Lessons 1.1-1.3

Classes C1-C3

Level B1

Name: _____

WELCOME TO B1!

At B1 you are an independent speaker. In this course you will learn to choose between forms you already know, speak in longer turns, give your opinion, and join a discussion. Mistakes are normal: they show you are trying something new.

Every class: bring this workbook. At home: do the online lesson for each class (it has  Listen buttons) and write two sentences in your journal.

Icons:  Write ·  Listen ·  Say ·  Work with a partner ·  Read

Your stories are your choice. You can talk about your real life, or a new identity card, or people in general. All are good. You can always say "Pass."

1.1 Present Perfect or Past Simple?

Class C1

NEW WORDS — EXPERIENCES

 fly in a plane (flown)	 climb a mountain (climbed)	 swim in the ocean (swum)	 cook for a big group (cooked)
 sing in public (sung)	 learn an instrument (learned)	 go to a concert (been)	 lose your keys (lost) break your phone (broken)	 try a new restaurant (tried)	 run a race (run)	 meet a famous person (met)

Time words — which tense do they go with?

 Finished time → past simple	 Connected to now → present perfect yesterday · last week · in 2019 · two days ago · when I was a child · on Friday	ever · never · today · this week · so far · just · already · yet · still · for · since

GRAMMAR BOX

 Past simple	a finished action at a finished time	I saw that movie last Friday .
 Present perfect	a past action connected to now (experience, news, result, still true)	I've seen that movie three times.
 Golden rule	If you say when (a finished time), use the past simple.	I've seen him yesterday. ❌ → I saw him yesterday. ✅ for	+ a length of time	I've known her for ten years / for a long time. since	+ a start point	I've known her since 2014 / since I was a child.

just	a very short time ago	I've just finished lunch.
already	sooner than expected	She's already left.
yet	questions and negatives, at the end	Have you eaten yet ? · I haven't eaten yet .
still	not happened (and I'm surprised)	I still haven't packed.

Tell a story like this: open with the present perfect (no time) → give the details in the past simple.

"I've been to Japan. I went in 2019 with two friends. We visited Tokyo and Kyoto. It was amazing."

been = went and came back. gone = went and is still there. "She's gone to Japan." = She is in Japan now.

🔹 🗣️ EXERCISE 1 – LISTEN TO SAM'S NEWS. ANSWER THE QUESTIONS.

1. What is Sam's news? _____
2. When did he start? _____
3. Has he ever worked in a hotel before? _____
4. Where did he work before? For how long? _____
5. Has he met his manager? When? _____
6. What still hasn't he done? _____
7. What has Priya just done? _____

💡 Which tense does Sam use to open his news? Which tense does he use for the details?

🔹 ✎ EXERCISE 2 – PRESENT PERFECT OR PAST SIMPLE?

Write the verb in the correct form.

1. I _____ (see) that movie three times. It's great!
2. I _____ (see) that movie last Friday.
3. She _____ (live) in Paris since 2020.
4. _____ you ever _____ (be) to Canada?
5. We _____ (not finish) the project yet.
6. My brother _____ (start) a new job two weeks ago.
7. Oh no! I _____ (lose) my keys. Can you help me look for them?
8. When _____ you _____ (get) your first phone?

🔹 ✎ EXERCISE 3 – FOR OR SINCE?

1. I've worked here _____ five years.
2. We've known each other _____ college.
3. She hasn't called me _____ last week.
4. They've been married _____ a long time.
5. I've had this phone _____ two years.
6. It hasn't rained _____ Monday.

🔹 ✎ EXERCISE 4 – CIRCLE THE BEST WORD

1. Have you finished your homework (already / yet)?
2. I can't go out. I (still / yet) haven't cooked dinner.
3. "Where's Ana?" — "She's (just / yet) left. You can still catch her!"
4. Wow, you've (already / yet) finished? That was fast!
5. They haven't replied to my email (still / yet).
6. I've (just / still) had a big lunch, so I'm not hungry.

 EXERCISE 5 – FINISHED OR CONNECTED TO NOW? THEN WRITE YOUR STORY.

Write each time word in the correct column.

yesterday	ever	last summer	this week	in 2019	never	two hours ago	today
when I was a child	so far	since Monday	on Friday

← END Finished time (past simple)	→ ● Connected to now (present perfect)

My story. Write 4–5 sentences about an experience or some news. Open with the present perfect (no time). Then give the details in the past simple: when, where, who with, how it was. Real, a new identity card, or imagined: your choice.

 DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

- A: Have you ever run a marathon?
- B: Yes, I have! I ran one last year in Chicago.
- A: Wow. How was it?
- B: Really hard, but great. I trained for six months before it.
- A: I've never done anything like that. I've just started going to the gym, though!
- B: That's a good start. How long have you been a member?
- A: Since Monday. I went twice this week, and I haven't missed a class yet!

 Read it twice, then change the experience (climb a mountain, cook for 50 people, sing in public...) and read it again.

 SPEAKING — MY TIMELINE

 Draw your timeline. Add 4–5 events as small pictures or one word. Add one thing that is still true now (an arrow to NOW). Years are optional. Real, a new identity card, or imagined.

 Swap timelines with a partner. Interview your partner:

Open (present perfect)	Have you ever...? · How long have you...? · Have you... yet?
Details (past simple)	When did you...? · Where did you...? · Who did you go with? · What happened? · How was it?

 Tell the class one story: "Kofi has played the guitar since 2020. He learned from videos, and he played at a wedding last year!"

 SELF-CHECK — CIRCLE A, B OR C

Which sentence is correct?

A) I have called him yesterday.

B) I called him yesterday.

C) I did called him yesterday.

2

"I've studied English ___ three years."

A) for

B) since

3

"Where's Maria?" — "She's ___ to Japan. She's there for a month."

A) been

B) gone

C) went

◆  I CAN...

- ◆ ☐ choose the past simple for a finished time: I saw it last Friday.
- ◆ ☐ use the present perfect for experiences and news: I've seen it three times.
- ◆ ☐ use for and since: for five years / since 2020
- ◆ ☐ use just, already, yet and still
- ◆ ☐ open a story with the present perfect and give the details in the past simple

◆  MY NEW WORDS

◆  MY JOURNAL (2 SENTENCES)

Write about one event in two ways: present perfect ("I've visited...") and past simple ("I visited... in...").
Why does each tense fit?

What have you been up to?

GRAMMAR BOX

Yes	I / you / we / they have been + -ing · he / she / it has been + -ing	I've been working . · She's been studying .
No	haven't / hasn't been + -ing	They haven't been sleeping well lately.
Question	Have / Has + subject + been + -ing?	Have you been waiting long? — Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.
How long?	How long have you been + -ing?	How long have you been learning to drive?

Use 1: still going	started in the past, still happening now	I've been studying English for three years.
Use 2: a result now	a recent activity; we can see the result	His hands are dirty. He's been fixing the car.

How many? → simple	How long? → continuous
I've written three emails.	I've been writing emails all morning.
We've painted the kitchen. (the job is done)	We've been painting the kitchen. (that's why it's messy)

⚠ No -ing with these verbs (states, not activities): know · like · love · hate · want · need · believe · understand · be · have (= own) · belong.

I've known her for years. ✅ I've been knowing her for years. ❌

🔹 🗣 EXERCISE 1 – LISTEN TO LENA AND MARCO CATCHING UP. COMPLETE THE TABLE.

Who?	What have they been doing?	How long?	Result (simple)
Lena Marco
Marco		every evening
Marco		just now

🔹 ✎ EXERCISE 2 – MAKE PRESENT PERFECT CONTINUOUS SENTENCES

Example: (I / study / all afternoon) → I've been studying all afternoon.

- (she / work / here / since June) → _____
- (they / not sleep / well lately) → _____
- (how long / you / wait / ?) → _____ ?
- (it / rain / all day) → _____
- (he / learn / to drive / for six months) → _____

🔹 ✎ EXERCISE 3 – SIMPLE OR CONTINUOUS?

Ask: how many? (simple) or how long? (continuous). Be careful with number 5!

- I _____ (read) three chapters today.
- I _____ (read) all evening.
- She _____ (paint) two rooms already.
- We _____ (wait) for an hour.
- I _____ (know) him since school.
- She _____ (drive) for six hours. She needs a break!
- I _____ (drink) three cups of coffee today.

🔹 👁 EXERCISE 4 – WHAT HAVE THEY BEEN DOING?

Complete with the present perfect continuous. The result is in the first part of the sentence.

- I'm exhausted because I _____ (work) all day.
- Her hands are covered in flour. She _____ (bake).

3. Why are you out of breath? _____ you _____ (run)?
4. The garden looks great! We _____ (plant) flowers all weekend.
5. His hands are black. He _____ (fix) the car.
6. Your hair is wet! _____ you _____ (swim)?

◆ ✎ EXERCISE 5 – THE STATIVE-VERB TRAP

Write ✓ (correct) or correct the sentence.

1. I've been knowing Maria since school. _____
2. We've been waiting for twenty minutes. _____
3. She's been having this car since 2019. _____
4. They've been wanting a dog for ages. _____
5. I've been having problems with my laptop. _____
6. He's been liking his new job since he started. _____

◆ 📖 🗣️ DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

- A: Hi! Sorry, have you been waiting long?
- B: A little, about ten minutes. So, what have you been doing lately?
- A: Oh, I've been painting my apartment. That's why I look exhausted!
- B: Nice! I've been learning to cook, actually. I've made about six new dishes this month.
- A: Six? That's impressive. How long have you been doing that?
- B: Since January. I've been trying to eat out less.

🗣️ Find one sentence about the activity (how long?) and one about the result (how many?).

◆ 👥 SPEAKING – CATCHING UP: "WHAT HAVE YOU BEEN DOING LATELY?"

✎ Write 3 things. Real, a new identity card, or imagined: your choice.

What have I been doing?	How long?	A result (simple)
I've been learning...	for / since...	I've learned...

 Meet a partner like an old friend: "Hi! What have you been doing lately?" Say 2–3 sentences. Then ask: "How long have you been...?"

Which sentence is correct?

A) She has working here since May.

B) She has been working here since May.

C) She has been work here since May.

GRAMMAR BOX

✓ Yes	subject + used to + base verb	People used to write letters. · There used to be a bakery here.
✗ No	didn't use to + base verb	I didn't use to like coffee.
? Question	Did + subject + use to + base verb?	Did you use to have a bike? — Yes, I did. / No, I didn't.
↻ would	subject + would + base verb (repeated actions)	Every summer we would visit my grandparents.

Spelling: after did / didn't, no d: didn't use to · Did you use to...? Say: used to = /'justə/ ("YOO-stuh")

	used to	would
↻ Actions (visit, walk, cook, watch...)	✓ We used to visit them.	✓ We would visit them.
🏠 States (live, like, have, be, know)	✓ I used to live in Rome.	✗ I would live in Rome.

💡 Not sure? used to is always safe. Use would when the past time is already clear ("When I was a child... every Sunday...").

EXERCISE 1 — LISTEN: THEN AND NOW. TRUE (T) OR FALSE (F)?

_____ 1. When Joe started his job, people used to write a lot of letters.

_____ 2. People used to shop online a lot when Joe started.

- _____ 3. At Grace's bank, people would wait in a long line on Fridays.
- _____ 4. Grace still works at the bank counter.
- _____ 5. Ali's family used to watch TV together.
- _____ 6. Ali thinks life is better now.

 Whose job or life has changed the most? Why?

 EXERCISE 2 – WRITE USED TO (+), DIDN'T USE TO (-) OR DID ... USE TO (?)

1. I _____ (play) the piano when I was young, but I stopped.
2. She _____ (not / like) vegetables as a child.
3. _____ you _____ (have) a nickname at school?
4. There _____ (be) a big oak tree in the yard.
5. We _____ (not / have) cell phones back then.

 EXERCISE 3 – USED TO OR WOULD ?

Write both (a repeated action) or only used to (a state).

1. My grandfather ___ (tell) us stories every night. _____
2. I ___ (live) near the ocean when I was little. _____
3. We ___ (go) camping every August. _____
4. She ___ (have) a beautiful old bicycle. _____
5. They ___ (know) everyone in the village. _____
6. Every evening my mother ___ (sing) while she cooked. _____

 EXERCISE 4 – REWRITE WITH USED TO (THESE THINGS ARE NOT TRUE NOW)

2. My town had a train station. → _____
3. We ate dinner together every evening. → _____
4. She was very shy at school. → _____
5. People didn't shop online. → _____
6. Did you walk to school when you were a child? → _____ ?

 EXERCISE 5 – THEN AND NOW

Choose a topic:  phones ·  shopping ·  work ·  getting around ·  free time ·  food ·  money ·  learning. Write 5 sentences: two with used to, one with would, one about now, and your opinion. You can write about people in general, a place you know, or your own life.

Example: People used to pay with cash. Every Friday they would go to the bank. There didn't use to be any apps. Now we pay with our phones. I think it's better now, because it's faster.

 DIALOGUE — READ WITH A PARTNER

- A: Do you remember the old neighborhood? There used to be a bakery right on the corner.
- B: Of course! We would go there every Saturday after soccer. I used to love their cinnamon rolls.
- A: And old Mr. Alvarez — he would always give us the broken cookies for free.
- B: He did! I didn't use to appreciate it back then. The whole street used to feel like family.
- A: It's all apartments now. It doesn't feel the same, does it?

 Find two states with used to and two actions with would.

 SPEAKING — GROUP DISCUSSION: HOW LIFE HAS CHANGED

 Think time (2 minutes). Look at your group's topic card. Make notes, not full sentences.

Topic:
People used to...
Every day / week, people would...
Now...
Better before or now? Why?

 Useful phrases: I think it was better before, because... · In my opinion, it's better now, because... · I agree. · I see your point, but... · What do you think, ___?

 Your role: ☐ chair ☐ timekeeper ☐ questioner ☐ reporter

◆ ☒ I CAN...

- ◆ ☐ talk about past habits and states with used to: People used to write letters.
- ◆ ☐ make negatives and questions: I didn't use to... / Did you use to...?
- ◆ ☐ tell a memory with would: Every Sunday we would...
- ◆ ☐ remember: would is for actions, not states
- ◆ ☐ join a discussion about how life has changed and give my opinion

◆  MY NEW WORDS

◆  MY JOURNAL (2 SENTENCES)

One state with used to, one action with would (or one negative / question). Why did you choose each one?

MODULE 1 — WELL DONE! 🎉

You can talk about your experiences and your news, say what you have been doing lately, and discuss how life has changed. Look at your three "I can..." lists. Is a box empty? Tell your teacher. Practice at home with the online lessons 1.1, 1.2 and 1.3 and the 🗣️ buttons.

If & Imagining (Conditionals)

Talk about what is always true, what will really happen, and what you only imagine. Share life hacks, discuss "What would you do if...?", give friendly advice, and make small wishes. One big idea: the verb shows how real the situation is.

| 4. If I pass the exam, _____ | d) she'll be really happy. |
| 5. If we tell her the news, _____ | e) we'll miss the train. |

 EXERCISE 4 – CIRCLE IF , WHEN OR UNLESS . THEN ADD THE COMMAS .

1. (If / When) I get home tonight, I'll text you. (I'm sure I'll get home.)
2. (If / When) I win the prize, I'll share it with you. (Maybe I'll win.)
3. You'll be cold (if / unless) you wear a coat.
4. (If / Unless) it stops raining, we'll stay inside.

5. I'll call you (when / unless) I arrive at the station.

6. You can't go in (if / unless) you have a ticket.

Comma or no comma? Add a comma if you need one.

a) If I see Anna I'll tell her. b) I'll tell her if I see her. c) When you're ready call me.

 EXERCISE 5 – MAKE ONE SENTENCE. THEN WRITE ABOUT YOU.

1. Maybe I'll have time. Then I'll help you. → (If ...) _____

2. Maybe you'll see Anna. Please give her this book. → (If ..., an order) _____

3. Maybe we'll leave early. Then we won't hit traffic. → (If ...) _____

4. I'll be late if I don't leave now. → (... unless ...) _____

5. You won't succeed if you don't try. → (... unless ...) _____

My six predictions. Write 6 real (or invented) plans for this week or this year with If I..., I'll... Use unless once and when once. Example: If I finish work early on Friday, I'll cook something nice.

 DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

A: Do you want to go for a walk this afternoon?

B: Maybe. If it stays dry, I'll come with you.

A: And if it rains?

B: Then I'll stay home — unless you really want company!

A: Ha! Well, when I finish work, I'll text you. If the sky looks bad, we can just get coffee instead.

B: Perfect. If you text before three, I'll be ready.

 Read it again. Change the plan: a bike ride, the market, a soccer game.

 SPEAKING – LIFE HACKS & SUPERSTITIONS

1. In groups: match the cards, then sort them:  always true ·  superstition ·  one real future.

2. Talk: Do you believe it? Have you tried it? Do you know another life hack or superstition? (You can talk about one from a movie or a book, or say "Pass.")

3. ✏️ Write 2 life hacks you really use. Put them on the class Life Hack Wall.

My life hack 1	If / When ...
My life hack 2	If / When ...

I believe it!

I don't think it works.

My grandmother always said...

I tried it, and...

In some places, people say...

GRAMMAR BOX

✓ Yes	If + past simple, would ('d) + verb	If I won the lottery, I'd buy a house by the sea.
✗ No	didn't + verb · wouldn't + verb	If I didn't work so much, I wouldn't be so tired.
? Question	What would you do if...?	What would you do if you found a wallet?
👤 be	were for everyone	If I were rich... · If it were warmer...
✚ Result	could / might + verb	If I had a car, I could drive you home.

💡 The past verb (won, had, found) is not past time. It means: this is not real. "If I had a car..." = I don't have a car.

📅 17 First (real)	If I have time, I'll call you.	Maybe I'll have time.
💭 Second (dream)	If I had time, I'd call you.	But I don't have time.

💬 Advice: If I were you, I'd... · If I were you, I wouldn't... (friendly, softer than "You should...")

EXERCISE 1 — LISTEN TO SAM AND ROSA. TRUE (T) OR FALSE (F)?

Correct the false sentences.

- _____ 1. Sam would travel for a whole year.
- _____ 2. Sam wouldn't tell anyone about the money.
- _____ 3. Rosa has a job offer in another city.

- _____ 4. Sam's advice is: "Don't take it."
- _____ 5. The problem is the drive. It's two hours.
- _____ 6. Rosa is going to visit the city on Saturday.

 Find three I'd... sentences in the conversation.

 EXERCISE 2 – PUT THE VERBS IN THE SECOND CONDITIONAL

1. If I _____ (have) more free time, I _____ (learn) to paint.
2. If she _____ (know) his number, she _____ (call) him.
3. We _____ (travel) more if we _____ (not / have) a dog.
4. If I _____ (be) you, I _____ (not / say) anything.
5. What _____ you _____ (do) if you _____ (meet) your hero?

 EXERCISE 3 – FIRST (REAL) OR SECOND (IMAGINED)?

Ask: Do I really think it might happen? Write the verbs.

1. It's cloudy. If it _____ (rain) later, I _____ (take) my umbrella. (realistic)
2. If I _____ (be) the president, I _____ (change) a lot of things. (imaginary)
3. I'm tired. If I _____ (go) to bed early tonight, I _____ (feel) better tomorrow. (realistic)
4. If humans _____ (can) fly, we _____ (not / need) planes. (impossible)
5. I have an English test tomorrow. If I _____ (pass), I _____ (celebrate). (realistic)
6. If I _____ (be) a cat, I _____ (sleep) all day. (imaginary)

 EXERCISE 4 – GIVE ADVICE: "IF I WERE YOU, I'D..."

1. "I'm always tired in the morning." → _____
2. "My phone is really old and slow." → _____
3. "I want to learn English faster." → _____
4. "I had an argument with my best friend." → _____
5. "I can never find my keys." → _____
6. "My coffee is always cold when I get to work." → _____

 EXERCISE 5 – WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF...?

Answer 6 questions with a full sentence. Use If I were... once and could or might once. Real, a card, or invented: your choice.

What would you do if you... had a free day tomorrow? · found $50 on the bus? · could have any job for one day? · could speak every language? · met your favorite famous person? · won a free week of vacation?

 DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

- A: What would you do if you found a wallet on the street?
- B: Hmm. If I found an ID card inside, I'd look for the owner online.
- A: Really? I wouldn't do that. I'd take it to the police station.
- B: That's a good idea too. And what if it had a lot of money in it?
- A: I'd still give it back. If I lost my wallet, I'd want someone to return it!
- B: True. If I were the owner, I'd be so happy. I might even give a reward.

 SPEAKING – "WHAT WOULD YOU DO IF...?" DILEMMAS

In groups, read a dilemma card. Everyone answers in turn: "If I ..., I'd ... because ...". Then discuss.

- I'd do the same. Really? I wouldn't. I'd... That depends. If..., I'd... Why would you...?
- Good question! I think I'd probably... Pass, please.

 Before you start, write your answer to two dilemmas:

Dilemma	I'd... because...
 You find a wallet.
 You can choose a superpower.

 SELF-CHECK – CIRCLE A, B OR C

GRAMMAR BOX

 wish + past	I want the present to be different.	I wish I lived closer to work. · I wish I didn't have so much homework.
 wish + were	were for everyone	I wish it were sunny. · I wish I were taller.
 wish + could	a skill I don't have	I wish I could sing.
 wish + would	someone or something else annoys me	I wish the bus would come on time.
 If only...	a stronger wish	If only it were Friday!

The flip: a wish is the opposite of reality. I wish I had a car = I don't have a car.

Not about yourself: I wish I ~~would be~~ were more organized.

 hope	It's possible.	I hope it's sunny tomorrow.

🎧 EXERCISE 1 – LISTEN TO MAYA AND LEO ON A GRAY DAY

  MY NEW WORDS

  MY JOURNAL (2 SENTENCES)

Three small wishes (weather, a skill, the commute) and one small action for each.

Reporting & Connecting Ideas

Pass on news. Tell people what someone asked you and what someone told you to do. Then join your ideas into longer, smoother sentences: the friend who lives in Canada, the café where we met. This is how independent speakers tell stories.

Lessons 3.1–3.3

Classes C7–C9

Level B1

Name: _____

ICONS

 Write •  Listen •  Say •  Work with a partner •  Read

When a task is about your life, it is your choice what to share. You can talk about your real life, or use a new identity card, or invent something. All are good. You can always say "Pass."

3.1 What Did They Say? — Reported Statements

Class C7

NEW WORDS — PASSING ON NEWS

the news

an email

Useful phrases for passing on news:

She said (that)...

He told me (that)...

Guess what!

You'll never guess...

I heard that...

Apparently,...

The news said...

direct speech = the exact words, in "quotation marks" · reported speech = the words in your sentence, later

GRAMMAR BOX

After said or told, move the verb one step back (the "backshift"):

"I am tired."	She said she was tired.
"I work hard."	He said he worked hard.
"I'm working."	He said he was working .
"I've finished."	She said she had finished .
"I saw her."	He said he had seen her.
"I'll help."	She said she would help.
"I can swim."	He said he could swim.
"I may come."	She said she might come.
"I must go."	He said he had to go .

No change: would, could, might, should, and the past perfect (had + past participle).

Pronouns	I → he / she · we → they · my → his / her · you (me) → I
Time & place	now → then · today → that day · tomorrow → the next day · yesterday → the day before · here → there · this → that · ago → before

Change time and place words only if the time or place is really different now.

SAY	She said (that) she was busy.	no person after said
------------	--------------------------------------	-----------------------------

TELL	She told me (that) she was busy.	tell + a person · no to
------	---	---------------------------------------

✗ She said me... · ✗ She told to me... · ✓ She told me... · ✓ She said...

 DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

A: Guess what! I saw Sam yesterday.

B: Really? How is he?

A: Great. He told me he was moving to Chicago in June. He said he'd found a great apartment near the lake.

B: Wow! Did he say anything about work?

A: Yes. He said he had a new job at a bank, and he would start on June 1st.

B: I'll miss him!

A: Me too. But he said we could visit any time. He told me his sister lived there too, and she would show us around.

B: That's so nice. I'll call him tonight.

 Underline every reported verb. What were Sam's exact words? Write two: " _____

 SPEAKING – GOSSIP CHAIN AND "THINGS PEOPLE SAID TO ME"

 Gossip Chain: read a news card, then whisper the news to the next person: "Mrs. Lee said she was moving to Florida..." Pass it on. The last person writes it. Is it still true?

 Things people said to me this week (real, a new identity card, or invented):

Who?	Their exact words	My report
my friend	"I'm tired."	My friend told me she was tired.

 Tell a partner your three reports.

GRAMMAR BOX

A reported question is not a question any more: subject + verb, no do / does / did, no "?".

Wh- question	"Where do you live ?"	She asked where I lived .
	"What are you doing ?"	He asked what I was doing .
Yes/No question	" Are you ready ?"	He asked if I was ready.
	" Do you speak French ?"	She asked whether I spoke French.

if = whether here. Whether sounds like weather.

Command	"Sit down!"	She told me to sit down.
Request	"Please help me."	He asked me to help him.
Negative	"Don't worry."	She told me not to worry.

tell = an order or instruction · ask = a polite request · Always a person after them: told me, asked us.

EXERCISE 1 — REPORT THE QUESTIONS

Example: "Where do you work?" → She asked where I worked.

4. Mom: "Please don't be late." → Mom _____
5. The tour guide: "Stay together." → The guide _____
6. My neighbor: "Could you water my plants, please?" → My neighbor _____

 EXERCISE 5 – CHOOSE THE VERB: REMINDED • WARNED • ADVISED • ORDERED

1. "Don't forget to call the bank!" → She _____ me to call the bank.
2. "Don't touch that wire. It's dangerous!" → He _____ us not to touch the wire.

3. "You should get some rest." → The doctor _____ me to get some rest.

4. (fire drill) "Everyone, leave the building now!" → The manager _____ everyone to leave the building.

 DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

A: How was your appointment?

B: Fine. The doctor asked me if I was sleeping well, and she wanted to know how much water I drank.

A: What did she tell you?

B: She told me to drink more water, and she advised me to walk every day. She also reminded me to come back in three months.

A: Did she give you any medicine?

B: No. She told me not to worry. She said everything looked good.

A: Great news!

 What were the doctor's exact questions? 1. " _____ ?" 2. " _____ ?"

 SPEAKING – SURVEY REPORT AND MESSAGE RELAY

 Survey: ask 3 people the questions on your survey card. Write short answers. Then, in a new group, report:

I asked...	I asked _____ what / where / if _____. He / She said _____.
I asked...	I asked _____ _____. He / She said _____.
Someone asked me...	_____ asked me _____. I told him / her _____.

 Message Relay: the runner reads a message on the wall and reports it: "Your boss called. She asked you to..." The writer writes a to-do on the "While you were out" note.

 My interview report (homework): write a short everyday conversation (a job interview, asking for directions, a visit to the clinic). Then report it in 6 sentences. Use one if/whether and one not to.

- ☐ drop the pronoun when it's the object: the movie I saw
- ☐ join two short sentences into one

 MY NEW WORDS

 MY JOURNAL (2 SENTENCES)

Write one sentence that changes meaning with commas. Explain why in your own words.

MODULE 3 — WELL DONE! 🎉

You can pass on news, report questions and instructions, and join your ideas into longer sentences. Look at your three "I can..." lists. Is a box empty? Tell your teacher. Practice at home with the online lessons 3.1, 3.2 and 3.3 and the 📡 buttons.

Structures for Fluency

Describe how things are made and where they come from. Make smart guesses from clues. Talk about rules and give advice. Then use everything from Modules 1–4 to share your opinion and tell a story. This is the halfway point of B1!

Lessons 4.1–4.3

Classes C10–C12

Level B1

Name: _____

ICONS

 Write ·  Listen ·  Say ·  Work with a partner ·  Read

Your ideas and stories are your choice. You can use real facts and real stories, or an opinion card, or a story you invent. All are good. You can always say "Pass."

4.1 The Passive — How It's Made

My 6 facts. Choose a product, a place or a process (how bread / tea / cheese is made). Write 6 passive sentences: 3 in the present, 2 in the past, and 1 with by.

My topic is / are...
was / were...
by...

 DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

Tina: Mmm, this coffee is really good. Where is it from?

Leo: It's from Colombia. It's grown in the mountains, and the beans are picked by hand.

Tina: By hand? That's a lot of work! Is it roasted there too?

Leo: No, it's roasted here, in a small shop downtown. It was opened last year.

Tina: And this mug is beautiful. Was it made in Mexico?

Leo: No, it was made by my daughter! In her pottery class.

Tina: Wow. Tell her it's the best mug I've ever used! ☕

💡 👤 SPEAKING – HOW IT'S MADE QUIZ AND FACT FILES

🗣️ Quiz: in a team, choose the answer. Then say it as a full passive sentence: "Paper was invented in China."
(+1 point for good English!)

👤 Fact files: ask your partner passive questions. Don't show your card.

When was it built?

Who was it designed by?

What is it made of?

Where are the beans grown?

How many are sold every day?

💡 🗣️ SELF-CHECK – CIRCLE A, B OR C

1

"The letters ____ yesterday."

A) are sent

B) were sent

C) was sent

GRAMMAR BOX

How sure are you? modal + base verb (no to, no -s)

✓ Sure YES	must	The light's on, so she must be home.
😞 Maybe	might / may / could	She's not answering. She might be busy.
✗ Sure NO	can't (not "mustn't"!)	He can't be hungry. He just ate.

must has two jobs: 📋 a rule: "You must sign here." · 🧑 a deduction: "You must be tired."

📋 Necessary	have to / must	You have to show ID at the bank.
🆓 Not necessary	don't have to	It's free. You don't have to pay.
🚫 Not allowed	mustn't (US: can't)	You mustn't park here.
💡 Advice	should / shouldn't	You look tired. You should rest.

EXERCISE 1 — WHERE'S SAM?

Listen. Two coworkers are guessing. Write the clue and the modal (must / might / may / can't).

Idea	The clue	Modal
------	----------	-------

He's stuck in traffic.
He's still asleep.
He's sick.
He's on his way.

◆ ✎ EXERCISE 2 – MUST, CAN'T OR MIGHT?

- _____ 3. "Visitors must sign in at the front desk."
- _____ 4. "That must be the new manager. Everyone is talking to her."
- _____ 5. "They must know each other. They're hugging."

 DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

- A: Someone left a bag on the train. Whose do you think it is?
- B: Well, there's a laptop and some business cards inside, so it can't be a child's.
- A: True. And there's a train ticket to Chicago. The owner might be going there for work.
- B: Look, the coffee's still warm. They must be somewhere on the train right now!
- A: Good thinking. They could be in the next car. We should tell the conductor.
- B: Yes. We have to take it to the conductor. We mustn't just leave it here.

 SPEAKING – THE DETECTIVE AGENCY

 Read a clue card. Make 3 deductions: one must, one might, one can't. Always say the clue: "There are three newspapers at the door, so they can't be home."

 Then give advice: "We should..."

 My 3 deductions (homework): look around your room.

The clue	My deduction
	...must...
	...might / could...

 Detective rule: we make guesses about pictures, objects and card people, not about people in the class.

"The whole house is dark and quiet. They ____ be asleep."

A) must

B) mustn't

C) don't have to

◆  I CAN...

- ◆ ☐ say how sure I am: It must be... / It might be... / It can't be...
- ◆ ☐ give the clue with so: The lights are off, so...
- ◆ ☐ use can't, not mustn't, for "sure it's not true"
- ◆ ☐ tell a rule from advice: You have to... / You should...
- ◆ ☐ explain mustn't and don't have to

◆  MY NEW WORDS

◆  MY JOURNAL (2 SENTENCES)

Write one sentence with must as a deduction and one with must as a rule. How does a listener know which one you mean?

NEW PHRASES — OPINIONS

 Give an opinion

In my opinion, ...

I think / believe / feel (that) ...

If you ask me, ...

As far as I'm concerned, ...

It seems to me that ...

Personally, I'd say ...

 Support it (a reason + an example)

The main reason is (that) ...

For example, ...

On the one hand ... on the other hand ...

What's more, ...

That's because ...

 Agree

That's a good point.

Exactly!

I couldn't agree more.

You're absolutely right.

So do I. / Neither do I.

 Disagree politely: first show you listened, then give your idea.

I see what you mean, but ...

That may be true, but ...

I'm not sure I agree.

I take your point, but ...

I'd look at it differently.

A good opinion = claim (what I think) + reason (why) + example.

EXERCISE 1 — WHAT IS THE PHRASE DOING?

Write O (giving an opinion), A (agreeing) or D (disagreeing politely).

_____ 1. "As far as I'm concerned, exams are old-fashioned."

_____ 2. "I take your point, but they do measure effort."

_____ 3. "That's a good point. I didn't think of that."

_____ 4. "It seems to me that we need both."

_____ 5. "I'm afraid I disagree."

_____ 6. "I'd look at it differently."

EXERCISE 2 — IS SOCIAL MEDIA GOOD FOR US?

Listen to two friends. Check ✓ the phrases you hear.

□ If you ask me · □ In my opinion · □ I'm not sure I agree · □ The main reason is · □ For example · □ I see what you mean, but · □ On the other hand · □ That's a good point · □ I couldn't agree more · □ Exactly · □ It seems to me that · □ I take your point

 Does A change her mind at the end? _____

 EXERCISE 3 – YOUR B1 TOOLKIT

a) Listen to the story "The bag on the train." Write one example of each structure you hear.

a relative clause (who / which) reported speech (She told me that...) must / might / can't the passive present perfect
If... would / I wish...

b) Complete with the right form.

1. If I (have) _____ more time, I would learn another language.
2. It is often (say) _____ that travel opens your mind.
3. My teacher told me that I (make) _____ real progress.
4. Prices have gone up a lot, _____ is why people are worried.
5. He's not answering. He _____ be asleep. (I'm almost sure.)

 EXERCISE 4 – SO DO I / NEITHER DO I

Agree with your partner. Copy the helper verb!

1. "I love cooking." → _____
2. "I don't like crowds." → _____
3. "I've been to Canada." → _____
4. "I can't swim." → _____
5. "I didn't sleep well." → _____
6. "I'm tired." → _____

 EXERCISE 5 – TURN A FACT INTO AN OPINION

Add an opinion phrase and a reason (or an example).

Example: Cars cause pollution. → In my opinion, cars cause too much pollution. The main reason is that most people drive alone.

1. Learning a language is hard. → _____
2. Social media is popular. → _____
3. Many people work from home. → _____

 DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

Ana: If you ask me, working from home is better than working in an office.

Ben: Really? What's the main reason?

Ana: You don't have to travel. For example, my brother used to spend two hours a day on the bus.

Ben: That's a good point. But I see it differently. If I worked at home, I'd feel lonely.

Ana: I see what you mean. You can't have lunch with your team on a screen!

Ben: Exactly. It seems to me that two days at home and three in the office is best.

Ana: I couldn't agree more. 😊

 PROJECT PART A – THE MINI DEBATE

Your group gets a topic card. You get an opinion card: say the card's opinion, not your own. The chair keeps time and invites everyone.

Topic
My opinion card	☐ strongly agree · ☐ agree a little · ☐ disagree a little · ☐ strongly disagree
Opener
Reason 1
Reason 2
Example
If... would...

Round 1: everyone speaks for 1 minute. Round 2: respond to each other (use your talking tokens). Round 3: the chair sums up.

 PROJECT PART B – MY STORY (2–3 MINUTES)

A true story, a changed story, or a story card. Write notes, not full sentences.

① Then	used to · was / were
--------	----------------------	--

② What happened	past simple + who / which
③ What people said	She told me that... · He said...
④ A guess / a fact	must / might / can't · was given / was found
⑤ Now & if	I've... since then · If... I'd... · I wish...

 Listeners: ask one question, and give one opinion: "If you ask me, you did the right thing!"

1

Your friend says, "I think exams are useless." You disagree, but you want to be polite.

A) No, that's completely wrong.

B) I see what you mean, but I think they do measure some skills.

C) Exactly, I couldn't agree more.

Which sentence is a correct second conditional (an imaginary idea)?

A) If we ban cars, the air will be cleaner.

B) If we banned cars, the air would be cleaner.

C) If we will ban cars, the air would be cleaner.

"I don't like crowds." You feel the same. You say:

A) So do I.

B) Neither do I.

C) I don't too.

  I CAN...

 ☐ give my opinion with different openers (not only "I think")

 ☐ support my opinion with a reason and an example

- ◆ ☐ agree, and disagree politely: I see what you mean, but...
- ◆ ☐ take part in a group discussion and let others speak
- ◆ ☐ tell a 2–3 minute story with grammar from Modules 1–4

◆ MY NEW WORDS

◆ MY JOURNAL (5–6 SENTENCES)

"Learning a language changes the way you see the world." Do you agree? Use an opinion phrase, a reason, an If... sentence and a who / which clause.

MODULE 4 — WELL DONE! YOU'RE HALFWAY THROUGH B1 🎉

You can describe how things are made, guess from clues, talk about rules and advice, share and support your opinion, and tell a story with all your B1 grammar. Look at your three "I can..." lists. Is a box empty? Tell your teacher. Next class is a friendly check of Modules 1–4. Practice at home with the online lessons 4.1, 4.2 and 4.3 and the  buttons.

Narrating Past & Future

Rewind to what had happened before. Tell a real story with a scene, a problem and an ending. Then fast-forward: plan, predict, and imagine where you'll be and what the world will be like.

Lessons 5.1-5.3

Classes C14-C16

Level B1

Name: _____

ICONS

 Write ·  Listen ·  Say ·  Work with a partner ·  Read

Your stories and your plans are your choice. You can tell a small, light story from your life, or use a story / future identity card, or invent one. All are good. You can always say "Pass."

MY GOAL AFTER PROGRESS TEST 1

I did well in _____.

I want to practice _____.

I can do it! Every week I will _____.

5.1 The Earlier Past — "It had already left"

Class C14

NEW WORDS — WHAT HAD HAPPENED?

lose your keys

forget your passport

leave your umbrella at home

the battery had died

the store had closed

miss a flight realize / find out

Past participles (the same as the present perfect):

go → gone

lose → lost

forget → forgotten eat → eaten

see → seen

take → taken write → written close → closed

start → started

Signal words: by the time · before · after · because · already · just · never ... before

GRAMMAR BOX — THE PAST PERFECT

✓ Yes	I / You / He / She / We / They had ('d) + past participle	She'd gone home. · They'd left.
✗ No	hadn't + past participle	We hadn't met before.
? Question	Had + you + past participle?	Had you seen the email?
💬 Answer	Yes, I had . / No, I hadn't .	(not "Yes, I'd.")
📍 Where?	had + already / just / never + participle	The bus had already gone.

Two past actions? The earlier one → past perfect. The later one → past simple.

① earlier	② later	③ now
the train had left	I arrived	I'm telling you the story

When I arrived, the train had already left. = The train had already left when I arrived.

⚠ A simple list in order does not need it: I got up, had breakfast and left. ✓

EXERCISE 1 — WHY WAS SAM LATE?

Listen to Sam. Number the events in the order they happened (1–6). Not the order Sam says them!

_____ He waited twenty minutes.

_____ He forgot to charge his phone.

_____ He arrived at the office.

_____ He woke up at 7:30.

_____ He got to the bus stop.

_____ He left his ID card at home.

 Tell a partner: "When he got to the bus stop, the bus _____."

EXERCISE 2 – MAKE THE PAST PERFECT

Example: When I got there, the store had closed. (close)

1. When we got to the theater, the show _____ (already / start).

2. I was tired because I _____ (not / sleep) well.

3. By the time the doctor came, the pain _____ (go).

4. She _____ (never / eat) Thai food before last night.

5. They couldn't pay because they _____ (lose) their wallet.

6. _____ you _____ (meet) him before the party? — No, I _____.

EXERCISE 3 – WHICH CAME FIRST?

Write both verbs. The earlier action → past perfect. The later action → past simple.

1. By the time I _____ (wake up), my kids _____ (make) breakfast.

2. We _____ (not / can) get in because someone _____ (lock) the door.

3. After she _____ (read) the message, she _____ (call) me.

4. The movie _____ (start) when we _____ (find) our seats.

5. He _____ (be) nervous because he _____ (never / drive) in the snow.

EXERCISE 4 – JOIN THE TWO EVENTS

Use the word in brackets. Put the earlier action in the past perfect.

Example: The concert ended. Then we arrived. (by the time) → By the time we arrived, the concert had ended.

1. The store closed. Then I got there. (by the time)

2. I finished my work. Then I went home. (after)

3. She never saw the ocean. Then she visited Florida. (before)

4. He forgot his password. So he couldn't log in. (because)

◆ 📖 EXERCISE 5 – DO WE NEED THE PAST PERFECT?

Circle the better sentence: A or B.

1. A) I got up, had a shower and made coffee. B) I got up, had had a shower and had made coffee.
2. A) When I got to the bank, it closed. B) When I got to the bank, it had closed.
3. A) I was hungry because I didn't eat all day. B) I was hungry because I hadn't eaten all day.
4. A) My grandmother had been born in 1950. B) My grandmother was born in 1950.

◆ 📖 🗣️ DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

A: You look exhausted. What happened last night?

B: Oh, it was a disaster. By the time I got to the airport, my flight had already left.

A: No! Why were you so late?

B: The taxi never came. I'd booked it for six, but the app had canceled it, and nobody told me.

A: So what did you do?

B: Luckily, I'd saved the airline's number, so I called them. They found me a seat on a later flight. I'd never had to do that before. I was so nervous!

A: At least you got there in the end.

B: Just! When I finally landed, the hotel had closed the front desk, so I had to wait outside for an hour.

✏️ Underline every past perfect. 🗣️ Why did B miss the flight? Tell your partner in one sentence.

◆ 🗣️ SPEAKING – WHAT HAD HAPPENED? AND "MY STORY"

 The game. Look at the scene and the picture clues. Ask: "Had she lost her ticket?" — "Yes, she had. / No, she hadn't." Find the reason!

 My story. Plan a short story about a moment when you arrived somewhere and something had already happened. A small real story, a story identity card, or an invented one: your choice.

The moment	When I got to / arrived at ...
What had happened?	... had already ...
Why?	... because ... had ...
By the time	By the time ..., ... had ...
A first time	I had never ... before.
The end	In the end, ...

1

"When I got home, my sister ____ dinner." (The cooking happened before I got home.)

A) cooked

B) had cooked

C) was cooking

Which sentence is correct?

A) The bus had already leave when we arrived.

B) The bus didn't had left when we arrived.

C) The bus had already left when we arrived.

Good listeners say:

No way!

Oh no!

You're kidding!

Then what happened?

What a nightmare!

How did it end?

GRAMMAR BOX — THE STORY CAMERA

Action	past simple	the main events, in order	She opened the door and walked in.
Background	was / were + -ing	the scene · an action in progress	It was raining. People were talking.
Flashback	had + past participle	what had happened earlier	She'd left her umbrella at home.

while	+ was / were -ing (a long action)	While we were eating , the lights went out.
when	+ past simple (a short action)	I was walking home when I saw an old friend.
by the time	+ past perfect	By the time we arrived, it had closed.

Most of a story = past simple. A little background. One or two flashbacks.

EXERCISE 1 — DEV'S WORST DAY

Listen to the story. Answer the questions.

1. What time was Dev's interview? _____
2. What was the weather like in the morning? _____
3. What happened to the bus? _____
4. What had Dev left at home? _____
5. How did he look when he got to the office? _____
6. How did the story end? _____

 Write one verb from the story for each:  background _____ ·  action _____ ·  flashback _____

EXERCISE 2 – BACKGROUND, ACTION OR FLASHBACK?

Write the verb in the past simple, past continuous or past perfect.

1. It _____ (snow) when we _____ (leave) the house.
2. While Tom _____ (cook), his daughter _____ (call) from school.
3. I didn't recognize her because she _____ (cut) her hair.
4. We _____ (sit) in the park when a dog _____ (run off) with our sandwiches.
5. By the time the taxi came, the party _____ (finish).
6. She _____ (open) the box and _____ (find) a letter.

EXERCISE 3 – ADD THE CONNECTORS

Use each one once: first · then · while · suddenly · by the time · in the end

Last summer, the Nguyen family went to the beach. (1) _____, they packed the car. (2) _____ they drove for three hours. (3) _____ they were driving, it started to rain. (4) _____, the car made a strange noise and stopped. (5) _____ the mechanic arrived, the rain had stopped. (6) _____, they got to the beach at sunset, and it was beautiful.

EXERCISE 4 – LABEL THE VERBS

Read Maria's story. Write S (past simple), C (past continuous) or P (past perfect) after each verb in bold.

It was a cold winter evening, and snow was falling ____ outside. Maria sat ____ by the window with a cup of tea. She had had ____ a long, difficult day at work. While she was reading ____ her book, the doorbell suddenly rang _____. She opened ____ the door and found ____ a small package on the step. Someone had left ____ it there. In the end, it turned out ____ to be a gift from an old friend.

EXERCISE 5 – PUT THE STORY IN ORDER, THEN WRITE IT

Number the events 1–5.

_____ we finally found the movie theater

_____ we decided to see a movie

_____ the movie had already started

_____ we were driving around, looking for parking _____ in the end we still enjoyed it

Now write the story. Use all three tenses and 2+ connectors.

 DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

A: You'll never believe what happened to me yesterday.

B: Go on, tell me!

A: So, I was walking to the station, and it was raining really hard. I'd forgotten my umbrella at home, of course.

B: Typical! What did you do?

A: Well, while I was standing under a tree, a car suddenly pulled up next to me. It was my old teacher! I hadn't seen her for years.

B: No way! What a coincidence.

A: Exactly. She offered me a ride, so I got in. We talked the whole way, and in the end she drove me right to my door.

B: That's such a nice story.

 SPEAKING – WORST DAY EVER STORY CHAIN + MY STORY MAP

 In your group, build a story (a fictional one!) one step at a time. Then tell the whole story to a new partner. Your partner reacts: "No way!" "Then what happened?"

 My story map. The group story, a story identity card, or a light real story (a small problem with a happy or funny ending).

①  Scene

It was ... and ... was / were ...-ing.

②  Flashback	I / She had (never / just) ...
③  Problem	Suddenly, ...
④  Next	Then ... / While ... was ...-ing, ...
⑤  Later	By the time ..., ... had ...
⑥  Ending	In the end, ...

◆ SELF-CHECK – CIRCLE A, B OR C

1

"I ___ home when I ___ a loud noise."

A) was walking ... heard

B) walked ... heard

C) was walking ... was hearing

2

"By the time the guests arrived, she ___ the cake."

A) baked

B) was baking

C) had baked

3

We were watching TV. Suddenly, the lights ___ out.

A) were going

B) had gone

C) went

◆ I CAN...

- ◆ ☐ set the scene with the past continuous: It was raining.
- ◆ ☐ tell the main events with the past simple

- ◆ ☐ add a flashback with the past perfect: I'd forgotten my umbrella.
- ◆ ☐ use while, when, suddenly, by the time, in the end
- ◆ ☐ tell a 1–2 minute story and react to a friend's story

◆ MY NEW WORDS

◆ MY JOURNAL (4–6 SENTENCES)

GRAMMAR BOX — WHICH FUTURE?

✚ will	decide now · I think · offer · promise	It's cold. I'll close the window. · I think it'll rain.
🧠 going to	a plan I already have · I can see it	We're going to paint the kitchen. · Look! It's going to rain.
📅 17 -ing	in my diary (time / place)	I'm meeting Sara at six.

Future continuous — in the middle of an action at a future time:

✓	will be + -ing	This time tomorrow, I'll be flying to Chicago.
✗	won't be + -ing	Don't call at noon. I won't be working then.
? polite	Will you be + -ing?	Will you be using the car tonight?

Time clauses — after when, as soon as, before, after, until, by the time: present simple, not will.

✗	I'll call you when I will arrive.
✓	I'll call you when I arrive . · When I get home, I'll cook.

EXERCISE 1 — NORA AND SAM PLAN THE WEEK

Listen. Answer the questions.

1. What is Nora planning for Thursday? _____
2. Why is Sam busy at four o'clock? _____
3. What does Sam offer to do? _____
4. When will Nora text Sam? _____
5. Where will Nora be on Friday morning? _____

 Listen again. Find one example of each:

 arrangement

Example: Will you use the car tonight? → Will you be using the car tonight?

1. Will you come to the meeting on Monday? → _____?
2. Will you stay for dinner? → _____?
3. Will you work late on Friday? → _____?

DIALOGUE — READ WITH A PARTNER

- A: Are you free on Thursday? I'm having a few people over for dinner.
- B: Thursday... I'm meeting a client in the afternoon, but I should be done by six. What time?
- A: Around seven. Don't worry, I'll text you the address as soon as I finish work.
- B: Great. Should I bring anything?
- A: Actually, I'll make a dessert myself. But if you want to bring some juice or wine, that would be lovely.
- B: Done. I'm going to try that new shop on the corner.
- A: Perfect. This time on Thursday, we'll all be sitting around the table, relaxing at last!
- B: I can't wait. I'll call you if I'm running late.

 Find: 2 arrangements · 2 decisions with I'll · 1 plan · 1 will be + -ing · 1 time clause.

SPEAKING — LIFE IN 2040

 Warm-up (choose one): "This time next week, I'll be..." — your real week, a future identity card, or an imagined person in 2040.

 Discussion: In your group, talk about how the world will be in 2040. Choose topics: getting around · work · shopping · homes · schools · food · money · our city...

Mistakes with these small words almost never stop people from understanding you. We are polishing your English, not fixing something broken. In the speaking tasks you can talk about your real life, or use a new identity card, or invent something. All are good. You can always say "Pass."

NEW WORDS — JOBS, SOUNDS AND FIXED PHRASES

Jobs always take a / an:

She's a doctor.

He's a nurse.

I'm a mechanic.

She wants a chef.
to be

He's an engineer.

I'm an office
assistant.

a or an? Listen to the first sound, not the first letter:

an apple

an egg

an umbrella

GRAMMAR BOX — ONE QUESTION

Does my listener already know which one I mean?

YES → the	second mention · only one exists · we can both see it · the best / the first · the + more information	I saw a dog. The dog was huge. · the sun · Close the door. · the best day · the woman who called you
NO + one thing → a /	new · any one · a job	I bought a phone. · Pass me a pen. · She's an engineer.

an
NO + general → —	plural or uncountable, in general	I like cats . · Water is important. · Life is hard.

One noun, three ways: I need a coffee. (any cup) · The coffee here is great. (this coffee) · I don't drink coffee. (in general)

No article	most countries (Japan, Mexico) · languages (Spanish) · meals (lunch) · days (on Monday) · cities and streets (Chicago, Main Street) · sports (soccer)
the	the USA · the UK · the Philippines · the internet · play the guitar

🔹 🗣️ EXERCISE 1 – LISTEN: MY NEW NEIGHBORHOOD

Your teacher reads a short text. Write a, an, the or — (no article).

I moved to (1) _____ new neighborhood last month. It's (2) _____ quiet place near (3) _____ river. There's (4) _____ small park at the end of my street, and (5) _____ park has (6) _____ old wooden bridge. Every morning I see (7) _____ elderly man with (8) _____ dog. (9) _____ man always says hello, and (10) _____ dog always wants to play. I usually walk to (11) _____ work, but when it rains, I go by (12) _____ bus. (13) _____ life here is slower, and I love it.

👥 Compare with a partner. Choose three gaps and say why: "The park, because it's the second time."

🔹 ✎ EXERCISE 2 – A, AN, THE OR — ?

1. She's _____ honest person and works as _____ nurse.
2. I love _____ music, especially _____ songs my grandmother taught me.
3. We usually have _____ dinner at seven and then watch _____ news.
4. I bought _____ phone yesterday, but _____ phone stopped working today.
5. They live in _____ Italy, near _____ sea.
6. The children go to _____ school by _____ bus every morning.
7. My sister plays _____ piano and also plays _____ tennis.
8. I was so tired that I went to _____ bed early.
9. We waited for _____ hour, and then _____ doctor finally called my name.
10. _____ Earth goes around _____ sun.

🔹 📖 ✎ EXERCISE 3 – YOU ARE THE EDITOR

You are an editor for the community center newsletter. A new volunteer wrote this text. Her ideas are great, but her first language has no articles. Find 12 mistakes: 6 missing articles, 3 extra articles and 3 wrong articles. Careful: some articles are already correct!

Editor's code: ^ = add an article · / = delete it · circle = change it (write the new one above)

OUR COMMUNITY GARDEN

Welcome to our community garden! Last spring, group of neighbors decided to turn empty lot on the Maple Street into garden. Today, a garden has more than forty vegetable beds. Most beds belong to families, but there is also bed for the elementary school next door. The children come every Friday with their teacher, who is also volunteer here. We grow the tomatoes, beans, and herbs, and we give the extra vegetables to a food bank. The gardening is good for your health! Water is free, but please bring your own tools. We meet on first Saturday of every month at 10 a.m. New members are always welcome — you don't need to be a expert. Just bring the hat and a smile!

 Compare with another pair. For each change, say the reason: first mention · second mention · a job · general · a street · first / best · the sound.

EXERCISE 4 — ONE MISTAKE IN EACH SENTENCE

Each sentence has one article mistake: missing, extra, or wrong. Write the correct sentence.

1. My brother wants to be doctor. → _____
2. I think the life is beautiful. → _____
3. She plays a guitar in a band. → _____
4. We went to the France on vacation. → _____
5. Can you close a window? It's cold. → _____
6. I don't really like the dogs. (dogs in general) → _____

EXERCISE 5 — ONE NOUN, THREE WAYS

Choose one noun: tea · bread · music · soccer · coffee. Write three sentences: one with a / an, one with the, one with no article. Then write why.

Example: I'd like a tea. (one cup) · The tea here is lovely. (this tea) · I drink tea every day. (in general)

◆ DIALOGUE — READ WITH A PARTNER

Nina: I watched a movie and read a book this weekend.

Omar: Nice! Was the movie any good?

Nina: The movie was slow, honestly, but the book was great. The ending really surprised me.

Omar: See, that's why I always trust a good book over a new movie!

Find the a → the pattern. Why does Nina say a movie and then the movie?

◆ SPEAKING — DESCRIBE & DRAW: A PLACE I KNOW WELL

 Choose a place: a real place, a place card, or the place on a new identity card. Make notes. Then describe it; your partner draws it.

New things (a / an)	More about them (the)
There's a ...	The ... is ...
There's an ...	The ... is next to the ...
There's a ...	The ... is ...
There's a ...	The ... is ...
In general (no article): It sells ... · I love ... there. · People ...

 Your partner asks: "Where's the sofa?" "Is there a window?"

◆ SELF-CHECK — CIRCLE A, B OR C

1

Which sentence is correct?

A) She's teacher at a big school.

B) She's a teacher at a big school.

C) She's the teacher at big school.

A) the music ... the music

B) music ... the music

C) music ... music

3

The bus was late. We waited for ____ hour!

A) a

B) an

C) the

◆ ☒ I CAN...

- ◆ ☐ ask the question: "Does my listener know which one?"
- ◆ ☐ use a / an for new things and jobs, and choose an by the sound
- ◆ ☐ use the for the second mention and for things we both know
- ◆ ☐ use no article when I talk in general: I love music.
- ◆ ☐ find and fix article mistakes in a text
- ◆ ☐ describe a place I know in 8 sentences

◆  MY NEW WORDS

◆  MY JOURNAL (2 SENTENCES)

Does my first language have articles? Which article mistake do I make most?

6.2 Verb Patterns — -ing or to?

Class C18

NEW WORDS — VERBS IN GROUPS

 I enjoy cooking.	 She avoids driving in the city.	 Have you finished reading it?	 He keeps forgetting his keys.
 Do you mind waiting?	 I want to travel more.	 They offered to pay.	 Swimming is good for you.

can't stand + -ing

feel like + -ing

decide to hope to promise to refuse to manage to

can't afford to

GRAMMAR BOX

verb + -ing	enjoy, avoid, finish, suggest, keep, mind, can't stand, feel like, give up, miss, practice	He suggested going out for dinner.
verb + to	want, decide, hope, promise, learn, offer, refuse, manage, agree, plan, need	We decided to stay home.
verb + person + to	tell, ask, advise, want, remind, invite, warn	She told him to wait outside.
preposition + -ing	good at, interested in, tired of, before, after, instead of, look forward to	I'm looking forward to seeing you.
-ing = subject	the action is the "thing"	Learning a language takes time.

The meaning changes!

	+ -ing	+ to stop	the activity ends: I stopped buying coffee. (no more)	pause in order to: I stopped to buy a coffee.
remember	a memory (past ←): I remember locking the door.	a task (future →): Remember to lock the door.

forget	a memory: I'll never forget meeting her.	a task I didn't do: I forgot to call him.
try	a test, an idea: Try turning it off and on.	an effort: I tried to open the jar.

✦ ✎ EXERCISE 1 - -ING OR TO?

Write the verb in () as -ing or to + verb.

5. a) It's a memory. · b) I didn't do it.
6. a) I made a big effort. · b) I tested an idea.
7. a) Make a big effort. · b) Test this idea.
8. a) She has a memory of it. · b) She didn't do the task.

 EXERCISE 5 – MY VERB COLLECTION

Write 5 verbs in each column. Write one true sentence with each verb (real life, a new identity card, or invented). Keep adding verbs to this list!

+ -ing	My sentence	+ to	My sentence

Now stop, remember or try: write both sentences.

+ -ing: _____

+ to: _____

 DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

Lena: Did you remember to bring the tickets?

Marco: Yes! And I clearly remember putting them in my bag last night.

Lena: Good. On the way, can we stop to get a coffee?

Marco: Sure. I've been trying to cut down, but I'll never stop drinking it completely!

Find the four meaning-change verbs. Which ones are a memory? Which one is a pause?

 SPEAKING – FIND SOMEONE WHO, THEN TWO MINUTES ABOUT ME

 Walk and ask: "Do you enjoy cooking for other people?" "Do you remember learning to ride a bike?"

Write names on the Find Someone Who sheet.

 Then plan your two-minute talk (real, a new identity card, or invented):

My habits	I enjoy... · I avoid... · I keep... · I can't stand...
My plans	I want to... · I've decided to... · I hope to... · I'm looking forward to...
My preferences	I'm good at... · I'm interested in... · ... is my favorite thing to do.
A special verb	I stopped... · I remember... · I'll never forget... · I tried...

 Talk for 2 minutes. Your partner counts the verb patterns on the checker card.

🔹 📖 🗣️ DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

Guest: Excuse me. I'm sorry to bother you, but there's a problem with my room.

Clerk: Oh, I'm sorry to hear that. What's wrong?

Guest: Well, it's too cold. The heater is on, but it isn't warm enough. And there are only a few towels. That's not enough for three people.

Clerk: I'm so sorry. I'll send someone up with more towels right away. We also have a few rooms free on the fifth floor. Would you like to move?

Guest: Yes, please. Is it quiet? The street noise was so loud that we couldn't sleep.

Clerk: Yes, it's at the back of the hotel. It's much quieter.

Guest: Thank you. You've been so helpful. What a relief!

Clerk: You're welcome. Enjoy the rest of your stay.

Underline every too, enough, so and a few.

Give an opinion

I think / I believe...

In my opinion, ...

It seems to me that...

As far as I'm concerned, ...

If you ask me, ...

Personally, I feel...

Agree

Exactly. / Absolutely.

I couldn't agree more.

That's a good point.

You're right.

I know what you mean.

So do I. / Neither do I.

Disagree politely

I see your point, but...

I'm not so sure (about that).

I'm afraid I disagree.

Actually, I think...

Yes, but don't you think...?

That may be true, but...

Ask and soften

What do you think?

How do you feel about...?

Do you agree?

maybe / perhaps

I suppose to be honest

a bit / kind of

GRAMMAR BOX

Opener + comma	In my opinion, the buses are too slow. · If you ask me, the country is more relaxing.
Opener + sentence	It seems to me that both sides have a point. · I think (that) it depends on the person.
agree = a verb	I agree with you. · I don't agree. (not "I'm agree")

Polite "no"	1 acknowledge → 2 but → 3 your view: "I see your point, but I think the cost is too high."
-------------	--

They say (+)	You agree	They say (-)	You agree
I love coffee.	So do I.	I don't like rain.	Neither do I.
I'm tired.	So am I.	I'm not hungry.	Neither am I.
I can swim.	So can I.	I can't drive.	Neither can I.
I've been there.	So have I.	I didn't go.	Neither did I.

★ Golden rule: talk about the idea, not the person. "I'm not sure that plan will work." ✓ "You're wrong."

🔹 📞 EXERCISE 1 – LISTEN: PHONES AT SCHOOL

Parents meet at a school to discuss phones. Listen and answer.

1. Who thinks phones should stay in students' bags during class? _____

3. Why is Amir not sure about a total ban? _____
4. What does Amir say at the end? "I suppose it depends on the _____."
5. What do they all agree on? _____
6. Write two softening words you hear: _____

🔹 📖 EXERCISE 2 – AGREE OR DISAGREE?

Write A (agree) or D (disagree).

- _____ 1. "I couldn't agree more."
- _____ 2. "I see your point, but..."
- _____ 3. "Exactly! That's just what I think."
- _____ 4. "I'm afraid I disagree."
- _____ 5. "That's a good point."
- _____ 6. "I'm not so sure about that."

2. "I don't like long commutes." → _____
3. "I can't drive." → _____
4. "I work from home on Fridays." → _____
5. "I've never been to a baseball game." → _____
6. "I didn't sleep well last night." → _____

🔹 ✎ EXERCISE 5 – MAKE IT POLITE

Each reply is too blunt. Rewrite it politely: acknowledge → but → your view.

Example: "No. Buses are too expensive." → I see your point, but I think buses are too expensive.

1. "You're wrong. Working from home is lonely." → I'm not so sure. _____
2. "Bad idea. Children need phones for safety." → That may be true, but _____
3. "No! The city is too noisy." → _____
4. "That's stupid. Online shopping is faster." → _____

🔹 📖 🗣️ DIALOGUE – READ IN THREES

Nadia: So, do you two prefer working from home or going into the office? Personally, I feel much happier at home.

Tom: Really? I'm not so sure. I see your point about the commute, but to be honest, I get a bit lonely at home.

Nadia: That's a good point. But don't you think you concentrate better without all the noise?

Tom: Maybe. It depends on the day, I suppose.

Priya: As far as I'm concerned, the best answer is a mix: a few days at home, a few in the office.

Nadia: Exactly! I couldn't agree more.

Tom: Actually, that does sound sensible. What do you think the boss will say, Priya?

 Underline: 2 opinion phrases · 2 agreeing phrases · 2 polite disagreements · 2 softeners.

SPEAKING – DISCUSSION PLANNER

 Plan before you speak (1–2 minutes). Write notes, not full sentences.

◆ 📖 🗣️ DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER (IN A STORE)

Customer: Excuse me, I'm sorry to bother you, but I'm afraid there's a problem with this jacket. I bought it last week, and the zipper is broken.

Assistant: Oh, I'm sorry about that. Do you have your receipt?

Customer: Yes, here it is. Would it be possible to get a refund?

Assistant: I'm afraid I can only give you store credit.

Customer: I understand, but I'd really prefer a refund. Could I speak to a manager, please?

Manager: Hello, I'm the manager. I can see the jacket is faulty. I do apologize. We'll give you a full refund.

Customer: Thank you. I really appreciate your help.

 Find: the soft opener · the problem · the polite request · the escalation.

 SPEAKING – COMPLAINT PLANNER (FOR THE CAROUSEL)

Use a situation card. Write notes for each station.

	 In person	 Phone	 Email

A) Replace this now. It's broken.

B) I'm afraid this kettle is faulty. Would it be possible to replace it?

C) This kettle doesn't work at all.

2

You work in a store and a customer says their order is wrong. What's the best response?

A) That's not our fault, sorry.

B) Oh dear, that's a shame.

C) I'm terribly sorry about that. I'll sort it out right away.

3

The first person on the phone can't help you. What do you say?

A) You're useless. Get me your boss.

B) I understand, but I'd like to speak to a manager, please.

C) OK, never mind. Goodbye.

My question	Could you tell me...?

 Now write your "Tell me about yourself" answer (3–4 sentences) and your STAR story.

 DIALOGUE — READ WITH A PARTNER

Interviewer: Thanks for coming in, Marco. So, to start, tell me a little about yourself.

Marco: Thank you for having me. Well, I'm currently working as a customer-service assistant, and I've been in that role for about three years. I'm responsible for handling calls and solving customer problems.

Interviewer: What would you say your main strengths are?

Marco: I'm good at staying calm under pressure. For example, in my last job I often dealt with difficult calls, and I always tried to find a solution.

Interviewer: And a weakness?

Marco: Let me think for a moment. I used to take on too much work myself, but I've learned to ask my colleagues for help.

Interviewer: That's good to hear. Do you have any questions for us?

Marco: Yes. Could you tell me what a typical day in this role looks like?

 SPEAKING — MOCK INTERVIEW PANEL

Work in threes. Everyone does each role once.

 Interviewer	Welcome the candidate. Ask 5–6 questions from the cards, including one "Tell me about a time..." card. Say "Thank you. We'll be in touch."
 Candidate	Say "Thank you for having me." Answer from your notes. Tell one STAR story. Ask one question at the end.
 Observer	Tick the checklist. Then tell the candidate one great thing and one tip . Be kind and specific.

MODULE 7 — WELL DONE! 🎉

You can join a discussion and disagree politely, get a problem fixed in person, on the phone and by email, and talk about your experience in a job interview. These are real-life skills. Use them this week! Look at your three "I can..." lists. Is a box empty? Tell your teacher. Practice at home with the online lessons 7.1, 7.2 and 7.3 and the 📢 buttons.

Fluency & the Final Project

Keep a conversation going. Use the everyday verbs that real people use. Then stand up, give a short talk and join a panel discussion. This is where all of B1 comes together!

No helper verb	present → do / does : You live here, don't you? · She works late, doesn't she? past → did : They arrived late, didn't they?
Special	I'm late, aren't I ? · Close the door, will you? · Come in, won't you? · Let's go, shall we?

Two questions every time: 1. Is my sentence positive or negative? → flip it. 2. Which verb do I copy? → the helper verb, or do / does / did.

↘ Voice goes down	I'm sure. I want you to agree.	Lovely day, isn't it? ↘
↗ Voice goes up	I'm not sure. I'm really asking.	You haven't seen my keys, have you? ↗

Answer the fact, not the tag: "You don't drive, do you?" → "No, I don't." (if you don't drive)

EXERCISE 1 — ADD THE QUESTION TAG

Example: It's cold today, isn't it?

1. You're coming to the party, _____ ?

2. She doesn't eat meat, _____ ?

3. They went home early, _____ ?
4. He can drive, _____ ?
5. We haven't met before, _____ ?
6. Let's order a pizza, _____ ?
7. Your brother works at the hospital, _____ ?
8. I'm on time, _____ ?

🔹 🗣️ EXERCISE 2 – LISTEN. IS THE VOICE GOING UP ↗ OR DOWN ↘?

Write ↗ (checking, not sure) or ↘ (sure, expecting agreement).

- _____ 1. It's a beautiful day, isn't it?
- _____ 2. The bank's open on Saturday, isn't it?
- _____ 3. That was a great movie, wasn't it?
- _____ 4. You haven't seen my phone, have you?
- _____ 5. This coffee is delicious, isn't it?
- _____ 6. The meeting starts at ten, doesn't it?

🔹 ✎ EXERCISE 3 – SHOW INTEREST WITH AN ECHO QUESTION

Example: "I passed my driving test!" — "Oh, did you? Congratulations!"

1. "She's living in Canada now." — "_____ ? How exciting!"
2. "They've bought a new house." — "_____ ? That's wonderful!"
3. "He can speak five languages." — "_____ ? Amazing!"
4. "I don't like coffee." — "_____ ? Really? I love it!"
5. "We went camping last weekend." — "_____ ? Where did you go?"
6. "I'm starting a new job on Monday." — "_____ ? Good luck!"

🔹 ✎ EXERCISE 4 – FIX THE TAG

Each tag is wrong. Write the correct sentence.

1. You like pizza, don't it? → _____
2. I'm right, amn't I? → _____
3. She has left, has she? → _____
4. Open the window, do you? → _____
5. Let's dance, will we? → _____

🔹 ✎ 👥 EXERCISE 5 – KEEP IT GOING: REACT → ASK

Write a reaction (an echo question or an interest phrase) and a follow-up question.

Example: "I went to a concert on Saturday." → Did you? Who did you see?

1. "I've started a cooking class." → _____
2. "My daughter won a prize at school." → _____
3. "I can't sleep. My neighbor's dog barks all night." → _____
4. "We're going to the beach this weekend." → _____

 Read your answers to a partner. Your partner answers and asks you a question.

 DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

Priya: You went to the new café on Bridge Street, didn't you?

Tom: I did, yeah. We had breakfast there on Sunday.

Priya: Oh really? What was it like?

Tom: Honestly, it was fantastic. The coffee's amazing.

Priya: Is it? I love a good coffee. It's not too expensive, is it?

Tom: Not really. You'd like it. You'll come with me next time, won't you?

Priya: Of course! Let's go on Saturday, shall we?

Tom: Perfect. See you there!

 Find: 4 question tags · 2 reactions · 1 follow-up question. Read it again: let your voice go down on the tags.

 SPEAKING – THE SMALL-TALK MINGLE

1. Take a small-talk card. Start the conversation with its tag (voice down ↘).
2. Keep it going for 2 minutes: React 😊 → Ask ? → Share 🗣️. Listen with mm-hm, right, really?
3. Bell! Say "Nice talking to you!" Swap cards. Find a new partner.
4. Guess & check: guess one small thing about your partner. Check it with your voice up ↗: "You like spicy food, don't you? ↗"

 My best tag today: _____

 SELF-CHECK – CIRCLE A, B OR C

✦ 🗉 🗣️ DIALOGUE – READ WITH A PARTNER

Nadia: Morning! You look tired. Didn't you sleep well?

Leo: I woke up at five and couldn't get back to sleep. Then I had to set off early for the airport.

Nadia: Oh no. Did you check in OK?

Leo: Eventually. The machine wouldn't turn on, so a staff member had to sort it out.

Nadia: Typical! And who's looking after the dog while you're away?

Leo: My neighbor. I get along really well with her, luckily. I'm looking forward to a real rest, though.

Nadia: You deserve it. If anything comes up, just call and I'll deal with it.

Leo: Thanks. I'll find out the hotel's number and send it to you.

✦ 🗉 🗣️ SPEAKING – TALK CARDS

Take a card. Talk for 1 minute. Use at least two phrasal verbs. Your group reacts (Did you? Oh really?) and asks one follow-up question.
