- Polite chunks: T: "Where's the check-in?" → S: "Excuse me, where's the check-in, please?" Four phrases, choral then individuals, rising-then-falling polite intonation.
- Tense switch drill: T holds up a step number and a verb. "① be / hot" → S: "It was hot." "④ eat / octopus / never" → S: "I've never eaten octopus." "⑤ visit / Peru" → S: "I'm going to visit Peru."
- Link it: T says two short sentences: "We were tired. We went to bed." → S: "We were tired, so we went to bed." Then with because and but.
- Best... ever: T: "good / trip" → S: "It was the best trip I've ever had." "beautiful / place" → "the most beautiful place I've ever seen."

◆ THE STORY-PLANNING FRAME – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Show your own filled-in frame first (a real or invented trip). Notes only: 3–6 words per box. Full sentences on paper become reading aloud.
- ◆ Any trip is a trip: a day at the beach, a visit to family in another town, a school trip, a work trip, a vacation, a dream trip, or a trip card. Say it out loud so no one feels their trip is "too small."
- ◆ Step ④ is the hardest. Give three sentence starters: I've never... before. · It was the best... I've ever... · I've been to... but...
- ◆ Step ⑤ can be a dream: "One day I'm going to..." is fine.
- ◆ Early finishers add a travel-phrase moment: "At the hotel I said, 'Is breakfast included?'"

◆ THE SPEAKING CHECKLIST – HOW TO SCORE IT

Five criteria, 0–3 points each, /15. Score what you hear in the whole performance, including answers to questions. The full grid and descriptors are in the classroom materials (Set H).

Criterion	What 3 points sounds like
1 • Task: the five steps	All five steps are there, in a sensible order; the listener knows where, when, what happened, one experience and a plan.
2 • Past forms	was/were and past simple (regular + irregular) are mostly correct; -ed endings are heard.
3 • Tense switching	Present perfect for experience with no time; past simple when a time is given; going to / will for the future. No "I have been there last year."
4 • Linking & organization	Uses 3+ different linking words; the story flows; not a list of facts.
5 • Fluency, pronunciation & interaction	Keeps going with short pauses; easy to understand; answers a partner's question with a full sentence.

Feeding C13. Record every learner's five scores on the class grid. In C13, send learners with 0–1 on criterion 3 to the present perfect / past simple catch-up station, 0–1 on criterion 2 to the past-forms station (Module 1), and 0–1 on criterion 4 to the linking-words station. If Progress Test 1 has its own speaking task, keep this grid anyway: it is your evidence of spoken narrative for Modules 1–4, and it lets you give each learner one kind, specific next step.

◆ ICQS BEFORE PLANNING AND THE STORY CIRCLES

SAY: Planning: Do you write full sentences or notes? (Notes.) Does it have to be a real trip? (No. Real, a day trip, a card, or a dream.) How many steps? (Five.) Which step uses "I've never..."? (Step four.)

SAY: Story circles: Can you read your notes? (Only a quick look.) What do the listeners do? (Listen, then ask one question.) Do you have to tell your story to the group? (No. You can tell it only to the teacher.) How long? (About three or four minutes.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Use the picture version of the frame: learners draw a small picture in each box instead of notes (a sun for the scene, a plane, a plate of food). Give a trip card with photos. Target: steps ①, ②, ⑤ with 2 sentences each, plus one "I've never..." sentence. Score them on the same checklist; a clear, short story can earn full marks on criteria 1, 4 and 5.

STRETCH

Add a problem on the trip and the advice someone gave ("I lost my bag. The man at the desk said I should call the airline."). Use two superlatives and a travel-phrase quote. Tell the story in 3 minutes with no notes. Listeners ask two follow-up questions, not one.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Present tense for the whole story ("Last year I go to Italy. I see the sea."): Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai, Indonesian and Malay have no past endings; time words do the work. Prompt with the step: "① — was or is?"
- ◆ "I have been there last year" is back (Spanish, French, Italian, German, Portuguese). One finger on the ✕ from C10 is enough.
- ◆ "a luggage" / "luggages" / "informations": many languages count these nouns (Spanish equipajes, French des bagages). Teach some luggage / two bags.
- ◆ "More better" / "the most biggest" (Module 2 errors return under pressure). Note them for feedback; don't stop the story.
- ◆ "I went to home" / "We arrived to the hotel" (Spanish llegar a, Portuguese chegar a): arrive in a city, arrive at a hotel, go home.
- ◆ -ed not heard (Vietnamese and Cantonese drop final consonants; Spanish speakers may add a vowel: "walk-ed"). Score what a patient listener understands.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 4.3: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_12.html. Listen to the model sentences with 🎧 and practice the travel phrases out loud. Workbook 4.3: write the "My Trip" story in the journal (6–8 sentences, all five steps) and underline one past, one comparative, one present perfect and one future. Review the Module 1–4 "I can..." lists before C13.

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B What time does it leave? · Q2 B We visited Peru last year. I've never seen mountains like that! · Q3 (new) B am going to. Listening Ex 3a (Script 4.3-A), top to bottom: 5 · 1 · 4 · 2 · 3. Ex 3b linking words heard: first, then, after that, but, so, because, in the end (not later).

CLOSING THE MODULE

END OF C12: MODULE 4 WRAP-UP AND THE HALFWAY POINT

Recap on slide 18: I've been to... → I went there in... · You have to... / You don't have to... / You should... · Last year I went... Next year I'm going to... Learners tick the three "I can..." lists. Anything still unticked goes on a sticky note for you. Use those notes, and your speaking checklist, to plan the C13 catch-up stations.

Celebrate the halfway point. Learners have finished half of A2. Ask each person to say one thing they can do now that they couldn't do in Week 1. Keep it short and warm.

Progress Test 1 (C13) covers Modules 1–4. From this module it can test: past participles, present perfect with ever / never, short answers, been vs gone, present perfect vs past simple with time words, have to / has to / don't have to, must / mustn't, should / shouldn't + base verb, and travel phrases. The C12 speaking checklist gives you the spoken evidence.

Watch for in Module 5: the past simple comes back in the past continuous (5.1–5.2) and used to (5.3). The present perfect returns in 8.1 (for, since, just, already, yet), so keep a "Have you ever...?" question in a warmer every week until then.

Module 5 — Telling Stories

Three classes that turn a list of past events into a real story. Learners freeze a past moment with the past continuous ("At eight I was cooking"), mix it with the past simple to show a background and a sudden event ("I was walking home when it started to rain"), and look back at old habits with used to ("I used to walk to work, but now I drive"). The module starts right after Progress Test 1, so C14 opens by handing the tests back in a warm, low-stress way.

3 lessons

Lessons 5.1–5.3

Classes C14–C16

Weeks 7–8

90 min per class

CEFR A2

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- One lesson block = one 90-minute class. Every class follows the same shape: warmer → lead-in → Meaning / Form / Pronunciation with concept-checking questions (CCQs) → drill (choral, then individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (pairs and groups) → feedback with delayed error correction → homework.
- The stage plan is your clock. Each one adds up to 90 minutes. The numbers in the Time column are minutes.
- Present from `slides/module-5-telling-stories.html`. Print `materials/module-5/classroom-materials.html` before C14. It holds the flashcards, the Alibi Game mysteries and planning sheets, the two picture stories for sequencing, the "Something happened!" story cards, the Then & Now character cards, the listening scripts and the Story Road board game.
- The online lessons are the learners' homework and review. Each one has  Listen buttons, so learners can hear every model sentence and dialogue again at home.
- American English throughout. The online lessons and this kit both use American English: movie, taking a shower, traveling, apartment, movie theater, color, Should we...? / Let's..., and soccer. Accept British forms when learners use them (film, having a shower, travelling, flat, cinema, colour, Shall we...?, football).
- Dashed boxes = lines to say out loud, CCQs and ICQs (instruction-checking questions). Green boxes = scripts you read aloud. Amber = watch-outs.

THE THROUGH-LINE

A moment → a story → a life. In C14 learners freeze one moment: what was happening at 8 p.m.? In C15 something happens in the middle of that moment: the long line (past continuous) meets the dot (past simple), and a story is born. In C16 learners zoom out to whole periods of life: what used to be true, and what is true now. Past-tense storytelling is the spine of A2. Module 1 gave learners the past simple; this module gives their stories a background, a surprise and a "before and after." Module 8 will bring it all together in the life-story project.

TRAUMA-INFORMED: THE PAST CAN BE A HARD PLACE

This whole module asks about the past: last night, "something that happened," how life used to be. For some adults the past holds war, loss, detention, or a home they cannot go back to. Three rules for every personal task in this module:

- ◆ Invented is always fine. Say it out loud every time: "Your real life, or a character card, or make it up." Choosing a card is normal, not a sign that something is wrong.
- ◆ Never make the home country the topic. The online lesson 5.3 suggests "your hometown." In class, used to is about childhood, a job you used to have, or a character card. A learner may choose to talk about their hometown, but you never ask for it.
- ◆ The Alibi Game is a silly mystery, not an interrogation. Questions like "Where were you at 8 p.m.?" can feel like a police interview to someone who has lived through one. So the "crime" is a missing birthday cake, the roles are "detectives" and "cake suspects," the alibi is invented together, and anyone can choose to be a detective instead of a suspect. Never ask a learner where they really were last night in front of the class; in pair drills, invented answers are welcome.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- ◆ Mark Progress Test 1 before C14. Write a short, positive comment on every paper: one thing they did well + one thing to practice. Collect 4–5 common errors from different papers for the C14 board (no names). Note which learners scored below about 60% so you can offer a quiet 1:1 chat at the break.
- ◆ Print from the materials sheet: the flashcards (one set for the board); the Alibi Game mystery cards, suspect planning sheets and detective notes (one set per group of 4); the picture-story cards, Story A and Story B (one set of each per group of 3); the "Something happened!" story cards (one A/B set per pair); the Then & Now character cards (keep them on a side table where anyone can take one); and the Story Road board (one per group of 3–4) with a die and small counters (coins work).
- ◆ Bring a small bell, a whistle, or just clap for the "Freeze!" warmer in C15.
- ◆ Optional for C16: one "then" photo of yourself (or a drawing), such as you as a child, with long hair, in an old uniform. It makes the used to lead-in personal and warm. A character from the slides works just as well.

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
5.1	C14 · wk 7	Progress Test 1 return · past continuous: was / were + -ing, wasn't / weren't, What were you doing...? , setting the scene, while for two actions at once	say what they (or a character) were doing at three different times yesterday in 6+ sentences, and ask "What were you doing at...?"
5.2	C15 · wk 8	Past continuous vs past simple: background + interruption, when + short action, while + long action, story phrases and reactions	put a picture story in order and retell it with when/while, and tell a 6-sentence "something happened" story
5.3	C16 · wk 8	used to + base verb for past habits and states · didn't use to · Did you use to...? · "used to..., but now..."	describe then and now (childhood, an old job, or a character) in 6+ sentences and ask "Did you use to...?"

5.1 · C14

Past Continuous — What Was Happening

90 min

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ reflect on their Progress Test 1 results and set one personal goal
- ◆ form the past continuous with was / were + verb-ing for every person
- ◆ make negatives (wasn't / weren't + -ing), yes/no questions with short answers (Were you sleeping? — Yes, I was.) and Wh- questions (What were you doing at nine?)
- ◆ set a scene: describe what was happening at a moment in the past
- ◆ join two actions that happened at the same time with while

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Marked Progress Test 1 papers (in folders or face-down) · sticky notes · Workbook "My goal after Progress Test 1" box
- ◆ Workbook 5.1 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, Alibi Game pages) · Slides 1–9 · action flashcards (Set A)
- ◆ Alibi Game (Set B): 1 mystery card + 2 suspect planning sheets + 2 detective notes per group of 4
- ◆ Listening scripts 5.1-A (At eight o'clock last night) and 5.1-B (dictation)

BOARD PLAN

Left: Our test: ✓ We can... (3 class strengths) · Let's fix it! (4 anonymous sentences)

Center: a time line with a camera  at "8 p.m. last night": I / he / she / it was cooking · you / we / they were cooking · I wasn't sleeping. · What were you doing at 8? · Were you sleeping? → Yes, I was. / No, I wasn't.

Right: two long arrows, one above the other: While I was reading, she was cooking. · State verbs ✗ continuous: know, like, want, need, love.

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Welcome & Progress Test 1 return	12	T-S · S-S · S	Slide 2. See "Returning Progress Test 1" below: strengths on the board, papers back privately, pairs fix 4 anonymous errors, each learner writes one goal in the workbook box.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Lead-in: the photo at 8 p.m.	6	T-S	Slide 4. "Imagine a camera. Click! It's 8 p.m. last night, in my apartment building. What was happening?" Point at the pictures and model: "My neighbor was cooking. The students were dancing." Then: "And you? What were you doing at eight? Real or invented, both are fine!" Take 3–4 quick answers and recast them into the past continuous. No grammar talk yet.
Grammar: was / were + -ing	13	T-S	Slides 5–6. Meaning (in progress at a past moment, not finished), form for all persons, negative, questions and short answers, the -ing spelling recap, and "no state verbs." CCQs below. Build the board center column with the learners.
Pronunciation + drill	7	T-S → S	Weak was /wəz/ and were /wər/ in sentences, strong in short answers. Drill script below: back-chain, substitution, negative, question chain.
Listening: At eight o'clock last night	8	T-S → S	Workbook Ex 1. Read Script 5.1-A twice. Learners match the neighbors to the pictures (one picture is extra). Check: "What was Mr. Díaz doing?" — "He was cooking." Stretch question: "Were the students studying?" (No, they weren't.)
Controlled practice	12	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 2–5 alone, then check in pairs. Go through only the items pairs disagree on. If there is time, read Script 5.1-B (dictation, 4 sentences) and let learners check each other's spelling of -ing .
Freer: The Alibi Game	22	S-S (groups of 4)	Slide 9. See "The Alibi Game — how to run it" below. Groups of 4: 2 cake suspects plan an invented evening together; 2 detectives prepare questions; then the detectives interview each suspect alone and compare the answers. ICQs first.
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed error correction: write 4 sentences you heard (2 good, 2 with errors) on the board, no names. Likely errors: "I cooking," "They was watching," "I was cook," "Yes, I was sleeping."

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
			"Right or wrong? Fix it together." Praise the best detail from an alibi.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Show the online lesson on screen; point at a  button. Set the homework (below). Learners tick the "I can..." box in the workbook.
Total	90		12 + 6 + 13 + 7 + 8 + 12 + 22 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

The test return must stay at 12 minutes. Cut the dictation (Script 5.1-B) and Ex 5 (set it as homework). If the Alibi Game is short on time, do one round only and skip the role swap. Never cut the Alibi Game: it is where was/were + -ing becomes real questions and answers.

RETURNING PROGRESS TEST 1 (12 MIN) — KEEP IT WARM

1. Celebrate first (3 min). Before any paper comes out, write "We can..." on the board and list three things the whole class did well (for example: tell a story in the past · compare things · talk about plans with "going to"). Say it out loud.

SAY: Four modules! You can talk about the past, compare things, make plans, and give advice, in English. That's a lot. Give yourselves a hand.

2. Return privately (2 min). Hand papers back face-down or in folders. Never read scores aloud and never compare learners. Everyone gets a written comment: one strength + one thing to practice.

3. "Let's fix it!" (5 min). Show 4 anonymous errors from the tests, for example: Yesterday I goed to the market. · Did you went to the party? · She is more tall than her brother. · I have visited Mexico last year. (Use your own learners' errors if you can: You must to see a doctor. · How much apples do we need? are also common.) Pairs fix them. Take answers. Praise the fixing, not the mistake-free papers.

4. One goal (2 min). Each learner writes one goal in the workbook box ("My goal after Progress Test 1") or on a sticky note: "I want to practice _____. I will _____." Give two examples: "I want to practice irregular verbs. I will say five verbs every morning." / "I want to practice listening. I will use the  buttons at home."

SAY: A test is a map. It tells us where we are. It doesn't tell us who we are.

Some adults carry hard memories of school and tests. Keep your voice light and move on quickly. Offer a 1:1 chat at the break to anyone who struggled (below about 60%), and plan catch-up with the Module 1–4 online lessons. Don't let the test return grow past 12 minutes. The best encouragement is a good, successful lesson straight after it, and today's grammar is kind: learners already know was/were (Lesson 1.1) and -ing (present continuous).

Meaning. The past continuous describes an action in progress at a moment in the past. It was not finished at that moment; it was "in the middle." Use the camera image: the past simple tells the whole event; the past continuous is a photo taken in the middle of it.

SAY: "At eight o'clock I was cooking dinner." At eight, did I start cooking? (No, I started before.) At eight, was the cooking finished? (No.) So at eight I was... (in the middle of cooking).

SAY: "I cooked dinner." Is it finished? (Yes.) "I was cooking dinner at eight." Do we know if I finished? (No, we only know it was happening at eight.)

SAY: "While I was reading, she was cooking." How many actions? (Two.) One after the other, or at the same time? (At the same time.)

Form. Learners already have both parts. Say: "You know was/were from Lesson 1.1, and -ing from 'I'm cooking.' Put them together."

Positive	I / he / she / it + was + verb- ing you / we / they + were + verb- ing	She was studying. · They were playing soccer.
Negative	wasn't / weren't + verb- ing	He wasn't listening. · We weren't working.
Yes/No question	Was / Were + subject + verb- ing ...?	Were you sleeping? — Yes, I was. / No, I wasn't.
Wh- question	Wh- + was / were + subject + verb- ing ...?	What were you doing at nine? · Where was she going?
-ing spelling	add -ing · drop -e · double (one vowel + one consonant) · -ie → -ying	watching · making · running · lying

State verbs. know, like, want, need, love are not actions you can "photograph," so they stay in the past simple: I knew the answer (not "I was knowing"). Keep this light; one example on the board is enough at A2.

Pronunciation. In a sentence, was and were are weak and fast: /wəz/, /wər/. "I was COOKing" sounds like "I wuz COOKing." The stress is on the -ing verb. In short answers they are strong: "Yes, I WAS." /wəz/ · "No, they WEREN'T." /wɜrnt/. Wasn't has two syllables (/ˈwʌz.ənt/); weren't has one. The -ing ending is /ɪŋ/: no hard /g/ at the end, and not /ɪn/.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- Back-chain the model sentence: "dinner" → "cooking dinner" → "was cooking dinner" → "I was cooking dinner" → "At eight o'clock I was cooking dinner." Choral ×3 with weak was, then half the room, then 4–5 individuals.

- 2 Substitution drill (hold up a flashcard, then say a subject): T: "They... 📺" → S: "They were watching TV." T: "She... (read)" → S: "She was reading." T: "We... (bus stop)" → S: "We were waiting for the bus." Speed up when they are ready.
- 3 Negative transformation: T: "At midnight I was dancing." (shake head) → S: "At midnight I wasn't dancing." Then with they: "They weren't..."
- 4 Question chain: S1 → S2: "What were you doing at 7 a.m. yesterday?" S2: "I was having breakfast." (real or invented) S2 → S3 with a new time. Then yes/no: "Were you sleeping at 6 a.m.?" — "Yes, I was. / No, I wasn't."

◆ THE ALIBI GAME – HOW TO RUN IT (22 MIN)

- ◆ Set-up (2 min). Read a mystery card aloud with a dramatic voice: "Last night, between 7 and 9 p.m., someone ate the birthday cake in the school kitchen. Only crumbs! Two people were in the building. Were they together all evening, like they say?" Make groups of 4: 2 suspects + 2 detectives. Anyone may choose to be a detective. It's a game; the evening is invented.
- ◆ Plan (5 min). The two suspects sit together with the suspect planning sheet and invent their shared evening: where they were and what they were doing at 7:00, 7:30, 8:00, 8:30 and 9:00, plus details (what was the weather doing? what were you eating? what was on TV?). The two detectives use the question cards to write 6–8 questions on their notes sheet: "What were you doing at 7:30? What was your friend wearing?"
- ◆ Interview (8 min). Suspect 1 stays; Suspect 2 goes to another group's table (or waits by the door with their back turned) for 4 minutes. The detectives ask their questions and write short notes. Swap: Suspect 2 comes back and answers the same questions. Suspects must not hear each other.
- ◆ Verdict (3 min). Detectives compare the two sets of answers: ✓ same, ✗ different. 3 or more ✗ = "You ate the cake!" Then they report to the class with the past continuous: "At eight, Ana said they were watching TV, but Omar said they were eating pizza!"
- ◆ Swap roles (4 min) with a new mystery card if there is time, or save the second round for the C15 warmer.

Large class: run it once as a whole class first. Two volunteer suspects leave the room to plan, and the whole class writes detective questions. Then everyone plays in groups. Small class (4–7): one group of suspects and everyone else are detectives.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE ALIBI GAME

SAY: Is it a real crime? (No! It's a game.) · Is the evening real or invented? (Invented.) · Suspects: do you plan together or alone? (Together.) · Detectives: when you ask the questions, is the other suspect listening? (No!) · What is the question? ("What were you doing at...?") · How many differences for "You ate the cake!"? (Three.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Put the action flashcards on the table: learners point to a picture and say the sentence ("At eight we were watching TV"). On the planning sheet, they draw a small picture or copy a phrase from the flashcards for each time. In Ex 2–4, do the first 3 items only. In the game, the detective role is lighter: two strong questions, asked again and again, are a success.

STRETCH

Suspects add details with while: "While we were eating, the neighbor was playing music." Detectives ask follow-up questions: "Where were you sitting? What color was the cake?" Early finishers write the alibi as a short paragraph that sets the scene: "It was a rainy evening. We were..."

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I cooking dinner" (no was): Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai, Arabic, Russian and many other learners whose L1 has no "be" in this position. Point at the two parts on the board: was + -ing. Two parts, every time.
- ◆ "They was watching": from all L1s, and it is also heard in some spoken English dialects. Recast: "They were." The rule is the same as Lesson 1.1.
- ◆ Past continuous for habits ("When I was a child, I was going to the beach every summer"): Spanish, Portuguese, French, Italian and Russian speakers map their imperfect tense to the past continuous. Accept it today; say "Great! Thursday we learn a better way: used to."
- ◆ State verbs in the continuous ("I was knowing," "I was wanting"): common for Hindi, Urdu, Punjabi, Tagalog and some African-language speakers. Keep it light: I knew / I wanted.
- ◆ The -ing ending: Spanish and Portuguese speakers may say /ɪn/ ("cookin"); Arabic, Polish and some Chinese speakers add a hard /g/ ("cooking-g"); Vietnamese speakers may drop the final sound. Model /ɪŋ/ with the mouth open and the tongue at the back.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 5.1: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_13.html. Listen to the model sentences and the "I called you at nine" dialogue with 🗣️ and say them out loud; do Exercises 1–3 and the project "My Yesterday, Moment by Moment" (real or invented). Workbook 5.1: finish Ex 5, "My new words" and the journal.

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B I was cooking dinner at eight. · Q2 A Were ... weren't · Q3 (new) B I knew his name, so I said hello.
Listening (Script 5.1-A, Ex 1): 1 d · 2 a · 3 b · 4 c · 5 e · 6 f · g (swim) is extra.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ use the past continuous for the long background action and the past simple for the short action that interrupts it
- ◆ choose when (+ the short past-simple action) and while (+ the long past-continuous action), with a comma when the sentence starts with them
- ◆ put a picture story in order and retell it with when and while
- ◆ tell a 6-sentence "something happened" story and react to a partner's story (Oh no! And then what happened?)

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 5.2 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, story planner) · Slides 10–14 · story-word flashcards (Set A)
- ◆ Picture-story cards (Set C): Story A "Lena's Rainy Saturday" (8 cards) and Story B "Omar's Kitchen" (6 cards), one set of each per group of 3
- ◆ "Something happened!" story cards (Set D), one A/B set per pair · a bell or whistle for the "Freeze!" warmer
- ◆ Listening scripts 5.2-A (Lena's Rainy Saturday) and 5.2-B (dictation)

BOARD PLAN

Left: a long line with a dot on it: ————— • ——— Under the line: was walking home (long, background). Under the dot: it started to rain (short, sudden).

Center: I was walking home when it started to rain. = While I was walking home, it started to rain. · when + short (past simple) · while + long (past continuous) · comma if when/while comes first

Right: irregular past: ring → rang · fall → fell · begin → began · break → broke · see → saw · wake → woke · meet → met · go out → went out · Story words: suddenly · then · after that · in the end

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: Freeze!	8	T-S → S-S	Review C14. Four volunteers mime actions at the front (cooking, reading, dancing, talking on the phone). Ring the bell: "Freeze!" They stop and sit. "What were they doing when I rang the bell?" Class: "Ana was cooking. Omar and Li were dancing." Repeat once with new volunteers. Then 2–3 learners read one journal sentence from homework. (Stretch: finish the Alibi Game second round here instead.)

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Lead-in: the long line and the dot	5	T–S	The Freeze! game already did it: "They were dancing (long) when I rang the bell (short)." Draw the long line and the dot. Tell a 3-sentence mini-story: "Yesterday I was walking home. The sun was shining. Suddenly it started to rain!" Ask: "Which action was long? Which was sudden?"
Grammar: background + interruption, when / while	13	T–S	Slides 10–11. Meaning (long background vs short event), form, when vs while , comma rule, the sequence exception (When the movie ended, we went home). CCQs below. Review the irregular past verbs on the right of the board.
Drill	6	T–S → S	Drill script below: back-chain, flip the sentence (when ↔ while), and "long or short?" hand signals.
Picture story: listen and order	12	S–S (groups of 3)	Groups get the 8 Story A cards, shuffled, picture up. (1) Read Script 5.2-A slowly; groups put the cards in order. (2) Read again to check; groups fix their order. (3) Show slide 12 (the story in order) to confirm. Learners copy the order into Workbook Ex 1.
Retell with when / while	10	S–S	Cards stay in order. Round 1: learners take turns around the group, one card each, and retell the story. Each card has only verb cues, so they must build the sentences. Every learner uses when or while at least once. Round 2: turn over two cards; the group retells from memory. Stretch groups: Story B (Omar's Kitchen). They order it by logic (no script) and tell it.
Controlled practice	10	S → S–S	Workbook Ex 2–4 alone, then check in pairs. Board-check only the hard items (usually Ex 2 no. 2 and Ex 3 no. 3). Ex 5 (write the Lena story) is homework.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Freer: Something happened!	16	S → S-S	Slides 13–14. Model the coffee dialogue first (A/B read, 2 min). (1) Each learner plans a story in the workbook planner: a real small moment, an invented one, or a story card (Set D) (4 min). (2) Pairs: A tells, B reacts with the phrase bank and asks "And then what happened?" (4 min). Swap (4 min). (3) New partner, tell it again, faster (2 min). ICQs first.
Feedback	5	T-S	Board: 4 heard sentences. Focus on "...when it was starting to rain," "While I fell..." and a missing was . Learners fix them. Praise one great story opening.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 5.2; Workbook Ex 5 (write Lena's story) and the journal. Preview C16: "Next class: how life used to be ."
Total	90		8 + 5 + 13 + 6 + 12 + 10 + 10 + 16 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. Two actions, two roles. The background action was already in progress (long line → past continuous). The interrupting action happened in the middle of it (a dot → past simple). The background started first.

SAY: "I was sleeping when the phone rang." Which started first, the sleeping or the phone? (The sleeping.) Was the phone call long or short? (Short, sudden.) Did the phone stop my sleeping? (Yes, probably!)

SAY: "While she was cooking, the doorbell rang." Was she cooking before the doorbell? (Yes.) Which word goes with the long action? (While.)

SAY: "When the movie ended, we went home." Was anything in progress? (No.) One thing, then another? (Yes.) So both verbs are... (past simple).

Form.

	Past continuous	Past simple
Role	the long background	the short action that interrupts
Form	was / were + verb-ing	verb-ed or irregular (rang, fell)

Picture	a long line ———	a dot •
Joining word	while + background	when + short action
Example	While I was walking home, ...	...when it started to rain.

Punctuation. When the sentence starts with When or While, put a comma after the first part: "While she was reading, the light went out." No comma in the middle: "The light went out while she was reading."

A note on "when." At A2, teach the clear pattern: when + short action. Learners will also hear when + background ("When I was living in Chicago, ..."). If a strong learner asks, say: "Yes, that's correct too. When can mean 'at that time.'" Don't mark it wrong.

Pronunciation. Storytelling is about rhythm. The background clause is often said a little slower; the event is stressed and sudden: "I was walking HOME... when it STARTED to RAIN!" Encourage a small pause before when and a bigger voice on the event. Suddenly is stressed on the first syllable: SUD-den-ly. Irregular past vowels: rang /æ/, fell /ɛ/, began /æ/, broke /ʊ/.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Back-chain: "to rain" → "it started to rain" → "when it started to rain" → "I was walking home when it started to rain." Choral ×3, then individuals, with the pause and the "sudden" voice.
- 2 Flip it: T: "I was walking home when it started to rain." → S: "While I was walking home, it started to rain." T: "She was cooking when the phone rang." → S: "While she was cooking, the phone rang."
- 3 Long or short? (hand signals): say a phrase; learners stretch their arms wide (long = past continuous) or clap once (short = past simple): "was sleeping" (arms) · "the phone rang" (clap) · "were driving" (arms) · "fell" (clap) · "was raining" (arms) · "knocked" (clap).
- 4 Chain: S1: "I was watching TV when..." S2: "...the lights went out." S2 starts a new one: "While I was eating, ..." S3 finishes it.

◆ PICTURE STORY – HOW TO RUN IT

- Groups of 3, one set of 8 Story A cards, shuffled, picture up. Each card has a picture and short verb cues only (for example: walk in the park · sun / shine).
- Round 1 (listen): read Script 5.2-A at a natural pace. Groups put the cards in order. Read again, a little slower; groups fix their order and write 1–8 in the small box in pencil.
- Round 2 (retell): each learner in turn picks up the next card and says the sentence. The group helps. At least one when and one while sentence per learner.
- Round 3 (memory): turn two cards face down; retell the whole story again. Stronger groups turn all cards down.
- Stretch: Story B (Omar's Kitchen, 6 cards) has no script. Groups agree the order by logic and tell it. Two orders can work if the group can explain them.

Answer (Story A): 1 walk in the park (park) → 2 read on a bench (read) → 3 start to rain (umbrella) → 4 run to the bus stop () → 5 wait for the bus, a man arrive (bus stop) → 6 old friend Marco! (happy) → 7 drink coffee, talk (coffee) → 8 sun shine again, happy (sunny). Model retell: Lena was walking in the park. While she was reading on a bench, it started to rain. She ran to the bus stop. While she was waiting for the bus, a man arrived. It was her old friend Marco! They went to a café. While they were drinking coffee, they talked for two hours. When they left, the sun was shining again.

◆ ICQS BEFORE "SOMETHING HAPPENED!"

SAY: Does your story need to be true? (No. True, invented, or a story card.) · How do you start? (Set the scene: "I was... The sun was...") · Which tense for the sudden event? (Past simple.) · What does B do while A is talking? (Listens and reacts: "Oh no!") · What does B ask at the end? ("And then what happened?")

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

The picture cards carry the story, so pre-literate learners can take full part in the sequencing. In the retell, they may say two simple sentences instead of one joined one ("She was reading. It started to rain.") and the group adds "when." In the freer task, use a story card; the pictures and cue words are enough. Ex 5 can be 3 sentences.

STRETCH

Use story words: suddenly, then, after that, in the end. Add a feeling (I was so nervous!). Set the scene with two past-continuous sentences before the event. Try a story with two interruptions. Tell Story B without the cards. In Ex 5, write 8 sentences.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ Both verbs in the continuous ("I was walking home when it was starting to rain"): common everywhere, especially Hindi/Urdu and Tagalog speakers, who use the continuous a lot. Use the long line and the dot: "Starting is a dot. Dots are past simple."
- ◆ "During I was sleeping..." (Spanish durante, French pendant, Portuguese durante, Russian во время). During + a noun (during the movie); while + subject + verb (while I was sleeping). This is the distractor in Quiz Q2.
- ◆ No tense difference at all ("I walk home, it start to rain"): Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai, Indonesian and Malay have no verb endings; time words carry the meaning. Praise the story and recast just one verb at a time.
- ◆ Good news for Spanish, Portuguese, French and Italian speakers: their imperfect vs. preterite (estaba caminando / empezó) maps well onto this lesson. Tell them! It builds confidence.
- ◆ Irregular past forms under pressure ("the phone ringed," "I falled"): from all L1s. Keep the irregular list on the board and point to it; don't stop the story.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 5.2: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_14.html. Listen to the coffee-accident dialogue and the model sentences with 🗣️ and read them out loud; do Exercises 1–3 and the project "Something Happened!" Workbook 5.2: Ex 5 (write Lena's story), "My new words" and the journal (a true or invented surprise).

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B I was walking home when it started to rain. · Q2 A While · Q3 (new) B When the movie ended, we went home. Picture story (Script 5.2-A, Ex 1): a 7 · b 1 · c 5 · d 8 · e 3 · f 2 · g 6 · h 4.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- use used to + base verb for past habits (I used to walk to work) and past states (She used to have long hair) that are not true now
- make the negative didn't use to and the question Did you use to...? with the spelling change (no -d), and answer Yes, I did. / No, I didn't.
- choose the past simple, not used to, for one single event
- compare then and now with used to..., but now... about childhood, a job they used to have, or a character

◆ MATERIALS

- Workbook 5.3 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, Then & Now chart) • Slides 15–18 • then-and-now flashcards (Set A)
- Then & Now character cards (Set E, 3 A/B pairs) on a side table • optional: a "then" photo or drawing of yourself
- Story Road board game (Set G), one per group of 3–4, a die and counters
- Listening scripts 5.3-A (Carmen, then and now) and 5.3-B (dictation)

BOARD PLAN

Left: two columns: THEN 🕒 | NOW 📱 . I used to walk to work, | but now I drive. • She used to have long hair, | but now it's short.

Center: ✅ I / you / she / they used to + base verb • ❌ I didn't use to like coffee. • ❓ Did you use to play soccer? → Yes, I did. / No, I didn't. • after did / didn't → ~~used~~ use (no -d!)

Right: sounds like "YOO-stuh" / "ju:stə/" (both!) • habits (again and again) + states (for a long time) • ❌ Yesterday I used to see a movie → one time = past simple: I saw

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: story chain	8	S-S (groups) → T-S	Review C15. Groups of 4. You say a scene: "It was a dark, rainy night. I was walking home..." Each learner adds one sentence; every sentence must use when or while , or a story word (suddenly , then , in the end). 2 groups tell their story to the class. 2–3 learners read their homework journal story.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Lead-in: then and now	5	T-S	Show your "then" photo, or slide 15 (Max: then a soccer player, now a teacher). "This is me twenty years ago. I had long hair! I went to parties every weekend. Is it true now? (No!)" Write: I used to have long hair, but now it's short. Ask: "Every weekend, or one time? Is it true now?"
Grammar: used to / didn't use to / Did you use to...?	14	T-S	Slides 15–16. Meaning (past habits + past states that changed), form (same for every person; base verb), the -d disappearing after did/didn't , short answers, one time = past simple. CCQs below. Pronunciation: /'ju:stə/ with /s/, not /z/.
Drill	6	T-S → S	Drill script below: back-chain, then → but now, negative, question chain.
Listening: Carmen, then and now	7	T-S → S	Workbook Ex 1. Read Script 5.3-A twice. Learners tick THEN or NOW for 8 sentences. Check with used to : "Carmen used to live on a farm. Now she lives in a city." Stretch: "Did her family use to have a TV?" (No, they didn't.)
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 2–4 alone, then check in pairs. Board-check Ex 3 (use to / used to): learners come up and cross out the -d where it must go. If there's time, read Script 5.3-B (dictation), which focuses on the -d spelling.
Freer: Then & Now	20	S → S-S	Slide 17. (1) Each learner chooses one topic: My childhood, A job I used to have, or a character card (Set E). No one explains their choice (1 min). (2) Fill the Then & Now chart in the workbook: 4 "used to" and 3 "now" (5 min). (3) Pairs: A tells; B asks 2 "Did you use to...?" questions and notes the answers. Swap (4 + 4 min). (4) Two truths and a lie , new partner: say 3 "used to" sentences, one false. Partner guesses (4 min). (5) 2 learners tell the class one surprising thing (2 min). ICQs first.
Module review: Story Road	10	S-S (groups of 3–4)	The board game (Set G) covers all of Module 5. Groups roll, move, and do the task on the square. The group decides "OK" or helps. Stop after 10 minutes; the player furthest along wins. If you are short on time, keep the boards for the C17 warmer.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Feedback + module check	5	T-S	Delayed correction: "I didn't used to...", "I used to lived...", "Yesterday I used to...", "I use to go to the gym" (for a present habit). Then learners tick the Module 5 "I can..." lists.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 5.3; workbook journal. Preview C17: "Next class: If it rains, I'll stay home . What will you do if...?"
Total	90		8 + 5 + 14 + 6 + 7 + 10 + 20 + 10 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

Move Story Road to the C17 warmer and use the 10 minutes to give the Then & Now task more room. Cut the dictation. Don't cut the "Two truths and a lie" round: it is short, fun, and the best Did you use to...? practice in the module.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. Used to + base verb tells two things at once: (1) it was true again and again (a habit) or for a long time (a state) in the past, and (2) it is not true now.

SAY: "I used to walk to work." Did I walk to work one time or many times? (Many times.) Do I walk to work now? (No.) Is this about the past, the present, or the future? (The past.)

SAY: "She used to have long hair." Is her hair long now? (No.) Was it long for one day or a long time? (A long time.)

SAY: "Yesterday I used to see a movie." Right or wrong? (Wrong.) Why? (Yesterday is one time.) So... ("Yesterday I saw a movie.")

SAY: "I use to go to the gym." (said about now) Is used to for now? (No, only the past.) For now we say... ("I usually go to the gym.")

Form.

Positive	I / you / he / she / we / they + used to + base verb	I used to live in a small town. • He used to smoke.
-----------------	---	---

Negative	didn't use to + base verb	We didn't use to have a car.
Question	Did + subject + use to + base verb...?	Did you use to play soccer?
Short answer	Yes, I did . / No, I didn't .	(not "Yes, I used to" in drills; it's fine in conversation)
Then vs now	used to ..., but now ...	I used to walk to work, but now I drive.

Why no -d? Did already carries the past, just like I didn't go (not "didn't went"). Learners know this rule from Lesson 1.3; connect it.

Pronunciation. Used to and use to sound the same: /ju:stə/, "YOO-stuh." The s is /s/ (not /z/ like the verb "use" /ju:z/), and the d disappears in speech. That is why the spelling mistake is so common: learners can't hear the difference. Drill the sound, then show the spelling rule in writing. Stress falls on the main verb: "I used to WALK to work, but now I DRIVE." Contrastive stress on then/now makes the comparison clear.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Sound first: "YOO-stuh" ×3 choral. Then back-chain: "to work" → "walk to work" → "used to walk to work" → "I used to walk to work." Choral ×3, then individuals.
- 2 Then → but now: T shows a then/now flashcard pair (bus / car): S: "I used to take the bus, but now I drive." More cues: long hair / short hair · play soccer / watch soccer · drink coffee / drink tea.
- 3 Negative: T: "I liked coffee." (shake head, point to THEN) → S: "I didn't use to like coffee." Write use on the board and cross out the d with a flourish.
- 4 Question chain: S1 → S2: "Did you use to play soccer?" S2: "Yes, I did. / No, I didn't." S2 → S3 with a new verb (play the guitar, swim, sing, have a bike). Any answer can be invented.

◆ THEN & NOW – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Three doors, one choice. Write them on the board: 🧑 My childhood · 🧑 A job I used to have · 🧑 A character card. Say: "Choose any door. You don't need to explain." Point at the card table. Take a card yourself for the model, so the choice looks normal.
- ◆ Model with a character (Captain Rosa, Set E): "I used to be a sailor. I used to live on a ship. I didn't use to have a phone. But now I'm a chef, and I live in a small apartment."
- ◆ Chart (5 min): learners write 4 THEN notes and 3 NOW notes in the workbook chart. Notes, not full sentences.
- ◆ Pairs (8 min): A talks from the notes (6+ sentences, one didn't use to, one but now). B listens and asks 2 "Did you use to...?" questions. B writes one sentence about A: "Rosa used to live on a ship." Swap.
- ◆ Two truths and a lie (4 min): new partner. Say three used to sentences; one is false. The partner asks one question, then guesses: "I think you didn't use to play the guitar!"

Why not "my hometown"? The online lesson's project offers "your hometown years ago." For many refugees and newcomers, the hometown is a place of loss or danger. It stays a learner's free choice inside "My childhood," never the class topic. If a learner starts to share something painful, listen, thank them simply, and gently offer to continue with a character card. Do not ask follow-up questions about it in front of the class.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THEN & NOW

SAY: How many topics can you choose? (One.) · Do you have to talk about your real life? (No. A character card is fine.) · Do you explain your choice? (No.) · How many "used to" notes? (Four.) · What does your partner ask? ("Did you use to...?") · After did, do we write "used" or "use"? ("Use.")

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Use the then-and-now flashcards and the character cards: the pictures show THEN and NOW, so learners can point and speak. On the chart, they may draw. Target: 3 used to sentences and 1 but now. Skip the spelling rule in writing (Ex 3) and focus on saying "YOO-stuh" and the base verb.

STRETCH

Add there used to be... ("There used to be a bakery on my street"), time phrases (when I was young, years ago, these days, nowadays), and one sentence about a past state vs. a past habit. Compare with the past simple: "I lived there for two years" vs. "I used to live there." Write 8 sentences for the journal.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I use to go to the gym" meaning a present habit: Spanish suelo, Portuguese costumo, Italian di solito learners (and Tagalog speakers) use "use to" for "usually." CCQ: "Do you go to the gym now?" If yes: "I usually go to the gym."
- ◆ "I used to lived" / "I used to living": from all L1s. Point at the board: used to + base verb. The past is already in used.
- ◆ "Did you used to..." / "I didn't used to...": very common, even for native speakers in writing. It matters in writing only; don't correct it in speech (you can't hear it).
- ◆ "Before I play soccer" for "I used to play soccer": Chinese yǐqián, Tagalog dati, Vietnamese trước đây, Korean yejeone put a time word in front of a plain verb. Praise the meaning: "Yes! Before... so: I used to play soccer."
- ◆ "I was used to play" (Arabic, Russian, French speakers who know be used to): Be used to is a different phrase (B1). Today: no was.
- ◆ Past continuous for habits (from C14: "When I was a child I was going to the beach every summer"): now show the better tool: "I used to go to the beach every summer."

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 5.3: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_15.html. Listen to the old-friends dialogue and the model sentences with ; do Exercises 1–3. For the project "How Life Used to Be," talk about your childhood, a job you used to have, or a character (you don't have to talk about your hometown). Workbook 5.3: Ex 5, "My new words" and the journal.

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B I used to live in Madrid. · Q2 A Did ... use to · Q3 (new) B Yesterday I met an old friend. Listening (Script 5.3-A, Ex 1): THEN 1, 2, 3, 6 · NOW 4, 5, 7, 8 · Extra question: No, they didn't.

CLOSING THE MODULE

END OF C16: MODULE 5 WRAP-UP

Recap on slide 18: At eight I was cooking → I was cooking when the phone rang → I used to cook every day, but now my son cooks! Ask 3–4 volunteers to build one mini-story that uses all three: a scene, an event, and a then-and-now ending. Learners tick the three "I can..." lists in the workbook. Anything still unticked goes on a sticky note for you.

Check the C14 goals. At the end of C16, invite learners to look at their Progress Test goal again: "Did you practice it? What will you do next?" This is private: no one reports to the class.

Watch for in Module 6: "When I was young, I was going..." (continuous for habits) and "I use to..." for present habits will keep coming back. Recast gently. The first conditional in C17 uses the present simple after if, so expect a short battle with "If it will rain." That is normal.

The final assessment (C26) covers all eight modules. From this module it tests: past continuous (form, negatives, questions), when vs while with the two past tenses, telling a short past story, and used to / didn't use to / Did you use to...? with then-and-now comparison. Module 8's life-story project (C25) builds directly on these three lessons.

Module 6 — Joining Ideas Together

Three classes where learners stop speaking in short, separate sentences and start joining them. First they join a condition to a result with the first conditional (If it rains, I'll stay home). Then they join a detail to a noun with relative clauses (the man who lives next door). Last, they join whole ideas with and, but, so, because and although, and write their first connected paragraph.

3 lessons

Lessons 6.1–6.3

Classes C17–C19

Weeks 9–10

90 min per class

CEFR A2

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- ◆ One lesson block = one 90-minute class. Every class follows the same shape: warmer → lead-in → Meaning / Form / Pronunciation with concept-checking questions (CCQs) → drill (choral, then individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (pairs and groups) → feedback with delayed error correction → homework.
- ◆ The stage plan is your clock. Each one adds up to 90 minutes. The numbers in the Time column are minutes.
- ◆ Present from slides/module-6-joining-ideas.html. Print materials/module-6/classroom-materials.html before C17. It holds the flashcards, the If-chain game cards, the "make a deal" role cards, the Define it! word cards, the apartment-building information gap, the sentence-builder strips and idea cards, and the listening scripts.
- ◆ The online lessons are the learners' homework and review. Each one has  Listen buttons, so learners can hear the model sentences and dialogues again at home.
- ◆ American English throughout. The online lessons and this kit both use American English (watch a movie, neighbor, move, apartment, recognize, store, soccer). Accept British forms when learners use them (watch a film, neighbour, move house, flat, shop, football).
- ◆ A2 learners know the present simple, will / might (Module 3) and the past simple (Modules 1, 4, 5). This module re-uses all of them. It adds no new tense, only new ways to join. Say this to the class: it lowers anxiety.
- ◆ Dashed boxes = lines to say out loud, CCQs and ICQs (instruction-checking questions). Green boxes = scripts you read aloud. Amber = watch-outs.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Join a result → join a detail → join a story. In C17 learners join a condition to a result, and the If-chain game makes one result grow into the next condition. In C18 they join a detail to a noun, and the Define it! game makes them describe a word without saying it. In C19 they join whole ideas and finish with a short connected paragraph about their job, their town or their weekend. Each class ends with longer speaking or writing than the class before. Tell learners at the start of C17: "In three classes, you will write a real paragraph."

TRAUMA-INFORMED: PLANS, PEOPLE AND PLACES CAN BE PERSONAL

"If..." sentences are about the future, and for some adults the future is uncertain (immigration papers, work permits, a family far away). Keep the model topics light: weather, weekends, food, the bus. Never ask "What will you do if you can't stay?" In C18, "a person who..." can be a neighbor, a TV character, a coworker or a famous person, not only family. In C19, "my job" can be a past job, a job at home, or a dream job; "my town" can be this town, a hometown, or an imagined town. For every personal task, say the three choices out loud: your real life, a "new identity" card, or an imagined life. Say it every time, so choosing a card is normal.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- Print the picture flashcards (one set for the board). Print and cut the If-chain starter and twist cards (one set per group of 4–5) before C17.
- Print the "make a deal" role cards (C17) and the apartment-building information gap (C18, one A/B page per pair).
- Print the Define it! word cards (one set per group of 3–4) on card stock. They are also your C18 vocabulary flashcards.
- Print the sentence-builder set for C19: sentence-half strips, linker cards and topic idea cards (one set per group of 3). Put them in envelopes.
- Bring a phone timer or a small bell for the games, and an A4 sheet per learner for the C19 paragraph (a clean final copy).
- Keep the new identity cards from earlier modules (or the idea cards in Set G) on a side table where anyone can take one without asking.

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
6.1	C17 • wk 9	First conditional: If + present simple, will / won't / might + base verb; clause order and the comma; if vs when	make plans, promises and warnings about real possibilities, and say a 6-sentence "If... I'll..." plan for their week

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
6.2	C18 · wk 9	Defining relative clauses: who, which, that, where ; joining two sentences; dropping the object pronoun (receptive)	say exactly which person, thing or place they mean, and define 5+ everyday words ("It's a place where...")
6.3	C19 · wk 10	Linking words: and, but, so, because, although / though ; because vs so ; although vs but ; commas	join short sentences into longer ones and write a connected paragraph of 5–7 sentences about their job, town or weekend

6.1 · C17

First Conditional — Real Possibilities

90 min

OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- form the first conditional: If + present simple, will / 'll / won't / might + base verb
- say and write both clause orders, with a comma when if comes first: If you study, you'll pass. / You'll pass if you study.
- choose will for a sure result and might for a possible one
- choose when (sure to happen) or if (maybe)
- use the first conditional for plans, promises and warnings, and say a 6-sentence "If... I'll..." plan

MATERIALS

- Workbook 6.1 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "My If... I'll... plan")
- Slides 3–8 · picture flashcards (weather & plans) · If-chain starter + twist cards (1 set per group of 4–5) · Make a deal role cards A/B · new identity cards
- Listening scripts 6.1-A (Lena's weekend), 6.1-B (dictation), 6.1-C (the teacher's model chain)

BOARD PLAN

Left: two pictures: ☀️ and ☁️ with an arrow from each. ☀️ → go to the park · ☁️ → stay home. Phrase list: stay home · take an umbrella · get wet · miss the bus · be late · pass the test · call / text you.

Center: two boxes joined by an arrow. [If + present simple] → [will / 'll / won't / might + base verb]. If it rains, we'll stay home. · ~~If it will rain~~ ❌. Below: If you study, you'll pass. = You'll pass if you study. (no comma)

Right: a certainty line: will 100% · might 50% · won't 0%. Under it: when = sure ✅ · if = maybe 🤔

STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: then and now	8	S–S	Review C16 (5.3, used to). Pairs say three sentences: "When I was a child, I used to... Now I..." (real life or a card). Two or three pairs share one sentence. Check the homework journal: one volunteer reads a used to sentence.
Lead-in: it depends!	5	T–S	Slide 3. "What will you do this Saturday?" Learners answer. Then point at the ☀️ and ☁️: "It depends on the weather! If it's sunny, I'll go to the park. If it rains, I'll stay home." Ask two learners the same. Write your two sentences on the board. No grammar talk yet.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Vocabulary: plans & results	10	T-S	Slide 3 + flashcards. Elicit, model, drill the phrases: stay home, take an umbrella, get wet, miss the bus, be late, pass the test, go hiking, call / text you . Stress: take an UMBrella, miss the BUS, pass the TEST . Learners add the phrases they need to Workbook "New words."
Grammar: form, order, will / might, if / when	15	T-S	Slides 4–6. Meaning, form, pronunciation and CCQs (below). Build the two boxes on the board. Show the clause flip and the comma. Then the certainty line (will / might / won't), then when vs if . Drill (below).
Listening: Lena's weekend	7	T-S → S	Workbook Ex 1. Read Script 6.1-A once for gist ("Is Lena's weekend busy?"), then again: learners match the if-clauses to the results. Pairs check. Ask: "Is Lena sure about the supermarket?" (No: might .)
Controlled practice	12	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 2–5 alone, then check in pairs. Board-check only Ex 2 items 3 and 5 (the will trap) and the commas in Ex 4.
Dialogue + make a deal	10	S-S	Slide 7. Pairs read the hiking dialogue twice (swap roles). Then the Make a deal role cards: A and B read their card, then talk until they agree a plan with at least 3 "If..." sentences. Fast pairs take a second card pair. ICQs first.
Freer: the If-chain game	13	S-S (groups)	Slide 8. Model with Script 6.1-C (the teacher's chain) and one strong group. Groups of 4–5 turn over a starter card and build a chain: each result becomes the next if . Twist cards add might / won't / when . The group says "Beep!" when anyone puts will after if . Last 3 min: each group says its funniest chain to the class. Rules and ICQs below.
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed error correction: write 4 heard sentences (2 good, 2 with errors, no names): "If it will rain...", "I'll to call you", "If I will have time...". Learners fix them in pairs, then together.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Show the online lesson; point at a  button. Set the homework (below). Learners tick the "I can..." box.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Total	90		8 + 5 + 10 + 15 + 7 + 12 + 10 + 13 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

Cut the second role-card pair and do Ex 5 as homework. Never cut the If-chain: it gives every learner ten or more conditional sentences in a few minutes, and it is the part they remember.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. The first conditional talks about a real possibility in the present or future and its result. The condition may happen or may not. It is not a dream (that is the second conditional, B1).

SAY: "If it rains, we'll stay home." Is it raining now? (No / we don't know.) Is rain possible? (Yes.) Past, or future? (Future.) If it rains, what happens? (We stay home.)

SAY: "If it rains, we might stay home." Are we sure we'll stay home? (No. Maybe.) "If you don't hurry, you won't catch the bus." Will you catch it? (No.)

SAY: "When I get home, I'll call you." Will I get home? (Yes, of course.) "If I get home early, I'll call you." Will I get home early? (Maybe. We don't know.)

Form. Two boxes on the board; the if-box is a "no will zone."

If-clause (condition)	If + present simple	If it rains · If she calls · If we don't hurry
Result clause	will / 'll / won't / might + base verb	we'll stay home · I'll answer · we won't catch the bus
If first	comma after the if-clause	If you study, you'll pass.
Result first	no comma	You'll pass if you study.
Question	What will you do if...?	What will you do if it rains? — If it rains, I'll stay home.
if / when	same form; when = sure	When the movie ends, we'll go home.

If a learner says a general truth like "If you heat ice, it melts" (present in both halves), accept it, but don't teach it as a new structure today: it is the zero conditional (B1).

Pronunciation. Use the contractions in speech: I'll /aɪl/, you'll /jʊl/, we'll /wɪl/ (like "wheel"), it'll /'ɪtəl/. Many learners drop the /l/ completely, so "I'll call" becomes "I call." Make the "dark l" clear: tongue up, a little "ul" sound. won't /wɒnt/ vs want /want/: this pair confuses listeners. Drill a minimal pair: "I won't go"

(no) / "I want to go" (yes). Intonation: the if-clause rises and pauses at the comma, and the result falls: "If it RAINS ↗ | we'll stay HOME ↘." The comma in writing = the pause in speech.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Back-chain the model: "stay home" → "we'll stay home" → "If it rains, | we'll stay home." Choral ×3, half the room, then 4–5 individuals. Show the rise-pause-fall with your hand.
- 2 Picture substitution: hold up a flashcard (☀️, ☁️, 🚌) and a result card. T: "sunny... park" → S: "If it's sunny, I'll go to the park." T: "late... miss the bus" → S: "If I'm late, I'll miss the bus."
- 3 Certainty drill: T says the sentence and shows a gesture: thumbs up = will, shrug = might, thumbs down = won't. T: "If I have time... cook dinner" (shrug) → S: "If I have time, I might cook dinner."
- 4 Clause flip: T: "If you study, you'll pass." → S: "You'll pass if you study." Write one flip on the board and ask: "Comma?" (No.)
- 5 Open pairs → closed pairs: S1 asks across the room: "What will you do if it rains on Saturday?" S2: "If it rains, I'll..." Then all pairs for 1 minute with new weather words (cold, sunny, snowy).

◆ THE IF-CHAIN GAME – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Groups of 4–5 sit in a circle. Each group gets the starter cards face down and the twist cards face down in a second pile.
- ◆ Round 1 (model): read Script 6.1-C. Show the change on the board: "we'll stay home" → "If we stay home, ..." The result loses its 'll and moves into the if-box.
- ◆ Round 2 (play): S1 turns a starter card and says it: "If it rains, I'll stay home." S2 takes the result and makes a new condition: "If I stay home, I'll watch a movie." S3: "If I watch a movie, I'll eat popcorn..." Go around twice.
- ◆ Beep! If anyone says will in the if-half ("If I will stay home..."), the group says "Beep!" and the speaker says it again. That's the only rule the group polices.
- ◆ Twists: every third turn, the speaker takes a twist card first: use might, use won't, start with when, put if in the middle, make it a warning, make it a promise.
- ◆ Finish: when a chain gets back to the start ("...so I'll go outside, and it's raining!"), the group claps and turns a new starter. Stronger groups try to make a chain of 8 without a Beep.
- ◆ Walk around with a notebook: write errors for the feedback stage. Don't stop the game to correct.

◆ ICQS BEFORE "MAKE A DEAL" AND THE IF-CHAIN

SAY: Make a deal: Do you show your card? (No. Just talk.) · How many "If..." sentences? (Three or more.) · When do you stop? (When you agree.)

SAY: If-chain: Where does your if-clause come from? (The last person's result.) · "If I will stay home" — OK? (No! Beep!) · When do you take a twist card? (Every third turn.) · Do you write? (No. Only speak.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Give the two-box frame on a card: If ____ , I'll ____ . Learners point to the flashcards and say the sentence; the aim is speaking. In Ex 2, do items 1–4 only. In the If-chain, they can use picture flashcards as prompts. A 4-sentence plan in the project is a success.

STRETCH

Use unless for "if... not" (receptive: "Unless you hurry, you'll miss the bus"). Add a time and a reason: "If it's sunny on Saturday morning, I'll go hiking, because I need some fresh air." In the If-chain, end the chain with a when sentence. Early finishers write a warning sign for the classroom: "If you leave your phone on, ..."

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "If it will rain..." / "When I will get home...": Russian, Polish, Ukrainian and Turkish use a future form in the condition. French, Spanish and Portuguese use the present after si / if, but a future or subjunctive after cuand / cuando / quando, so the when sentence is where these learners slip. Point at the "no will zone" box every time.
- ◆ "If it rain, we stay home" (Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai, Indonesian): no tense marking in L1, so both the -s and the will disappear. Pull the 'll out with your fingers, and accept progress, not perfection.
- ◆ "If it rained, we will stay" (Arabic): idhā is often followed by a past form in Arabic. Recast: "If it rains..."
- ◆ Clause order (Japanese, Korean, Turkish): the condition always comes first in L1. These learners avoid the result-first order. Practice the flip drill, but don't insist in speech.
- ◆ "I'll to help you" and "I will helps" (many L1s): base verb after will. Point at the form box.
- ◆ Dropped /l/ in I'll, we'll (Vietnamese, Cantonese and other speakers who drop final consonants; also Japanese). The sentence becomes present: "I call you." Model it slowly and let learners say the full I will if the contraction is hard.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 6.1: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_16.html. Listen to the five model sentences with 🎧 and say each one twice. Workbook 6.1: finish "My If... I'll... plan" (6 sentences, one with might and one with when), "My new words" and the journal.

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B If it rains, we'll stay home. · Q2 A When I get home, I'll call you. · Q3 (new) B might. Listening (Ex 1): 1 c · 2 e · 3 b · 4 f · 5 a · 6 d.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- choose who (people), which (things), that (people or things) and where (places)
- add a detail to a noun to say which one: the man who lives next door
- join two short sentences into one: I have a friend. She lives in Texas. → I have a friend who lives in Texas.
- avoid repeating the subject (the woman who she works...)
- understand a dropped pronoun: the book (that) I bought (receptive)
- define everyday words: It's a person who... / a place where... / a thing which...

◆ MATERIALS

- Workbook 6.2 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "People, places & things in my life")
- Slides 9–13 · Define it! word cards (they are also today's flashcards; 1 set per group of 3–4) · Our apartment building information gap A/B (1 per pair) · timer
- Listening scripts 6.2-A (Sam's street) and 6.2-B (the teacher's Define it! riddles)

BOARD PLAN

Left: four columns with an icon:  who (people) ·  which (things) ·  that (both) ·  where (places). Two or three flashcards under each.

Center: the joining trick. I know a woman. + ~~She~~ speaks five languages. → I know a woman who speaks five languages. · That's the café. + We met ~~there~~. → That's the café where we met. · ~~the woman who she works...~~

Right: Drop it? the man who lives here (verb after → keep) · the book (that) I bought (new subject after → you can drop). Define it! frames: It's a person who... · a place where... · a thing which / that...

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: If-chain, speed round	8	S–S	Review C17. Groups of 4 do one fast If-chain (4 min), then pairs check the homework plan: each learner says 2 sentences from "My If... I'll... plan" (3 min). Class: "Who had a might sentence?" (1 min).
Lead-in: which one?	5	T–S	Say: "Please give the pen to the student." Look confused: "Which student?" Elicit: "the student who is next to the window." Then "Which bag?" → "the bag which is on the floor." Write both on the board. "These words tell us which one. "

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Vocabulary: people, places, things	8	T-S	Slide 9 + the Define it! cards as flashcards. Quick check of jobs, places and objects (most are A1 review). Sort them on the board into the  /  /  columns with the class. Drill stress where needed: ME chanic → me CHAN ic, SU permarket, PO st office, PASS port.
Grammar: who / which / that / where + joining	17	T-S	Slides 10–11. Meaning, form, pronunciation, CCQs (below). Build the joining trick on the board: cross out she / it / there and put in the relative pronoun. Then that as the all-rounder (not for places). Last 3 min: "drop it?" as recognition only.
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1–3 alone, then check in pairs. Board-check Ex 3 (the four classic mistakes).
Listening: Sam's street	7	T-S → S	Workbook Ex 4. Read Script 6.2-A twice: learners match the names to the descriptions. Check: "Who is Nadia?" → "She's the woman who works at the bank." Insist on the full answer.
Information gap: Our apartment building	10	S-S	Slide 12. A/B cards. Partners don't show their cards. A asks: "Who is Mrs. Chen?" B reads: "She's the neighbor who bakes bread every Sunday." A writes it. Then B asks. Compare cards at the end. Fast pairs: write 2 new people in the building and ask the partner.
Freer: Define it!	15	S-S (groups)	Slide 13. Model with Script 6.2-B (learners guess). Groups of 3–4, cards face down. The describer takes a card and defines the word without saying it: "It's a place where you can send a letter." The first person to guess gets the card. 1 minute per card. Rules and ICQs below. Last 3 min: learners write 3 definitions in Workbook Ex 5.
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed correction: "the man which works...", "a place who you buy...", "the woman who she...", "the town that I was born". Learners fix them.
Homework set- up	5	T-S	Online lesson 6.2; the "People, places & things in my life" task and journal. Say: "Next class: and , but , so , because , and you'll write a paragraph."

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Total	90		8 + 5 + 8 + 17 + 10 + 7 + 10 + 15 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. A defining relative clause tells us which person, thing or place we mean. It works like a long adjective: a tall man → a man who is tall. Without it, the listener asks "Which one?"

SAY: "The man who lives next door is a doctor." Which man? (The man next door.) How many ideas are in the sentence? (Two: he lives next door; he's a doctor.) Is who for a person or a thing? (A person.)

SAY: "This is the phone which I bought yesterday." Is which for a person? (No, a thing.) "That's the café where we met." Is the café a person, a thing or a place? (A place.) So which word? (where.)

SAY: "the woman who she works at the bank" — OK? (No.) Why not? (who = she. We need only one.)

SAY: "That's the book I bought." Is a word missing? (Yes: that / which.) Is the sentence OK? (Yes.) "That's the man lives next door." OK? (No! A verb comes after, so keep who.)

Form.

who	people	the doctor who helped me
which	things & animals	the phone which broke that	people or things (everyday English), not places	the song that I like · the man that called where	places	the shop where I work
Joining	replace he / she / it / there with the pronoun	I met a man. He works at the bank. → I met a man who works at the bank.
Drop it?	only when a new subject follows	the movie (that) we watched · the man lives here ❌

Pronunciation. A defining clause is one tone unit, with no pause and no comma: "the-man-who-lives-next-DOOR." Drill it as one chunk. who /hu/ has a clear /h/ (French, Spanish, Portuguese, Italian and Russian speakers often drop or change it to /x/). which /wɪtʃ/ sounds the same as witch; don't worry about the "wh." where /wɛr/ vs were /wɜr/: many learners mix them up, so drill the pair once. that in a relative clause is weak: /ðæt/.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Speed choice: T holds up a Define it! card; the class calls out the pronoun only: (nurse) "who!" · (airport) "where!" · (key) "which!" Get faster.
- 2 Joining drill: T says two sentences; S joins. T: "I have a friend. She lives in Texas." → S: "I have a friend who lives in Texas." T: "This is the bus. It goes downtown." → S: "This is the bus which goes downtown." T: "That's the school. I studied there." → S: "That's the school where I studied."
- 3 Back-chain the chunk: "next door" → "who lives next door" → "the man who lives next door" → "That's the man who lives next door." One breath, no pause.
- 4 Which one? in open pairs: S1 points at something in the room: "Which one is your bag?" S2: "It's the bag which is under the chair." S2 → S3: "Who is Maria?" S3: "She's the woman who is sitting next to the door."

◆ DEFINE IT! – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Groups of 3–4. One set of word cards, face down. Learners take turns as the describer.
- ◆ The describer takes the top card and looks at it privately. They start with the frame from the card's icon:  "It's a person who...";  "It's a place where...";  "It's a thing which / that..."
- ◆ They must not say the word, point at the object, or mime. (Literacy-support learners may mime after one sentence.)
- ◆ The first person to guess says the full sentence: "Is it a nurse? A nurse is a person who helps doctors." Then they keep the card. Most cards wins.
- ◆ Stuck after 1 minute? The describer adds a second clue: "It's a thing that you use when it rains." If still stuck, the card goes to the bottom.
- ◆ Stretch round: learners write their own card for a word from their life or job (a forklift, a food bank, a nail salon) and the group guesses.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE INFORMATION GAP AND DEFINE IT!

SAY: Information gap: Can you show your card? (No.) · What is the question? ("Who is...? / What is...?") · Short answer or full sentence? (Full: "She's the woman who...")

SAY: Define it!: Can you say the word on the card? (No!) · "It's a place..." + who or where? (Where.) · Can you point or mime? (No.) · Who keeps the card? (The person who guesses.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Give a frame card with the three icons and frames:  a person who... ·  a place where... ·  a thing which... In Define it!, the picture on the card helps; let them describe the picture ("It's a person who works in a hospital") and mime after one sentence. In Ex 2, do items 1–3. Three spoken definitions is a success.

STRETCH

Use a preposition + which: "the café which we met in" (and compare with where). Drop the pronoun in natural speech: "That's the song I love." Describe a person with two clauses: "She's the friend who lives in Chicago and who calls me every Sunday." Tell the class about something they bought or found, using that.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "the man who he lives next door" (Arabic, Persian, Hebrew, Urdu): these languages often keep a pronoun inside the relative clause, and Arabic needs one for objects. Cross out the extra word on the board every time.
- ◆ Clause before the noun (Chinese, Japanese, Korean): "the lives-next-door man." Build the sentence left to right on the board: noun first, then the clause.
- ◆ "the man which..." / "the book what I bought": Spanish, Portuguese, French and Italian use one word (que / che) for people and things, and Russian kotoryj works for both too. Learners pick which or what for everything. Offer that as the safe choice for people and things.
- ◆ "the town that I grew up" / "the town where I grew up in" (Spanish, Portuguese, Tagalog, Russian): mixing that and where. Rule of thumb: place + new subject → where, and no extra preposition.
- ◆ One linker for everything (Tagalog na / -ng, Indonesian yang, Chinese de): learners may use that everywhere, even for places. Accept that for people and things; correct it for places.
- ◆ A comma before the clause ("the man, who lives next door"): German, Russian and Polish always put a comma before a relative clause. At A2, defining clauses have no comma.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 6.2: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_17.html. Listen to the model sentences and the Nadia dialogue with . Workbook 6.2: finish "People, places & things in my life" (6 sentences with who, which, that, where), "My new words" and the journal.

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B That's the man who lives next door. · Q2 A where · Q3 (new) A That's the book I bought yesterday.
Listening (Ex 4): 1 d · 2 a · 3 f · 4 b · 5 e · 6 c. Info-gap answers are on the teacher's strip in the classroom materials and in the Answer Key.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ join ideas with and (add), but (contrast), so (result)
- ◆ give a reason with because, and say the same event with because and with so
- ◆ show a surprising contrast with although / though, and never use although + but together
- ◆ put commas in the right place: before but and so, after the although half
- ◆ turn short, choppy sentences into a connected paragraph (5–7 sentences) about their job, their town or their weekend

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 6.3 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "My paragraph" planner)
- ◆ Slides 14–18 · linker flashcards (and, but, so, because, although) · Sentence-builder envelopes: sentence-half strips, linker cards, topic idea cards (1 per group of 3) · one clean sheet of paper per learner
- ◆ Listening scripts 6.3-A (Carlos's strange day) and 6.3-B (optional dictogloss: "My weekend", or use it as the C20 warmer)

BOARD PLAN

Left: the choppy story: I was tired. I went to bed. It was late. → I was tired, so I went to bed because it was late.

Center: five linker cards with a job: and + add · but ↔ contrast · so → result · because ? reason ("Why?") · although ☺ surprise. Under because / so: I went to bed because I was tired. = I was tired, so I went to bed.

Right: commas: ✓ It rained, but we went out. · ✓ Although it rained, we went out. · ✗ Although it rained, but we went out. · paragraph checklist: topic sentence → 4–5 joined sentences → an ending.

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: Define it! + If... review	8	S–S	Review C17–C18. Pairs take 6 Define it! cards and define them fast (4 min). Then each learner reads one sentence from their homework "People, places & things" (2 min). Finish with 2 quick If-questions to the class: "What will you do if it's sunny tomorrow?" (2 min).

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Lead-in: choppy or smooth?	5	T-S	Read the choppy story slowly, like a robot: "I was tired. I went to bed. It was late." Ask: "Is this natural?" (Not really.) Then say the smooth version. "What changed?" Learners point at so and because . Circle them.
Grammar: the five linkers	15	T-S	Slides 14–15. Meaning (the job of each word), form (where the comma goes), pronunciation, CCQs (below). Stick the five linker flashcards on the board with their job icons. Drill (below).
because ↔ so, although ↔ but	7	T-S → S-S	Slide 15. The flip drill: T says a because sentence, learners flip it to so . Then but → although . Pairs continue with the flip cards in Set G.
Listening: Carlos's strange day	6	T-S → S	Workbook Ex 5. Read Script 6.3-A twice: learners circle the linker they hear. Check: "Why did Carlos wake up late?" ("Because his alarm didn't ring.")
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1–4 alone, then check in pairs. Board-check Ex 3 (although , no but) and one Ex 4 answer (there are several right answers).
Sentence builder	12	S-S (groups of 3)	Slide 16. Step 1 (4 min): match the sentence-half strips (the linker is on the second half). Step 2 (8 min): each group picks a topic envelope (my job / my town / my weekend), lays out the 6–8 short idea cards, and joins them with the linker cards into 4–5 longer sentences. They must use every linker once. One learner reads the group's version aloud.
Writing: my paragraph	12	S	Slide 17. Learners choose a topic (their real life, the group's idea cards, or an imagined life) and use the Workbook planner: a first sentence, 4–5 joined sentences, an ending. Show the model paragraph on the slide. Early finishers write a final copy on the clean sheet. Monitor and underline (don't correct) linkers.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Share: read and ask	5	S-S	Pairs read their paragraphs to each other. The listener asks one Why? question, and the writer answers with because . Two volunteers read to the class (optional; never force it).
Feedback + module check	5	T-S	Delayed correction: "Although it rained, but...", "Because I was tired, so I...", "I was tired, because I slept." Then learners tick the Module 6 "I can..." lists.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 6.3; final copy of the paragraph; journal. Preview C20: "Next class: travel and directions. How do you get to the bus station from here?"
Total	90		8 + 5 + 15 + 7 + 6 + 10 + 12 + 12 + 5 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

Skip step 1 of the sentence builder (the halves) and go straight to the topic envelopes. If the paragraph isn't finished, the learner finishes it at home; collect it at C20. Keep the 5-minute "Share": reading a paragraph to a real listener is the reward.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. Each linker has one job. Teach the job, not a translation. The key pair is because (reason) and so (result): the same event from opposite ends.

SAY: "I was tired, so I went to bed." What came first? (I was tired.) What's the result? (I went to bed.) "I went to bed because I was tired." Why did I go to bed? (Because I was tired.) Same night, same story? (Yes.)

SAY: "Why did you stay home?" Can you answer "So it was raining"? (No.) "Because it was raining"? (Yes.) Which word answers "Why?" (because.)

SAY: "Although it rained, we went out." Did it rain? (Yes.) Did we go out? (Yes.) Is that a little surprising? (Yes.) "Although it rained, but we went out." OK? (No. One contrast word.)

SAY: "I like tea, but I prefer coffee." Two ideas the same, or different? (Different.) "I made tea and sat down." Different, or one more idea? (One more idea.)

Form.

and	add · usually no comma	I made tea and sat down.
but	contrast · comma before	I like tea, but I prefer coffee.
so	result · comma before	I was tired, so I went to bed.
because	reason · usually no comma	I went to bed because I was tired. / Because I was tired, I went to bed.
although / though	surprise contrast · comma after the first half	Although it rained, we went out.
X	never two linkers for one link	Although... but · Because... so

Pronunciation. because is usually weak: /bɪ'kæz/, stress on the second syllable. In fast speech learners will hear 'cause /kæz/; accept it in speaking, not in writing. although /ɔl'ðəʊ/: stress on -THOUGH, and the th is voiced. Learners mix though / through / thought, so write all three once and say them. Pausing: pause at the comma before but and so, and after the although half: "Although it RAINED ↗ | we went OUT ↘." and is weak /ən/: "tea-n-toast."

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Linker cue: T says a first half and holds up a linker card; S finishes. T: "I was hungry..." (SO) → S: "I was hungry, so I made a sandwich." T: "I was hungry..." (BUT) → S: "...but I didn't eat." T: "I was hungry..." (BECAUSE) → S: "...because I didn't have breakfast."
- 2 because ↔ so flip: T: "I stayed home because it was raining." → S: "It was raining, so I stayed home." Then reverse. Choral, then individuals.
- 3 but → although: T: "The test was hard, but I passed." → S: "Although the test was hard, I passed." Tap your palm at the comma.
- 4 Grow a sentence: start with "I went to the market." Each learner adds one linker + idea: "...and I bought some fruit" → "...but it was expensive" → "...so I bought only apples" → "...because I love apples!" The class repeats the whole sentence at the end.

◆ SENTENCE BUILDER → PARAGRAPH – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Step 1 · halves (4 min). Each group gets 12 sentence-half strips. The first half ends with a comma or nothing; the second half starts with the linker (except Although, which starts a first half). Groups match them and read the pairs aloud. There is only one perfect match per strip (answers in the Answer Key).
- ◆ Step 2 · join the ideas (8 min). Groups open one topic envelope: My job (Rosa, a hospital cleaner), My town (Emil's small town) or My weekend (Amal's weekend). They lay out 6–8 short idea cards in a sensible order, then put linker cards between them. Rule: use every linker at least once, and one comma card where it belongs.

- ◆ Step 3 • read it. One learner reads the group's version aloud; others listen for the five linkers and hold up a finger for each one.
- ◆ Step 4 • my paragraph (writing stage). Each learner writes their own paragraph on the same topic or a different one. They can copy the group's version, change it for their own life, or use the idea cards as a "new identity."
- ◆ Target: 5–7 sentences, at least 4 different linkers, one because and one although or but. Paragraph shape: a first sentence that says the topic, the middle, an ending ("I like my town because...").

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE SENTENCE BUILDER AND THE PARAGRAPH

SAY: Sentence builder: How many linkers do you use? (All five.) • Do you write, or move the cards? (Move the cards.) • Who reads it at the end? (One person from the group.)

SAY: Paragraph: How many sentences? (Five to seven.) • Must it be about your real job? (No. Real, a card, or imagined.) • "Although... but" OK? (No!) • What's in the first sentence? (The topic.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

In the sentence builder, they move and read the cards; that is the task. For the paragraph, give them the frame in the workbook ("My town is ____ . It is ____ , but ____ . I like it because ____ .") and let them copy idea cards. Three joined sentences with and, but, because is a success. They can say it to a partner instead of writing all of it.

STRETCH

Use though at the end of a sentence ("It was cold. We had fun, though."). Add a first conditional or a relative clause from C17–C18: "My town is a place where everyone knows you, so..." Write two paragraphs (my town + my weekend). Peer-edit a partner's commas with a pencil.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "Although it rained, but we went out" / "Because I was tired, so I slept": Chinese (suīrán... dànshì, yīnwèi... suǒyǐ), Vietnamese (tuy... nhưng, vì... nên) and Korean use a pair of linkers. This is the #1 error of the lesson for these learners. Show two cards in one hand, then drop one.
- ◆ "and... and... and..." chains (Arabic wa, and many learners with oral traditions): long sentences joined only with and. Praise the fluency, then ask "What's the link here: result or reason?"
- ◆ "Because it was raining." alone as a written sentence: Spanish and Portuguese speakers use porque for both "why" and "because," and many learners write the answer to a question as a full sentence. In speech it's fine; in the paragraph, join it.
- ◆ so = "very": "I was so tired so I slept." Show the two meanings: so tired (very) vs, so I slept (result).

- ◆ Comma splices and run-ons: Russian, Polish and German put commas by grammar rules that differ from English. Keep to the three comma habits on the board; don't teach more at A2.
- ◆ /ð/ in although: "alzo," "altho" with /d/ or /z/ (many L1s). Tongue between the teeth, voice on. Don't stop fluency work for it.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 6.3: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_18.html. Listen to the model sentences and the weekend dialogue with 🎧. Workbook 6.3: write the final copy of "My paragraph," "My new words" and the journal. Bring the paragraph to C20.

◆ CHECK – SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B Although it rained, we went out. · Q2 A because · Q3 (new) B so. Listening (Ex 5): 1 because · 2 but · 3 so · 4 Although · 5 and · 6 so.

CLOSING THE MODULE

END OF C19: MODULE 6 WRAP-UP

Recap on slide 18: If it rains, I'll stay home → the friend who lives next door → I was tired, so I went to bed. Learners tick the three "I can..." lists in the workbook. Anything still unticked goes on a sticky note for you. Review it in a C20 or C21 warmer.

Collect the paragraphs (or photos of them) at C20. Write one kind comment and underline every correct linker. Keep them: in C25 (the Module 8 review project, "My Life Story & Future Plans") learners re-use these linkers, first conditionals and relative clauses. The C19 paragraph is a useful "before" sample for their progress.

Watch for in Module 7: travel, shopping and health tasks are full of chances to join ideas: "If you turn left, you'll see the bank." "It's the store where I buy my medicine." "I'd like the soup, but not the salad." Praise joined sentences whenever you hear them.

The final assessment (C26) covers all eight modules. From this module it tests: the first conditional (no will after if, will / might, if / when), who / which / that / where and joining, and the five linkers with because / so and although / but. In any writing task from now on, look for joined sentences, not only correct ones. Today's paragraph is the first step.

Module 7 — Getting Things Done

Three practical classes for the situations adults meet every week.

Learners ask the way and buy a ticket, book a table by phone and solve a problem politely in a restaurant or store, then make a clinic appointment and ask a pharmacist for help. The grammar is small (imperatives, too / enough, should / 'd better / Why don't you...?). The real target is getting the job done in English: role-play, role-play, role-play.

3 lessons

Lessons 7.1–7.3

Classes C20–C22

Weeks 10–11

90 min per class

CEFR A2

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- ◆ One lesson block = one 90-minute class. Every class follows the same shape: warmer → lead-in → Meaning / Form / Pronunciation with concept-checking questions (CCQs) → drill (choral, then individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (role-play) → feedback → homework.
- ◆ The stage plan is your clock. Each one adds up to 90 minutes. The numbers in the Time column are minutes.
- ◆ Present from slides/module-7-getting-things-done.html (19 slides). Print materials/module-7/classroom-materials.html before C20. It holds the flashcards, the Riverside map information gap (A/B), the ticket-office cards with the train timetable, the restaurant booking phone cards, the problem & return role-play cards, the clinic appointment and pharmacy cards, the listening scripts and the Around Town board game.
- ◆ The online lessons are the learners' homework and review. Each one has  Listen buttons, and this module starts the course's Listening & Speaking strand, so the listening is the heart of the homework.
- ◆ Dashed boxes = lines to say out loud, CCQs and ICQs (instruction-checking questions). Green boxes = scripts you read aloud. Amber = watch-outs.

AMERICAN ENGLISH IN CLASS AND IN THE HOMEWORK

The kit and the online Module 7 lessons both use American English. Teach the left column. The right column shows the British words learners may hear from other speakers or in other materials (the online lessons mention some of them, such as single / return and the bill); show it once on the board if it helps. Accept both in speaking and in the answer key. Knowing both is a real-world advantage.

Teach (US)	British (accept)	Teach (US)	British (accept)
go straight (ahead)	go straight on	appetizer	starter
take the first left	take the first turning	the check	the bill
one-way / round-trip	single / return	zipper	zip
downtown	the town centre	dressing room	fitting room
movie theater	cinema	Do you have...?	Have you got...?
traffic circle	roundabout	pharmacy / drugstore	chemist's

THE THROUGH-LINE

Get there → get what you want → get help. Each class has one repeating shape: learn the phrases → hear a real exchange → do it with a card. In C20 learners find places and buy a ticket. In C21 they book, order and complain politely: "I'm afraid there's a problem with...". In C22 they phone a clinic and talk to a pharmacist. Every class also has a staff side. Many learners work as clerks, servers, cashiers or care workers, so being the person who helps is as useful as being the customer. Always swap roles.

TRAUMA-INFORMED: PLACES, MONEY AND HEALTH ARE PERSONAL

Directions: never ask learners to give directions to their own home. Use the Riverside map, the school building, or any public place (a store, a park, the library). Money: restaurants may be a rare treat for some learners. The role-plays use pretend money, and "I'd like the soup, it's the cheapest" is a perfectly good order. Health (C22): learners never talk about their own real health. Every patient in this module is a pretend patient on a card, with a pretend name, birthday and symptoms. Some learners have had frightening medical experiences, have no health insurance, or have survived violence. Do not ask "Are you sick?" or "What's wrong with you?" as a class question. If a learner tells you about a real health problem, thank them, talk privately after class, and point to local help (a community health center; in the U.S., dial 211). You teach language, not medicine.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- ◆ Print the picture flashcards (one set for the board). Card stock helps.

- ◆ C20: print one Riverside map A/B page per pair (A and B on separate pages, so partners cannot see each other's map) and one ticket-office set per pair (clerk card with timetable + traveler cards).
- ◆ C21: one restaurant booking set per pair (reservation book + caller cards), and one problem & return set per group of 4 (6 customer cards, 2 staff cards). Bring 2–3 real or paper receipts and an old menu if you have one.
- ◆ C22: one clinic set per pair (receptionist calendar + patient cards), one pharmacy set per pair. Optional realia: an empty cough-syrup box or a toy phone. Never bring real medicine to class.
- ◆ Two old phones or two chairs back-to-back make the phone calls real: partners cannot see each other, just like a real call.
- ◆ Print the Around Town board game (one per group of 3–4), plus one die per group and a coin for each player. It is the Module 7 review (C22 fast finishers, or the C23 warmer).

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
7.1	C20 • wk 10	Asking the way (How do I get to...? Is there a... near here?), imperatives for directions, position words, transport words, buying a ticket (one-way / round-trip)	ask for and follow directions on a map, give 4-step directions, and buy a train ticket, asking the time, platform and "Do I need to change?"
7.2	C21 • wk 11	Booking a table by phone, ordering (Could I have...? I'll have...), the check, too / too much / too many / enough , polite complaints and returns (I'm afraid there's a problem with...)	book a table on the phone, order a meal, and solve a problem politely as a customer and as staff
7.3	C22 • wk 11	Body and symptoms, I've got... / I feel... / It hurts when I..., I've had... since / for... (a chunk), making an appointment, the pharmacy, advice with should / 'd better / Why don't you...?	phone a clinic for a pretend patient, describe symptoms and how long, ask a pharmacist "How often should I take it?" and give advice

7.1 · C20

Travel & Directions — Getting Around

90 min

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ ask the way politely: Excuse me, how do I get to...? · Is there a... near here? · Which way is...? · Is it far?
- ◆ give and follow directions with imperatives: go straight, turn left/right, take the first left, go past, cross
- ◆ say where a place is: on your left/right, opposite (across from), next to, between, on the corner
- ◆ use transport words: station, platform, one-way / round-trip, timetable, change at..., get on/off
- ◆ buy a ticket and ask What time is the next train? · Which platform? · Do I need to change?

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 7.1 (New words, Grammar box, the Riverside map, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, speaking task)
- ◆ Slides 3–8 · Picture flashcards (places, directions, travel) · Riverside map A/B (1 per pair) · Ticket office set (1 per pair)
- ◆ Listening scripts 7.1-A (follow the map) and 7.1-B (at the ticket office)

BOARD PLAN

Left: Ask: Excuse me, how do I get to the bank? · Is there a pharmacy near here? · Which way is the station? · Is it far? → Sorry, could you say that again, please?

Center: arrows ↑ go straight · ← turn left · → turn right · take the first left · go past the bank · cross the street. A small street drawing with a box on your left, one on your right, one opposite, one on the corner.

Right: 🚶 one-way (→) / round-trip (↔) · platform · timetable · change at... · get on/off a bus, train · get in/out of a car, taxi. Small grey note: UK single / return / straight on.

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: finish my sentence	8	T-S → S-S	Review C19 (6.3 linking words). Say half a sentence; pairs finish it three ways: "I was late for class because... / so... / although... " Then: "I missed the bus, so... " Collect 3 good endings. The last one leads in: "...so I asked someone the way."
Lead-in: lost in a new town	5	T-S	Slide 5 (the Riverside map). "You just arrived at the train station. You need a pharmacy. You don't have a phone map.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
			What do you do? What do you say?" Accept any ideas; write the best learner question on the board and improve it together.
Asking the way	8	T-S	Slides 3-4 + place flashcards. Elicit and drill the four questions (board, left). Focus on the polite opener and the do in "How do I get to...?" Drill the rescue line: "Sorry, could you say that again, please?"
Giving directions (TPR)	12	T-S → S-S	Slide 4. Learners stand. Give commands; they do them: "Go straight. Stop. Turn left. Turn right." Then position words with realia on your desk (a cup opposite a book, a pen between two phones). Meaning / form / pronunciation and CCQs (below). Pairs: A gives 3 commands, B moves. Swap.
Listening: follow the map	8	T-S → S	Workbook Ex 1 + the Riverside map. Read Script 7.1-A twice. Learners put a finger on the star and "walk" with it, then write the place. Check on slide 5: a learner comes up and walks the route on the screen.
Controlled practice	7	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 2-4 alone (read-and-find, the missing word, order the directions), then check in pairs. Board-check only the items pairs disagree on.
Freer 1: map information gap	15	S-S	Slide 8. Workbooks closed (the workbook map shows everything!). A/B map cards. Both start at the star. A asks: "Excuse me, how do I get to the pharmacy?" B gives directions; A follows with a finger and writes the name in the right box. Take turns: 6 places each. Compare maps at the end. ICQs first.
Travel words + listening: at the ticket office	10	T-S → S	Slides 6-7. Teach one-way / round-trip, platform, timetable, direct, change at..., get on/off with CCQs. Read Script 7.1-B twice; learners complete Workbook Ex 5. Choral-drill the traveler's four lines from the model dialogue.
Freer 2: ticket office role-play	7	S-S	Ticket-office set. B = clerk with the timetable and prices; A = traveler with a card (where, when you must arrive, one-way or round-trip). A buys the ticket and writes the time, platform, change and price. Swap cards and roles. Fast pairs take a second traveler card.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Feedback	5	T-S	Delayed error correction: 4 heard sentences on the board, no names ("How I get to...?", "Turn to left", "get in the bus", one good one). Learners fix them. Praise one great direction from each part of the room.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Show the online lesson; play one 📶 line of the station dialogue. Point out the travel words it uses (one-way, round-trip, straight ahead). Set the homework (below). Learners tick the "I can..." boxes.
Total	90		8 + 5 + 8 + 12 + 8 + 7 + 15 + 10 + 7 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

Cut the ticket role-play to one traveler card per learner, or move it to the C21 warmer. Never cut the map information gap: it is where learners must listen to real directions and act on them.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning — asking. "How do I get to...?" asks for the route. "Is there a... near here?" asks if the place exists nearby (the speaker doesn't know). "Which way is...?" asks only for the direction.

SAY: "Is there a pharmacy near here?" Do I know there is a pharmacy? (No, maybe not.) Can the answer be "No, sorry"? (Yes.)

SAY: "How do I get to the bank?" Do I want one word or the whole way? (The whole way.) What's the first word I say to a stranger? ("Excuse me.")

Meaning — giving. Directions use the imperative: the base verb, no subject. It is not rude here. It is normal and friendly for directions and instructions.

SAY: "Take the first left." Is it the first street or the second street? (The first.) Do I turn? (Yes, left.) "Go past the bank." Do I go into the bank? (No. I walk by it.)

SAY: "The bank is opposite the pharmacy." Is it next to the pharmacy? (No.) Is the street between them? (Yes. They face each other.) Another way to say opposite? (across from.)

Meaning — tickets.

SAY: "A round-trip to Lakeview." Do I come back? (Yes.) "A one-way ticket." Do I come back on this ticket? (No.) "It's direct." Do I need to change trains? (No.)

Form.

Ask	Excuse me, how do I get to + place?	Excuse me, how do I get to the station?
Exists?	Is there a / an + place + near here?	Is there a pharmacy near here?
Give	base verb (no subject): go · turn · take · cross	Go straight. Turn left at the traffic lights.
Where?	It's + on your left / right · opposite · next to · between... and... · on the corner	It's on your right, opposite the park.
Vehicles	get on / off a bus, train, plane · get in / out of a car, taxi	Get off at the next stop.
Ticket	A + one-way / round-trip + to + place, please.	Two round-trips to Center City, please.

Pronunciation. The polite rise-fall: "ExCUSE me ↗" (small pause), then a friendly falling question. Linking: turn_left, get_off /gɛ'dɔf/, next_to /nɛks tə/ (the t of next disappears). Stress: OPposite /'apəzɪt/, TIMEtable, PLATform, round-TRIP. Straight = /streɪt/ (the gh is silent). In a direction, the key word is stressed: "Turn LEFT at the LIGHTS."

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Back-chain the question: "the station?" → "get to the station?" → "how do I get to the station?" → "Excuse me, how do I get to the station?" Choral ×3, halves, then individuals.
- 2 Substitution (hold up a place flashcard): T: "bank" → S: "Excuse me, how do I get to the bank?" T: "pharmacy... near here" → S: "Is there a pharmacy near here?"
- 3 TPR chain: the class says the command together as you do it, then a learner gives the commands and you follow them. Make a deliberate mistake (turn right on "left"); learners correct you.
- 4 Ticket lines, open pairs: S1: "A round-trip to Center City, please." S2: "That's eight dollars." S1: "Which platform?" S2: "Platform two." Across the room, then closed pairs, 1 minute.

◆ MAP INFORMATION GAP – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Pairs sit face to face with the map cards held up (or a folder standing between them). Both maps show the same streets, the star (You are here, walking north) and the traffic lights.
- ◆ A knows the bank, park, museum, hospital, café and school. B knows the pharmacy, post office, supermarket, library, hotel and movie theater. The other six boxes on each map are blank and numbered.
- ◆ A asks for one of B's places. B gives directions from the star every time. A follows with a finger and writes the name in the box where they arrive. Then B asks. Six places each.
- ◆ At the end, pairs put the maps side by side and check. Wrong box? Walk the route again together and find where the directions went wrong. That talk is great practice too.

Boxes: 1 bank · 2 pharmacy · 3 post office · 4 park · 5 museum · 6 supermarket · 7 library · 8 school · 9 café · 10 hospital · 11 hotel · 12 movie theater. Model directions for all twelve are in the Answer Key.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE MAP INFORMATION GAP

SAY: Can you show your map? (No.) · Where do you start every time? (At the star, the train station.) · What's your first question? ("Excuse me, how do I get to...?") · What do you write in the empty box? (The name of the place.) · Workbooks open or closed? (Closed!) · What do you say if it's too fast? ("Sorry, could you say that again, please?")

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

The arrows on the board and flashcards carry the meaning: learners can point to ← → ↑ as they listen. In the map task they may draw a line and write only the first letters (B for bank). Give a strip with the six place names to copy into the boxes. In Ex 3 give the word choices on a card. Success = 3 places found and one full question: "Excuse me, how do I get to the...?"

STRETCH

Give directions with no finger on the map. Use take the second right, go past, cross, at the end of the street, You can't miss it! In the ticket role-play, the clerk offers a choice ("The 8:30 is cheaper but you change at Center City") and the traveler explains a preference with because / although (recycling C19). Early finishers write directions from the school entrance to a public place nearby.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "How I get to the station?" (no do): Spanish, Portuguese, Chinese, Vietnamese and Arabic speakers make questions with intonation or a question word only. Point at the do on the board. Accept it for meaning in the map task; recast once.
- ◆ "Turn to left" / "Turn to the left" / "in the left": Spanish a la izquierda, Portuguese à esquerda, French à gauche, Russian налево. Drill "turn left" and "on your left" as fixed chunks. "Go to straight" is the same problem.
- ◆ "Get in the bus" / "get down the bus": Spanish subir / bajar, Portuguese subir / descer, Tagalog sumakay / bumaba, German einsteigen use one verb for all vehicles. Rule of thumb: if you can stand up and walk inside, it's on/off.
- ◆ left / right: Japanese and Korean speakers may merge /l/ and /r/, and right vs light matters here ("turn right at the light"). Show the tongue: l touches behind the teeth, r touches nothing. Hold up the correct hand as a backup.
- ◆ Final consonants: Vietnamese, Thai and Cantonese speakers may say "lef" for left and "strai" for straight. Tap the table on the final sound.

- ◆ /p/ and /b/: Arabic speakers may say "blatform" and "bass the bank" (for pass). Paper in front of the mouth: /p/ makes it move.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 7.1: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_19.html. Listen to "At the Station" with  and say every line three ways (listen, repeat, role-play both people). Notice the travel words (one-way, round-trip, straight ahead, across from). Workbook 7.1: finish the speaking-task directions (a public place, not your home), "My new words" and the journal.

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B Excuse me, how do I get to the bank? · Q2 B A round-trip to Chicago. · Q3 (new) A get off the bus. Ex 1 (Script 7.1-A): 1 the park · 2 the hotel · 3 the café · 4 the bank. Ex 5: round-trip · Lakeview · $17.50 · 9:45 · platform 3 · no, it's direct.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ book a table on the phone: I'd like to book a table for four at seven thirty. · It's under the name...
- ◆ order a meal politely: Could I have...? · I'll have... · What do you recommend? · Could we have the check, please?
- ◆ use too + adjective, too much / too many + noun, adjective + enough, enough + noun
- ◆ make a polite complaint: Excuse me. I'm afraid there's a problem with... · Could I..., please?
- ◆ return an item: I'd like to return this. It doesn't fit. · Can I get a refund / exchange it?
- ◆ answer a complaint as staff: I'm so sorry about that. I'll... right away.

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 7.2 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, role-play task)
- ◆ Slides 9–13 · flashcards (restaurant, clothes, store) · Restaurant booking set (reservation book + caller cards, 1 per pair) · Problem & return cards (1 set per group of 4) · 2–3 receipts, a menu (optional)
- ◆ Listening scripts 7.2-A (booking a table) and 7.2-B (three problems)

BOARD PLAN

Left: ☎️ I'd like to book a table for [4] at [7:30]. · For how many? · What time? · What name is it under? · 🍴 appetizer → main course → dessert · Could I have...? / I'll have... · Could we have the check, please? (UK bill)

Center: too + adj = a problem: too expensive, too small · too much salt · too many people · adj + enough = OK: big enough · not long enough = a problem · enough + noun: enough chairs

Right: 😊 Customer: Excuse me. I'm afraid there's a problem with my soup. It's cold. Could I have a hot one, please? · 🧑‍🍳 Staff: I'm so sorry about that. I'll bring you a new one right away. · 📄 receipt · refund · exchange

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: direction chain	6	S-S	Review C20. Pairs with the Riverside map in the workbook: A gives directions from the star without saying the place; B names it. Then: "One-way or round-trip?" quick CCQs from the ticket office. Check the homework journal: 2 volunteers read their directions.
Lead-in: a night out	4	T-S	Slide 9 pictures. "It's your friend's birthday on Saturday. You want to eat at a restaurant. What do you do first?" (Call and book a table.) "What can go wrong?" Collect ideas: no table, cold food, wrong dish, a mistake on the check.
Booking a table by phone	8	T-S	Slide 10. Read Script 7.2-A once for gist ("What time do they book? Why not seven thirty?"), then again for Workbook Ex 1. Drill the caller's lines and the host's questions. Spell a name and say a phone number as in the script.
Freer 1: reservation info gap	12	S-S	Chairs back to back (it's a phone call!). B = host with the reservation book; A = caller with a caller card. The host checks the book, offers another time if the first is full, and writes the booking. Swap roles with a new caller card. ICQs first.
Ordering and paying	9	T-S → S-S	Flashcards + Workbook dialogue (Marco at the restaurant). Teach appetizer / main course / dessert, Could I have...? / I'll have..., What do you recommend?, the check, split the check . Pairs read the dialogue, then change the food. Cultural note (below): tipping in the U.S.
Grammar: too / enough	12	T-S	Slide 11 with the clothes flashcards: hold up a small T-shirt on a big volunteer (or a picture). Meaning, form, pronunciation, CCQs (below). Drill. Then too much / too many (recycling A2 2.2) and enough + noun .
Controlled practice	8	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 2-4 (too/enough, polite phrases, make it polite). Pairs check. Board-check Ex 4: a rude line and a polite one side by side.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Polite problem-solving	8	T-S → S	Slide 12. Read Script 7.2-B (Workbook Ex 5). Then build the 3-step complaint: soften ("Excuse me. I'm afraid there's a problem with...") → explain ("It's cold.") → ask ("Could I have a hot one, please?"). And the staff answer: sorry → action ("I'll... right away"). Drill with warm, calm intonation.
Freer 2: problems & returns carousel	13	S-S (groups of 4)	Slide 13. In each group, 2 are staff (1 server, 1 store assistant) and 2 are customers with problem cards. Customers visit the right staff member, solve the problem, then take a new card. After 6 minutes, customers and staff swap. The store assistant must follow the store policy on the card (no receipt = exchange or store credit only). ICQs first.
Feedback	5	T-S	Board: "It's enough big", "too much people", "I want a refund. Give me." and one excellent polite complaint you heard. Learners fix and rank: which is the most polite?
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 7.2; point out the key words (appetizer, the check, zipper, dressing room, Do you have...?). Workbook journal. Learners tick the "I can..." boxes.
Total	90		6 + 4 + 8 + 12 + 9 + 12 + 8 + 8 + 13 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

This class has two freer tasks. If you must cut, shorten the ordering stage (the dialogue is in the workbook for homework) and give the reservation info gap one round only. Keep the problems & returns carousel: polite problem-solving is the skill learners need most at work and in stores.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

too — meaning. too = more than is OK: a problem. very = strong, but not a problem.

SAY: "This jacket is too expensive." Can I buy it? (No.) Is it a problem? (Yes.) "This jacket is very expensive." Can I maybe buy it? (Yes, maybe.)

SAY: "This tea is too good." Is that a compliment? (No! It sounds strange.) So we say...? ("very good.") enough — meaning. enough = the amount you need: OK. not... enough = less than you need: a problem.

SAY: "The jeans aren't long enough." Are they too long or too short? (Too short.) Is it a problem? (Yes.)
 "Is there enough time?" Do we need more time? (Maybe. That's the question.)

Complaint language — meaning. I'm afraid... here does not mean "I'm scared." It is a soft way to start bad news.

SAY: "I'm afraid there's a problem with my soup." Am I scared? (No.) Am I angry? (Maybe a little, but I'm polite.) Is it good news or bad news? (Bad news, said softly.)

Form.

too + adjective	a problem: more than OK	It's too expensive. These shoes are too small.
too much / too many + noun	much = can't count · many = can count	too much salt · too many people adjective + enough	OK: as much as you need	It's big enough . It isn't long enough .
enough + noun	OK / not OK amount	We don't have enough chairs.
Complain	Excuse me. I'm afraid there's a problem with + noun. + Could I / Could you...?	I'm afraid there's a problem with the check. Could you check it, please?
Staff answer	I'm (so) sorry about that. + I'll + verb	I'm so sorry. I'll bring you a new one right away.

Pronunciation. enough /ɪˈnʌf/: the gh sounds like f, stress on the second syllable. too is stressed and long in a complaint: "It's TOO small." Contractions sound friendly: I'd like /aɪd/, I'll have /aɪl/, I'm afraid. Intonation matters more than grammar here: say the complaint twice, once flat and angry, once warm with a small smile. Learners vote: which one gets a new soup faster? Stress in reFUND (noun and verb), exCHANGE, reCEIPT /rɪˈsi:t/ (the p is silent).

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Back-chain the booking: "at seven thirty" → "a table for four at seven thirty" → "I'd like to book a table for four at seven thirty." Choral, halves, individuals.
- 2 too / enough transformation (hold up a flashcard): T: "The shoes are small." → S: "They're too small." / "They aren't big enough." T: "The coffee is hot." → S: "It's too hot." T: "chairs... not" → S: "We don't have enough chairs."
- 3 Soften it: T (flat, rude): "Soup cold." → S (warm): "Excuse me. I'm afraid there's a problem with my soup. It's cold." Then T: "Check wrong." → S: "I'm afraid there's a problem with the check."

- 4 Staff reply chain: S1 complains; S2 answers "I'm so sorry about that. I'll..."; S2 turns to S3 with a new problem card. Around the room.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE TWO ROLE-PLAYS

SAY: Reservation: Can you see your partner? (No, it's a phone call.) · Host, what do you write in the book? (The name and the number of people.) · Is your first time always free? (No. The host offers another time.) · Is the phone number on your card real? (No, it's pretend.)

SAY: Carousel: Who has the problem cards? (The customers.) · What is the first sentence? ("Excuse me. I'm afraid there's a problem with...") · No receipt: can the store give a refund? (No. An exchange or store credit.) · When do you swap? (After 6 minutes, when I clap.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Pictures do the work: the restaurant and clothes flashcards, and the icons on the role-play cards (🍲❄️ = cold soup). Give a sentence-starter strip: "Excuse me. I'm afraid there's a problem with my ____." In the booking task, the host only ticks the time and writes the number of people. Success = one full polite complaint and one staff answer.

STRETCH

Customers add a second problem ("...and it's too salty"). Staff offer two choices ("Would you like a refund or an exchange?") and a small extra ("Can I get you a free dessert?"). In the booking, add a special request (a high chair, a quiet table, a vegetarian menu). Write a short, polite complaint email to a store for homework.

CULTURAL NOTE: TIPPING AND "THE CHECK"

In U.S. sit-down restaurants the tip is usually not included; people add about 15–20% for the server. That is why the online lesson teaches "Is the tip included?" (in the UK and much of Europe, people ask "Is service included?"). At a counter or fast-food place, a tip is optional. Present this as information, not a rule to judge: tipping customs differ a lot around the world, and many learners find them confusing. Servers in the class can explain it from their own experience if they want to.

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I want..." / "Give me the soup": direct requests are polite in Russian (Даўме...), Arabic, Polish, Chinese and many other languages, but sound rude in English. Treat it as a register issue, not a grammar mistake: "Good English, but in a restaurant we say 'Could I have...?'"
- ◆ "It's too good / too beautiful!" as a compliment: Chinese 太好了 (tài hǎo le), Spanish demasiado (informal), and Tagalog speakers sometimes use "too" to mean "very." The CCQ "Is it a problem?" fixes it.

- ◆ "It's enough big": Spanish bastante grande, Portuguese grande o suficiente/bastante grande, French assez grand, Russian достаточно большой put the word before the adjective. Clap the order: big — ENOUGH.
- ◆ "too much people": Spanish mucha gente and Portuguese muita gente are singular/uncountable. People is plural in English: too many people.
- ◆ "The account, please": Spanish la cuenta, Portuguese a conta, Italian il conto. Teach the check (US) and the bill (UK, also understood in the U.S.).
- ◆ "I'm afraid" taken literally ("Why are you afraid?"). Explain once with the CCQ; it is a very common softener at work.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 7.2: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_20.html. Listen to the restaurant and the jacket-return dialogues with 🎧 and repeat them. Workbook 7.2: finish Ex 4, "My new words" and the journal (your order at a restaurant you like, real or imagined, plus two sentences with too and enough).

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B There's too much salt. · Q2 B It's not big enough. · Q3 (new) B Excuse me, I'm afraid there's a problem with my soup. It's cold. Ex 1 (Script 7.2-A): Silva · 4 · Saturday · 8:00 · by the window · 555-0142. Ex 5 (Script 7.2-B): 1 cold, a new soup · 2 two desserts, fix the check · 3 not long enough, an exchange.

BEFORE YOU TEACH C22: PRETEND PATIENTS ONLY

Say it at the start of class and again before each pair task: "Today everyone is a pretend patient. We use the cards. We don't talk about our own health." The journal prompt is about an imagined friend. If a learner chooses to mention something real, don't follow up in front of the group. Say "Thank you. I hope you feel better," and move on. You do not give medical advice. The pharmacy products in the materials are invented.

◆ OBJECTIVES – LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ name body parts and symptoms: a headache, a sore throat, a stomachache, a backache, a toothache, a fever, a cough, a cold, the flu
- ◆ describe symptoms three ways: I've got / I have..., I feel dizzy / sick / tired, My back hurts / It hurts when I...
- ◆ say how long with the chunk I've had... since Monday / for three days (the full present perfect comes in 8.1)
- ◆ make an appointment by phone: I'd like to make an appointment. · Do you have anything on...? · Is there anything earlier?
- ◆ ask a pharmacist: Do you have something for a cough? · How often should I take it?
- ◆ give advice with You should... · You'd better... · Why don't you...? (recycling should from 4.2)

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 7.3 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, clinic & pharmacy task)
- ◆ Slides 14–18 · flashcards (body, symptoms, clinic) · Clinic appointment set (receptionist calendar + 4 pretend patient cards, 1 set per pair) · Pharmacy set (pharmacist shelf card, 1 per pair)
- ◆ Listening scripts 7.3-A (phoning the clinic) and 7.3-B (at the pharmacy) · Around Town board game (fast finishers)

BOARD PLAN

Left: a stick figure with labels: head → a headache · throat → a sore throat · stomach → a stomachache · back → a backache · tooth → a toothache · 🤒 a fever · 🤧 a cough · 🤧 a cold · the flu

Center: I've got / I have + a sore throat · I feel + dizzy / sick / tired · My back hurts. It hurts when I + verb · ⌚ I've had a cough since Monday (a point ●) / for three days (a length ●—●)

Right: advice + base verb: You should rest. (a good idea) · You'd better see a doctor. (strong, important) · Why don't you drink some tea? (friendly) · 📞 I'd like to make an appointment. · 💊 Do you have something for a cough? How often should I take it?

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: complaint quick-fire	7	T-S → S-S	Review C21. Hold up flashcards: shoes → "They're too small / not big enough." Soup → "I'm afraid there's a problem with my soup..." Pairs: one problem, one staff answer, three rounds. Check the journal: 2 volunteers read their too / enough sentences.
Lead-in + framing	5	T-S	Slide 14. "Meet Leo. He doesn't feel well. What's the matter with him?" (Point at the pictures.) Then the framing sentence: "Today we are all pretend patients, with cards." Hand out nothing personal; everything is about Leo, Ana and the card people.
Vocabulary: body & symptoms	10	T-S → S-S	Slide 14 + flashcards. Recycle A1 body words, then add the symptoms. Mime → elicit → model → choral drill. Mark the ch = k in headache , stomachache , and cough /kɒf/. Pairs: one mimes, one says the symptom. Workbook New words + Ex 1.
Grammar: describing symptoms + how long	12	T-S	Slide 15. The three patterns (I've got... / I feel... / It hurts when I...), then the time line for since / for . Teach I've had... as a chunk : "It started in the past and it's still true now." CCQs and drill (below). Workbook Ex 2 (since or for) alone, check in pairs.
Making an appointment	8	T-S → S	Slide 17. Read Script 7.3-A twice: learners complete the appointment card in Workbook Ex 5a. Drill the patient's lines, especially "Is there anything earlier?" and repeating the time back: "Today at four fifteen. Thank you."
Freer 1: phone the clinic	12	S-S	Slide 18. Chairs back to back. B = receptionist with the calendar; A = pretend patient with a card (name, birthday, symptoms, when you are free). A books an appointment that fits the card; B writes it in the calendar. Swap with a new patient card. ICQs first.
Pharmacy + advice	10	T-S	Slide 16. Read Script 7.3-B (Ex 5b). Then advice: should (recycled from 4.2), 'd better , Why don't you... ? Meaning / form / pronunciation and CCQs (below). Drill.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Controlled practice	8	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 3-4 (gap fill; match the problem to the advice). Pairs check and explain their choices: several matches are possible.
Freer 2: at the pharmacy	8	S-S	Same patient cards, step 2. B = pharmacist with the (invented) product shelf; A asks "Do you have something for...?" and "How often should I take it?" The pharmacist answers from the card and gives one piece of advice with each form. Swap. Fast finishers: the Around Town board game.
Feedback + module check	5	T-S	Board: "I have pain my head", "since three days", "You should to rest", "Why you don't...?" and one great sentence. Learners fix them. Then learners tick the Module 7 "I can..." lists.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 7.3; the journal (a pretend friend with a cold). Preview C23: "Next class: I've had, I've just..., I haven't... yet. You already started today!"
Total	90		7 + 5 + 10 + 12 + 8 + 12 + 10 + 8 + 8 + 5 + 5

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Symptoms — meaning. I've got and I have mean the same here (both are fine in the U.S.). hurt is a verb; ache lives inside nouns (headache); sore is an adjective (a sore throat).

SAY: "It hurts when I swallow." Does it hurt all the time? (No, only when I swallow.) Show me "swallow." (Learners mime.)

How long — meaning. Draw a time line: Monday ● — — — ● today.

SAY: "I've had a cough since Monday." When did it start? (On Monday.) Do I have it now? (Yes.) Is "Monday" a point or a length of time? (A point.) So: since or for? (Since.)

SAY: "...for three days." Is "three days" a point or a length? (A length.) Can I say "since three days"? (No!)

Advice — meaning. All three are advice. The difference is strength.

SAY: "You should rest." Is it a good idea? (Yes.) Is it an order? (No.) "You'd better see a doctor." Stronger or softer? (Stronger.) Is there a problem if you don't? (Maybe, yes.) "Why don't you drink some tea?" Is it really a question about "why"? (No. It's a friendly idea.)

Form.

I've got / I have	+ a / an + problem	I've got a headache. I have a sore throat.
I feel	+ adjective	I feel dizzy. I feel sick. I don't feel well.
hurts	My + body part + hurts · It hurts when I + verb	My back hurts. It hurts when I walk.
How long?	I've had + problem + since + point / for + length	since Monday · since 9 o'clock · for three days · for a week
Appointment	I'd like to make an appointment. · Do you have anything on + day?	Do you have anything on Monday morning?
Advice	should / 'd better / Why don't you + base verb	You should rest. You'd better not drive. Why don't you take a day off?

Pronunciation. ch = /k/: headache /'hedeɪk/, stomachache /'stʌlməkeɪk/. gh = /f/: cough /kɒf/ (like enough last class). appointment /ə'pɔɪntmənt/: stress on POINT. You'd better is fast: /jʊd 'betər/; in American speech the tt is a quick d-like tap ("bedder"). Many Americans drop the 'd in speech ("You better..."); accept it, but write You'd better. Why don't you links to /waɪ doʊntʃu/ ("why-don-chu"). I've had → /aɪv hæd/: make learners hear the 've.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Mime drill: you mime (hand on head); the class says "I've got a headache." Hand on throat + swallow → "It hurts when I swallow." Wobbly walk → "I feel dizzy."
- 2 since / for sort: T says a time; learners call "since!" or "for!": Monday · three days · last night · a week · 9 o'clock · two hours. Then full sentences: T: "a cough... Tuesday" → S: "I've had a cough since Tuesday."
- 3 Advice chain: S1 (with a patient card): "I've got a bad cough." S2: "You should..." S3: "You'd better..." S4: "Why don't you...?" Then S4 reads a new problem.
- 4 Phone lines, open pairs: S1: "I'd like to make an appointment, please." S2: "We have Thursday at ten." S1: "Is there anything earlier?" S2: "Today at four." S1: "Today at four. Thank you."

◆ CLINIC INFORMATION GAP – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ The receptionist's calendar shows next week at "Riverside Health Center": free times, booked times, and one urgent slot today.
- ◆ Each pretend-patient card has a name, a birthday, 2–3 symptoms with since/for, and when the patient is free (e.g. "You work mornings Monday to Wednesday"). The patient must find a time that fits. The receptionist asks: "What's it about?" "How long have you had it?" "What's your date of birth?"

- ◆ Only a patient whose card says "feel very unwell" should ask for the urgent slot today. If two pairs both want it, that's real life: "I'm sorry, today is full now."
- ◆ Step 2 (Freer 2): the same patient goes to the pharmacy with the "Pharmacy" line on their card.

Possible bookings are in the Answer Key. Any time that fits the card is correct.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE CLINIC AND PHARMACY TASKS

SAY: Clinic: Is this your real health or a card? (A card. Pretend!) · Can you see your partner? (No, it's a phone call.) · What's your first sentence? ("I'd like to make an appointment, please.") · The time is wrong for you. What do you ask? ("Do you have anything on...? / Is there anything earlier?") · Receptionist, what do you write? (The name and the time.)

SAY: Pharmacy: What do you ask for? ("something for" + the problem) · What's the second question? ("How often should I take it?") · Pharmacist, how many kinds of advice do you give? (Three: should, 'd better, why don't you.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Symptom pictures on the patient cards; learners point and say "I've got a...". Teach one "how long" chunk only: "I've had it since Monday." In the clinic task, the receptionist circles a time instead of writing the name. In Ex 2, give a since card and a for card to hold up. Success = book one appointment and ask "How often should I take it?"

STRETCH

Patients add "It started when..." and "It's worse at night." Receptionists offer two choices and confirm everything back ("So that's Tuesday at 4:45 with Dr. Lee."). Pharmacists warn with You'd better not... ("You'd better not drive"). Write a short message to a manager: "I'm sorry, I can't come to work today. I've had... since..." (a pretend person).

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I have pain my head" / "My head is hurting me": Spanish me duele la cabeza / tengo dolor de cabeza, Portuguese estou com dor de cabeça, Arabic عندي ألم في رأسي. Give the chunks: I have a headache. My head hurts.
- ◆ "I'm sick since Monday" / "since three days": French depuis, Spanish desde hace, German seit, Russian уже три дня use the present tense and one word for both. Don't teach the full present perfect today; drill the chunk I've had... since / for...
- ◆ "I have fever / I have cold" (no article): Spanish tengo fiebre, Portuguese, Russian, Chinese, Vietnamese. Recast: "a fever," "a cold." But: the flu, and toothache with or without a.
- ◆ "You should to rest" / "You must to...": Spanish deberías, Portuguese deveria and Arabic learners generalize to from have to. Point at the "base verb" on the board.

- ◆ "Why you don't rest?": Chinese, Vietnamese, Arabic and Spanish speakers keep statement word order. Clap the order: WHY — DON'T — YOU.
- ◆ sick vs ill: in British English I feel sick can mean "I might vomit"; in the U.S. sick = unwell. The online lesson explains this. "I don't feel well" is always safe.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 7.3: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_21.html. Listen to Ana's phone call and the pharmacy with 📞; repeat Ana's lines. Workbook 7.3: finish "My new words" and the journal (a pretend friend has a cold: write three pieces of advice).

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 A I've felt sick since Monday. · Q2 B You should see a doctor. · Q3 (new) C You'd better see a doctor today. Ex 5a (Script 7.3-A): Ana Costa · Dr. Lee · today (Wednesday) · 4:15 · come 10 minutes early. Ex 5b (Script 7.3-B): one every 3 hours · not more than 6 a day · drink lots of water, rest; see the doctor if it isn't better in a few days.

CLOSING THE MODULE

END OF C22: MODULE 7 WRAP-UP

Recap on slide 19: Excuse me, how do I get to...? → I'm afraid there's a problem with... → I'd like to make an appointment. Learners tick the three "I can..." lists in the workbook. Anything still unticked goes on a sticky note for you.

Around Town board game: use it for C22 fast finishers or as a 10-minute C23 warmer. It revisits every Module 7 skill and makes a good review before the final assessment (C26). It works well again in the C26 catch-up time.

Watch for in Module 8: 7.3's I've had... since / for... is the doorway to 8.1 (present perfect with for, since, just, already, yet). Remind learners in C23: "You already know this! 'I've had a cough since Monday.'" The polite phrases from C21 (I'd like to..., Could I...?) link to 8.2's verb patterns (would like to + verb).

Final assessment (C26): functional role-plays from this module (ask the way, buy a ticket, a polite complaint, making an appointment) make excellent speaking-test tasks, always with pretend cards for the health one.

Module 8 — Experiences, Plans & Review

The last three classes of A2. In C23 learners connect the past to now with the present perfect and for, since, just, already, yet. In C24 they join two verbs together (I enjoy cooking · I want to cook). In C25 there is no new grammar: learners plan and tell My Life Story & Future Plans, using every A2 tense. You observe them with a checklist that feeds the C26 final speaking assessment.

3 lessons

Lessons 8.1–8.3

Classes C23–C25

Weeks 12–13

90 min per class

CEFR A2

HOW TO USE THIS GUIDE

- One lesson block = one 90-minute class. C23 and C24 follow the usual shape: warmer → lead-in → Meaning / Form / Pronunciation with concept-checking questions (CCQs) → drill (choral, then individual) → controlled practice (workbook) → freer practice (pairs and groups) → delayed error correction → homework. C25 is a task-based class: pre-task review → planning → rehearsal → task → report and language focus.
- The stage plan is your clock. Each one adds up to 90 minutes. The numbers in the Time column are minutes.
- Present from `slides/module-8-review.html`. Print `materials/module-8/classroom-materials.html` before C23. It holds the flashcards, the for/since sort cards, the "How long have you...?" timeline sheet, the to-do list information gap, the verb-pattern sort cards, the Verb Pattern Race board game, the life-story cards, the listening scripts and the teacher observation checklist.
- The online lessons are the learners' homework and review. Each one has  Listen buttons, so learners can hear every model sentence and dialogue again at home.
- American English throughout. The online lessons and this kit both use American English (neighborhood, apartment, movies, on the weekend, memorize, move, college). Accept British forms when learners use them (neighbourhood, flat, films, at the weekend, memorise, move house, university). Also: Americans often say I just ate / Did you eat yet? in speech. Teach the present perfect (I've just eaten, Have you eaten yet?) as the safe form, and accept the past simple with just / already / yet as correct American English.
- Dashed boxes = lines to say out loud, CCQs and ICQs (instruction-checking questions). Green boxes = scripts you read aloud. Amber = watch-outs.

THE THROUGH-LINE

Up to now → what I like and want → my whole story. C23 is about the bridge between the past and today (I've lived here for three years). C24 adds the language of hobbies, wishes and plans (I enjoy..., I want to..., I've decided to...). C25 puts all of A2 on one timeline: where I come from (past simple, past continuous, used to) → up to now (present perfect) → what's next (going to, will, first conditional). The C23 and C24 freer tasks are the first two parts of the C25 story, so learners arrive at C25 with material ready.

TRAUMA-INFORMED: LIFE STORIES ARE VERY PERSONAL

"Where did you grow up?" and "How long have you lived here?" can touch on war, migration, loss, family separation or immigration status. Never ask why someone left a country, or when they arrived, unless they offer it. In every personal task, offer three choices out loud: your real story, a partly fictional story (change or skip any part: a real past with an imagined future, or start the story "up to now"), or a fully fictional story (a life-story card from the classroom materials, or a character you invent). Say it every time, so that choosing a card is normal. Timelines can be about anything: a phone, a hobby, a friendship, a favorite team.

BEFORE THE MODULE

- Print the picture flashcards (one set for the board). Print and cut the for/since sort cards and the verb-pattern sort cards (one set per group of 3).
- Print one "How long have you...?" timeline sheet per learner and one to-do list information gap page per pair (cut A from B) for C23.
- For C24: one Verb Pattern Race board per group of 3–4 (A3 if you can), one die per group, and counters (coins, paper clips or buttons work).
- For C25: the life-story cards (on a side table where anyone can take one without asking), one story-planning frame per learner (it is in the workbook; spare copies help), and the observation checklist on a clipboard.
- Know your C26 plan. Read "Looking Ahead" at the end of this chapter, and check your program's A2 final assessment materials before C25, so what you tell learners matches them. Order or print certificates (the shared ESL toolkit has a template).

MODULE AT A GLANCE

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
8.1	C23 • wk 12	Present perfect for time "up to now": for + length, since + start point, How long have you...? , just / already / yet , present perfect vs past simple	ask and answer "How long have you...?" and talk about their life "up to now" in 6+ sentences with for , since , just , already and yet

LESSON	CLASS	FOCUS	LEARNERS CAN...
8.2	C24 · wk 12	Verb patterns: verb + -ing (enjoy, don't mind, finish, keep, suggest; like/love/hate) and verb + to (want, need, would like, decide, hope, plan, promise, learn, try)	talk about their hobbies and plans in 6+ sentences, choosing -ing or to after the first verb
8.3	C25 · wk 13	Review project: My Life Story & Future Plans . All A2 tenses on one timeline; listening (a life-story interview)	tell a 10+ sentence story in three parts (past · up to now · future) and answer a listener's questions
—	C26 · wk 13	Final assessment + celebration (see the kit's A2 final assessment)	show what they can do in a short, friendly speaking check, then celebrate the end of A2

8.1 · C23

Present Perfect — for, since, just, already, yet

90 min

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ use for + a length of time (for three years) and since + a start point (since 2021, since Monday, since I was a child)
- ◆ ask and answer How long have you lived / worked / known...?
- ◆ use just (a moment ago) and already (done, maybe early) before the past participle
- ◆ use yet at the end of questions and negatives: Have you paid yet? I haven't paid yet.
- ◆ choose the present perfect (time up to now) or the past simple (finished time: yesterday, in 2019, ago)

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 8.1 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "My life up to now" task)
- ◆ Slides 3–8 · to-do flashcards · for/since sort cards (1 set per group of 3) · "How long have you...?" timeline sheet (1 per learner) · new identity timelines · To-do list information gap A/B (1 page per pair, Set 1 and Set 2)
- ◆ Listening scripts 8.1-A (Ana's timeline), 8.1-B (Leo's moving day), 8.1-C (dictation)

BOARD PLAN

Left: a timeline. 2021 ● —————→ NOW ● · "I've lived here since 2021." (the dot) · "I've lived here for five years." (the whole line). Two columns under it: for three years · two weeks · a long time | since 2021 · Monday · I was a child.

Center: How long have you lived here? — For five years. / Since 2021. · I've just finished. · I've already paid. · Have you called her yet? · I haven't called her yet. (have + just/already + past participle · ... yet.)

Right: two clouds of time words. Up to now → present perfect: for, since, just, already, yet, ever, never. Finished → past simple: yesterday, last week, in 2019, two days ago.

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: Have you ever...?	8	S-S	Review C22 (7.3) and recycle 4.1. Pairs: one learner says a health problem from C22 ("I have a sore throat"), the partner gives advice with should . Then switch to "Have you ever...?" (lost your keys? eaten something very spicy? sung in public?). Answer with Yes, I have / No, I've never Check 2-3 homework sentences.
Lead-in: my timeline	6	T-S	Draw your own timeline on the board (true or invented): "I started teaching in 2015. I still teach. So... I've taught since 2015. I've taught for eleven years." Ask: "How long have I lived in this city? Guess!" Learners guess; you answer with for and since .
for / since: M/F/P + Ex 1	12	T-S → S-S	Slide 3. Meaning with the timeline (the dot vs the line), CCQs, drill (below). Groups of 3 sort the for/since cards into two columns (2 min). Then Workbook Ex 1 (A and B) alone; pairs check.
Listening + "How long have you...?" timelines	15	S → S-S	(1) Read Script 8.1-A (Ana) twice; learners complete Workbook Ex 2 (3 min). Point at the bonus item: Texas is finished, so she lived there for two years (past simple). (2) Slide 4. Each learner marks 4-5 start points on the timeline sheet (their life, a new identity timeline, or "light" things: my phone, my shoes, my hobby) (4 min). (3) Pairs swap sheets and ask "How long have you...?" The partner answers with for or since (6 min). (4) Two learners report: "Tomás has had his phone for two years." ICQs first.
just / already / yet: M/F/P	12	T-S	Slides 5-6. Mime: finish writing on the board and say "I've just written it." Hold up a paid bill: "I've already paid it — early!" Point to a closed envelope: "I haven't opened it yet ." Meaning, form (word position), CCQs, drill. Then read Script 8.1-B (Leo's moving day); learners tick ✓ / ✗ in Workbook Ex 3 and write 3 sentences.
To-do list information gap	12	S-S	Slide 8. A/B cards, Set 1 (getting ready for a trip). Face to face, no showing. "Have you booked the hotel yet?" — "Yes, I've already booked it." / "Yes, I've just..." / "No, I haven't... yet." Partners tick ✓ / ✗ and write just / already . At the end, they agree: "What haven't we done yet? I'm going to... / I'll..." Fast pairs: Set 2 (the party) with a new partner. ICQs first.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Present perfect vs past simple + Ex 4–5	7	T–S → S	Slide 6 (the time-word clue). Point at the two clouds on the board. Quick drill: T says a time word ("yesterday!" "since May!"), learners say "past simple" or "present perfect." Workbook Ex 4 and Ex 5 alone; check the hard items on the board.
Freer: my life up to now	8	S–S	New partner. Each learner says 6+ sentences from their timeline sheet: two with for or since , one with just , one with already , one yet question for the partner. The listener asks one "How long...?" question. Tell learners: "Keep your timeline. It is part 2 of your life story in C25."
Feedback	5	T–S	Delayed error correction: board 4 sentences you heard (no names): e.g. "I live here since 2020." "I've lived here for five years ago." "I've finished yet." Plus one great sentence. "Right or wrong? Fix it together."
Homework set-up	5	T–S	Show the online lesson on screen; press one  model sentence. Set the homework (below). Learners tick the 8.1 "I can..." box.
Total	90		8 + 6 + 12 + 15 + 12 + 12 + 7 + 8 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

This class has two big grammar points. Cut in this order: (1) Set 2 of the information gap; (2) the report stage of the timeline activity; (3) do Workbook Ex 5 as homework. Keep the freer task, even if it is only 5 minutes: learners need their "up to now" sentences for C25.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

for / since — meaning. Both answer "How long?" about a situation that started in the past and is still true now. for + the length (the whole line). since + the start (the dot). Learners met the present perfect for experiences in 4.1 (C10), so the form is review. The new part is the "still true now" meaning.

SAY: "I've lived here for five years." Do I live here now? (Yes.) When did I start? (Five years ago.) Is it finished? (No.)

SAY: "since 2021." Is 2021 a length of time, or a start point? (A start point.) "three years": length or start point? (Length.) So: for three years, since 2021.

SAY: "I lived in Texas for two years." Do I live in Texas now? (No.) Finished? (Yes.) So which tense? (Past simple.)

just / already / yet — meaning. just = a very short time ago. already = it's done, often earlier than expected. yet = up to now; only in questions and negatives; we expect it to happen.

SAY: "I've just eaten." A long time ago or a minute ago? (A minute ago.) Am I hungry? (No!)

SAY: "I've already paid the bill." Is the bill paid? (Yes.) Did I pay early? (Yes, maybe earlier than you thought.)

SAY: "I haven't called her yet." Did I call her? (No.) Am I going to call her? (Yes, probably.) Where is yet? (At the end.)

Form.

How long?	How long have / has + subject + past participle?	How long have you lived here? — For six years. / Since 2020.
for	+ a length of time	for ten minutes · for two weeks · for a long time since	+ a start point (a day, a date, an event)	since Monday · since 9 o'clock · since I was a child
just / already	have / has + just / already + past participle	She's just arrived. · I've already eaten.
yet	question / negative ... + yet (at the end)	Have you finished yet? · I haven't finished yet.
vs past simple	finished time words: yesterday, last week, in 2019, ago	I ate at seven. (not "I've eaten at seven")

Pronunciation. Contractions are normal in speech: I've /aɪv/, she's /ʃi:z/, haven't /'hævənt/. Point out that she's lived = she has lived (not she is); the past participle tells you. for is weak in a sentence: /fər/ ("f'r five years"). In How long have you...? the stress is on LONG and the main verb: "How LONG have you LIVED here?"; have you is fast, /əvja/. yet /jet/ is not jet /dʒet/: smile for the /j/.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Back-chain: "...here." → "...lived here." → "How long have you lived here?" Choral ×3, then half the room, then individuals. Answer chorally: "For five years." / "Since 2021."

- 2 for or since? T says a time phrase, learners say the whole phrase: T: "three years" → S: "for three years." T: "Monday" → S: "since Monday." T: "I was a child" → S: "since I was a child." Speed up.
- 3 Mime drill (just): T sits down, stands up, closes a book → learners: "You've just sat down." "You've just closed the book."
- 4 Transformation (yet): T: "I've called her." (shake head) → S: "I haven't called her yet." T: "You've paid?" → S: "Have you paid yet?"
- 5 Open pairs → closed pairs: S1 → S2 across the room: "How long have you had your phone?" S2: "For a year." Then all pairs, 1 minute.

◆ "HOW LONG HAVE YOU...?" TIMELINES – HOW TO RUN IT

- ◆ Each learner writes 4–5 start points on the arrow on their sheet: a year, a month, a day or an event (2021 · last May · I was 20 · Monday) with a word or picture: this city · my job · my phone · my best friend · English class.
- ◆ Choice: real life, a new identity timeline card, or "light" topics only (a phone, shoes, a hobby, a favorite TV show). Nobody has to write when they came to the country.
- ◆ Pairs swap sheets. B looks at A's timeline and asks: "How long have you had your phone?" A: "Since 2024. / For two years." B writes the answer on A's sheet.
- ◆ Swap roles. Stretch: ask a follow-up question in the past simple ("Where did you buy it?"). This is the present perfect → past simple move that native speakers make all the time.

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE TIMELINES AND THE INFORMATION GAP

SAY: Timelines: Do you have to write your real life? (No. A card, or easy things like your phone.) What is the question? ("How long have you...?") What two words can you use in the answer? (For and since.) Who writes the answer? (My partner.)

SAY: To-do list: Can you show your card? (No.) What question do you ask? ("Have you... yet?") Where is "yet"? (At the end.) If the item has "5 minutes ago," what word do you use? (Just.) If it has an X? ("No, I haven't... yet.")

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Timelines can be all numbers and pictures. Give a for / since strip to hold: for +  (a number of days / years) · since +  (a date, a day). In the information gap, learners say only "Yes, I have. / No, I haven't." plus just or already; the partner points and ticks. Target: 4 sentences in the freer task.

STRETCH

Add a past-simple follow-up to every "How long" answer ("When did you start?"). Use since + a clause: since I started my job. In the information gap, explain: "I haven't changed the money yet because the bank is closed." Try still: "I still haven't called my mom."

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I live here since 2020" / "I am living here for five years" (Spanish vivo aquí desde..., Portuguese, French depuis, German seit, Italian, Russian, Polish: the present tense does this job). Very common and very fossilized. Draw the arrow reaching NOW and recast: "You've lived here since 2020."
- ◆ "since three years" (French depuis and German seit cover both for and since; Spanish desde hace). Ask the quick test: "Can you count it?"
- ◆ "I've lived here for five years ago" (Spanish hace, Portuguese há, Arabic mundhu, Tagalog na...ang nakalipas). ago goes with the past simple only.
- ◆ "I already eat" / "I finish already" (Chinese yǐjīng ... le, Vietnamese đã / rồi, Thai láew, Tagalog na: no tense change, and the "already" word often comes at the end). Accept I already ate (American); correct I already eat.
- ◆ "I didn't eat yet" / "I still not eat" (Spanish todavía no, German noch nicht, Japanese mada, Korean ajik). I didn't eat yet is heard in American speech; teach I haven't eaten yet. Japanese and Korean speakers may use yet for "still" ("I yet live here"): contrast still (positive) and yet (negative).
- ◆ Irregular past participles (all learners): I've ate, I've went, I've saw. Keep a participle list on the wall: eaten, gone/been, seen, done, bought, paid, known, had, found.
- ◆ yet → "jet" (Spanish, Portuguese in some regions, Arabic).

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 8.1: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_22.html. Listen to the five  model sentences and the "catching up" dialogue, and say them out loud. Do the two online exercises. Workbook 8.1: finish Ex 5, "My new words" and the journal (two sentences with for and since, one with just, one with already, one negative with yet).

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B I've worked here for two years. · Q2 A Have you finished yet? · Q3 (new) B I have lived in this city since 2021. Ana (Script 8.1-A, Ex 2): since 2021 · for three years · since 2022 · for one year · since last September · for two months · bonus: for two years (past simple, finished).

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- ◆ use verb + -ing after enjoy, don't mind, finish, keep, suggest (and like, love, hate)
- ◆ use verb + to + base verb after want, need, would like, decide, hope, plan, promise, learn, try
- ◆ remember that the first verb decides the pattern, and that would like always takes to
- ◆ spell the -ing form (make → making, swim → swimming)
- ◆ talk about hobbies, wishes and plans in 6+ sentences, and ask What do you enjoy doing? What do you want to do this year?

◆ MATERIALS

- ◆ Workbook 8.2 (New words, Grammar box, Exercises 1–5, dialogue, "Hobbies & plans" interview)
- ◆ Slides 9–13 · hobby flashcards · verb-pattern sort cards (1 set per group of 3) · Verb Pattern Race board game (1 board + 1 die per group of 3–4, counters)
- ◆ Listening scripts 8.2-A (Lena and Omar talk about free time) and 8.2-B (dictation)

BOARD PLAN

Left: two columns. verb + -ing: enjoy · don't mind · finish · keep · suggest · (like / love / hate) | verb + to: want · need · would like · decide · hope · plan · promise · learn · try

Center: I enjoy → cooking. · I want → to cook. · The FIRST verb decides! · I'd like to go. ✓ · I'd like going. ✗ · I enjoy to read ✗ · I want reading ✗

Right: spelling: read → reading · make → making (no e) · swim → swimming · run → running. Memory hook: -ing = feelings and habits · to = a goal ahead →

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: Have you... yet?	8	T-S → S-S	Review C23. Show your (real or invented) to-do list for this week on the board, with ✓ and ✗. Learners ask "Have you... yet?" You answer with just / already / not yet . Then pairs ask each other 3 questions about this week (done the homework? paid a bill? called your family?) and one "How long have you...?" question.
Lead-in: enjoy vs	5	T-S	Hold up the cook and hike flashcards. "I enjoy cooking . I do it every weekend. But I want to hike

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
want			in the mountains. I've never done it!" Write both on the board. "Look at the second verb. Is it the same?" (No: -ing and to .)
verb + -ing: M/F/P	10	T-S	Slides 9–10. Hobby flashcards: elicit swimming, dancing, cooking, reading, singing, hiking . Meaning of enjoy, don't mind, finish, keep, suggest (CCQs below). -ing spelling on the board. Drill.
verb + to: M/F/P + would like	10	T-S	Slides 10–11. want, need, would like, decide, hope, plan, promise, learn, try . The memory hook: many to verbs point forward to a goal . like / love / hate : both patterns OK. would like : always to . CCQs, drill.
Verb sort cards	8	S-S	Groups of 3. Shuffle the verb-pattern sort cards . Put them under the two header cards + -ing and + to (3 min). The like / love / hate cards go in the middle ("both"). Then one learner turns a card over, and the next learner makes a sentence with it: " promise : I promise to call you."
Controlled practice	10	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 1–3 alone, then pairs compare. Board-check only the items pairs disagree on. Check -ing spelling in Ex 2.
Listening: Lena and Omar	7	S	Read Script 8.2-A twice. Gist: "Who has a plan for this year?" (Both!) Detail: Workbook Ex 4 (tick the table). Then pairs read the dialogue on slide 12.
Board game: Verb Pattern Race	15	S-S (groups of 3–4)	Slide 13. Roll the die, move, and make a true sentence with the verb on the square (enjoy... on the weekend → I enjoy sleeping late on the weekend). The group checks the second verb with the two-column list. Wrong pattern = go back 1 square. ★ squares = ask the player on your left a question. ICQs first. You monitor and note errors.
Freer: hobbies & plans interview	7	S-S	New partner. Workbook speaking table: "What do you enjoy doing?" "What don't you mind doing?" "What do you want to do this year?" "What would you like to learn?" Learners write the partner's answers in note form. Tell them: "Keep these notes. Your plans are part 3 of your life story in C25."

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Feedback	5	T-S	Board 4 errors from the game (no names): "I enjoy to read," "I'd like going," "I decided stay," "He keeps to forget." Learners fix them and say which first verb decides.
Homework set-up	5	T-S	Online lesson 8.2; workbook journal. Tell learners: "Next class is our life-story project. Think: where did you grow up? What have you done? What are your plans? (Or: choose a story card.)"
Total	90		8 + 5 + 10 + 10 + 8 + 10 + 7 + 15 + 7 + 5 + 5

IF YOU RUN LONG

Do the verb sort as a whole class on the board (saves 4 minutes). Play the board game for 10 minutes: the first player to square 20 wins. Keep the interview; it prepares C25.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION

Meaning. Two verbs together: the first verb is the main one, and the second verb changes its shape. The first verb decides. There is no perfect rule, so learners learn the common verbs in two groups. A helpful hook: many -ing verbs talk about feelings and habits (enjoy, don't mind, keep); many to verbs point forward to a goal (want, plan, hope, decide).

SAY: "I enjoy cooking." Do I like it? (Yes.) Is it a habit or one time? (A habit, in general.)

SAY: "I don't mind waiting." Is waiting a problem for me? (No. It's OK.) Do I love it? (No, but it's OK.)

SAY: "He keeps forgetting his keys." One time, or again and again? (Again and again.) Is he happy about it? (No!)

SAY: "She finished cooking." Is she cooking now? (No. It's done.)

SAY: "I've decided to take a class." Is it an idea, or a decision? (A decision.) Past or future action? (The class is in the future.)

SAY: "I'd like to go home." = "I want to go home"? (Yes, but more polite.) "I'd like going home": OK? (No! would like + to.)

Form.

verb + -ing	enjoy · don't mind · finish · keep · suggest	I enjoy reading . · They suggested going to the beach.
verb + to + base verb	want · need · would like · decide · hope · plan · promise · learn · try	We decided to stay home. · I'm learning to drive .
both	like · love · hate	I love cooking. = I love to cook.
would like	always + to	I'd like to visit my grandparents.
negative	the first verb changes; the pattern stays	I don't enjoy running . · She doesn't want to wait .

Pronunciation. -ing is /ɪŋ/: the tongue goes back, and there is no hard /g/ at the end (not "sing-g"). to is weak, /tə/: "I want tə go." Learners will hear wanna and gonna in movies; that is fine to understand, but write want to. I'd like to links: /aɪd 'laɪk tə/. don't mind: stress on MIND.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT

- 1 Substitution (-ing): T: "I enjoy... 🏊" (swim flashcard) → S: "I enjoy swimming." T: "dance" → "I enjoy dancing." T: "hike" → "I enjoy hiking." Then change the first verb: T: "don't mind" → S: "I don't mind hiking."
- 2 Substitution (to): T: "I want... travel" → S: "I want to travel." T: "hope" → "I hope to travel." T: "would like" → "I'd like to travel."
- 3 First verb decides (fast): T says a first verb + a second verb: "enjoy / cook" → S: "I enjoy cooking." "decide / move" → "I decided to move." "keep / forget" → "I keep forgetting." Learners who make a mistake just try again: no explanation.
- 4 Question chain: S1 → S2: "What do you enjoy doing on the weekend?" S2 answers, then asks S3: "What do you want to do this year?"... around the room.

◆ VERB PATTERN RACE – HOW TO RUN IT

- Groups of 3–4, one board, one die, one counter each. Everyone starts on START. The two-column list stays open in the workbook (the "referee").
- Roll and move. Read the square and make a true sentence (or a sentence for your new identity): hope... next year → I hope to find a better job next year.
- The group listens to the second verb. If it's wrong, the group helps fix it, and the player goes back 1 square.
- ★ squares: ask the player on your left the question on the square. They answer with the right pattern.
Arrow squares: go forward or back.

- ◆ The first player to FINISH wins, but let groups keep playing until you stop the game. No dice? Use the dice-free variant printed under the board (count on fingers, or use a phone dice app).

◆ ICQS BEFORE THE BOARD GAME AND THE INTERVIEW

SAY: Game: Do you say a sentence or just the verb? (A sentence.) A true sentence? (Yes, or for your card person.) Your sentence is wrong. What happens? (Go back one square.) What do you do on a star square? (Ask the person on my left.)

SAY: Interview: Do you write full sentences? (No, just notes.) What do you ask first? ("What do you enjoy doing?") After "want," what comes? (To.)

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

Focus on four verbs only: enjoy, don't mind (+ -ing) and want, would like (+ to). Give them a color card: green = -ing, blue = to; color the board game squares the same way before class. In the game, a picture flashcard can be the second verb (point to swim: "I enjoy swimming"). Target: 4 correct sentences.

STRETCH

Add a reason or time: "I've decided to learn to drive because the bus is slow." Try two patterns in one sentence: "I want to learn to swim." Add -ing after a preposition (from the online FAQ): good at cooking, interested in learning. In the interview, ask a follow-up with the present perfect: "Have you ever tried...?"

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "I enjoy to read" / "I suggest to go" / "She finished to eat" (Spanish, Portuguese, French, Italian, Russian, Polish: the second verb is an infinitive after almost every verb). This is the most common error in the class. Keep pointing to the -ing column.
- ◆ "I want go" / "I enjoy cook" (Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai, Indonesian, Tagalog: the verb doesn't change shape). Tap the second verb: "What is missing?"
- ◆ "I would like go" (German ich möchte gehen, Dutch: no to after the modal). Drill I'd like to as one chunk.
- ◆ "I want that I go" / "I want that you come" (Arabic urīdu an..., Spanish quiero que..., Persian, Turkish). Show I want to go and I want you to come (stretch only).
- ◆ -ing pronunciation: "sing-g" with a hard /g/ (Arabic, Cantonese, some Spanish speakers) or "-een" / "-in" (Spanish, Portuguese, Tagalog). Model the /ŋ/ with the tongue back and the mouth open.
- ◆ Spelling: "swiming," "danceing," "makeing" (all learners). Use the board rules.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 8.2: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_23.html. Listen to the five  model sentences and the free-time dialogue, and say them out loud. Do the two online exercises. Workbook 8.2:

finish Ex 5, "My new words" and the journal (two things you enjoy + two plans; underline the first verb).
Think about your life story for C25, or choose a story card next class.

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 B I want to travel this year. · Q2 A She enjoys dancing. · Q3 (new) B I'd like to have a coffee, please. Lena and Omar (Script 8.2-A, Ex 4): Lena enjoys dancing, doesn't mind cooking, wants to learn to swim, has decided to join a pool · Omar loves hiking, keeps buying books, hopes to visit his brother, would like to learn to play the guitar.

◆ OBJECTIVES — LEARNERS CAN...

- understand the main points of a "getting to know you" interview about a life story
- put the A2 tenses on one timeline: past simple, past continuous, used to · present perfect with for / since / just / already / yet · going to, will, first conditional
- plan a life story in three parts (where I come from · up to now · what's next) with a planning frame
- tell a 10+ sentence life story (real, partly fictional or fully fictional) to a small group, and answer their questions
- listen to a classmate's story and ask one follow-up question

◆ MATERIALS

- Workbook 8.3 (A2 tense toolkit, Exercises 1–4, story-planning frame, story circle, final A2 journal)
- Slides 14–19 · Life-story cards (4 fictional people; on a side table) · time-signal word cards (for the board timeline) · story-circle question cards · Teacher observation checklist (C25 → C26) on a clipboard
- Listening scripts 8.3-A (Maya's interview) and 8.3-B (the teacher's model life story)
- Learners' own notes from C23 (timeline sheet) and C24 (hobbies & plans interview)

BOARD PLAN

Left — PAST (where I come from): I grew up in... · I used to... · When I was young, I was living / working... · In 2019 I moved / started...

Center — UP TO NOW: I've lived here for... / since... · I've worked / studied... · I've just... · I've already... · I haven't... yet.

Right — FUTURE (what's next): I'm going to... (a plan) · I think I'll... (a prediction) · If I..., I'll... · I want to / I'd like to / I hope to...

Corner: Your story = real · partly real · or a story card. All are good. · C26 = final class 🎉

◆ STAGE PLAN

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Warmer: verb-pattern dice	8	S–S	Review C24. Groups of 3 play 5 minutes of the dice-free variant of the Verb Pattern Race (or the board, if you have time). Then: "Stand up if you've decided to do something new this year." 2–3 learners say what.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Lead-in: look how far you've come	5	T-S	Show A2 lesson 1.1 on screen for 20 seconds. "Week 1: past simple, was / were . Now? Listen." Say one sentence from each part of the timeline about yourself. "Today, no new grammar. Today, you tell your story."
Pre-task 1: the A2 tense toolkit	12	T-S → S-S	Slide 14. Build the three-part timeline on the board with learners (they give examples). Quick CCQs for each tense (below). Then Workbook Ex 2 in pairs: sort 9 sentences into Past / Up to now / Future, and name the tense.
Pre-task 2: listening (Maya)	10	S → S-S	Read Script 8.3-A (or play the online dialogue with ). Listen 1, gist: "Is Maya happy about her future?" (Yes, hopeful.) Listen 2: Workbook Ex 1 (questions + tense spotting). Pairs check, then read the dialogue on slide 15 in two voices.
Pre-task 3: accuracy check	8	S → S-S	Workbook Ex 3 (mixed-tense review) and Ex 4 (correct the mistake), alone then pairs. Board-check Ex 4: these are the errors to avoid in the story.
Planning: the story frame	12	S	Slide 16. Read Script 8.3-B (your model story) once. Then learners choose : real story · partly fictional · a life-story card. They fill the story-planning frame with key words, not full sentences (3–4 lines per part), using their C23 timeline and C24 interview notes. You circulate and help, especially with the "past" part.
Rehearsal	8	S-S	Pairs. A tells the story from the frame (no reading word by word); B listens and gives one "star" (something good) and one "wish" (one tense to check). Swap. Then learners fix one thing in their frame.
TASK: story circles	15	S-S (groups of 3)	Slide 17. New groups of 3. Each speaker tells the whole story (about 2 minutes). Each listener asks one question from a story-circle question card or their own. The listeners tick the three parts on the Workbook "I heard..." boxes. You observe with the checklist . ICQs first.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Report & language focus	5	T-S	2-3 volunteers tell their story (or just part 3) to the class. Applause! Board 3-4 errors from the circles (no names) and 2 excellent sentences; fix and praise together.
Looking ahead & homework	7	T-S	Slide 18: preview C26 (see "Looking Ahead" below): what the final assessment looks like, and the celebration. Homework: the online capstone lesson, record the life story on a phone, the final A2 journal. Learners tick the 8.3 "I can..." list.
Total	90		8 + 5 + 12 + 10 + 8 + 12 + 8 + 15 + 5 + 7

IF YOU RUN LONG

Protect planning, rehearsal and the story circles. Cut in this order: (1) shorten the warmer to 4 minutes; (2) do Ex 3 as homework (keep Ex 4); (3) skip the pairs reading of Maya's dialogue. Never cut Looking Ahead. Learners must leave knowing exactly what C26 looks like.

◆ MEANING • FORM • PRONUNCIATION (REVIEW)

No new grammar. The job today is choosing the right tense for each part of the story. Use the time words as signals: when I was young, in 2019, used to → past • for, since, just, already, yet → up to now • next year, one day, if... → future. Keep CCQs short and fast.

SAY: "I used to play football every day." Do I play every day now? (No.) Was it a habit? (Yes.) (Module 5.3)

SAY: "I was living with my family then." Was it a long situation, or one quick moment? (A situation, in progress.) (Module 5.1)

SAY: "I've lived here for six years." Do I live here now? (Yes.) Past simple or present perfect? (Present perfect.)

SAY: "I'm going to study nursing." Decided or not decided? (Decided, a plan.) "I think I'll move to the city." A plan or a guess? (A guess, a prediction.) (Module 3)

SAY: "If I pass the exam, I'll celebrate." Did I pass? (Not yet. It's possible.) "If I will pass"? (No! If + present.) (Module 6.1)

Past	past simple • past continuous • used to + base verb	I grew up in a small town. • I was working on a farm. • I used to walk to school.
-------------	--	---

Up to now	present perfect + for / since / just / already / yet	I've lived here since 2022. · I've just started a new job.
Future	going to (plan) · will (prediction) · If + present, will + verb · want / hope / would like + to	I'm going to apply. · I think I'll stay. · If I get the job, I'll stay.

Pronunciation for storytelling. Pause between the three parts (it helps the listener). Stress the time words: "When I was YOUNG...", "NEXT year...". Link used to /'ju:stə/ (it sounds like "yoos-ta," not "yoozd-too"). Contracted I've, I'll, I'm sound natural, but full forms are fine in a story.

◆ DRILL SCRIPT (QUICK, CHORAL → INDIVIDUAL)

- 1 Time-word trigger: T says a time phrase, learners say the tense and one sentence: "When I was a child..." → "I used to..." · "for three years" → "I've... for three years." · "next year" → "I'm going to..."
- 2 Back-chain the bridge line: "...since 2022." → "...lived here since 2022." → "I've lived here since 2022." Then learners change the start point to their own (or their card's).
- 3 If-chain: T: "If I pass the exam..." → S1: "...I'll celebrate." S1: "If I celebrate..." → S2: "...I'll eat cake." Keep it fun and fast.

◆ THE TASK – STORY CIRCLES (GROUPS OF 3)

Story choices (say them out loud): (1) Real story. (2) Partly fictional: change places, dates or people, skip any part, or start with "up to now." Many learners choose a real present and an imagined, happy future. (3) Fully fictional: a life-story card, or invent a character (a famous person, a character from a movie). Nobody explains their choice.

Round: speaker tells the story in three parts (about 2 minutes; glancing at key words is fine, reading full sentences is not). Listener 1 asks a question about the past, listener 2 about the future (story-circle question cards help). Listeners tick "I heard: past · up to now · future." Then the next speaker. Clap or ring a bell every 5 minutes to keep the circles moving.

SAY: ICQs: Does it have to be your real life? (No. Real, partly real, or a card.) How many parts? (Three: past, up to now, future.) Do you read your frame? (No, only look at the key words.) Listeners, what do you do? (Listen, tick, and ask one question.) How long do you talk? (About two minutes.)

Observe for (checklist items 1–8): past forms, used to / past continuous, for / since, just / already / yet, going to / will, a first conditional, verb patterns, and answering a follow-up question.

◆ THE OBSERVATION CHECKLIST → C26

Print it from the classroom materials. One row per learner, 8 can-do items, three marks: ✓ did it clearly · ~ did it with help, or errors that affect meaning · ○ not yet / not observed. You won't see every learner do everything. That's fine: listen to each learner for at least one full story. You can add marks from the rehearsal stage. After class, use the sheet to:

- ◆ Plan each C26 speaking interview. The C26 interview asks about the same three parts. For learners with ○ on item 3 or 5, start the interview with the part they told best, to build confidence. Learners who used a story card may use the same card in C26.
- ◆ Choose the C26 role-play. The A2 final speaking check includes one Module 7 role-play (travel and directions, eating out or shopping, or a health appointment). Note which one suits each learner.
- ◆ Plan the C26 warm-up: the two items with the most ~ / ○ across the class become the 10-minute review before the assessment starts.
- ◆ Spot who needs reassurance: anyone who didn't finish their story gets a quiet word at the end of C25: "Next class is friendly. It's the same as today. I'll help you."
- ◆ Don't grade C25. It's practice. Tell learners so. The checklist is for your planning, not their record.

◆ DIFFERENTIATION

LITERACY SUPPORT

The story frame can be three pictures: learners draw (or use flashcards for) one scene per part and talk from the pictures. The life-story cards have picture symbols and short lines. Target: 6 sentences (2 per part), with at least one for / since and one going to. Pair a lower-literacy learner with a supportive partner in the rehearsal, not in the task.

STRETCH

15+ sentences. Join ideas with Module 6: because, so, although, relative clauses (the town where I grew up), and a when / while sentence (Module 5.2: While I was working in a café, I met...). Listeners ask two follow-up questions, one with How long...?. Tell the story in the third person about a partner (he / she -s).

◆ L1 WATCH-OUTS

- ◆ "When I had 20 years..." (Spanish tenía 20 años, Portuguese, French, Italian: age with "have") comes back in life stories. Recast: When I was 20...
- ◆ "I am living here since..." (see C23): the most common error in part 2. Recast it every time.
- ◆ "I used to played" / "I use to" (all learners). The spoken /'ju:stə/ hides the d; point to the board: used to + base verb.
- ◆ "If I will get the job..." (Spanish, Portuguese, French, German and Russian speakers often put a future in the if part). Board: If + present, will + verb.
- ◆ No tense change at all (Chinese, Vietnamese, Thai, Indonesian, Malay: time words carry the meaning). The story is still understandable, so praise the time words, then pick one tense to fix per learner.
- ◆ Dropped be in *going to (Arabic, Russian, Chinese): I going to open a shop. Tap the 'm'.
- ◆ Missing articles in place descriptions (Russian, Polish, Chinese, Japanese, Korean): I grew up in small town. Accept in fluency; note it for the feedback stage.

◆ HOMEWORK

Online lesson 8.3: https://rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-a2/lesson_24.html. Listen to Maya's interview with  and repeat the lines. Record your life story on your phone (or tell it to someone at home) and listen back. Workbook 8.3: write the story (10+ sentences) and the final A2 journal. Bring the workbook to C26.

◆ CHECK — SELF-CHECK ANSWERS

Q1 A I used to play the piano. · Q2 A pass · Q3 (new) A Next year I am going to study nursing. Maya (Ex 1): a small town by the sea; her family used to run a café · four years, since she started college · no, not yet; she's going to apply to a design studio next week · to open her own studio; if she gets the job, she'll stay in the city for a while.

CLOSING THE MODULE AND THE COURSE

END OF C25: MODULE 8 AND A2 WRAP-UP

Recap on slide 19: I've lived here since... → I enjoy... / I want to... → my whole story. Learners tick the three "I can..." lists in the workbook and look back at the "I can..." lists from Module 1. Anything still unticked goes on a sticky note for you, for the C26 warm-up.

The C26 final assessment covers the whole A2 course. From this module it checks: for / since, How long have you...?, just / already / yet, present perfect vs past simple, verb + -ing / verb + to, would like to, and telling a short life story across the three time frames.

WHAT TO TELL LEARNERS AT THE END OF C25 (SLIDE 18)

C26 has two parts. First, a short, friendly final assessment: a one-to-one (or pair) speaking check with you, about 6–8 minutes. You ask a few questions about their life (the same three parts as today: past, up to now, future) and do one short role-play from Module 7 (directions, a café or store, or a doctor's appointment). There are also short listening, reading and writing tasks in the kit's A2 final assessment. Then a celebration: certificates, a look back at what everyone can do now, and the next step, the B1 course, Independent English. Say it simply: "Next class is our last class. You talk with me for a few minutes, like today. You can tell the same story: real, partly real, or your card. No surprises: it's everything we practiced. Then we celebrate!"

Reduce anxiety: show A2 lesson 1.1 on screen and ask: "Week 1: could you say 'I've lived here for three years, and next year I'm going to...?'" Let them hear how far they've come. Remind them that the online lessons stay open for review, and that the life-story recording is great practice for the interview.

Celebration planning: if learners want to bring food to share in C26, great, and it recycles Module 7. Ask everyone to label their dish with its main ingredients (allergies, halal, vegetarian). Nobody should feel they have to bring anything. Invite volunteers to tell their "future plans" part to the whole group as a "graduation speech."

TEACHER REFLECTION (AFTER C25)

Look at your checklist and answer three questions: Which two can-dos need a C26 warm-up? Which learners need a quiet word of encouragement? Which role-play and which starting question will each learner get in C26? Write your answers on the back of the checklist.