

Welcome to Independent English! 🖐️

Welcome, and thank you for joining us. You can already handle a lot of everyday English. In this course you will learn to tell stories in detail, give and defend your opinions, report what people said, and deal with real situations at work and in daily life: discussions, complaints, and job interviews.

Some of you finished our A2 class, and some of you are new. Everyone brings something to this class, and everyone is welcome.

WHEN AND WHERE

Days:

Time:

Place / Room:

First class:

Last class:

The course lasts 13 weeks, with 2 classes a week. Each class is 90 minutes long, so there are 26 classes in total.

In Class 13 we have a short, friendly check to see how you're doing. In Class 26 you'll have a final check, including a short conversation with your teacher, and then we'll celebrate with certificates! 🎓

WHAT TO BRING

a notebook

a pen or pencil

your phone (if you have one)

water
(if you like)

 Your teacher will give you a workbook. Please bring it to every class, along with your glasses if you wear them.

HOW OUR CLASS WORKS

Please arrive on time. Every class starts with a speaking warm-up.

Keep your phone on silent. We use phones only for class activities.

Speak English as much as you can.
Mistakes are part of learning, so don't wait until your sentence is perfect.

Not sure what something means? Ask.
Your question probably helps someone else too.

If you can't come, please let your teacher know, and do the online lesson at home.

Your personal story is yours. When we talk about our lives, you can always use a real or an imagined story.

HOW WE DISCUSS

At B1 we have a lot of discussions. Different opinions make a class interesting, so here's how we keep them friendly:

Listen to the end. Let people finish before you answer.

Share the time. If you've spoken a lot, invite someone else: "What do you think?"

Give a reason for your opinion. "I think..., because..."

Disagree with the idea, not the person.
"I see your point, but..." is always welcome.

USEFUL PHRASES FOR CLASS

WHEN YOU NEED HELP

Could you say that again, please?

Could you speak a little more slowly?

What's the difference between ___ and ___?

How do you say ___ in English?

IN A DISCUSSION

In my opinion, ...

That's a good point.

I see what you mean, but ...

What do you think?

Independent English (B1): free

Every class has an online lesson with the same grammar, phrases, and conversations. It's your homework, and it helps you catch up if you miss a class. It works on a phone, a tablet, or a computer.

rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-b1/

- 1 Open the website, or scan the QR code with your phone camera.

- 2 Choose the lesson your teacher gives you (for example, Lesson 2.3).
- 3 Press the  buttons to hear the model sentences and conversations, then say them out loud. (No sound? Turn up the volume, or try the Chrome browser. The  Audio control lets you choose a US or UK voice and slow it down.)
- 4 Do the exercises and the quiz, then try the speaking project. Record yourself on your phone, and listen back.

 Try 30 minutes, 3 times a week. That's more useful than one long session.

The online lessons and our class both use American English (apartment, vacation, color). If you learned British English (flat, holiday, colour), that is correct too!

Scan me

Help in your language

This free page shows you how to translate the lessons into your language. It also has free tools for listening, pronunciation, and speaking practice.

`rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/learning-tools.html`

Translation is useful when you're stuck on a hard explanation. But at B1, try to read and listen in English first. You'll be surprised how much you understand. 😊

Scan me

My teacher

Name: _____

 Phone / text: _____

 Email: _____

Other help: _____

 Can't come to class? Send a short message: "Hi, this is _____. I'm sorry, but I can't come today because _____. I'll do the online lesson at home and catch up."

YOU'RE READY FOR THIS

In A2 you learned to tell simple stories and handle everyday situations. In the next 13 weeks you'll learn to explain, imagine, report, and persuade: to say not just what happened, but what you think about it and why. By the end, you'll give a short talk and take part in a real discussion, all in English. We're glad you're here. Welcome! 🧡