

Welcome to Confident English! 🖐️

Welcome, and thank you for joining us. You already use English independently at work and in daily life. In this course you'll learn to tell stories with depth and drama, argue a case and handle disagreement, switch smoothly between formal and informal English, and follow fast, natural speech, so that you sound not just correct, but confident.

Some of you finished our B1 class, and some of you are joining us for the first time. Everyone brings experience and ideas to this room, and everyone is welcome.

WHEN AND WHERE

Days:

Time:

Place / Room:

First class:

Last class:

The course lasts 13 weeks, with 2 classes a week. Each class is 90 minutes long, so there are 26 classes in total.

In Class 13 there's a short, friendly check to see how you're doing. Class 25 is a structured debate, and in Class 26 you'll have a final check, including a one-to-one conversation with your teacher, and then we'll celebrate with certificates! 🎓

WHAT TO BRING

a notebook

a pen or pencil

your phone (if you have one)

water
(if you like)

 Your teacher will give you a workbook. Please bring it to every class. A small notebook just for new expressions is a great idea too: at B2, collecting phrases matters as much as collecting words.

HOW OUR CLASS WORKS

Please arrive on time. Every class starts with a speaking warm-up.

Keep your phone on silent. We use phones only for class activities.

Speak English as much as you can.
Mistakes are how you grow. Your teacher will note them and come back to them later, so keep talking.

Not sure about a word, a nuance, or why something sounds wrong? Ask. Your question probably helps someone else too.

If you can't come, please let your teacher know, and do the online lesson at home.

Your personal story is yours. When we talk about our lives, you can always use a real or an imagined story.

HOW WE DEBATE

At B2 we argue, persuade, and debate a lot, about work, our community, and everyday choices. Strong opinions make a class lively, so here's how we keep debates respectful and useful:

Listen to the end. Let people finish their point before you answer it.

Challenge the idea, not the person.
"I'd question that assumption," never
"That's silly."

Concede, then counter. Admit what's true in the other view first: "That's a fair point, but..."

Share the floor. If you've spoken a lot, invite someone else in: "What's your take on this?"

Assigned sides are normal. You may argue a side you don't believe. It's great practice, and nobody has to share a personal view.

Some topics stay outside. We debate everyday, work, and community questions, not politics or religion.

🗨️ USEFUL PHRASES FOR CLASS

WHEN YOU NEED HELP

Would you mind repeating the last part?

Could you clarify what you mean by ___?

What's the difference in meaning between ___ and ___?

Is there a more formal way to say ___?

IN A DISCUSSION OR DEBATE

As I see it, ... / It seems to me that ...

That's a fair point, but ...

Just to play devil's advocate, ...

What's your take on this?

Confident English (B2): free

Every class has an online lesson with the same grammar, phrases, and model conversations. It's your homework, and it helps you catch up if you miss a class. It works on a phone, a tablet, or a computer.

rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum-b2/

- 1 Open the website, or scan the QR code with your phone camera.

- 2 Choose the lesson your teacher gives you (for example, Lesson 3.2).
- 3 Press the  buttons to hear the model sentences and conversations. Then shadow them: say each line along with the audio, copying the rhythm, the weak forms, and the stress. (No sound? Turn up the volume, or try the Chrome browser. The  Audio control lets you choose a US or UK voice and slow it down.)
- 4 Do the exercises and the quiz, then try the speaking project. Record yourself on your phone, listen back, and write one thing to improve in your learning journal.

 Try 30–40 minutes, 3 times a week. That's more useful than one long session.

The online lessons and our classes both use American English (apartment, line, practice, color). If you learned British English (flat, queue, practise, colour), that's fine too: both are correct, and noticing the differences is a B2 skill in itself!

Help in your language, and more practice

This free page shows you how to translate a lesson into your language, and it lists free tools for listening, pronunciation, and speaking practice.

`rays-esl.netlify.app/curriculum/learning-tools.html`

At B2, try to work in English first and use translation only to check a tricky explanation. For extra listening, choose podcasts, the news, or shows with English subtitles, not subtitles in your language. 😊

YOU'RE READY FOR THIS

At B1 you learned to explain, report, and give your opinion. In the next 13 weeks you'll learn to persuade, emphasize, adapt, and debate: to choose exactly the right words for the moment, and to hold your own when someone disagrees. By the end, you'll take part in a real structured debate, in English. We're glad you're here. Welcome! 🧡
