

Final Test — B1 Exit Check

The end-of-course check on all eight modules, taken on the last day, which is also a celebration. It shows each learner what they can now do in English: tell a story with the right tenses, report what people said, give and defend an opinion, make a complaint that gets results, handle a job interview, and give a short talk. It also gives you the evidence for the next step: Confident English (B2), B2 with a review plan, or another round of B1 with more support. It is never a pass/fail verdict on a person.

 ~60 min written

+ ~8 min interview each

Written /85 • Speaking /15 • Total /100

Covers Modules 1–8

FRAME IT AS "SHOW WHAT YOU CAN DO"

By Class 26 your learners have met you 25 times. Use that trust: "Thirteen weeks ago you chose between two tenses. Today you can give a talk, defend your opinion, and get a refund, all in English!" Do every example item together, keep the room warm and unhurried, and plan the celebration so it happens whatever the scores are. Every learner gets a certificate of attendance. The test decides the next class, not who gets to celebrate.

RUNNING CLASS 26 (90 MIN)

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Welcome & set-up	5 min	T-S	Greet everyone. Remind them: read the questions first. Papers go out face down, and learners write their names.
Part 1 · Listening	15 min	T-S	Whole class. Give 30 seconds to read each section's questions, then read each script on the teacher pages twice .
Parts 2–5 · written	45 min	S	Individual work. Suggest a pace on the board: Parts 2–3 about 15 minutes, Part 4 about 12, Part 5 about 18. Interviews run at the same time at a side table (or in the hallway). Call learners one by one for about 8 minutes each, which is 5–6 learners. If a volunteer or co-teacher is free, they supervise the room. If not, sit where you can see everyone.
Break	5 min	—	Collect papers. Set out snacks if your program allows.

STAGE	TIME	INTERACTION	PROCEDURE
Remaining interviews + celebration	20 min	S-S · T-S	Finish the remaining interviews while the class makes an "I can..." wall: each learner writes three things they can do now on sticky notes ("I can make a complaint politely and get a refund."). Then certificates, a one-sentence wish or plan from each learner ("This time next year, I'll be..."), a class photo if everyone agrees, and how to join Confident English (B2). For a class of more than 8, start interviews in the second half of Class 25 during the presentation project, or book short one-to-one slots in the following week.

◆ YOU NEED

- ◆ One learner paper each (the middle section of this pack)
- ◆ Teacher pages: listening scripts, the interview script, the talk-topic cards and discussion statements (cut), and one interview grid per learner
- ◆ The key and rubrics: assessment/assessment-key.html
- ◆ Certificates, sticky notes, and a timer

◆ WHAT EACH PART CHECKS

- ◆ Listening /15: a short talk; a complaint phone call; choosing the best reply
- ◆ Words & phrases /15: work vocabulary, phrasal verbs, and the right phrase for the situation
- ◆ Grammar /20: one item for each main structure in Modules 1–8
- ◆ Reading /15: a career story + a job advertisement
- ◆ Writing /20: a complaint email + an opinion essay (120–150 words)
- ◆ Speaking /15: an individual interview with a story, a short talk, a discussion, and a role-play

LITERACY-ADAPTED VERSION

Same paper, different delivery. Read all instructions and items aloud, enlarge the paper, and give extra time or split it over Classes 25 and 26. Parts 2–3: read the choices aloud and accept a spoken answer. Part 4: read the story and the job ad aloud and ask the questions orally (numbers and times can be pointed to). Part 5: the learner says the complaint and the opinion while you scribe, and you score them with the same checklist and rubric. Mark the paper "Adapted". For these learners, the interview and listening are the main evidence for placement. The key explains how to recommend B2 together with literacy support instead of holding someone back for reading and writing alone.

REAL OR IMAGINED, ALWAYS

The interview asks about work, a past experience, and change over time. For some learners those are painful or private questions: a lost profession, a hard journey, a job they can't do here yet. Say before you start: "Real or imagined, no problem. You can tell me about a new person." The new-identity cards from the progress test work here too. Never ask follow-up questions about home country, family members who are absent, or immigration status. If a learner says "I'd rather not talk about that," thank them and move to the next stage.

20 You're coming to the meeting, aren't you don't you isn't it ?

A. Read the questions first. Then read Samira's story.

From Dishwasher to Head Chef

When Samira Haddad arrived in Chicago in 2014, she didn't know anyone. She had studied accounting in her home country, but her degree wasn't recognized, so she took the first job she could find: washing dishes in a busy hotel restaurant.

"It was hard," she remembers. "I was working ten hours a day, and I was so tired that I fell asleep on the bus most evenings." But Samira watched the cooks carefully. After her shift, she would stay for an extra hour and practice cutting vegetables. One night, while the kitchen was preparing for a big wedding, one of the cooks suddenly got sick. The head chef, who had noticed Samira's hard work, asked her to help. By the end of the night, she had prepared 150 salads, and she had found a new passion.

Over the next five years, Samira was promoted three times. She took evening classes at a community college, where she learned about food safety and kitchen management. Today she is the head chef at the same hotel, and she is responsible for a team of twelve people.

"Most of my team started like me," she says. "A few of them didn't speak much English at first, so I always tell them not to give up." Next spring, Samira is opening her own small restaurant. "This time next year, I'll be cooking my grandmother's recipes for my own customers. I can't wait."

Circle Yes, No, or Doesn't say.

1	Samira had studied cooking before she came to Chicago.	Yes	No	Doesn't say
2	Her first job in Chicago was washing dishes.	Yes	No	Doesn't say
3	She often fell asleep on the bus.	Yes	No	Doesn't say
4	The head chef got sick on the night of the wedding.	Yes	No	Doesn't say
5	Samira's grandmother taught her to cook.	Yes	No	Doesn't say

Answer the questions.

6 What did Samira do after her shift?

7 How many people is she responsible for now?

8 What is Samira going to do next spring?

B. Read the job advertisement.

Front Desk Assistant · Lakeside Community Clinic

Part-time · 25 hours a week · Monday–Friday, 12:30–5:30 p.m. · $18.50 an hour

We're looking for a friendly, organized person to join our busy front-desk team.

You'll be responsible for:

- answering phone calls and booking appointments
- welcoming patients and checking them in
- dealing with questions and simple complaints

You must have at least one year of experience in customer service and good computer skills. It would be great if you speak a second language, because we serve many Spanish- and Vietnamese-speaking families. You don't have to have experience in healthcare: full training is given.

How to apply: Send your résumé and a short email explaining why you would like the job to jobs@lakeside-clinic.example. Applications must be received by Friday, June 12. Interviews will be held the following week.

9 How many hours a week is the job?

10 What time does the working day start?

11 Name one thing the assistant will be responsible for.

12 Do you need experience in healthcare?

Yes

No

13 What two things must you send?

14 What is the last day to apply?

15 Why is a second language useful in this job?

Part 5 · Writing

___ / 20

A. Write an email of complaint. (80–100 words)

Two weeks ago you bought a laptop online from TechWorld. It arrived four days late, and now the screen doesn't work. Write to customer service. Say what you bought and when, what the problems are, and what you would like them to do. Be polite.

Dear Customer Service,

I'm writing to complain about ...

I'm afraid ...

It doesn't work. / It hasn't ...

Would it be possible to ...?

I'd appreciate it if you could ...

Best regards,

B. Write an opinion essay. Choose one question. (120–150 words)

- ◆ ☐ Is it better to work from home or at a workplace?
- ◆ ☐ Should everyone learn a second language at school?

Give your opinion, two or three reasons with examples, and think about the other side. Finish with a conclusion.

In my opinion, ... / It seems to me that ...

First of all, ... / Another point is that ...

For example, ...

On the one hand ... On the other hand ...

Some people say ... but ...

If ..., ... would ...

To sum up, ...

PART 1 • LISTENING SCRIPTS

Give 30 seconds to read each section's questions. Read each script twice, clearly and at a natural pace, and pause about 10 seconds between readings. Read Part B as a dialogue: change your voice or stand in a different place for each speaker, or read it with a colleague. In Part C, say the number, then the line once per reading. Don't read the answer choices aloud.

◆ A • GRACE'S TALK (READ THE WHOLE TALK TWICE, THEN GIVE 1 MINUTE)

READ ALOUD

Good evening, everyone. Today I'd like to talk about volunteering. First of all, let me tell you how I started. Three years ago, I was walking past the community center when I saw a sign: "Volunteers needed." I had never volunteered before, but I decided to try. At first, I helped in the kitchen on Saturdays. Now I teach a computer class for older people every Tuesday evening.

Another point is that volunteering has helped my career. I've learned to organize events and deal with problems calmly, and last month I got a new job as an office manager. My experience at the center really helped in the interview.

Finally, it's fun! Most of my best friends are people I met there. To sum up: if you have a few free hours a week, try it. Next Saturday we'll be cooking for two hundred people, so come and join us. Thank you for listening.

◆ B • A PHONE CALL TO A STORE (READ THE WHOLE DIALOGUE TWICE, THEN GIVE 1 MINUTE)

Jenna: Good morning, BrightHome Appliances, Jenna speaking. How can I help you?

Customer: Hi. I'm sorry to bother you, but I'm afraid there's a problem with a washing machine I ordered.

Jenna: I'm sorry to hear that. Could you tell me exactly what happened?

Customer: Well, it was delivered on Monday, but it doesn't work. It makes a terrible noise and then it stops. And I was charged twice. I checked my bank account yesterday.

Jenna: I do apologize. Could I have your order number, please?

Customer: Yes, it's four – seven – one – five – nine.

Jenna: Thank you. You're right, I can see two payments. I'll sort that out right away, and you'll get the extra money back in three to five days.

Customer: Thank you. And the machine? Would it be possible to get a replacement?

Jenna: Of course. We'll collect the old one and bring you a new one on Thursday morning. Is that OK?

Customer: Thursday morning is fine. I'd appreciate it if you could call me before the driver comes.

Jenna: No problem. I'll make a note. Again, I'm terribly sorry for the trouble.

◆ C • CHOOSE THE BEST REPLY

READ ALOUD

Number 11: I passed my driving test yesterday!

Number 12: Working from home is always better than going to the office.

Number 13: So, what would you say your main strengths are?

Number 14: Excuse me, I'm afraid my soup is cold.

Number 15: It's a lovely day, isn't it? (falling intonation)

INDIVIDUAL SPEAKING INTERVIEW · ~8 MINUTES

Sit beside the learner, not across a desk, with the grid on your lap. Speak at a natural pace. Ask the core question first. If there's no answer after about 5 seconds, use the support version (a choice question or a model). If the answer comes easily, add the stretch question. At B1, listen for connected answers: a story in order, a reason for every opinion, and a short talk with a beginning, middle, and end. Don't correct during the interview. Note one strength and one next step instead. Before stage 1, let the learner choose a talk-topic card so they can think about it quietly while you do stage 1 and 2.

1 Warm-up: work & experience

~1 min

SAY: Hello! How are you today? How long have you been studying English?

SAY: Tell me about your work, or the kind of work you'd like to do. What are you (or would you be) responsible for? (real or imagined)

Support: "Do you work now, or are you looking for a job?" · Stretch: "How is your work life different from five years ago?" (used to ... but now ...; present perfect)

2 A story

~1½ min

SAY: Tell me about a time when something went wrong, or went surprisingly well. Where were you? What were you doing? What happened?

Support: "Was it on a trip? At work? What was the weather like?" · model: "I was waiting for the bus when..." · Stretch: "Had anything like that happened to you before?" (past perfect) · "What did people say to you afterwards?" (reported speech)

3

Short talk (monologue)

~2 min

SAY: Now please give me your short talk on the topic you chose. About one minute. Start with "Today I'd like to talk about..."

Let them speak without interrupting. Time about 1 minute; stop them kindly at 1½ minutes. Support: if they freeze, ask "What's your first point?" then "Can you give me an example?" · Stretch: one follow-up question on the talk: "What would happen if everyone did that?" Listen for signposting (First of all, Another point is, For example, To sum up).

4

Discussion

~2 min

Read one discussion statement below as if it were your opinion. Push back gently once, so the learner has to agree, disagree, or defend a view.

SAY: Here's my opinion: [statement]. What do you think? ... Why? ... Some people say the opposite. Do you agree with them? ... What would happen if...?

Support: "Do you agree or disagree?" then "Why?" · Stretch: "What's the strongest argument on the other side?" Listen for polite disagreement (I see your point, but...), reasons, and hedging (maybe, I suppose, to be honest).

The learner chooses one role-play card. You play the other person. Then invite one question.

SAY: (Complaint, you are the store worker) Good afternoon, how can I help? ... Oh, I'm sorry to hear that. When did you buy it? ... Do you have your receipt? ... What would you like us to do?

SAY: (Interview, you are the interviewer) Thanks for coming in. Tell me a little about yourself. ... Why do you want this job? ... What's your biggest weakness?

SAY: Now, do you have a question for me? Anything at all.

◆ TALK-TOPIC CARDS (CUT • THE LEARNER CHOOSES ONE BEFORE STAGE 1)

TALK TOPIC

A skill everyone should learn

What is it? Why is it useful? Give an example from your life.

TALK TOPIC

The best place in this town

Where is it? What can you do there? Why do you like it?

TALK TOPIC

How life has changed

How was life different 20 or 30 years ago? What is better now? What is worse?

TALK TOPIC

A change I'd like to see

In your town, your workplace, or the world. Why? What would happen if it changed?

◆ DISCUSSION STATEMENTS (YOU CHOOSE ONE)

- ◆ "Everyone should work four days a week, not five."
- ◆ "Children today have an easier life than we did."
- ◆ "Public transportation should be free for everyone."
- ◆ "It's better to rent a home than to buy one."

◆ ROLE-PLAY CARDS (CUT • THE LEARNER CHOOSES ONE)

COMPLAINT

Return a jacket

You bought a jacket last week. After one wash, the zipper broke. You have the receipt.

Explain the problem politely and ask for a replacement or a refund.

JOB INTERVIEW

Front desk job

You're applying for a job at a hotel front desk (real or imagined experience).

Answer the questions. Give one strength with an example. Ask one question at the end.

INTERVIEW SCORING GRID

Score each criterion 0–3: 0 = no response · 1 = Not yet B1 · 2 = B1 · 3 = B1+ (strong). Descriptors are in the assessment key. Total /15. Print one per learner.

Learner: _____ Date: _____ Talk topic: _____ Role-play: ☐ Complaint ☐ Interview ☐ Adapted

CRITERION	WHAT TO LISTEN FOR	SCORE (0–3)
Task & coherence	A story told in order with some detail; a 1-minute talk with a clear beginning, middle, and end; reasons for every opinion; the role-play completed politely
Range	Work, experience, and opinion language; signposting; complaint or interview phrases; a few phrasal verbs; rephrases a missing word
Accuracy	Narrative tenses (past simple, continuous, perfect); present perfect for experience; conditionals; reported speech; gerund/infinitive after common verbs
Interaction	Agrees and disagrees politely, defends a view when you push back, asks a question, asks for clarification, keeps the role-play going
Pronunciation & fluency	Clearly understandable; keeps going with some pausing to plan; falling tone on tags; stress on key words in the talk
Total /15 · Went well: _____ · Next step: _____

AFTER THE TEST

Score with the key and put written + speaking on the placement summary. Tell each learner their next step privately and kindly before they leave, or at a short one-to-one in the following week. Never read scores aloud. The key's "grade to outcome" table shows who is ready for Confident English (B2), who goes on with a review plan, and who should repeat B1 with support.
